LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.
Sun rises, 7:11; Length of day, 9h, 56m, 21s; 9 hours, 54 minutes; Moon sets at 7:01 p. m.

Cold, northeast rain on Tuesday.

Fresh pork was scarce in the market yesterday.

Mr. J. L. Rhen began planting radishes on Monday.

The first white shad of the season was landed at the market wharf yesterday.

The corner store of the new buildings on the corner of South Front and Middle streets is nearing completion.

The steamer Florence has been raised from the bottom of Swift creek and will be down to-day.

The Trent River Transportation Co. has made a change in the schedule to Polkville and Trenton. See "Ad."

There is some complaint on the part of the citizens in the lower part of the city about the delay in lighting the street lamps for the past few nights.

A communication from the 5th township recommends to the executive committee Mr. B. F. Borden as a suitable man for magistrate in that township.

Mr. Robt. L. Thornton of the firm of Thornton & Dickerson is preparing to erect a saw mill at Bell's wharf near Dennison's Oil mill. The lumber business is booming in New Berne, notwithstanding the depression in the trade last summer.

The "Khedive of Egypt" has visited the city several times lately, and says notwithstanding the hard times, it is absolutely necessary for a man to fix up his house and keep up appearances. He was looking after furniture, window curtains etc.

Col. Olds, of the Observer, suggests that the streets of Raleigh be declared navigable and the Capital a port of entry. D. R. Walker suggests that the Legislature make an appropriation for cleaning out said streams and that Gen. Robert Ransom be appointed engineer-in-chief.

Fire at Bell's Ferry.

C. Holton's bar room at Bell's Ferry was consumed by fire last Saturday night. Insured for $1,800.

Cotton Market.

No sales on Tuesday. Spots unchanged in New York. Futures advanced ten points, closing steady, sales 98,000 bales. January's closed at 10.08. Liverpool weak.

Your Name in Print.

Maj. B. S. Tucker of Raleigh and Thos. R. Williams of Baltimore were in the city yesterday attending a meeting of the stockholders of the National Bank.

Sheriff Jones of Carteret was in the city yesterday.

Election of officers.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the National Bank held yesterday, Maj. John Hughes, Messrs. Geo. Allen, Washington Bryan, L. H. Cutler and Geo. B. Guion were elected Directors. At the Directors' meeting Maj. John Hughes was elected President; Mr. Geo. Allen, Vice President; J. A. Guion, Cashier; Geo. H. Roberts, Teller; J. R. B. Caraway, Book Keeper.

Dead.

Of pneumonia, in the city of Raleigh, on Tuesday night, Mrs. Mary Meadows, mother of E. H. Meadows Esq. Mrs. Meadows had been visiting friends in Raleigh since the Methodist Conference, and was sick only a few days before her death.

Her remains will arrive in the city this morning and the funeral will take place from the Methodist Church at 3 o'clock.

Evangelical Alliance.

The third meeting will be held to-night at 7:30 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church. The general subject to be considered will be "Prayer for Families: the importance of right training of Youth."

Last night the services were held in the Methodist church. Considering the fearful character of the night the congregation was excellent, certainly the exercises were very spirited. Rev. L. C. Vass spoke of the worldliness in the church and the spirit of scepticism abroad. Rev. Mr. Bull addressed the audience on intemperance, Sabbath-breaking of the day in very earnest terms. Messrs. B. Gace and J. V. Williams made ringing speeches on the subject of intemperance, which it would be good for every body to hear: And Dr. Burkhead, as a warrior of thirty years in the noble temperance crusade, closed with an admirable exhortation in the same line of thought.

These meetings are of great interest. Let everybody try to attend them.

The Elm City.

Messrs. Dail and Detrick, the advanced guard of the Elm City crew, arrived on the Shenandoah yesterday morning and reported that she would leave Norfolk yesterday morning. During the morning Mr. Isaac Patterson received the following telegram:

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 8th, 8:22 p. m.
Steamer Elm City, Gray, Wolfenden, Redmond, Blankall leave on Tuesday morning for New Berne.

T. A. GREEN.

To put the matter beyond all doubt the following was sent to Maj. D. T. Carraway:

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 9th, 11:50 a. m.
Look out! "the coneth" Elm City left at six to-day.

T. J. LATHAM.

New Advertisements.

We present again in the Weekly JOURNAL of this week a number of new advertisements:

Capt. A. C. Davis, of La Grange, places before the public the advantages of his military and classical school. He is a young man and has acquired a fine reputation as a successful teacher and organizer. Some of his pupils publish, monthly, the Davis Cadet, a very excellent High School paper.

Mr. E. L. Miller, of Kinston, gives an "ad." of Furniture as a specialty. The young man, a son of Mrs. A. B. Miller, has inherited a little of his trading genius of the old firm, and recognizes the great advantage of printer's ink.

Mr. L. Harvey, the most successful guano dealer in Eastern Carolina, is again bidding for the patronage of the public. He sells every year, to farmers, we think, as many tons of fertilizers as any two dealers in New Berne, Kinston or Goldsboro; and if an explanation is desired it can be found in part by looking at his advertisement. He not only advertises, but does so understandingly. Read his "ad." and see how attractive and convincing he makes it.

And last the "Old Reliable," EINSTEIN, comes out in a double half-column, displaying the advantages to be gained by calling on him. While the JOURNAL was at Kinston Einstein was its best patron; and it was admitted that his advertising paid him handsomely. He knows exactly what to say in an advertisement. Now, again, he is the largest of our yearly Kinston advertisers, and we wish him a prosperous and successful year's trade.

Kinston Items.

Senator F. B. Loftin, with leave of absence by the Senate, is attending our Inferior court.

William A. Phillips took leave of us last Monday evening, on his return to Horner school.

Miss Annie Phillips and Miss Lillie Gannon left last Monday for Greensboro Female College.

John Gannon, son of our local Methodist minister, Rev. W. C. Gannon, left last Monday for Trinity College.

Edwin Taylor tells it that Zach Rhodes has adopted his plan of finding fat lightwood, and he too wears a scab on his nose.

Elisha Grady has bought of Henry Green, for $1,000, the corner section of the old Caswell lot in Kinston opposite the residence of Alex Nicol, Esq.

Needham J. Moore, son of the late Needham Moore of this county, died of pneumonia on the 8th inst., in his 37th year, at his residence in Lenoir county.

The members of Caswell Monument Association are requested to meet at the store of Oettinger Bros. next Friday evening at 7 o'clock on business of importance.

Oettinger Bros. have had large, beautifully framed photographs of their elegant brick store freely circulated to advertise the place of their heavy business to the public. They take well too.

L. J. Mawborn says he has now got into the only business where pure happiness is found—doing nothing—but he calculates to make it lively for fish, deer and ghosts before the summer closes.

Mr. Alpheus T. Kennedy, who is an equal partner with Nathan Starry in the Cox cotton planter, has moved to Kinston and will devote his time to the sale and superintending the construction of that valuable farm implement.

Dr. W. A. J. Pollock, of No. 7 fame, has found one honest man in the person of Cicero Green, colored, who walked up voluntarily a few days ago and paid an account for No. 7 which has been standing for seven years. Cicero understands now that the name "No. 7" doesn't mean seven years credit but thinks it is worth its weight in gold, cash on the grille.

Col. G. C. Moses reports three bales of cotton, weighing, 470, 495 and 500 pounds, made on one acre of land during the year 1882 on his Jones county plantation. He manured with Kainit and barn yard manure. A tenant on this farm, Mr. John Burgett, the famous walking stick maker, made with one horse thirteen five hundred pound bales of cotton and one hundred and five barrels of corn.

January term of the Inferior court of Lenoir county commenced last Monday, Justice Wooden, Fields and Newborn presiding. There was a large general attendance of the people at court. The charge to the Grand jury was delivered by Justice Wooden, with an appropriate explanation of the nature of an oath and in an exhaustive expounding of the criminal law, statutory and common. Such charges are, however, in the very nature of things, desultory—as the man said of the dictionary, "it goes from one subject to another a good deal." The resident members of this Bar, J. Q. Jackson, J. F. Wooden, M. A. Gray, F. B. Loftin, D. E. Perry, J. R. Uzzell and county Solicitor A. J. Loftin are at the posts of duty and profit. We also both the presence of Hon. L. J. Moore and F. M. Simmons, Esq., of the New Berne Bar. The following cases have been called and disposed of:

State vs. John R. Phillips; A. and B.; defendant pleads guilty; $5 and costs and in custody till paid.

State vs. John Ingraham; disturbing religious congregation; guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. F. B. Loftin; A. and B.; plea of former conviction; plea sustained. Not guilty.

State vs. Lottie Jones; larceny and receiving; pleads guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Augustus Bryan; A. and B.; guilty. Judgment not delivered. Court adjourned to Tuesday morning 10 o'clock.

Snow Hill Items.

But little sickness now.

There is yet a little cotton with us to be housed.

We are having continuous wet weather, which prevents any progress being made toward preparing for the crop of '83.

Farmers generally have sown very little grain in this section, and are renting out their lands instead of cultivating with hired help.

Our merchants claim that their collections this year are poorer than ever before. One or two failed and the sale is going on in Snow Hill.

The steamer Snow Hill is plying on the waters of the Contentnea now. Ransom is again on our Creek with his corps of men, but work has been suspended on account of high water.

The acreage in cotton will not be diminished. Very likely it will be increased. The yield of cotton and corn last year was an average crop. Potatoes were finer than they have been for many years.

Owing to the high price of pork during the past year and the low price of cotton, the cry of "hard times" is heard echoed throughout our land. A great crisis is about to dawn upon the Southern people and the sooner the better. Cotton raised as it should be in this country would be a blessing; as it is it is a shame.

Dr. W. J. Jones will remove to Goldsboro, where his family now live and resume his practice there. We hope he will be heartily welcomed there, and in spite of his many competitors, get a good portion of the practice. We can safely recommend him to our Goldsboro friends and can assure them that he will do his part by them if they will do theirs.

Jones County Items.

We are glad to see Capt. Page, the member of the Legislature from this county taking such an active and prominent stand in the Legislature.

We are glad to know that the Rev. L. L. Johnson, the Methodist minister of this circuit, will soon occupy the parsonage in Trenton recently purchased.

Mr. Syrus Brown, of Tuckahoe township in this county, has gone to Kinston. We of Trenton would like to have had Mr. Brown to come to live here as he is one of the best citizens of the county.

Our excellent and popular Sheriff, S. E. Koonce, settled the State taxes, through the National Bank of New Berne with the State Treasurer several days ago, the second in the State to settle we believe.

Mr. W. J. Rasberry and family have left Trenton and gone to New Berne. We regret very much that Mr. Rasberry and his interesting family have left our midst and we hope he will be pleased with his new home and adopted people.

I have been informed that the steam saw mill erected in Trenton some months ago by Mr. J. H. Banks and which has been idle for some time, will be put in operation in a short time by Messrs. Hughes and Moore, two energetic and enterprising men. And I would suppose it would take the united efforts of two such men to run it successfully.

Polkville Items.

The appearance of a rainbow would be a welcome phenomenon.

Messes Sallie Prow and Henrietta Jarman, of Onslow, are visiting friends and relatives in our village.

Unless the bridge at this place receives the attention of the commissioners before long, it will be in a dangerous condition.

There are balls and rumors of balls—the most enjoyable one of the season came off at the residence of N. P. Smith, Esq., last Friday night, given by the young men of the village complimentary to the lady visitors.

Among the good things set out to the callers on New Year's day, we noticed at the residence of Haywood White a curiosity for this time of the year, in the shape of a watermelon. Although out of season and somewhat suggestive of chills and fever; it was nevertheless very palatable and had a taste peculiar to that species of fruit.

The Spring term of Prof. Rhodes' school began last Monday week with such an increase in attendance as to necessitate the employment of another assistant—Miss Sallie Cox, a lady of considerable experience in teaching. Miss Edwards will be in charge of the music department and judging from some of the names we see on her list of pupils we are afraid she has a laborious task ahead of her.

There are a few changes in business circles: Chas. Whitty has moved the

and having concentrated his stock expects to double his trade. A. G. Barrus has bought the store recently owned by J. C. Whitty and is moving into it, where having more room and a better building he expects to do a rushing business. Mr. Stephen Hurt, of New Berne, will open a drug store shortly, while to cap the climax, J. C. Whitty has pulled stakes and moved his family to New Berne. They will be long missed from our midst. Our friends, Shephard, Hudson, Bell and Watson, remain at their old stands, earnestly indulging the hope that the present year will prove more remunerative than the last, both to themselves and to the country generally.

Stonewall Items.

Wet and muddy does not express the weather for it pours rain without cessation.

The Sheriff informed me that in this county there are 48 stores or places of merchandise that pay the Schedule B tax, so you see there is no lack of a chance to get rid of your change. There is but three licensed bars in the county. Not a single innmate of the county jail.

I went to Oregon in Beaufort county last Friday, and on the way I saw considerable cotton still in the field and any quantity of corn not yet housed. Material improvements were visible from the time I left home and until I reached my destination. At Idalia I found three stores where there was but one when I was there last spring. I also met my friend Frank Cuthrell who was the personification of happiness over what he says is one of the finest and prettiest girl baby any dad ever had the pleasure of possessing. "You know it will be so long at first if I am not mistaken it will get old after awhile. At Oregon I found from appearances things prospering. The Messrs. Springs have one of the best appointed saw mills I ever had the fortune to see and from the amount of lumber they seem to know how to make it pay. I was the guest of Mr. E. Tuthill and his pleasant wife except my friend, Frank Cuthrell it has been many days since I have seen a happier man and well he may be his cause is a just one and at his house I met Capt. Sam Davies of Port Jefferson, Long Island, a genial and clever gentleman and if one can judge by conversation and photographs the day is not so far in the future when he will be the happy possessor of 185 lbs of as fine looking helpmeet as any man possesses in this land of mud and rain.
