NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. A. W. WOOD—City ordinance.

Journal Minute Almanac. Sun rises, 7:09 | Length of day, 11:10.

Quarantine. Muddy streets again. Have you been vaccinated?

No Mayor's Court for several days. The Elm City will leave for South Creek this morning at five o'clock.

Fifteen hundred bushels of rice sold yesterday, the highest bringing $1.08 including sacks.

W. T. Blackwell has sold his interest in the celebrated Durham tobacco to his partner, J. S. Carr, for $250,000.

A branch panel of the "Jewels" have organized at Marshal's store near Foster's wharf.

Mr. Bat. Weathersby, near Streets' Ferry, has several acres planted in cabbage, and our traveling agent, C. C. Taylor, says they are the finest seen in his travels.

The "Chimney corner" lawyer of Dover was in the city yesterday and on hearing that the law library of the late A. G. Hubbard was being sold at auction took a trot for the place of sale.

The auction sale of Bananas and Oranges advertised for yesterday at the Midland depot by Watson & Street, was postponed on account of the weather, and is to commence to-day at 11 o'clock.

The Elm City arrived from Bayboro on Monday night with a good cargo of rice and cotton and several passengers.

Her first trip more than paid expenses which gives her a good send off. She made the trip from Adam's creek—a distance of thirty miles—to New Berne in two and three-quarter hours.

Small Pox in Trenton. The latest news received from Trenton was by mail carrier yesterday evening. No new cases were reported, and those already down are better, and are kept confined to one house.

U. S. Senator. Senator Ransom was re-elected United States Senator on Tuesday for the ensuing six years, receiving 108 votes against 46 votes given by the Republicans to Col. Wm. Johnston of Charlotte.

New Monument. Mr. J. K. Willis has just completed another one of those beautiful Butland mottled blue monuments for Cedar Grove Cemetery. It is of cottage style, and is erected to the memory of Mary I. and Otto Eubanks by Mrs. Lucinda Stanly.

Merchant Farmers. Mr. A. J. Murrill informs us that as he passed Maysville on Tuesday for New Berne Messrs. Bynum & Jenkins, merchants at that place and large farmers, were slaughtering a fine lot of pork—fifty head which averaged two hundred pounds each, net. A cheap lot of pork if Mr. Bynum bought corn at twenty-five cents per barrel as he predicted last fall.

Sale of Books. The sale of books at the Hubbard auction yesterday was a very fair one. The North Carolina Reports—full set—brought $490, bought by D. E. Perry, Esq. of Kinston. Among the smaller sales, Deputy Sheriff, J. L. Hahn, indulged in his love for the Muses by buying in poems; and A. H. Holton Esq. paved the way for future usefulness by investing in Battle's Revisal. The sale will be continued to-day at 11 o'clock.

Proceedings of City Council. A special meeting of the Board was held yesterday evening, Mayor Howard presiding. All the members present.

The Mayor stated that the meeting was called to take some action in regard to small-pox which is now raging in the city of Baltimore and other places with which we have daily communication.

On motion, the Clerk of this Board is instructed to correspond with the authorities of the town of Trenton and request them to keep the house that has the small-pox in it strictly guarded to prevent the spreading of the same, stating that unless precautionary measures are taken they will have to establish a quarantine against said town.

On motion, the quarantine laws adopted last winter were re-enacted.

On motion, the Sanitary committee, with the Mayor added, was instructed to confer with railroad authorities in order to make arrangements by which the conductors may act as detectives.

Slighted. "You slighted the Sixth Grade," said a young gentleman, on yesterday, on reading over our trip to the Graded School. He seemed terribly interested in that particular Grade, and evidently forgot that it was impossible for a reporter to go entirely through so large a school on one day. It is odd, though, that it didn't occur to our young friend that the Fifth and Seventh and Eighth and Ninth Grades had been slighted too.

Cotton Market. New York futures advanced a few points on Tuesday closing quick and steady. Liverpool spots declined one sixteenth. Sixty five bales were sold at the Exchange the highest bringing 9.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT. Middling 10 3/4. Strict low middling 10. Low middling 9 3/4.

NEW YORK FUTURES: Morning, Noon, Evening. January, 9.99 10.05 10.06. February, 10.06 10.10 10.11.

LIVERPOOL FUTURES. January, 5 39-64. February, 5 39-64.

Small Pox Personalities. No Jones County Items this week. The JOURNAL Itemizer was seen early Monday morning on the freight train making his way for Sampson.

Charles H. Foy, Esq., is reported to have been vaccinated twice since Sunday. But under the circumstances, he is not to be blamed for taking extra precautions this week. He goes to Kinston this morning on a special train accompanied by Rev. L. C. Vass.

Messrs. Macon Foscoe and J. B. Banks came in on Tuesday night from near Trenton. They are from the country, but one of them is reported to have been hugged by Elbridge McDaniel on Saturday last.

John D. Howard, Esq., of New Berne was terribly distressed on Monday morning when the Trenton Small-pox news reached the city. He finally compromised the matter by going to Richlands via Kinston. Misses Leah Holland and Mamie Hodges were thus disappointed of a trip, and the bride will do without two of her bridesmaids.

Your Name in Print. Mr. A. J. Murrill, of Onslow, was at the Cotton Exchange on Tuesday. He complains of not receiving the JOURNAL last week, and wants us to throw some hot shot at the "star routers" who carry the mail between here and Jacksonville.

We never fail to put the mail in the office here in time and we would take pleasure in complying with Mr. Murrill's request if we knew at whom to direct the shot.

Mr. J. M. Wooten, an excellent farmer from near Kinston, was in the city on Tuesday. He reports a heavy sleet at Kinston on Tuesday morning.

M. D. W. Stevenson, Esq., left for Wilmington yesterday evening on professional business.

Mr. Walter Harding, of Kinston, has accepted a situation as engineer on the Midland railroad.

J. C. Wooten, Esq., of Lenoir, is in the city.

Young Robert Primrose left for Bingham school yesterday evening.

Mr. G. W. Cox, of Coville Pitt county was in the city on Tuesday. He is a cousin of the celebrated inventor of the Cox Planter, advertised in the Weekly JOURNAL for sale by Stanly & Kennedy of Kinston.

Messrs. T. A. Green, L. H. Cutler and Dr. W. T. Kennedy left on the train yesterday evening to attend a meeting of the District Stewards of the M. E. Church South at Goldsboro.

Mr. Geo. Allen and Prof. Johnson left on the train yesterday evening for Goldsboro to attend the lecture of Dr. Curry. Hope they may induce him to visit New Berne.

Mr. G. W. Cox, of Pitt, says he made on four and one half acres, last year, five and one half bales of cotton without manure. He is not done picking last year's crop yet.

Neuse River Bridge vs. Trent. I have seen several articles in the JOURNAL and Nut Shell speaking of a bridge across Trent river but very little is said about the Neuse river bridge.

Suppose we look at this matter in a business way and see which is the most entitled to the bridge. We will commence at New Berne and take Trent first. Three miles up the river there is a free bridge in this county; at Pollockville, ten or twelve miles further up the river, there is a free bridge; at Trenton another bridge; and six miles above Trenton there is another bridge. In twenty-five or thirty miles by land there are four free bridges across Trent river. And now let us take the Neuse. There is not a bridge nor any free way of crossing

Neuse from New Berne to Kinston; and let us look at it another way. There are more people and more of the county on the North side of Neuse than there is on the South side of Trent, and a bridge across Neuse would enhance the value of real estate 50 per cent or more, and that would help build the bridge while the one across Trent would not increase the value of property at all. The people on the North side of Neuse need a bridge across the river, and one could be built at or near Pettifer's ferry for 15 or 20 thousand dollars, and I think the county ought to go to work and build it and if it was left to a vote of the people or even to the magistrates the bridge would be built, but the people or the magistrates can't get a chance to vote upon it. There was a petition carried before the commissioners last Oct. asking for an election to come off in the Nov. election, signed by some of the best men in the county, but it was refused and then it was left to the magistrates at their Jan. meeting but these were not notified to meet, so you see somebody is to blame.

Now, Mr. Editor, the commissioners and magistrates don't intend to give us fair play. I know one or two that will petition for a new county on the North side of Neuse. Now, Mr. Editor, don't think I am opposed to Trent bridge, for I am not, and I think that Trent ought to have her bridge, but if there is to be but one bridge Neuse is entitled to it.

A TAX PAYER.

Kinston Items. Cotton, bale, 8 to 9 cts. per lb. in seed, 2 cts.

Meal, 60 cts. per bushel. Corn, 50 cts. per bushel. Peas, 60 cts. per bushel. Peanuts, $1.25 per bushel. Turnips, 50 cts. per bushel. Potatoes, 40 to 50 cts. per bushel. Hydes, dry, 8 to 10 cts. per lb. Fresh pork, 8 1/2 cts. per lb. Turkeys, $1.25 per pair. Chickens, 40 per pair. Eggs, 15 cts. per dozen.

Representative Stokes, of Pitt county, on leave of absence by the House, passed through Kinston last Sunday homeward bound.

A goodly number of Kinston ladies and belles visited Goldsboro last Monday evening to attend the theatricals at the Goldsboro Opera House.

It is said that small-pox, in violent form, is raging at Trenton and that several citizens of that place are dangerously ill with it—among them, is Mrs. E. G. McDaniel.

The steamer Kinston, on her down trip last Monday, struck the county bridge, tearing away a portion of her cabin and smashing up a buggy and coming out of the encounter, generally, as the little bull did in his tilt at the steam engine.

Sheriff Davis, with deputy Lowry, carried to the penitentiary last Monday Cicero Collins, where he is to remain for life, his death sentence having been commuted. They also, at the same time, took up Nathan Herring for 12 months, Moses Anderson for 18 months and Lewis H. Smith for 2 years—all colored and all convicted of larceny last week before our Inferior court.

The tax returns under schedule B, of Lenoir county merchants, for the six months ending December 31st, 1882, amount to a fraction of $900,000. Below are some of the returns of Kinston merchants:

J. W. Granger $30,000, C. Gray $4,500, L. H. Fisher $3,000, R. Einstein $6,200, Mrs. R. Edwards $6,150, S. H. Abbott $7,897, C. W. Burt $8,000, Chas. F. Dunn $5,125, Geo. E. Kornegay $8,323, Jas. B. Kinsey $3,100, S. H. Loftin $5,145, W. A. LaRoque $4,112, L. J. Moore $4,100, W. C. Moore $8,783, Miller & Cannady $7,686, Mrs. A. B. Miller $11,250, Meacham & Edwards $4,517, Oettinger Bros. $17,710, J. A. Priddy $6,200, W. F. Stanly $5,800, John Slaughter, jr., & Bro. $4,892.

The largest returns from La Grange are H. S. Dillon $6,000, J. P. Joyner & Co. $3,204, R. B. Kinsey $3,483, Sim Wooten $4,500, J. S. Wooten & Bro. $6,422, J. D. Walters & Co. $3,250, Anthony Davis of Pink Hill $2,400, From Institute J. M. Hines, jr., $3,000, A. W. Kennedy $3,675, G. B. McCotter & Bro., Bell's Ferry, $4,214.

La Grange Items. Considerable crowd in town Saturday. Business revived a little.

H. H. Thomas, watchmaker and jeweler, has located in town. Office at the store of J. D. Walters.

Rev. Mr. Nelson preached at the Baptist church Sunday. Rev. John Paris officiated at the Methodist church.

The no-fence law question is assuming threatening proportions. Some of the opponents propose to war it out if the law is passed. No man, he had land owner or otherwise, wants to fence for another; then why so much opposition to a law requiring a man to fence for himself only?

I learn from farmers in town Saturday, that very little has been done in preparing for the next crop. The bad weather has had much to do with farming operations, while the low prices of cotton has almost paralyzed every branch of business. Cotton at 8 cents to pay for meat, already eaten, at from 15 to 18 cents, is ruinous. But the merchants are not to be blamed.

A small specimen of humanity, engaged in a small business, was on the streets Saturday. His first effort was to obtain a customer who would throw five rings at a board stuck full of knives, for ten cents, with the promise to pay ten cents every time a ring was thrown over a knife. Next to dispose of a lot of worthless merchandise at very low (?) prices. Humbugs will find customers, let them go where they may.

Swansboro Items.

I could not send any news last week, had too much red eye aboard. Capt. Ed. Hill, Capt. John Bloodgood and Mr. Kilby Willis from New River, have moved to Swansboro.

Mr. James O. Frazzell has sold his place, Piney Green, to Lewis Cox, the machine agent. James owns the Simmons place on New River and will move there, I reckon.

A large party at Col. E. W. Fonville's on the night of Old Christmas; about 150 ladies and gentlemen from different parts of the county, and some from Carteret county. Although the weather was bad we had a very nice party; danced all night; had 13 performers on the violin.

Mr. C. B. Frazzell and W. E. Matlocks commenced their schools on the 1st of January, and Mr. G. W. Ward and Miss Eliza Hyman commenced theirs on the 8th inst. Mr. F. at Swansboro, Mr. M. at Queens Creek, Mr. W. at Cow Head and Miss Hyman at Piney Green. All have full schools.

Not many fish in Swansboro now, but plenty of them in New River. Dr. Montforts, a son of the Dr.'s Willie, and Mr. John Hamilton, caught this week about 4,000 trout and mullets. Mr. Martin Brooks makes from $12 to $25 per week hauling them off; he gives from 2 to 6 cts. each, selling them for from 5 to 15 cts. each.

Very bad weather; good time for burglars. The other night one of them broke into Marine's store and took out what he wanted and left. Marine says he only missed about ten dollars worth. One of these stopped Mr. Woods near Swansboro, but Mr. Woods politely told the gentleman "Me hash no monis mid me," and by running his horse very fast Mr. Woods got away.

Two brilliant marriages here about the same time; four more hearts made glad and four more souls made happy. At the residence of the bride's parents by Maj. Lewis O. Fonville, Esq., Mr. Dan'l B. McCabe and Miss Gussie W., the accomplished daughter of Mr. J. W. Arthur, formerly of Craven county, all of Onslow now. There were 14 waiters, forgot the names. Next comes Mr. Lillian Willis and Miss Sadie Yeomans by J. A. Freshwater, Esq., No cards. "Oh! happy spot I nev'r shall see the more."—Craven.

Sorry to have to report some deaths. Mrs. Mary Coston, relic of James Coston who was a good Confederate soldier and died during the war. She was a christian lady in every respect—aged 58 years; cause, heart disease. Mr. Lott Eubanks, aged 86 years, of pneumonia. Mr. John Yates, the oldest man in the county, aged 105 years; general debility; Mr. Yates was a good man and raised more honey than any ten men in the county; he has for the last 45 years had on hand from 150 to 350 stock of bees all the time. Mrs. Lizzie, the beloved wife of Mr. Joseph Wells, aged 26 years, of pneumonia. Johnny, son of Osborne Littleton, aged 6 years.

Mineral Wealth of Alaska. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Wm. G. Morris, collector of customs at Sitka, Alaska, has just arrived here from the north. He says he is confident that the very rich mineral deposits of Alaska cannot fail to attract great attention in the near future. The lodes found at the base of the mountains, which can be traced up their sides, are being worked by surface diggers to great advantage. Last season a small force of men made over $250,000. Considerable Pacific coast capital is finding its way into Alaska, and has already brought into prominence lines of mines as large as the whole Comstock lode. Mr. Morris believes that the mines would show the largest body of ore in sight in the world, and says that Eastern capitalists have already sent machinery for the purpose of developing the great mineral regions of Alaska.

Green Fields and Blooming Flowers. VICTORIA, B.C., Jan. 14.—The beautiful weather continues. The fields are green, the trees budding, and the flowers blooming. Five ships, with cargoes of British Columbia salmon, valued at $1,000,000, are on their way to England. The Baptists have withdrawn from the province, and have sold their church in this city.
