No rice sales yesterday.

We have heard of no new cases of small-pox in Trenton.

The continued rainy weather is putting the farmers back considerably. Capt. Roberts is having some new piling driven at the Old Dominion wharf. The steamer Neuse arrived yesterday evening from up Neuse with ninety-six bales of cotton.

Steamer Contentuea arrived from Jolly Old Field yesterday with 15 bales of cotton, 60 bashels of rice, 150 bushels of cotton seed and 7 passengers.

Mr. Chas. H. Foy wants to see the man who carried off his wedding hat from the reception on Wednesday. He was frightened out of his hat but preserves his wits.

Hackburn Bros. have requived from the North British and Mercantile Fire Co. a draft for $500, the amount of insurance carried by that company on their building.

The prospects of a regular steamboat line to Adam's Creek, Smith's Creek, Broad Creek and other points on the Elm City's route to South Creek, has induced some of the farmers in those sections to prepare for trucking.

Quarantine.

Arrangements have been made with the Port Physician to allow the Old Dominion steamers, plying between here and Elizabeth City, to come to the wharf before having their crew examined.

Insurance Adjusted.

The loss sustained by Hackburn Bros. in the late fire has been adjusted, and they opened business at the Fife store near their old stand. They have purchased the lot adjoining them where Mr. Tucker's bar room was situated before the fire, and have closed a contract with Mr. J. A. Simpson for the erection of a new store 23x65, two stories. They expect to be in the new store by the first of March and will go about business with the same vim and push that have always characterized them.

Mr. I. M. Sawyer's infant son died on last Saturday, only a day or so old.

Mr. Redding Lupton is and has been for some time quite sick. He is at Mr. Nathan Hooker's, his father-in-law.

Dr. Jno. P. Redding had a runaway smash-up of his buggy the day the long looked for steamer Elm City arrived at our wharf. Nobody hurt.

Invitations are out for a wedding to take place this (Wednesday) evening, at 6 o'clock. Mr. W. W. Ferrebee and Miss Mary Cherry are the parties.

Mr. David Hathaway, of Hyde, while on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Benj. Hopkins, near this place, died one day the latter part of last week, of pneumonia.

Mr. Chas. Swan and Mr. Alex. Woodard, the two gentlemen who had their hands badly lacerated in cotton gins, are getting on well, and ere a great while will be ready for duty again.

Capt. Gibbs, of the Elm City, gave our citizens a chance to witness the speed and utility of his craft in the way of an excursion the next day after arrival, and right well did they respond to his generosity, for the craft was well filled with old and young, who seemed to be well pleased with their trip, and more than so with the Elm City; and the wishes of the entire community is for her pecuniary success.

Dr. W. T. Kennedy left for Goldsboro on Tuesday to attend to church matters. He has been adding some fine stock to supply his demands for his practice in the way of a beautiful pair of mahogany bays, as near a match in size and color as is commonly seen Has also purchased of Messrs. Hardy & Carrow, of Washington, N. C., a Jones county to celebrate marriage beautiful sorrel horse. Ed. Wilder has ceremonies between Charles H.
