No new cases of small-pox in Trenton.
Pork has advanced fifty cents per barrel during the week.

A. L. Simmons, Jr., of Jones county, has moved to the city.

The steamer Elin City left for Bayboro yesterday morning with freight and passengers.

Two marriage licenses have been issued during the week by the Register of Deeds. Both to colored couples.

Mr. J. A. Meadows filled an order for Clay pens for Dail Bros. to be shipped to San Francisco, Cal., a few days ago.

One of our townsmen suggests that a petition be carried around for a street sprinkler. Mighty dry and dusty under foot.

Mr. H. W. Wahab moved to his old stand on the corner of South Front and Middle streets yesterday in the new store just completed by E. M. Pavie.

The engine of the New Berne Fire company goes into Messrs. Manwell & Crabtree's shop to-morrow for repairs. The Atlantic must keep a sharp lookout.

Mr. Samuel Howard says we will have a good day to-day. Per contra, our clerk of the Superior Court says it won't fair off until next Tuesday when the moon falls.

Mr. Isaac Brock of Cypress Creek, Jones county, came in on Friday night, flanking Trenton, with a lot of fine turkeys, some of them bringing fifteen cents per pound.

A customer walked into Mr. Chas. H. Blank's wholesale and retail grocery store yesterday and after carefully examining eight different grades of sugar, enquiring name of brand and price, concluded to purchase a half pound.

Help the Poor.
Don't forget to attend the annual meeting of the Benevolent Society at the Methodist Church to-night, and be sure to carry your proportion of one hundred dollars to aid the ladies in supplying the needs of the poor.

Debt.
We think, here in New Berne, that our taxation is very grievous, and so it is; but we can return thanks that we are not in the condition of Raleigh where it is proposed to contract a debt of one hundred to one hundred and fifty thousand dollars to pave the streets.

We are sand fiddlers and not mud doblers in this section.

Your Name in Print.
Clement Manly Esq. has returned from Baltimore

F. M. Simmons Esq. and Philemon Holland Jr. left yesterday morning for Richlands to attend the funeral of Hon. John W. Shackelford.

Mr. Robert Hancock, Jr., arrived yesterday morning from Washington City. He states that all the Congressional delegation appointed to escort the remains of Hon. John W. Shackelford to Richlands came down except Mr. McKenzie, of Kentucky.

Schedule of the Elin City.
We publish in this issue the schedule of the Elin City. It is admirably arranged for the convenience of the people living on Bay River and South Creek. They can leave home in the morning, get to New Berne that evening and sell their produce and return on the next day. The Neuse River Company has had a schedule something like this, all the time, and it has given great satisfaction.

It should be noted that this schedule is a little different for every other week. Keep the JOURNAL at hand and consult it occasionally.

Keeping the Minutes.
Doise Davis, an employee of Mr. H. W. Wahab, purchased a watch a few days ago, and on yesterday Doise appeared at the store without his time piece.

"Where is your watch, Doise?" asked Mr. Spencer.
"Broke," replied Doise.
"How did you break it?"

"I 'tanded the meetin' up town the other night and I lent it to the lady to keep the minutes of the meeting and she broke it."
The minutes of the meeting were not approved by Doise.

Habeas Corpus.
About three weeks ago Abram Bryant and Wm. Fisher were committed to jail by Justice Brinson, in default of $1,000 bail, for assisting the prisoners in Craven Street jail in breaking out.

The prisoners, through their counsel, Mr. William Whitford, have procured the aid of a "habeas corpus" from Judge McKoy and went up to Goldsboro last night for another hearing. Sheriff Hahn and Deputy J. L. Hahn carried the prisoners up, accompanied by all the witnesses, with Justice Brinson and the prosecuting attorney, M. D. W. Stevenson Esq.

Mr. Whitford carries up two new witnesses and feels confident of getting his clients acquitted, or the bond made smaller; and on the other hand Mr. Stevenson thinks there is no doubt in having Justice Brinson's decision sustained. It would not do for all lawyers to think alike.

Rents.
"I am opposed to a Graded School," said a gentleman yesterday. "It has already made my rent higher."

That is certainly correct; but rents are cheaper still in the country!
Buoyant real estate is an unerring indication of business prosperity; and he who pays cheap rent may surely expect cheap, second class business.

A three story brick building, adjoining the JOURNAL office, was bought a few years ago for $600. It must have cost $3,000. Is it possible for any one to think such a condition of affairs is desirable for a city?

The JOURNAL office is rented for $100 per annum. We will rejoice to see the day when we are forced to pay twice that amount; for that time will not come until there is a strong business boom in New Berne, and then we will be able to charge good advertising rates, on account of sharp competition, and our list of subscribers will be increased by the increased number of inhabitants in the city.

Free Passes.
I am sorry to say that 19 out of every 20 members of the Legislature and its employees are traveling on free passes. James A. Cheek, Member from Orange.

The State of North Carolina has no one to blame except her own parsimonious policy if Judges, Governors and Legislators ride on railroads free of charge. To pretend that $4.00 per day is sufficient remuneration for a man that is supposed to be qualified to make laws for a million and a half of people is a silly conclusion. The money will scarcely pay necessary expenses, especially if much railroad fare is to be paid.

And while it is not right to accept such favors from the railroads—for in so doing there is an obligation and an implied promise on the part of the Legislature to give value received by favorable legislation—yet the practice has become so common that the members of the General Assembly accept the favor as a matter of course and with no idea of allowing their opinions to be biased by so doing.

The State ought to pay her public servants a sufficient salary to raise them above the necessity of accepting favors from any railroad corporation. Then, perhaps, there would be no resolution to give away one railroad, or to allow another one to fail to pay its interest on $550,000 due the State.

Arrested for Larceny.
After the burning of Hackburn Bros. store a few weeks ago, and while their goods were still piled on the side of the street, some one stole and carried away a tierce of lard. The Messrs. Hackburn kept the matter very quiet, but at the same time kept a sharp lookout for the thief, knowing there were some suspicious characters in that part of the town. The first break made to ferret out the matter was on Friday when a search warrant was obtained to search the premises of "Big" Mitchell, a small dealer in that part of the town. The result of this search was the binding of Mitchell in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars for his appearance at the next term of the Superior court. On Friday night a strict watch was kept on others who were suspected, resulting in the arrest of Quash W. Slade and John H. Brice, colored. Slade represented the 5th ward in the City Council at one time, and was chairman we believe of the executive committee of one of the "fractions" in the late campaign. They were taken before E. G. Hill, Esq., yesterday morning, L. J. Moore, Esq., appearing for the prosecution, W. W. Clark and Geo. H. White for the defendants. Upon an intimation from the defendants that they didn't think they could get justice before Esq. Hill, he referred the case to James Campbell, Esq., to be heard next Monday at 2 o'clock, p. m., at which time the Hon. Quash Slade will be required to "Gird up now thy loins like a man, for I will demand of thee and answer thou me. S. B. Hunter to Quash Slade."

The defendants were required to give bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, justified, for their appearance before Justice Campbell on Monday. This may appear to be a pretty steep bond for a case of larceny, but under the circumstances we think the Justice should be commended for demanding a good bond. Stores are often set on fire for the purpose of getting an opportunity to steal goods.

The Grocery Trade.
A JOURNAL reporter called on Capt. Thos. Gates yesterday and enquired after the grocery trade.

"How has it been this week, Captain?"

"Oh, dull, dull."
"Well how for the season?"

"Bad, bad,—mighty bad. Trade has been bad ever since November, or since cotton went down. There wasn't a very good crop made and when it got down so low the farmers had no money to buy with."

"You say it has been very dull this week, have your sales reached a hundred dollars?"

"Oh yes; they have reached about a thousand."
"Where does the trade come from such weather as this? I think a thousand dollars in one week indicates a pretty good trade."

"Well, some of it up the river, some down and some from Carteret. But that is not much. I am looking after what is owing to me now more than selling goods."
"How are they paying up?"

"Well, not very good. I reckon I have collected about sixty per cent. of what I had out."
"I think that pretty good. Don't you think there is a good deal of cotton in the country yet, and that in the end the collections will be about as good as usual?"

"Yes, there is some cotton in the country yet; there was a man down here a few days ago who owes me an account. He said he had one hundred and one bales of cotton in his yard but the roads were so bad he couldn't haul it; but as a general thing those that owe me have got no cotton. I am fixing up a mortgage now to carry a man over for another year."

"Bad fix for farmers to be in, to have to be carried over from one year to another by mortgage."

"Oh yes, but they will always have it to do until they get to making something to eat. Meat and flour are both advancing now, and people are bound to eat."

Kinston Items.
One hundred and forty-four pupils are attending the Graded School in Kinston and the cry is, "still they come."

Chauncey Gray has been "under the weather" several weeks, but like a prudent man, he keeps himself at home out of the vile weather we have had this month.

Judge Fields of our Inferior Court, since the adjournment of last term, has been quite seriously afflicted with throat affection. He is, however, better at this time.

The Coroner's inquest, held the 18th inst over the body of Allen Williams, killed at Falling Creek on the 16th inst. by Heber Kennedy, does not inculpate John Kennedy in the killing.

A public meeting was held at the court house last Friday, Mayor Stanly presiding, which appointed a committee of citizens to receive the remains of Hon. J. W. Shackelford at Kinston depot and to escort them through Kinston. Prof. C. L. Dowell, better inducements having been offered, has left the Graded School in Kinston to take a position in the Centennial Graded School at Raleigh. His place will be supplied with a competent teacher.

It is said several citizens of Trenton have moved into Kinston since the appearance of the small-pox at Trenton, and now, J. R. Phillips suggests that all such be sent back there—that John Simpkins be kept at Trenton and that all Kinston be vaccinated with bee-wax.

Henry Hodges, a colored Kinston merchant, failed last week. Liabilities, $75; assets, a few goods and one tin can, which threatens to become a bone of contention between another Kinston merchant and a New Berne merchant, creditor. Tony Brown charges the failure to Hodges' store house having an up stairs to it.

This is the prayer of a three year old Kinston boy—a self-made fellow, who, perhaps, years hence, will be very proud of his job: "Oh-h Lord, 'member my brother Willie. And Oh, Lord, 'member my aunt Jennie. A-n-d o-l-e Mother Hubbard, she went to the cupboard to get a poor dog a bone, for Christ's sake, amen."

The report of small pox ravages in Trenton are stimulating and alarming—several are reported to have died and others to be down with it. Our Kinston authorities have failed, so far, to quarantine this place, trusting doubtless to the fatalism of "what is to be will be," which, to say the least, is the most humane and non-selfish view of man's afflictions.

Beaufort Items.
(Telephone.)

Quite a number of the Morehead fishermen are making arrangements to fish for shad and herring in Neuse river this spring. They will leave for their field of operations in a week or two.

Sheriff J. F. Jones and Rev. N. M. Jurney were at Raleigh this week and witnessed the modus operandi by which Senator M. W. Ransom was re-elected to the Senate of the United States.

The first whale of the season was seen off the bar a few days since by some of our pilots. He was only about 25 or 30 feet long. This is pretty early for them to make their appearance, and we hope it portends a season of good luck to the whale fishermen.

Messrs. D. W. Morton and Rev. N. M. Jurney recently killed seven hogs that weighed in the aggregate 1368 lbs. One of them was only 14 months old and weighed 320 pounds. The others were aged only 9 months and twenty days. They were none of the so-called improved stock.

Mr. T. C. Davi informs us that from 60,000 to 100,000 tons of guano would be shipped to Morehead City each season if the railroad company had the storage room for the same. We think the building of sheds and warehouses along the track would be a profitable investment for the company if this be the case, for the profits on freights received would be large interest on the outlay required.
