Vennor has proved himself a prophet, so far as his prediction for January.

Some of the largest and nicest oysters of the season are now at the Market dock.

Yesterday was a lovely, sunny daya rare occurrence in this ill-fated mouth.

Capt. Isaac Taylor, of Club Foot Creek, brought up some of the finest and best sweet potatoes yesterday that have been on the market this winter.

Localizers have worn the subject of muddy streets quite threadbare, but the condition of Bell's alley, especially Capt. Peter Jones' wood wharf, beggare all description.

While we are having the mumps far and wide and everywhere, our citizens in the lower part of the county are troubled with colds and severe pains in the head-almost an epidemic.

we ever saw was packed in a box at Kilburn's yesterday. There were not less than 600. No wonder Senator Clarke opposes taxation on 'coon and 'possum dogs.

Our merchants are ordering heavily on flour. Mr. T. A. Green has just received 150 barrels flour, and Mr. C. H. Blank 100 barrels. The Defiance came in heavily ladened with general merchandise for this place; so did the Shenandouh, yet some of our merchants think trade is not as brisk as it was a year ago.

Wood is still high and in demand. The daily fogs have rendered it almost impossible for the wood boats to find our market. Several of them have recently been three days coming to the city from Hancock's Creek, a distance of only 16 miles. The captains say the fog has been thick enough to cut it out in blocks.

Mr. George W. Best, of Wayne, wa in the city yesterday, on his way for South Creek via steamer Elm City.

Messrs. E. T. Purkins and Geo. P. Beasley, of Middlesex county, Va., went to Adams Creek yesterday to ascertain what can be done in the lumber business. These gentlemen own two good mills in Virginia. They are here is somewhat better, and people are tryrespecting. Should they find a welling to get to farming some. timbored section in this region they will move their mills, and also bring their families to our city. They are enterprising men, and we hope they will conclude to come among us.

The Elm City carried a good cargo of merchandise and fertilizers on her trip to Bay river and South Creek with the following passengers: I. G. Taylor, D. W. Taylor, Wm. Ellmore, Thos. McGee, W. B. Edwards, G. W. Best, E. A. Purkins, Geo. P. Beazly P. J. Daniels, D.

and Miss Reding. The Deflance sailed for Baltimore with 600 bales of cotton, 200 barre naval stores and other freights, all she can carry through the canal.

B. Hooker G. L. Dawson, Mrs. Pittman

The Florence went on her usual trip to Vanceboro with heavy freights of merchandise.

The Trent went up the Neuse and returned yesterday, carrying general merchandise and bringing in 50 bales of cotton, 700 sacks of cotton seed and other freights, with 15 passengers.

The Sheuandoah brought in a very henvy cargo of general merchandise and took out 400 bales of cotton, nava stores and other freights, and several

The Kinston arrived from Kinsto with 115 bales of cotton, 87 of which were to be shipped through, and 28 lo-

It is said one ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint of warm water and drank, at intervals when cold, is a never failing remedy for small-pox. It has cured thousands, never leaves a mark nor causes blindness and avoids tedious lingering illness

One of the old landmarks of Kinston -Justice Coleman's office-is taking on a new covering of shingles and Daniel E. Perry, attorney and counsellor at law, who has taken an office there, is very carefully folding and laying away the long, green moss which covered the office, intending it for bangs for his lady friends.

Last Saturday Guilf Johnson attempted the impracticable feat of swapping orses while crossing the slough and got for his venture an unwilling baptism, which so greatly alarmed Frank Haskins, that he fell upon his marrow ones and sent up a fervent and success 'ul prayer for the relief of his young riend from a watery grave.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

(Condensed from News-Observer.)

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY.

SENATE. CALENDAR.

Mr. Pool moved to suspend the ules and take up the bill to change the name of the Elizabeth City and Norfolk Railroad Company to that f the Norfolk and Southern Raiload Company.

Mr. Speight thought the Senate should be unanimous in the passage of Mr. Pool's bill. It passed its hird reading unanimously.

Bill to amend the landlord and enant act, making the landlord guilty of a misdemeanor when seizng the tenant's property "unlawfully, knowingly and unjustly ." Mr. Strayhorn advocated the

Mr. Jones was in favor of protecting the tenants, but wanted the bill answer the purpose.

Mr. Womack saw no need of reference; thought the bill should

Mr. Black was opposed to the bill, thought we were making too many crimes. He could't see where the tenant would be hurt in this matter. If we enact a law of this kind it would cause a great many little indictments and throw the cost on the counties.

Mr. Scott, of Rockingham, offered an amendment: Addafter "knowingly" the words "and without process of law."

Mr. Watson said he would favor the bill with that amendment.

Mr. Strayhorn said that the law vests the whole crop in the landlord and it was merely to protect the

Mr. Morehead said he was it favor of the bill, but would like to know what objection Mr. Strayhorn could have to Mr. Scott's amend-

The amendment was adopted and the bill passed its third reading.

Mr. Morehead called up the bill for amnesty and pardon to certain persons for selling liquor and offered the following amendment:

"Provided such persons within ninety days from the ratification of this act shall pay the amount prescribed by law for license for one year for State, county and municipal otter, $5.00 purposes." The amendment was word "costs" the words "and the amounts prescribed in the proviso to section 2 of this act." Adopted and the bill passed its third read-

Bill for the relief of the sheriff of Jones and Warren. Referred Bill to reduce the number of jurors n allotment of dower to three in stead of five. Passed its third read

Bill to amend section 1, chapter 27, laws 1879.

Mr. Scott wished to know if a man had a razor in his pocket would it be a deadly weapon?

Mr. Linney said the negroes were in the habit of carrying them and it was so meant when off a man's premises.

Mr. Scott would like to know it the Senator brought his razor here with him.

"Yes, in my trunk." Mr. Scott though the judges had been too strict in the construction of that statute; if a man had a razor in his pocket with intent to use i in a fight then it should be a deadly weapon, but not so when he is taking it in his pocket to a barber

Mr. Linney said it was well known that the negroes had decided on the razor as a deadly weapon, and for that reason he had drawn the bill. The bill passed its third reading.

> HOUSE. RESOLUTIONS.

Bills were introduced, passed heir first reading and referred as follows:

By Mr. Covington, to require all druggists to pay retail liquor dealers tax. Finance. Mr. Proctor, to exempt $100 worth of farming and mechanical ools from taxation. Calendar. Mr. Bower, bill to be entitled an net to increase the number of justices of the peace in the several townships of the State.

The bill is as follows: The General Assembly of North larolina do enact:

Sec. 1. The General Assembly at its present session shall elect two justices of the the peace for the several townships of the State in addition to those provided for by section four, chapter one hundred and forty one, of the laws of 1876-

7; and in all townships in which ny city or incorporated town is situated, besides the two additional ustices herein provided for, there shall be two other additional jusices for every one thousand inhabi-ants therein residing. Sec. 2. Of the additional justices whose election is provided for by the preceding section, one half shall be elected for the term of four years and the other half for the term of six years. Sec. 3. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification. CALENDAR.

Resolutions of instruction to our nembers in Congress in reference the light house and marine serice fund.

Mr. Simmons said that this was vital subject to those people, a living to them, and if these resolutions are not passed it will be say ng to them that North Carolina does not care for you. Because i is a living to some North Caroliramed in a better manner. It was nians I sincerely hope they may pass improperly drawn, and would not without a dissenting voice. The esolutions then passed their third
