LOCAL NEWS

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. E. BISHOP—Keys lost.
E. M. Foscur—To all concerned.
F. M. HALE—Publications.

Journal Miniature Alman Sun rises, 6:46 | Length of day. Sun sets, 5:42 | 10 hours, 56 minutes. Moon sets at 2:85 a. m.

Mr. B. Swert had in some fine beef yesterday evening.

Hackburn Bros. have nearly completed their new store at Five Points.

The dwelling of Mrs. Mary E. Scott on Johnson street is undergoing repairs.

Roe shad $1.50 to $1.75 per pair; bucks 80 to 90 cents per pair. But few in market.

No new cases of small-pox in Trenton We hope to announce the quarantine raised in a few days.

Messrs. Thornton & Hollowell commenced cutting lumber at their mill on Bell's wharf vesterday.

The schooner Gracie, Watson, arrived from Norfolk on Wednesday night with a cargo of ice for Watson & Daniels.

The steamer Florence arrived from Vanceboro yesterday with five hundred bushels of rice and eighty barrels of tar.

The schooner Ella R. Hill, Capt. Hill, arrived from Norfolk yesterday with a cargo of kainit for E. H. Meadows, and Dillon of LaGrange.

Mr. Geo. A. Oliver was the busy man at the Exchange yesterday. He had 125 bales on hand at one time. Mr. Oliver keeps his card in the JOURNAL, and we are pleased to see him getting a good show of patronage in his line.

New Post Offices.

Postmaster Manix has received notice from the Postoffice Department at Washington that offices will be established at Adam's Creek and Jolly Old Field as soon as arrangements can be made with the steamers to carry the mail.

The Floods in Ohio.

The telegraphic despatches give detailed accounts of a disastrous flood in the Ohio river. Thirty or forty thousand workmen are thrown out of employment in Cincinnati, and more than ting the famous sec. 11, chapt. 8. a thousand business firms are prostra-ted. The river had reached a height of sixty-five feet at 2 o'clock on the 14th, and was still rising.

The following arrived last night: L. H. Cutler from Banks Landing with one hundred and twenty-one bales of cotton, all for J. B. Banks.

The Elm City, from South Creek, with a few bales of cotton and 15 passengers. The Kinston, with 38 bales of cotton. 119 barrels of rosin, 70 shad, cotton seed and passengers.

The Neuse, with 77 bales of cotton, 15 shad, empty barrels, cotton seed and passengers.

Legislative Proceedings.

The only measure of importance passed by the Senate on Wednesday was the bill for the sale of the State's interest in the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley est in the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad. A long discussion was had upon a substitute offered by Mr. Pool for the original bill, participated in by for the original bill, participated in by Mesers. Pool, Lovill, Morehead, Clarke, Scott of Rockingham, Womack, Linney, Alexander, Payne, Loftin and others. The substitute passed third reading.

In the House the bill to build a Governor's mansion passed third reading and is now a law.

Mr. B. A. Bell, one of the popular jeweliers of New Berne, has offered a gold medal to the room in the Graded School that has the best average attendance for two months from next Monday. The scholar that shows the best average in attendance, scholarship and deportment I want you to understand that I am goin the room that is awarded the medal fering this prize, and the object it is in-tended to accomplish, renders it unobjectionable.

Ereene Infertor Court. L. J. Moore, Esq., returned from Greene Inferior Court on Thursday morning. He attends this court regularly and has worked up a fine practice He reports two recruits for the peniten tiary, sent up for seven years each, for stealing cotton.

Mr. Moore speaks in very complimentary terms of the intelligence, fairness and impartiality of the Magistrates who constitute the court. He also speaks in very flattering terms of the young people of the county, having met many of them at the grand ball given on Tuesday them at the grand ball given on Tuesday there is a demand made by the sugar production of the s Mr. Moore speaks in very complimen-tary terms of the intelligence, fairness evening. Elegant in manners, fashion-able, neat and tasty in dress, graceful dancers; they are the peers of those in the fashionable of these.

otton Markett balls colon 1110 New York spots advanced 1-16 yester day, closing firm; futures steady. Liverpool steady with an advance of two points in futures. New Berne market firm. Ninety-one bales sold at the Exchange, 9.50 being the highest-price paid.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT; Middling 16 1-4. Strict low middling 10 1-16. Low middling 9 8-4.

NEW YORK FUTURES: Morning. Noon. Evening February, 10.25 March, 40.34 April, 10.47 10.85 April, May, 10.48 10.61 10.62

Uplands 5 11-16. Orleans 57-8.

LIVERPOOL PUTURES February, 5 44-64. March. 5 44-64.

Your Name in Print Messrs. J. F. Ives and W. E. Pattera business trip in Pamilico and other

Mr. J. D. Costin of Pale Alto, Onslow county, was in the city on Thursday with some fine beef cattle. He says there is much cotton lying around the gin houses in Onslow county yet.

Henry R. Bryan, Esq., left for Kinston and La Grange yesterday evening on professional business.

Mr. Lewis Webb went up to Kinston vesterday with his gun. Guess a challenge will be sent to the Falling Creek Sporting Club.

Mr. Thos. S. Gillett and Mr. Simeon Dickson, of White Oak, Jones county. are in the city. Mr. Gillett mentions two objects of his visit to New Berne. First to see his creditors and save them the trouble of writing and making inquiries about his administrator; second, to buy an engine; as everybody else in his neighborhood has one he is bound to have one in self defence. 1 100 11 100 11

Mayor's Court.

Quite a number of colored striplings police station yesterday morning when county, N. C.,, on the North side of Marshall Gaskill called the court to order Edward. Tilling was the first to toe the mark and plead not guilty of viola-

He was charged with using insulting Smith, an old gentlemen who is employed at the Gaston House. Mr. Smith where brother Sutton, with many othtestified that a number of boys were al- ers, united with the M. E. Church, ways following him up and calling him he was wearing. He couldn't recognize any one of the boys present as being among the number, but he knew the leader was not there. Wallace Rose testified that he saw a boy following Mr. Smith and making fun of him, but he was not in that crowd.

Marshall Gaskill stated that a warrant had been served upon the boy alluded to by Messrs. Smith and Rose, but he had not appeared. His Honor ordered the Marshall to take his force and find the boy and lock him up until to-day when the case will he heard again. Henry Shaw and Hozea Shaw were ward Tilling was put upon the stand.

"Well, I was round dare taking up some coal; Henry Shaw he tuck an' axed me to let him throw up some; I wouldn't do it; he tuck an hit me; I picked up a stick and tuck and hit him wid it; he tuck and run off a little and Hozea Shaw he tuck and thowed a piece of coal at me and hit me on the head. Other witnesses corroborated Tilling and the Marshall stated that these Shaw boys were the worst in the city."

"There is a crowd of you boys knocking about town here that are becoming to be a nuisance," said His Henor, "and ing to break it up. And I am going to will wear the medal for that room.

There are serious objections to offering prizes in schools, but the plan of of-shall," continued His Honor, "didn't

"Yes sir; we have got some."

"If these boys can't pay this cost, I want you to take the balls to the shop and have them fixed; I want to start a chain gang. If they don't pay up the cost I want you to put them to work."

Court adjourned with the Shaw boys' eyes somewhat resembling the full Kinston Items.

YAMO HENEW BERNE, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1883.

The pickets on the line of the Graded School war have been called in-sharp shooting is about over-the delegation to the Capitol in part, has returned, both sides, as usual, claiming the victory. However it may now result, the Graded School of Kinston has a future and if we might be permitted to offer advice, we would say to it, as to every one who has a future, learn to wait.

Married, at the residence of Richard Sutton, in Falling Creek township, Lenoir county, February 8th 1888 by George F. Parrott, J. P., George Gray to Miss Rebecca Warters: also, at the same time and place and by the same Justice, Cornelius Gray to Miss Susan Sutton. "Killing two birds with one stone" is quite an ordinory occurrence, but killson will leave on the Elm City to-day for ing four birds with one stone is a feat accomplished only by the judiciary of falling Creek; but let these marrying ples look shead for breakers.

"It is too much, we daily hear, To toice and thrive both in one year The "dull times" have no terrors for ur enterprising merchants of Tucka-oe. Eschewing marbles and domiee, they have fallen in with the exciting and fascinating "Put". Each player "anties" up a nickel. A square op, marked A on one side and H on its opposite, N on another side and P on its opposite, is spun on a glass surface and as the top falls, so the nickels are gathered in. A takes all, H takes half, N takes nothing, and P puts up another nickel ante. If not so pretentious as the "Put and Stradle" game of Wall street, it is equally as enticing and exciting. A New Berne merchant, a great favorite on Tuckahoe, lately watched the game like he wished some one would olina.

A SHORT SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF MR GEORGE SUTTON .- He was born in the were seated on the long bench at the year 1858. He was raised in Lenoir Neuse River. In 1871 he made love with and married Miss Bettie Becton. daughter of the late Ivey Becton, of Sandy Foundation. Lenoir county. In 1873 Elder A. J. Finlayson held a proand boisterous language toward Wm. tracted meeting at Woodington Church, in Lenoir county, N. C., when and Mayor promptly enquired of Kinston's where he remained a consistent memnick-names and asking him whose coat ber of that church until Dec. 29th, 1882, when the great monster, death, came and summoned his immortal spirit to leave this house of clay and fly away to its immortal home.

The funeral sermon was briefly delivered by Elder Henry Cunningham, a Baptist minister, from the 22d and 23d verses of the 15th chapter of 1st Corrinthians. The sermon was able and im-

And mourned and sighed and shed

many a tear, But he is done suffering here, with sor-

It is now enjoying the gift of the Lord

Jones County Items.

At the residence of Col. Benj. Askew this place, on Sunday last, Mr. Ire Bryan and Miss Naunie Koonce were nifed in marriage by Justice Job L. Insey. Two more souls are made hapand have gone on their way rejoicing. w is abating.

We were sorry to see the announce ment in last week's JOURNAL urging the ecessity of holding the next term of Jones Superior court at Polloksville in-stead of Trenton; because of prevalence of small-por. We think any action taken now would be a "little too prewould be a "little too preat small-pox, by the time of gular term of the court, trely abated. We think or as Pollodkaville wholly

e loca the mir beauth from this

Kinaton Items.

have quarantined against us now, we'll do as much for you sometime. Be good boys and take the advice that the Hinston last Tuesday and ton Correspondent for the New Berne saluted as friends. The war of the Journal recommends. Read and study black and white roses is now over.

The pickets on the line of the Graded mount. It will seem dry to you at the friend. "Your husband is a staid man now is he not?" asked a former schoolmate of her friend, who married a man rather noted for his fast habits.

"I think so," was the reply; "he stayed out all last night."

"I'll tell you what you do," said her friend. "Your husband is a staid man now is he not?" asked a former schoolmate of her friend, who married a man rather noted for his fast habits.

"I think so," was the reply; "he stayed out all last night."

"I'll tell you what you do," said her friend. "Your husband is a staid man now is he not?" asked a former schoolmate of her friend, who married a man rather noted for his fast habits.

"I think so," was the reply; "he stayed out all last night."

"I'll tell you what you do," said her friend. "Your husband is a staid man now is her not?" asked a former schoolmate of her friend. "I think so," was the reply; "he stayed out all last night." have quarantined against us now, we'll mount" It will seem dry to you at first, not being used to reading it, but it ecomes more interesting as you proceed and you will feel yourselves gradually growing better and better and perhaps you may become changed men and finally get to be deacons in the church. Who knows, who knows.

La Grange Items.

Dull times is no name for it. O'K. W. Howard is opening a stock of groceries on West Caswell street. Joyner & Murphy enrolled six new pupils Monday. The school now counts nearly 100.

R. M. Johnson paid the town a brief visit Wednesday, on his way from Greene Inferior Court.

"Old man Bob," in the generosity of his hears purchased a quart of oysters, his landlord furnished the butter and

Two bird-hunters arrived from Philadelphia on Monday and stopped at the Fields House. Their first hunt baged over 40 birds.

Capt. W. S. Byrd was in town Wednesday on business connected with his office-County Superintendent of Public Instruction.

K. E. Bizzell has purchased the interest of W. Bizzell, in the firm of K. E. & W. Bizzell. "Kinch" will continue the business at the old stand. The stock law building committee has met with one man who refuses the right of way. Proceedings have been commenced to enforce the law. If mumpses is the plural of mumps, we have mumpses, if not we have a introduce it in the Athens of North Car- great many mumps about here. There is a peculiar redness of the skin that appear with this disease in many cases called by the doctors "roseola."

To-day is Valentine day. Young gentlemen should be sure to pay postage on all valentines sent to young ladies. A young lady at the post-office, with penny in hand, to pay postage on one of these professions of love, is by no means complimentary to the sender.

It was reported in town Monday that the small-pox was in Kinston. Our Mayor, who pronounced the rumor without foundation in fact. It should be the prime object of all town authorsties; those afflicted as well as those not, to prevent the spread of this fatal disease.

Watson & Street, Auctioneers

COMMENCING AT THE

W. G. BRYAN STORE, South Front street A visit now from this dreadful disease. would be a heavy set back to any town.

University of North Carolina. PHILANTHROPIC HALL,

Saturday morning, Feb. 10th, '83. WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from earth our beloved member and esteemed friend, James W. Harper, there-

He's passed over Jordan to Cansan's bright shore,
For so long he has suffered here,
And mourned and sixtan and sixtan and mourned and sixtan an

the love and admiration cherished for our deceased brother, a copy of these resolutions be recorded on the minutes of this society.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family of our departed friend, with the prayer that God may comfort the hearts that are bereaved.

Resolved, That these resolution be published in the New Berne Journal, the Raleigh News and Observer and the Kin-ston Free Press; and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

(W. D. POLLOCK,

T. R. RANSOM, JAMES THOMAS. Phi. Com.

COMMERCIAL.

NEW BERNE MARKET.

Corren — Middling 9 BB; strict low middling 9 1-4; low middling 9 1-8. Seed cotton—Extra nice, 8c.; ordi-

Seed cotton—Extra nice, Sc.; ordinary 24c.
CORN—In sacks, 59c. per bushel.
RICE—90c. to $1.00 per bushel.
TURPENTINE—Receipts moderate. Firm at $3.50 for yellow dip.
TAR—Firm at $1.50 and $1.75.
BRESWAX—20c. to 22c. per lb.
HONEY—60c. per gallor.
WHEAT—90c. per gallor.
WHEAT—90c. per bushel.
BEEF—On foot, 5c. to 6c.
FRESH PORK—74a84c. per pound.
EGGS—22c. per dozen.
PEANUTS—$1.25 per bushel.
FODDER—$1.25 per hundred.
AFFLES—Mattamuskeets, $1.25 per bushel.

Onions—$8.50 per bbl.
PEAS—$1.10 to $1.25 per bushel.
HIMES—Dry, 9c. to 11c.; green 5c.
TALLOW—6c. per lb.
CHICKENS—Grown, 55a60c. per pair.
TURKEYS—$1.75 per pair.
MEAL—Bolted, 80c. per bushel.
POTATOZE—Bahamas, 90a40c.; yams
TURHIPS—80c. per bushel.
WALNUTS—50c. per bushel.
SHINGLES—West India 5 inch, mixed,
$3.50 per M. Building 5 inch, hearts,
$3.50; aps, $3.50 per M.
EKINS.

"Your husband is a staid man now, is TANSILL'S PUNCH CIGARS. and have them in the house, and he will stay at home to smoke. They are the finest 5 cent cigar in America." For sale by W. L. PALMER, Middle street, New Berne, N. C.

LOST,

Yesterday, a bunch of keys-nightlatch, post office, and three small keys. The finder will oblige by leaving the same at the JOURNAL office.

To Those Whom It May Concern : The next Regular Meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Jones county will

e held at POLLOKSVILLE on Monday, the 5th day of March, 1883. At said meeting proposals with plan and specifications will be received for repairing Polloksville Bridge, the Board reserving the right to reject any or all bids, Feb'v 14th, 1883, E. M. FOSCHE. Chairman.

P. M. Hale's Publications. The Timbers and Woods of North Carolina

1 Vol., 12 Mo., CLOTH., $1.25. "The publication of such facts in a shape that makes them accessible, is the best service that the public-spirited men in the South can do their States." N. Y. World.
"The very thing needed. A very important work for the State."—Wilmington Star.
"A timely and valuable publication. Must prove of great service to the State."—Charlotte Journal.
"Mr. Hale has done the State a great service.—Biblical Recorder.

—Biblical Recorder, "Of such thorough excellence that it de-serves the widest circulation,"— Nashville Lumberman.

The book is well printed on tinted paper, is handsomely bound in cloth, contains 272 pages, and an accurate and beautifully executed map of the State, with all the railroad routes defined.

EVERYBODY'S BOOK.

&nswers to simple questions frequently put to Lawyers by Laymen.

Points in Law of value to every man in North Carolina—the professional man, the farmer, the mechanic, the landlord, the tenant, the cropper, the laborer.

12mo., paper, 32 pages. Price (five postage stamps) 15 cents.

For safe by booksellers generally, who may be supplied in quantities on favorable terms, by either of the undersigned. If not to be had at your local bookstore, malled postpaid on receipt of the price by

E. J. HALE & SON,

Publishers, Booksellers and Stationers, New York; or P. M. HALE, Publisher, Raleigh, N. C. answers to simple questions frequently put

Mammoth Auction Sale

Saturday Morning,

At TEN o'clock, FEBRUARY 17th, and continuing from day to day until the entire consignment is disposed of.

The stock consists of almost everything from a penny whistle to a barrel of flour. The consignment embraces the following articles in part:

n part:
Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Toys, and discorres, Provisions, Crockery, 1978, and decorated Glassware in endless variety, Tobacco, Snuff, China, Lard, Sugar, Coffee, Mosasses, and a thousand and one other things too numerous to mention.

Everything will be sold without reserve to the highest bidder for cash, "and don't you the highest bidder for cash, "and don't you forget it."

The ladies, "God bless 'em," shall have a hearing at this auction, the day sales being arranged chiefly for their convenience.

Don't fail to attend the greatest sale of the felfour.

ATHLETIC CLUB SKATING RINK

Will be opened at

LOWTHROP HALL,

Thursday Eve., Feb'y 15, '83. Ladies Furnished Skates Free of

The management have spared no expense in their effort to establish an attractive Roller Strating Rink, the Hall having been thoroughly renovated, and a NEW FLOOR laid ever the former rough one. The skating public are therefore assured of that smoothness in a floor so necessary to ease and grace of movement.

Charge.

Doors open from 7 to 11 p.m.

C. E. SLOVER

Offers the following named Goods

LOW:-

Corned Beef, Hams,

Tomatoes,

Peaches, Prunes.

Java Coffee,

No. 1 Mackerell design and the sale

Fresh Roasted Coffee ground to order.

The Very Best Butter constantly on

The morning me grad

SMALL-POX

While other places are being quarantined, Humphrey & Howard wishes to say to their numerous friends and customers that their place is still openedand will remain so-a safe harbor for all. We want it understood that while we fought so nobly last Fall in exterminating HIGH PRICES, we have not been negligent of our duty this Spring, but have had our LOW PRICES thoroughly VACCINATED, so that you need have no apprehensions on their account, but just lay aside your FEARS and come to the Cheap Store of HUM-PHREY & HOWARD, Middle street. opposite Market, Newbern, N. C.

P. S.-And bring along "your sisters, your cousins and your aunts." feb2d&w1m

FARMERS, SAVE MONEY Buy Fertilizers for Cash

Save Forty to Fifty Per Cent.

My price to-day for

Warranted Genuine German Kainit

s $18 per ton in 50 to 100 ton lots. Less $1.00 per ton if time is given to get it out in sailing vessel. $13.50 to $14 in smaller lots.

Any decline in prices in Baltimore will reduce my prices. ammoniatei WY DAVISON & CO BALTIMORE AVAIL PHOS. ACID

"Bos"

POTASH

Or Ox-Head Guano.

24 m 30 %

2 10 2 6%

This is one of the highest grade Guanos sold n North Carolina, as per analysis of Dr. Dak-

My prices are $30.50 in ten ton lots, Less $1 per ton if time is given to get it out on sailing vessels. $31,50 to $32,50 for smaller lots, This is the same grade of Guano as is sold at $45 per ton on time-save $14 to $15 per top.

Home Fertilizer.

$11.50 per ton in ten ton lots. $12 to $12.50 in smaller lots.

"No losses, no credits, no bad debts."
No exorbitant prices charged to make no for

William H. Oliver, NEWBERN, N. C.

SPLENDID BUSINESS OFFORWERNING

Any one competent to take hold of an o om, can do so by applying to MRS. ft. N EWEY, who wishes toggve it up on accoun Will be sold at a great bargain. fo'd diw salor in Cigara, Talmacos, Pipes, and erything in that way. Also Camdies, Nuts and Presign. janif-dawly New Horne, M. C. the transmitting of the state of the service of the chief the wind and

WM L PALMER