NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
JOHN A. RICHARDSON—Watch lost.
HOLLAND & GUION—For sale.
COTTON FACTORY—Watchman wanted.
JOHN F. MEADOWS—Fertilizers.
W. F. ROUNTREE—Good butter, etc.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun sets, 5:38; 11 hours, 31 minutes.
Moon rises at 1:57 a. m.

Low tide again yesterday.
Roe shad, were bringing $1.58 per pair yesterday, buck 50 cents.

Prof. Willoughby Reade entertained a large audience last night.

Capt. W. J. Raeberry has moved into his new law office adjoining the residence of Mrs. W. A. Thompson.

The canning factory has had a good supply of oysters for two or three days and has been running on full time.

A young gentleman of the city was seen yesterday to take out his handkerchief as he thought, but to his dismay he had captured one of his landlady's napkins.

Little Carl Richardson lost his watch and chain on Middle street yesterday between E. H. Meadows' drug store and Maj. Palmer's drug store. If an honest man or boy has found it, it will be returned.

We were mistaken in saying Mr.
Green purchased his gas boiler from Manwell & Crabtree. He purchased from Mr. Cuthbert and Manwell & Crabtree helped to put it in. We suppose, however, the owners of the gas works would have known who to pay for it if we had not made the correction.

Mrs. C. E. Slover is taking the lead among the lady truckers in the city so far as we have seen. A peep at the garden yesterday showed the finest pea patch we have seen yet. We think they are at least ten inches high; and in passing judgment we remembered "De Granville."

Mayor Howard was out yesterday for the first time since returning from Raleigh. He says young Burkhead, the reading clerk, was the smartest young man he saw there, and thinks Stanford, of Duplin, understands the maneuvering better, and thinks he is decidedly the most handsome man in the Legislature.

The steamer Kinston brought down yesterday morning a corn mill, shipped by J. W. Grainger from Kinston to R.
M. Garris at Bell's Ferry. It is made of Moore county grit, but we notice the office of the company that manufacture them is in Maryland. Mr. E. G. Cuthbert manufactured one here in New Berne a short time ago for Mr. Hezekiah Davis, out of the same kind of grit, and we think would compare favorably with any manufactured out of the State.

Delinquents.
Collector Hancock advertises on our fourth page the delinquent tax list for this year. He says it is the smallest he has had for a number of years, but it strikes us a good long one yet.

Presbyterian Church.
The pulpit of this church will be filled tomorrow (Sabbath) by Rev. R. S.
Feagles, of New York city. Mr. Feagles formerly lived in New Berne, and is well known to many of our citizens.
He will preach at 11 a. m. and also at night.

River Steamers.
The steamer Kinston brought down, yesterday morning, sixty-five bales of cotton, one hundred barrels of rosin, cotton seed, eggs, etc. She returns to Kinston to-day with a full cargo of fertilizers and general merchandise.
The Nauss arrived yesterday with cotton.

Schooner Arrivals.
The Marietta, Capt. Tom Payne, from Middleton, with a cargo of corn assigned to W. P. Burrus & Co.
The Mary Fleetwood, Capt. Pele Flowers, from Swan Quarter with corn.
The Emerald, Capt. John Gaskins, from Swan Quarter, with corn consigned to Burrus & Co.

The Revenue Bill.
The Legislature seems slow in getting to work on the Revenue bill. Our business men are anxious to know what will be done with Schedule "B." There is certainly no sense nor justice in taxing an article two or three times, as is done by the operation of the present revenue law; besides, its tendency is to break down the wholesale trade of our home merchants.

The stockholders meeting of the Atlantic & N. C. R., according to the JOURNAL, in New Berne last week, was not a harmonious one.—Kinston Free Press.

Mistaken neighbor. We have not heard of any meeting of the stockholders of the Atlantic & N. C. R., being held in New Berne lately.

First Shipment of Radishes.
Misses Olivia Metts and Sallie Mitchell and Mr. J. L. Rhem shipped radishes per Shenandoah yesterday. Woman is foremost in all good works; thus it is and thus it always will be.

Your Name in Print.
Rev. R. S. Feagles, of New York, arrived on the Shenandoah yesterday morning. He is a brother-in-law of our townsman, George Allen, and was a teacher here many years ago.

Mrs. J. H. Bell and Miss Lizzie Neal left for Murfreesboro yesterday evening on a visit to relatives.

J. A. Pridden, Esq., of Kinston, was in the city yesterday looking for our tailor man, Major D. W. Hurtt.

Cotton Market.
Futures off again yesterday, closing easy; sales $9,000 bales. Spots quiet.
New Berne market dull; sales fifty-five bales, the highest bringing 9 1-8.

Heavy Freight.
The engine W. J. Best carried up on Thursday twenty-six loaded cars—520 tons. On a portion of the line between here and Goldsboro is an up grade, one and a half miles long, with a rise of forty feet to the mile, and a six degree curve to pass, yet, we are told by the engineer, that he made it without a bank.
This is the engine that was reported by Gen. Lewis to be a "total wreck." The master machinist, Mr. Manly, says the engines on the Midland Road are in better condition now than they have been for a long time.

La Grange Items.
Capt. Daniels of the Kinston Free Press was in town Tuesday.
W. W. Dunn, C. S. C., was in town on Thursday, on official business.
Sheriff Davis and "Bill" Phillips were here one day this week, the Sheriff on official business, I suppose.
McPate lost his buggy factory at Snow Hill, by fire Tuesday night. The circumstances were such as to leave but little doubt that it was the work of an incendiary.

The Methodist revival in this place is still progressing. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are conducting the meetings, and doing effective work. The congregation increase in numbers and interest, and the "mourners bench" is literally thronged each night. Four conversions up to this writing.

There was some complaint on account of the disappointment of Tuesday night.
Professor Reade failed to come. It is to be hoped that in the future an understanding will be had, and if there is to be no entertainment, let the people know it. One disappointment, like all other bad things, is apt to bring about another.

Miss Addie Kirkpatrick has been employed as assistant teacher in Joyner & Murphy's school. Miss Kirkpatrick has had much experience in teaching, and has the reputation of being an excellent teacher. This school has steady-ly increased since the commencement of the spring session, and now numbers about one hundred pupils, and others expected. Male students can obtain board at the same house with the Principals, and females at the house where the Music Teacher boards.

Fire in Smokey Hollow.
On Thursday evening last, about one o'clock, the alarm of fire was given, and it was soon discovered to be in the direction of Smokey Hollow. A house in the suburbs of that detestable locality had taken fire in the rear part of the building. A large crowd soon gathered, and by the active use of buckets and water, the adjoining buildings were protected till the engine arrived, and thereafter there was no danger of a spread of the flames. The property burned was a three room one-story building and belonged to Mr. F. M.
Barbee, of Fish Dam, Durham county.
It was insured for $850, which covers about two-thirds of the loss.—Tobacco Plant.

A Shocking Death.
Goldsboro Messenger.
A young lad named William Cotton, about 14 years old, living with Mr. Harris Crawford, in this city, met his death in a most shocking manner on Tuesday last, in being thrown from a horse and kicked and dragged for about one hundred and fifty yards, while his foot was entangled in the stirrup straps. His skull was fractured and his body otherwise so badly bruised that he died very soon after being released from the horse.
Our county coroner, Dr. Tom Hill, happened to be in the neighborhood, but found the boy in the last agonies of death.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

(Condensed from News-Observer.)

HOUSE.

NIGHT SESSION.

To allow the commissioners of Lenoir county to levy a tax to build a bridge passed its third reading.

An act commendatory of and supplemental to an act to prevent live stock from running at large in the counties of Greene and Lenoir, passed third reading.

To change the corporate limits of the town of Jacksonville, in Onslow county. Passed its second reading.

Act to regulate and repair the public bridges in Onslow county.
Passed its third reading.

Act to establish a mortuary table,
passed third reading.

FIFTIETH DAY.

SENATE.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Clarke, from certain citizens of Craven, asking to be allowed the use of drift nets.

BILLS.

Mr. Caho, resolution on adjournment fixing the day on Saturday, March 10th at 12 m.

FREE PASSES.

Bill against free passes came up as the unfinished business of the night.

Mr. Caho wished to indefinitely postpone as it was trifling legislation.

Mr. Dortch did not regard it as trifling legislation, some of the amendments adopted were trifling but the cream of the bill was still in it.

The previous question was called.
Mr. Webb's amendment that this act should apply to all the county commissioners in the State was on vote.

Mr. Dortch asked the yeas and nays. Ordered. The vote stood, yeas 22, nays 23, so the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Toon's amendment to strike out section 3, as to making it unlawful to give any person money to pay his way to political conventions, etc.

Mr. Caho's amendment applying the act to hotels, that give free establishments to political conventions on public occasions of any kind.

Mr. Morehead raised the point that this was not germane to the bill. The Chair so held it.

The question then was on the passage of the bill on which the yeas and nays were called.

The vote stood, yeas 27 nays 17.
Several Senators explained their votes. Mr. Watson saying he was glad one branch of this Assembly had put itself right voted aye. Mr.
Caho, saying he was opposed to the bill per se, voted nay; and Mr.
Evans, saying, "Mr. President, I vote no because I regard this bill and all its amendments as nothing more than a public farce."

Bill to establish graded schools in the town of Kinston, in Lenoir county. Passed its third reading.
Yeas 29, nays none.

Bill to amend the charter of Greenville, in Pitt county. Passed its third reading. Yeas 36, nays none.

Bill to provide a great seal for the State, etc., passed third reading.

Bill to provide for the erection of an iron fence around the Caswell monument at Kinston.

Mr. Loftin explained that the $500 appropriated by the last session for the monument the people of Kinston were satisfied was not enough for a monument to so great a man, and so with a "Caswell fund" they raised among themselves over six hundred more dollars. It was a great State's day, the unveiling of the monument; Yancey made a speech, etc.; he with others loaned the association $175, rather than see the occasion fail.
He had presented this claim before the committee and they had refused to honor it; he wanted this $175 returned and $325 more, so as for the whole to go to putting an iron fence around the monument.

Mr. Boykin supported the bill and hoped it would pass.

Mr. Webb, as chairman of the finance committee, thought the five hundred dollars given by the State was enough.

Mr. Caho hoped the bill would pass.

Bill passed its third reading.

NIGHT SESSION.

The following bills passed their third reading: Incorporating Mt.
St. Joseph Academy; incorporating the town of Franklin; allowing Greene and Lenoir to vote on the stock law; to prevent unsuccessful contestants for seats in the Legislature from receiving per diem and mileage.

There was an old gentleman in the Register's office last Monday, from the neighborhood of Saul's X Roads, who stated that he had not been to Goldsboro since 1864, when he came here as a soldier to take the cars for Richmond. It was amusing to hear the old fellow's expressions of surprise at the wonderful "changes in town since the last time he was here."—Goldsboro Messenger.
