A SECTION OF THE CONTRACTOR OF THE SECTION OF THE S

C. MARCH 14, 18 ice at New Heren N C.

The Washington Correspondent, "C. W. H.," of the Goldsboro Messenger, says our Congressional delegation, or the most of them, read, with squinting eyes, the act of the Legislature redistricting the State into nine Congressional districts. The margin for majorities is entirely too narrow to be very assuring to Congressional aspirations. Maj. Dowd openly ridicules the shoe-string appearance of the 6th district, realizing that "community of interest" is a deceptive and ernel device when it is presented in the shape of a long shoestring. The same Correspondent says it has been suggested, that Gov. Jarvis, looking to a seat in the lower House of Congress, if "our Zeb." should succeed himself out all after the word " neighborin the United States Senate, had "a finger in the pie" when the first district was formed. Be this as it method of alloting dower -Allows penitentiary to famish certain stone may, it is quite certain Gov. Jarvis, dower to be assessed in one tract proud as he may be of his early farmer life, will not be quietly relegated to his old "plow handles" in Tyrrell county after his retire-ment from the Gubernatorial chair. The truth is, our Governor is a 237. An act to change section 18 power among the people and is withal, the shrewdest and clearest- Strikes out the word "superintendheaded politician in the State.
