LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
J. A. GUION—Bank condition.
D. W. HURTT—Spring goods.

Journalist's Almanac.
Sun rises, 6:06 | Length of day,
Sun sets, 6:11 | 12 hours, 6 minutes.
Moon sets at 3:37 a. m.

The city authorities have begun work on Craven street.

Maj. D. W. Hurtt is receiving his Spring goods and a good line of samples. Geo. Oliver sold the cotton on Friday at 9.85 instead of 10.85 as reported yesterday.

The schooner Paragon, Capt. Williams, arrived from Charleston yesterday with a cargo of guano.

James Campbell, Esq., received a pair of beautiful Canary birds per steamer Defiance on yesterday.

Two marriage licenses issued during the past week by the Register of Deeds. One to white and one to colored couples.

Sheriff McLeod and A. B. Swindell, of Hyde, carried up Martha Buggs, colored, to the Insane Asylum at Goldsboro yesterday.

The steamers Goldboro and Defiance of the Clyde line sailed last night with good cargoes of cotton, lumber and naval stores.

The chimney at the Gaston House caught on fire last night, causing an alarm to be given and the Fire Companies dashed around the square and returned to their quarters.

Good-bye, President Best; good-bye, Col. Andrews; farewell Mr. Caddigan. Stockholders and Directors of the A. & N. C. R. R., look out for breakers ahead! Capt. Oaksmith is forming a syndicate to buy the whole business out, clear to Raleigh, and pay cash!

Sheriff Hahn and Coroner Bates had it "nip and tuck" over a buggy yesterday. One had a levy for cost, the other for taxes. The Coroner finally hitched up a pair of grays—Charley Hancock and Dick Williams—and took it around to his office, but in a few minutes the Sheriff had it on the streets again, in tandem style, with a smile, indicating success.

The editor of the Wilson Advance thinks a daily paper without the telegrams would be no credit to that town. We had an idea of that sort when we commenced publishing a daily paper in this city; but after we had spent several hundred dollars for the press dispatches we found that not more than a dozen of our city readers cared anything about them. Our young friend will learn after a while that it takes something other than telegrams to make a creditable daily paper.

Visitors at the Cotton Exchange.
Paul I. Faison, of Raleigh, C. S. Wooten, of Lenoir, H. F. Grainger, of Goldsboro, and Eudene Morehead, of Greensboro, were among the visitors at the Cotton Exchange yesterday.

Fire at Goldsboro.
We regret to hear of the burning of the dwelling of George W. Collier, Esq., at Goldsboro, Friday p. m. The fire is supposed to have been accidental and the loss partially covered by insurance.

Change of Schedule, A. & N. C. R. R.
On and after Monday, March 19, the freight train will leave New Berne on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 6:30 a. m. Returning same days, arriving here about 9 p. m. A train will be put on Smithfield branch independent of this division to do the work of that road. No change in mail train.

Cotton Market.
New York futures steady; spots dull. New Berne market steady; sales of twenty-five bales; 9-8-8 the highest paid. Sales for the week, 828 bales.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT:
Middling 10-1-4.
Strict low middling 10-1-16.
Low middling 9-8-4.

NEW YORK FUTURES:
Morning Noon Evening
March, 10.12 10.18 10.13
April, 10.28 10.28 10.25

June, 10.53 10.53 10.52

Our Churches To-day.
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
Rev. T. G. Wall, of New York, will preach at 11 a. m. Dr. I. K. Hazen, of Richmond, Va., at 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 9 p. m.

BAPTIST CHURCH.
Rev. F. W. Eason, pastor; services at 11 o'clock, a. m. and 7 1/2 p. m. Sabbath school at 3 o'clock, p. m., C. C. Clark, superintendent. Seats free, and the public are cordially invited to attend these services.

FOLKLOCK STREET CHAPEL.
Services at 4 o'clock p. m., conducted by the young man of the Baptist church; the public are cordially invited to attend and especially the young men.

Meeting of Directors.
The Directors of the A. & N. C. R. R. held their meeting in this city yesterday. Mr. Best made no proposition to renew his lease nor offered any assurance of his ability to carry it out. Maj. John Gatlin was in the city and was duly notified of the fact. We suppose he will take possession of the road as soon as his bond is perfected.

Push Easy.
Mr. Hamilton, the special policeman at the post-office entrance, wishes to remind persons going to the office, especially a few strong boys, that it is dangerous to shove the doors with such force as some are in the habit of doing. Many of our citizens send their children for their mail, and a day or two since a little boy came near being seriously hurt by one of those strong boys who gave the door one of his characteristic shoves. Push easy.

Schooner Arrivals.
The following arrived:
Fleetwood, Capt. P. Flowers, from Swan Quarter with corn.
Emerald, Capt. J. H. Gaskins, from Swan Quarter with corn.
Mary S., Capt. Berry, from Juniper Bay with corn consigned to J. A. Meadows, Wabab & Credle and W. P. Burrus & Co.
Marietta, Capt. T. Pain, from Middleton with corn consigned to J. A. Meadows and W. P. Burrus & Co.

The Chesapeake and Albemarle Canal.
A correspondent of the Norfolk Landmark is getting after Marshall Parks about advertising eight feet of water in his canal while vessels drawing only seven feet are allowed to lock. There must be just grounds of complaint against the President of this Co. for not long since two of the Clyde boats drawing only 6 1/2 feet of water were grounded in the canal and detained over a week, thus annoying the shippers to no little extent. We learn, however, from Capt. Piner of the Defiance that a dredge has been put on and he thinks the way will be clear pretty soon.

Robbery.
Mr. Council Hardison, who lives about five miles below here on the A. & N. C. R. R. was knocked down and robbed on Friday night. From his father, Gabriel Hardison, we get the following particulars:
During the day on Friday they were engaged in moving, his son Council moving into a house about two hundred yards from the one he moved into. When getting ready to move he, Council, put a large package of money, $1,300 into the breast pocket of his coat and pinned it up. After night he started over to his father's house and when about half way, hearing some one coming behind him, turned to see who it was when he received a heavy blow on his forehead which felled him to the ground where he lay stunned for about one hour. After arousing he got back to his house and found that his pocket had been torn open and his money taken out. He had some little money in his other pockets which was not taken. The blow was a serious one; Dr. Mallett was called. The suspicion rests upon certain parties, but no arrest had been made up to last night.

Graded School Notes.
The rosettes were awarded to the following pupils on last Friday for perfect attendance and deportment during the week:

Steamer Race.
On the down trip Saturday the Elm City was met just above Adam's Creek by the revenue cutter Stevens. The latter at once changed her course and battered Capt. Gibbs for a race. The captain sent extra help below to fire up, and as the prow of the Elm City entered the waters of Adam's Creek the Elm City was half a mile ahead of the cutter. Capt. Gibbs gave three blasts from the whistle of his steamer but the captain of the defeated cutter was too chagrined to answer. It is fitting to state that Capt. Gibbs' boat has but one engine while the cutter has two and is considered a twelve mile toy.—Familia Enterprise.

Kinston Items.

Edward Caswell, the eloquent and witty temperance lecturer and reformer, entertained at the court house last Thursday, a good audience, on the evils and ugliness of liquor selling and liquor drinking; but in spite of his wit, ridicule and eloquence, whiskey, like the Devil, has more friends than any thing else.

Bishop Lyman, assisted by the Rector of St. Mary's, Rev. Israel Harding, had baptismal service at the Episcopal church last Thursday, when Dr. James P. Bryan and Wm. H. Brock were confirmed and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hunter were baptized and confirmed. The Bishop did not visit this season the church of the "Holy Innocents" in Lenoir county, because of the unfinished condition of the church building, which has been taken down for repairs and reconstruction.

The new stock law, as far as it effects Vance township, Lenoir county, has gone through that section like the ten commandments through a Sunday school. It is studied by all and all seek to enforce it. The land owners have accommodatingly joined fences so that fine stock ranges and good pastures may be used by all classes with only about one third of the fencing formerly required. More and better stock will be raised by tenants and land proprietors in that township than under the old system of turning the stock out with the injunction, "root hog or die."

The following are the magistrates appointed by the Legislature for Lenoir county:

Falling Creek township—W. L. Kennedy, Ed. L. Sutton and J. B. Hill.
Institute township—J. M. Hines, Jr., A. W. Dawson and Frank Dail.
Kinston township—Wm. C. Fields, Wm. A. Coleman, J. W. Grainger, D. R. Jackson and Alex. Nicol.
Moseley Hall township—S. I. Wooten, D. C. Murchison, J. W. Rice and Dempsey Wood.

Neck township—E. L. Hazelton, E. J. Brooks and R. W. Pope.

Pink Hill township—Richard K. Nobles, L. J. Howard and Amos Stroud, Jr.

Sand Hill township—J. D. Sutton, J. A. B. Heath and Reuben Hood.

Trent township—Thos. A. Rouse, Job L. Stroud and Henry Cunningham.

Vance township—Lemuel Taylor, W. H. Worth and Frank Daughety.

Woodington township—James Herring, C. A. Dudley and Zenas Gooding.

Washington and Elsewhere.

Considerable sickness.
Doctors are flourishing.

Mrs. Joseph Farrow is seriously ill.
Guano dealers are doing the business of the town.

Mrs. J. B. Parsons died at her home in Hyde county.
Miss Lucy Ritch is visiting Miss Lucy Reddick at Haslin.

Dr. Latham, at Haslin, cut his knee sometime ago, but is getting around again.

Mr. John Campbell, who was taken sick at J. R. Bishop's, (Pantego swamp) is mending slowly.

It is rumored that Mr. Thos. Daw and Miss Arthell Jones, of Pantego, are to be the happy couple next week.

Howell Whitehead, an old man (96 years) has removed to Wilson, former residence on Trauter's creek.

We did not formerly regard the order of the County Commissioners to drive in a walk over the bridge at this place; but we "go slow" now and don't you forget it.

The times are dull; the country people are too busy to make any news or noise, and what there is must come from town where we have too much leisure for our comfort.

Mr. Thos. D. Harrison died on the 12th inst., at G. L. Windley's near Haslin of pneumonia, leaving a wife to whom he had been married but little more than a year. She has our earnest sympathy in her deep distress and sore trial.

Mrs. Fannie Weston, wife of G. H. Weston, died on the 18th at her residence in this town. She had been married only about one year, and her residence in Washington has been short; yet long enough to endear her to her acquaintances and friends.

A petition is being circulated to have Mr. W. B. Campbell appointed a magistrate. He is said to be the best informed of any J. P. in our county; and many suppose him to be equal to most of our lawyers on matters that come under the jurisdiction of a J. P. I have seen very able men, and well qualified who were not fit for an office.

Two of our young lawyers, C. F. Warren (Mayor of the town) and G. A. Sparrow, liberal candidates for the office of solicitor, split a difference, a night or two since, and the Mayor used some rough language, at which Sparrow was offended, and so challenged Warren to meet him in deadly combat and appease his wounded honor; they left for the ground but were overtaken and brought back. Mr. Warren left again shortly after his return, to meet Sparrow. When guardians of the peace, and expounders of the law are trying to commit cold blooded murder, what is to be expected of us, the ignorant?

Snow Hill Items.

There isn't a vacant house in town.
Bishop Lyman preached here last Thursday.

Dr. Jones has returned from New York, and Miss Ada Sugg got back from Munroe one day last week.

The fever caused by the no-fence movement is pronounced quite malignant, and, sometimes, serious hemorrhagic symptoms supervene.

The rendering of Contentnea creek navigable for steamboats has given an impetus to our town akin to the wonderful. Snow Hill is certainly on a boom.

Two fires in one week—bad—but Athens, you know, was never beautified until it was burnt two or three times, and, of course, we want to surpass Athens.

Our water facilities materially strengthen the relationship between New Berne and this place, and to the grand old City of Elms we extend the right hand of fellowship.

Dr. Rountree, of Hookerton, so well and favorably known in the town, has sold out his practice, good will, etc., to Dr. Jordan, a talented young physician from Orange, a pupil of Dr. Kirby's, and has located in Kinston, so we learn.

The air is redolent, not with the perfume of spring jasmynes nor June roses, but with the delectable aroma generated by the huge heaps of guano, and the sensitive olfactories are regaled to surfeiting, and sigh for pity that they can no more.

The subscribers to the steamboat stock, composed of prominent gentlemen of our town and Hookerton, together with a goodly number of influential citizens of different portions of our county, met here Monday the 12th, and organized by calling to the chair Mr. W. C. Munroe. Mr. John Edwards, of Hookerton, was chosen secretary.

They named the new baby, which must have been hatched in a modern incubation, for it can walk alone already, "The Earners' and Merchants' Steamboat Company of Snow Hill." The following were elected officers of the company for one year: W. H. Dail, president; T. E. Hooker, vice-president; John Patrick, treasurer, and J. H. Freeman secretary. W. H. Dail, J. E. W. Sugg, T. E. Hooker, Jno. Patrick and Elias Turnage constitute the Board of Directors. Amount of stock subscribed, $8,500. As soon as the corporation got into harness they grabbed the bull by the horns and went to work. They purchased the steamer Snow Hill from Capt. Webb, of Kinston, and complimented that clever and efficient officer by appointing him to the position of commander; and the same day of the organization started the captain with his smart little craft down the stream with a full cargo of cotton and other produce. They didn't stop there—not a bit of it—but took immediate steps to construct another boat, which will be larger than the Snow Hill, better equipped in every way, and arranged with an eye to passenger accommodations. Every rib of the company is made of the best seasoned oak; there isn't a rotten or a defective piece of timber in it. Did you notice the names of the officers and directors? If not, read them over again; the time will not be wasted. They haven't given their "days and nights to the volumes of Addison"; their minds are not "overburdened with a mass of other men's thoughts"; their names are not emblazoned with A. B.'s, A. M.'s, LL. D.'s and the like, often bestowed upon unworthy recipients, but they hold a diploma for superior merit, unalloyed character, excellent business qualifications, comprehensive ideas and large common sense, granted them by the good people of Greene and surrounding country. They have graduated in the highest acceptance of that term. As a business manager if Haywood Dail has a superior in the State, we don't know him. A biography of Mr. Dail would make interesting and instructive reading matter, and did we possess a facile pen like Kingsbury we'd certainly do him up. We have also organized a telegraph company. W. C. Munroe, president; G. W. Sugg, secretary, and Josiah Ezum treasurer. The wire will go to Kinston or Goldsboro.
