VOL. II.

NEW BERNE, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1883.

NO. 12.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

C. E. Foy & Co.—Molasses, etc.
Notice—Application for certificate.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun rises, 5:26; Length of day, 13h 45m; 13 hours, 8 minutes.
Moon sets at 12:55 a. m.

Mr. A. H. Potter is fitting up an ice-cream parlor.

Mr. J. A. Meadows offers a large stock of peas, oats, corn, horse feed, etc., for sale. See "ad."

We were shown on yesterday several pea pods of the Hancock Extra Early, which contained peas fully half grown.

Herrings were offered yesterday evening at five cents per bunch; roe shad ninety cents per pair; bucks thirty cents per pair.

The hour for the opening of the Graded School will be fifteen minutes earlier than heretofore. The first bell will ring on Monday morning at 8:15, school will open at 8:45.

Manufacturers and dealers in tobacco will remember that the law requires the schedule for rebate to be made out on the 1st day of May in the presence of two disinterested witnesses.

Mr. J. A. Meadows, our clever Miller and grain dealer, was at the Exchange yesterday with 35 bales of cotton for which he took the highest figures of the day. This was a part of his last year's "truck crop" we suppose.

Some of the country tobacco dealers continue to send in five dollars for renewal of license to sell tobacco, when the law only requires $2.40. If they would subscribe for and read a good newspaper they would be a little better posted.

Our Brother Oldham of the Western Sentinel is advocating a Graded School for Winston. This is right; and we have no doubt the interest in good schools heretofore manifested by the people of Forsythe, will lead them to the adoption of this popular method of advancing their educational facilities.

Reunions.

The 67th Regiment will hold their next annual reunion here on the 10th day of May.

First Shipment of Turnips.

Mr. J. L. Rhem shipped per Shenandoah yesterday three barrels of Spring turnips, the first of the season.

Peaches.

It was thought that the peaches in this section were all killed but Mr. Charlie Mallett of Biverville informs us that his trees are pretty full.

Asleep in Jesus.

Eliza Humphrey, wife of F. M. Simmons, died on Friday morning, April the 13th, in the 27th year of her life. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Found.

A. G. Oden, just across the street from the JOURNAL office found on the street one morning this week two shirts, one collar and a towel. He wants the owner to call at his shop, prove property, pay for this notice and take them away.

Stock Law Wanted.

Our neighbor, E. O. E. Lodge, was quietly seated in one end of his store yesterday, while a stealthy cow was helping herself to his hay at the other. This should imperatively demand the passage of a stock law; or Mr. Lodge should provide himself with a milk pail and enforce a tariff sufficient for both revenue and protection.

Schooner Arrivals.

The Mary S., Capt. James Berry, from Juniper Bay with corn consigned to J. A. Meadows and Burrus & Co.
The Emerald, Capt. John H. Gaskins, from Juniper Bay with corn consigned to Burrus & Co.
The Marietta, Capt. Tom Payne, from Middleton with corn consigned to Burrus & Co.

Graded School Notes.

Rosets were awarded to the following pupils for perfect attendance and deportment during the past week:

FIRST GRADE.
Misses Nettie Jones, Sudie Hall, Bertha Tucker; Masters Willie Raspberry, Ralph Avery, Tildew Avery.

ADVANCED 1ST GRADE.
Misses Jennie Watson, Rosa Dail, Mary Duffy, Lela Ewell, Nellie Hilton, Bessie Maxwell, Emma Wolfenden, Mary Hudson; Master James Hill.

SECOND GRADE.
Misses Jennie Burrus, Faith Brook, Mary Hamilton, Mary Henderson, Jennie Hall, Melissa May, Nellie LaBoque, Daley Swart, Mary McSorley, Annie Whitford, Sadie Whitford, Gertrude Raspberry, Louie Trenwith, Louisa Suter; Masters Walter Duffy and Herbert House.

Postponement.

The "Patience" play was unavoidably postponed last night until the 24th. In as much as the next play will be the last given by our young people this season, we suggest that arrangements be made with the Railroad authorities to have the freight train come down an hour or so earlier and give our Kinston friends an opportunity to come down and hear it.

We assure our Kinston friends that the play is well worth hearing and they will not regret coming.

Your Name in Print.

Dr. H. G. Bates and Mrs. Bates were registered as visitors at the Cotton Exchange yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke left for Raleigh yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Hauser, of Goldsboro, and Frank Outlaw, of Dover, both representatives of the Talbot engines were in the city yesterday.

Commodore Appleton Oaksmith, Mr. Ed Roberts, Mr. George Reel and wife were passengers on the Shenandoah on her outward trip yesterday.

Cotton Market.

New York futures made a further advance yesterday, closing firm; sales 99,000 bales. Spots firm; holders asking higher prices. New Berne market buoyant, sales of seventy-three bales, some bringing as high as 9.53.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT:

Middling 10 1-8
Strict low middling 9 15-16
Low middling 9 5-8

NEW YORK FUTURES:

April	10.01	10.07	10.07
May	10.14	10.17	10.18
June	10.29	10.33	10.31
July	10.40	10.44	10.43

Sale of Midland Property.

Sheriff Hahn sold at public auction on yesterday, material for eight flat cars and one car to satisfy claims in favor of W. S. Gaskins, Appleton Oaksmith and others, amounting to six or seven hundred dollars. The sale amounted to one hundred and eighty-one dollars. When the sale commenced Hon. C. C. Clark made a statement that the property did not belong to the Midland company but to the Construction company, and the purchaser would take the risk. The Sheriff went on with the sale, stating that he would sell the Midland interest.

Death of Mr. A. C. Wadsworth.

Mr. A. C. Wadsworth, who for the past five or six years has been a citizen of Charlotte, died yesterday about noon at his residence on Church street, of pneumonia. Mr. Wadsworth was about 65 years of age and leaves a wife, two daughters and two sons, the latter, George and Thomas, being employed in the Richmond and Danville Railroad depot in this city. Mr. Wadsworth was at one time Register of Deeds of Lenoir county, where he was born and raised, and was depot agent at Kinston for several years. During his stay in this city, he gained a deserved popularity among our people and won the esteem and respect of all who knew him. His illness was a brief one lasting through only ten days.

The remains were escorted to the depot yesterday afternoon and put on board the 4:40 train to be carried to Kinston, his old home, where the interment will take place this afternoon.—Journal-Observer.

Internal Revenue Regulations.

The regulations prescribed by the Internal Revenue Department for preparing claims for rebate of the taxes on tobacco, snuff and cigars held by dealers on the 1st day of May, prox., provides that such claims must be prepared on that day upon blanks to be furnished by the department, which will be sent out prior to that date; that each package of tobacco or snuff weighing one pound or more and each box of cigars shall have pasted thereon a label in these words, to-wit:

UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE.
REBATE.
Inventoried for Rebate May 1, 1883,
By.....
of.....
District of.....
Act of March 4, 1883.

These labels will be furnished by the Collector of Internal Revenue and it is suggested that parties desiring more than ten write at once to the Collectors for them. It is the intention of the Collector of this district to send ten labels to each dealer in tobacco; if more are needed they should be ordered from him. As these claims must be made on May 1st, it is important that dealers should be fully prepared to inventory and prepare their claims on that day. The Rebate applies only to full factory packages. Rebate on tobacco and snuff is eight cents per pound; on cigars three dollars per thousand; on cigars three dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand. The aggregate of the claim must amount to ten dollars or more.

The Spring Term of the U. S. District Court will begin here on Monday the 23d inst. There are about thirty cases on the docket; several of the new ones are indictments against postmasters.

The farmers in this vicinity are hauling off guano preparatory to planting the "cotton and corn."

Mr. Johnson Peete, a very worthy and estimable citizen of this county, died at his home on Sunday last.

Zollie Whitehead, formerly on the staff of the Greensboro Patriot, is stopping at the Seawell House.

A fine lot of shad were taken yesterday at Dr. Davis' seine beach, and the prices have taken a sudden fall.

Young Dr. Hodges passed through this place on Monday on his way to Mt. Olive, where he expects to locate in the practice of medicine. We congratulate the citizens of Mt. Olive on having in their midst so exemplary and sober a young man, as the Doctor is yet to take his first drink of ardent spirits.

The citizens of this place enjoyed quite a treat on Sunday last through the kindness of Captain Dixon of the steamer Kinston, who gave us a free excursion up the river. The varied scenery along the banks made one almost believe he was sailing on the historical Hudson or traversing the picturesque waters of the upper Kennebec. When the boat had ascended as high as Arrington's bridge all hands went ashore for dinner, and such a feast was hardly ever before spread out on the bosom of old mother earth. When the inner man was satisfied the boat returned on its downward trip. The young ladies and gentlemen, not unmindful of the holy Sabbath, cheered us on the way with the sweetest of sacred song that ever reverberated along the shores of old Neuse, and one would have believed that a whole camp meeting was moving majestically down the river. Capt. Dixon and Lieut. Taylor have endeavored themselves to our people for their kindness and very polite attention to all on board.

What Ransom Has Done.

News-Observer.

NEW BERNE, N. C., April 12.—The steamer Trent, of the Trent River Transportation Company, made a successful run from Trenton to-day. She is 110 feet long and 19 feet wide, with a carrying capacity of 150 bales of cotton and 50 passengers. Three years ago a 15 foot yawl boat could hardly make the run. Gen. Robert Ransom has made a wonderful improvement on the Trent river, and the Trent River Transportation Company, the pioneer line of this river, with C. E. Foy, Esq., as its president, has not failed to furnish abundant transportation for this long neglected region which now blossoms like the rose. Trenton is about 35 miles from New Berne. D. R. WALKER.

Mistaken in His Man.

Wilmington Star.

A party from the rural districts met a certain dry goods clerk on the streets a day or two since and demanded "that balance due." "For what?" queried the surprised clerk. "Why don't you know," said the other, "that I worked hard for you during the whole of the last campaign, and you were to pay me $150? Well, I never received but $50 from you, and now I want the balance. Besides, I made a good many enemies on account of my active exertions in your behalf during the campaign." The clerk looked the man square in the face and remarked, "My friend, you are certainly mistaken in your man!" The other gazed a little clearer than he had previously done at his supposed political employer, and exclaimed: "Well, I'll be hanged if I don't believe I am!" He had taken the clerk for a prominent Republican politician.

STATE NEWS

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Winston Sentinel:

Salem is without a resident lawyer and has been for many a year. Contentions and brawls seldom occur and a legal gentleman would find it difficult to accumulate much hog and very little hominy if he depend upon local patronage.—The house of Luther Waugh, colored, beyond the Salem creek was destroyed by fire on last Friday night. Very few, if any, of the contents were saved. There have been several efforts to burn the building, and it is thought that incendiarism was also the cause for the third, last and fatal attempt. There was some insurance we learn, upon the property.

Tarboro Southerner:

Saturday, twenty-one of the colored teachers of the county met in this place and formed a Teacher's Association.—Rev. Drs. Mundy, of Warrenton, and Hufham, of Scotland Neck, have for more than a week been holding at the Baptist Church in this place religious meetings. They are considered two of the ablest preachers in that church in this State. Much interest in the cause of religion has been awakened in our midst, particularly among the young people, by their meetings, which we devotedly hope may result in much good. The Presbyterian and Methodist ministers are acting in concert and the indications are that there will be a season of much rejoicing with the christian people of Tarboro.

Greensboro Patriot:

A post-office has been established at Salem Junction, with J. Van Lindley as Postmaster.—The marriage of Dr. W. P. Beall and Miss Nettie Settle, daughter of Judge Settle, is announced.—Frank Payne, with Lindsay, Harris & Co., Reidsville, made a narrow escape yesterday from a serious accident. Whilst crossing a bridge on the road between Reidsville and Madison his horse fell through, injuring himself, breaking the sulky and throwing its occupant some distance into the stream below. Fortunately he caught on his feet in his descent and sustained no other injuries than some slight bruises and a good ducking. The horse was badly bruised and the sulky demolished.—Mrs. A. J. Albersson, living near Reidsville, was horrified on waking this morning to find her husband dead. He retired last night in his usual health, and without the slightest premonition of death. Imagine the wife's feeling when in attempting to arouse him she found him cold and stiff in death. He died sometime during the night of heart disease, and passed off so quietly as not to disturb his wife.

Raleigh News and Observer:

It is difficult to find a happier lot of children than the 600 at the Centennial graded school.—The canvass in the county on the railroad question has been very brief, yet active.—There will be a big "railroad rally" in this city next Monday evening, with music, tar barrels, speeches, and all that sort of thing.—A big chicken fight for $1,000 a side will be an event here on the 1st, 2d and 3d of next month, if nothing happens of a character to prevent it.—Yesterday afternoon the enterprising tobacco town of Henderson was visited by one of the severest thunder storms of the season; during its continuance, and while large sales of tobacco were in progress, a bolt of lightning entirely destroyed a large tree within a few feet of the hotel. Col. Ike Young was near by, but not a hair of his head was scorched. It was a wonderful escape.—Hon. S. S. Cox, of New York, or "Sunset" Cox, as he is popularly known, has been invited to lecture in Raleigh in aid of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. One of the most gifted and original of American speakers, his lecture will of course be admirable—something to be remembered by all who hear it.
