LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
J. R. DILLON—City Bakery.
R. BERRY & Co.—Commission m'ch's.

Journal Miniature Almanac.
Sun rises, 6:18; Length of day,
Sun sets, 6:40; 17 hours, 23 minutes.
Moon sets at 4:44 a. m.

The City Fathers have put on three extra teams and have commenced shelling Craven street.

Mr. H. B. Dillon gives us the first "Bakery ad" in the city. His goods look nice, neat and tasty.

Mr. Edward E. G. Robets and lady arrived Thursday night on a special train and are visiting relations in the city.

Leon Richardson and L. L. Burkhead of the Graded School both send in correct arithmetical solutions of the egg problem.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles B. Shepard will take place from Christ Church on Sunday, April 23d, at 4 o'clock, p. m.

Mr. C. E. Slover was hauling up from the wharf on yesterday and opening a fine lot of Fulton market beef and other nice groceries.

The Elm City arrived from Bayboro yesterday evening, bringing some cotton, passengers and 13,000 shingles for Abram Lee.

Wm. Hunter, formerly of Kinston, now drumming for a Baltimore house, is in the city. He is in fine spirits and fond of his new employment.

Dr. E. J. Mattocks, of Jones, is in the city. He reports a great many cases of pneumonia in Jones and Onslow the past winter, but only one case proved fatal.

Dr. Wm. Pell Ballance & Co. bought out the grocery stock, cigars and tobacco of Mr. Frank Patterson yesterday and added them to their already large and well selected stock.

The steamer Trent will leave her wharf, at the foot of Craven street, Monday morning, the 23d, at 6 o'clock, for Jolly Old Field. Freight received for points up Neuse on Saturday the 21st.

It will be gratifying to the former pupils and friends of Miss Corinne Harrison to know that her services as a teacher are so highly appreciated in the Bay State that she has secured a position at Somerville, at an advanced salary.

The Shenandoah carried out over two hundred packages of cabbage and turnips. Of these Mr. J. L. Rhem shipped one hundred barrels of cabbage and forty-five barrels of turnips. He also shipped fifteen head of sheep to eat the turnips if they are not saleable.

Dead.
At her residence in this city, on Friday morning, the 20th inst., in the 66th year of her age, Mrs. Mary Spaight Shepard, relict of the late Hon. Charles B. Shepard.

Ankle Broke.
Tobe Gilmore, one of the many colored boys who hang around the depot and jump on every train that comes in, was carrying on his usual habits on Thursday night when he fell from the train and now has a broken ankle.

Passengers by Steamer Shenandoah.
Among the passengers leaving on the Shenandoah yesterday was M. K. King, Esq., general manager of the Norfolk and Southern Rail Road, and his family; Mrs. W. E. Guion, John R. B. Carraway and a number of "Truck Drummers."

An Officer on Leave.
Mr. John R. B. Carraway, book-keeper and collector at the National Bank is absent on a short leave for recreation. He has recently become much interested in Plymouth where his mother was born and married and says there he must go-let what will come.

Peas.
One box of Meadows' Extra Early peas was on the Old Dominion wharf early yesterday morning. It was sold to Capt. Southgate for $3.50. The Captain says the Shenandoah must have a share of the first. Mr. Colburn, of Colburnville, shipped eighteen boxes of this variety on yesterday via the A. & N. C. Railroad.

Cotton Market.
New York futures off again, closing weak. Spots quiet and unchanged. New Berne market quiet. Sales of forty one bales at the Exchange at the highest bid.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT.
Middle 10 1-4
Short low middling 10 1-16
Trot low middling 9 13-16

NEW YORK FUTURES.
Month. Even. 10.50
May. 10.30
June. 10.25
July. 10.15

Big Eel Catch.
John and Haywood Tucker brought in yesterday morning about half ton of eels, among the pile some very large ones. They were purchased by Mr. Geo. N. Ives and shipped per steamer Shenandoah to Fulton market, N. Y.

The Melvin Heard From.
The schooner Melvin, bound from the West Indies to New Berne, which has been over due several days, put into Smithville on yesterday for supplies. She is loaded with fruit and molasses, and will dispose of her fruit at Wilmington and bring the balance of cargo to this port. Cargo is reported in good condition.

Steam Transportation with Hyde.
Maj. W. A. Hearne returned from Norfolk on the Shenandoah yesterday and says the new steamer Cumberland, which is designed to ply between this city and Hyde county, will be on in about two weeks. The Major has labored hard and long to secure steam transportation between this city and the Egypt of North Carolina and we trust that his labor is not in vain.

Shingles.
We have a sample of a shingle made by Mr. Abram Lee of Adam's Creek, which for smoothness and regularity, beats anything we have seen in the way of a shingle. It is made with Drake's patent shingle machine, which he purchased of Mr. J. C. Whitty, and is as smooth as any draw knife can make them. The capacity of this machine is from ten to eighteen thousand per day, and will make them out of any sort of a tree.

Onslow Court.
The Superior court adjourned on Thursday and the New Berne lawyers have returned, Nixon & Manly, Esqs., with Solicitor Galoway, bringing up the rear on Friday evening.

The most important case on the State docket was that of Jim Bell and his wife Mary, indicted for maliciously burning a house. Messrs. Nixon & Manly, of the firm of Nixon, Simmons & Manly of this city, assisted Solicitor Galoway in the prosecution, while the defendants were represented by Messrs. L. J. Moore and Holland & Guion, of this city, and Thos. E. Gilman, Esq., of Onslow. In this case our young townsman, Philemon Holland, jr., made his maiden speech, and we have heard his effort spoken of in very complimentary terms. The jury had the case for two days and nights but were unable to agree. Mistrial.

Graded School Notes.
Rosettes were awarded to the following pupils of the primary grades, for perfect attendance and deportment during the past week.

FIRST GRADE.
Miss Bertha Tucker, Zeithar Barker. Masters Willie Raspberry Ralph Avery, Tilden Avery and Willie Hay.

ADVANCED FIRST GRADE.
Misses Rosa Dail, Nellie Hilton, Mary Lewis, Bessie Manwell, Annie Sanders, Jennie Watson. Masters James Carraway, James Hill, Peter Hill.

SECOND GRADE.
Misses Jennie Burrus, Minnie Wade, Faith Brock, Gertrude Raspberry, Daisy Swert, Jennie Hall, Louisa Suter, Annie Whitford, Sadie Whitford, Melissa May and Masters James Reed, Herbert House.

The Bell medal was awarded to the 4th grade for the highest per cent of attendance last month.

Stealing in Jail.
A young colored boy about thirteen years of age is now in jail for playing a hand in breaking into Mr. Fred Mahler's store last fall, is evidently training himself for a larger field to carry out his favorite occupation.

In the jail on one side of the corridor is a room in which the janitor keeps sundry articles of provisions etc., and is made fast by a pad lock with a revolving disc on the outside. This boy has been allowed the privilege during the day to come out of his cell and walk in the corridor. For sometime the janitor has missed various little articles from his supply room, and, knowing that he always locked the door, has been at a loss to account for it. At last he determined to search the cells, and in this boy's cell he found some of the missing things. He beset the boy to know how he got them; he owned up and produced a key made out of a thin piece of sheet-iron with a nail with which he had unlocked the door and helped himself. The key is a unique piece of workmanship, and is doubtless like all great inventions—the offspring of necessity. New Berne is too small a place for this boy to operate in. He is capable of filling a wider field.

It is said that fifty years ago shad were so plentiful in the Savannah river that fishermen exchanged them for corn at the rate of one shad for one ear of corn.

STATE NEWS.

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Raleigh Visitor: There is a lady living in Warren county, 83 years old is cutting her second growth of teeth. She has already cut nine new ones, and her gums are very sore, and she is expecting to cut others soon.

Western Sentinel: A postal informs us that Mr. James Lawson, of Stokes county, while loading his wagon with tobacco, preparatory to starting to Winston, a short time since, was accidentally kicked by a mule, just below the knee, the result being a broken and badly shattered leg.—Five candidates were received for membership, at the Baptist Church last Sunday. Three for Baptism and two with certificates from other churches.—A series of meetings will begin in the Baptist Church next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Baldwin, of Greensboro, will assist the Pastor, Rev. H. A. Brown.

Winston Republican: Last week Dr. J. H. Wolf, of Yadkinville, whose condition we noted in these columns a few weeks since, submitted to the amputation of his left arm. The operation was successfully performed by Drs. Siewers and Bahson, Drs. Hauser and Wolf, assisting. The patient is doing well and hopes to be able to go to his brother's in law, Dr. Hauser, in the course of another week.—On Friday morning last, near the stable of Mr. W. H. Hall, in Salem, a torch was found, evidently prepared and intended for use in firing some establishment in one or the other of the towns. We inspected it Tuesday at the drug store of Dr. J. F. Shaffner, Mayor of Salem, and a more thoroughly inflammable torch we never saw.

Raleigh News and Observer: Tuesday Simon Mitchener, a very clever and quiet old negro, was at the polls at Auburn, in St. Mary's precinct, and voted. He was not drinking and behaved in an orderly manner, say persons who saw him. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon he left the polling place to go to his home, a mile away. He never reached there, and his family gave the alarm. A large party of people, white and black, at once began search for him. Finally the body was found concealed behind the wheel of an old mill belonging to Johnson & Barbour, on White Oak Creek, near Auburn. Mitchener's throat was cut from ear to ear, the jugular vein being entirely severed. He had evidently been murdered and thrown behind the wheel. Mr. Johns, accompanied by a son of the murdered man, came to the city yesterday morning with the news of the murder, and Coroner Ellis went back with them to hold an inquest.

Charlotte Journal-Observer: Mr. E. C. Edgeworth who was accidentally shot, in Monroe, last Monday, as reported in this paper yesterday, was in a very critical condition at last accounts yesterday evening and was not expected to live. No reaction had as yet set in and the doctors were afraid to probe for the ball.—Last night about dark a colored woman named Kate Fisher was passing the house of Adaline Alexander, also a woman of color, living near Rob't Trotter's, in the neighborhood of the poor house, when she received a heavy load of buck shot in the back of her head and neck, from a shot-gun discharged by Adaline through a crack of her house. Kate is a single woman and Adaline is married. There had been some difficulty between them, originating in jealousy of the latter's husband, and was only brought to a culmination by the shooting affair of yesterday.—Chas. White, a colored man living at Fort Mill, is lying in a critical condition, having been the subject for a little carving practice by another colored man named Ross White. The fuss was about a woman, as usual. Ross evidently wanted Charles out of the way and went at him with the intention to kill. He cut his opponent over the head, arms and body, and gave him a serious stab in the abdomen. The wounded negro is in a critical condition and will probably die.

Wilmington Star: A gentleman of this city who has tried it, says a glass of warm water, or as hot as you can bear it, taken a half hour before each meal, is a good remedy for dyspepsia. The quantity should be from a gill to a half pint.—We are glad to learn from Mr. G. Z. French that the fruit and vegetables at his Excelsior Plantation, at Rocky Point, are very promising. He says he noticed a few days ago between five and six hundred apple trees in bloom, and says they presented a pretty sight.—The venerable Mrs. John Brown got quite a serious fall on the stone pavement at the corner of Front and Market streets yesterday afternoon. She was placed in a carriage and sent home, and it is hoped that she sustained no serious injury.—A meeting of the Directors of the Clinton and Point Caswell Railroad was held at the Puroell House in this city yesterday. No bid was accepted for the building of the road, we understand, but it was decided to commence grading the road at once, operating at both ends.—Whenever the Democratic party becomes infatuated enough to attempt to get rid of the gray-heads it will be like a vessel at sea without chart or compass. The energy of youth as well as the wisdom and prudence of age are needed in this day to save the State to the only party that has made it prosperous and brought contentment to the people.

Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: In order to accommodate holders of "Old Bonds" of the State—which ceased to bear interest Jan. 1, '83—who may wish to exchange for the new "4 per cent Bonds," without the trouble and expense of sending them to Raleigh, Treasurer John M. Worth, with his nephew, is spending a month in New York City. About $9,000,000 of the "old bonds" have been put in the new paper; and the Doctor hopes to bring back the bulk of the residue—some $2,000,000. The New York World says some of the "old bonders" kick and threaten litigation.—Col. Ike Young seems born for good luck. Many shots have been fired his direction, but all glanced. Giteau's bang at Garfield was believed to have brought down the Colonel's official head, but when the smoke cleared away "that same old coon" still held the persimmon. Last week at Henderson, in the thunder storm, a bolt of lightning came down, and tore up a tree along side of the hotel, and hunted all around for Isaac, but he had just stepped out. It was a "close call," but this is a free country. Providence seems to favor bald-headed people anyhow. You recollect the awful scrape which befell those three bad boys who were torn up by wild bears because they followed the prophet Elisha, shouting—"Hold up! old Baldhead!—try St. Jacob's Oil!"

Enterprise.
Married at Bayboro, last week, Mr. Benjamin Martin and Miss Ellen Caton, Justice Festus Miller officiating. W. N. Pugh, Esq., and Miss Henrietta Linton were the waiters.

A Shoofly correspondent informs us that a noted plow ox on Mr. J. T. Lincoln's farm—under cultivation by Messrs. E. G. Martin and P. F. Miller—while walking an ordinary gait made the plow throw dirt a distance of four feet. Who next?
Mr. C. B. Midyett, who has been fishing for shad about the head of Pamlico sound, reports shad more plentiful this spring than for three or four years. The warm weather will soon put the finny tribe in motion, and we hope soon to see the present fish famine a thing of the past.

Mr. Samuel Campen called in last week, and informed us that corn in the New Ditch section is well up. This is also the case in the territory through which runs the Vandemere road. We are truly glad to learn that the acreage to be confined to cotton in this county will be considerably less than last year. How about jute?

Killis Fisher, colored, was arraigned before Justice Baxter for an affray upon the complaint of L. B. Midyett. Upon investigation of the case the Justice was of the opinion that Killis should pay a fine of $8 and costs or go to jail. Upon the promise of Killis that he would pay the fine and costs in fifteen days he was allowed by the Justice to return to his home.

Terrible Accident on the Richmond and Danville Road.

DANVILLE, Va., April 18.—The freight train on the North Carolina division of the Richmond & Danville Railroad ran over a cow near High Point, N. C., this morning. The engine and tender and eighteen cars were piled up in a cut. Engineer John Gayle was killed instantly. Wm. Wilson, fireman, and a brakeman, name not known, were seriously injured.

A $20.00 Bible Reward.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for May, among which is the following:

We will give $20.00 in gold to the person telling us which is the shortest chapter in the New Testament Scriptures (not the New Revision) by May 10th, 1883. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner May 15th, 1883. Persons trying for the reward must send 30 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the June Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address, RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Eaton, Penna.
