> No More Taxes. There are some of our good citizens who are warm friends of education and would doubtless be glad to see our Graded School prosper, but are at the same time opposed to sustaining it by taxation, because, say they, we already have as much tax to pay as we can possibly bear. There are a few of our citizens who hold to this view, whose opinions are entitled to consideration; but we think they should remember that every child is entitled to a fair education; that it is the duty of every man to contribute of his means, if he has any, to aid in relieving his fellow beings of the bonds of ignorance and degredation. It is a tax upon the community to do this, no matter in what manner the funds are raised for the purpose, and the only question is, how shall it be done. Taxation is unquestionably the fairest and the just way of supporting any institution for the public good. It is true there are occasionally instances where men own property and have no children of their own to be benefitted by a school; so there are many good men who never have any business in the courts but still it is necessary to have courts and they have to be kept up at the expense of the public. We contend, and defy any one to successfully contradictit; that public schools are as much a necessity as courts. This being the case it is just and right that the Graded Schoollin this city, where a large number of poor children are being educated, should be supported by taxation.

Athletic Club Meeting.

The annual meeting of "The New bern Athletic and Social Club" was held at the Court House, Wednesday, May 2, 1883, at 81 o'clock, p.m., the President, E. B. Roberts, in the chair. There being a quorum of the stockholders present, the meeting was opened for the transaction of business.

The report of the Secretary was read. and, on motion, accepted.

The Treasurer's report was then read showing the net amount of cash on hand to be $1,227.60, and, on metion, was accepted and ordered to be filed.

On motion, the Secretary read the list of stockholders and delinquents, and was instructed to wait on those who had made a fractional payment, and request them to settle in full, or make over to the Club their interest in what was already paid.

On motion, that a ballot be taken for the election of officers, Mesers. Alex. Miller, C. H. Blank and J. T. Peele were appointed a committee to verify proxies, and Messrs. Geo. N. Ives and

W. R. Guion were appointed tellers. E. B. Roberts was elected President, ecretary casting ballot. R. H. Hilton was elected in like manner.

Graded School Exhibition. As has been announced from time to time in the JOURNAL, the exhibition of the Graded School to be given this evening is for the benefit of the Graded School Library. The proceeds will be immediately invested in books to be used by the pupils of the school as supplementary reading. The school has gone to considerable expense in getting up this entertainment and will have to pay for the use of the Theatre, thus making it necessary that a small admission fee of 25 cts. shall be charged. It is customary to charge at these exhibitions wherever they are given and to use the proceeds for the benefit of the children. These children who are not in this exhibition will be in one to be given later in the session. All the pupils of the school will be admitted free of charge and the gallery will be reserved for them. The exercises will begin at 8 o'clock sharp and something like the following programme will be carried out:

1. Salutatory. May Scene.

Music. These Little Hands. Geography of New Berne. Song—Busy Bee. Morning, Noon and Night. The Young Soldier.

Music. Calisthenics—Second Grade. "Rienzi's Address." "How Could I Help It?" The Maniac. Chorus-Cousin Jedediah.

Mr. George R. Tull and Mr. Brown, while crossing the Neuse at the blockade just below the railroad bridge last Wednesday, were capsized in the middle of the river by the wind which was blowing hard. Mr. Brown managed to get out of the river, but Mr. Tull clung to a jetty post about the middle of the river for about an hour when the steamer Kinston, Capt. Dixon, came along and took him out of the water. He was very cold and nearly exhausted when relieved and would have been drowned, but for the timely appearance of the steamer.
