GRADED SCHOOL.

Hurray for the Graded School!
Mr. John Yeomans was shipping strawberries to New York yesterday.
The Methodist Sunday school will picnic at Road Spring on the 17th inst.
The county commissioners were in session yesterday and adjourned till to-day.
The steamer Defiance arrived from Baltimore last night with a cargo of general merchandise.

There will be a meeting of the new military company to-night at the Atlantic Fire Engine House at half past eight o'clock.

The Shenandoah carried out on Sunday 2,123 boxes of peas, 69 barrels of cabbage, and several packages of fish and eggs.

Sheriff Hahn was selling land for taxes yesterday at the court house door. Two hundred acre tracts went off at fifty and seventy-five cents.

"I am in favor of educating the children, both white and black," said the noble-hearted Capt. J. A. Richardson as he put in his vote for Schools yesterday.

The Grand Encampment and the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. assemblies in Raleigh to-day. Dr. H. G. Bates, Grand Marshal, is in attendance as a representative of Encampment No. 4, and Mr. E. Gerock is representing Lodge No. 7 of this city.

Died.
In New York, May 4th, after a long illness, Emilie, wife of E. P. Lorch, formerly of this city.

Cotton Market.
Futures declined a few points in New York and spots went off an eighth. Six bales sold at the Exchange, 9 3/4 the highest paid.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT:
 Middling 10 7/8.
 Strict low middling 10 11/16.
 Low middling 10 8/8.

NEW YORK FUTURES:
 May, 10.82
 June, 10.88
 July, 10.90
 August, 10.97

La Grange Academy.
The commencement exercises of La Grange Academy begin on the 30th of May, and will close on the 31st, at 11 o'clock, a. m., with the annual address by Hon. A. S. Merrimon. The annual concert will be held at 7:30 p. m. on the 31st. The following are the Marshals: Messrs. K. E. Satten and D. L. Wooten of Lenoir; Messrs. E. C. King and Redin Corbitt of Pitt; H. F. Murphy of Pender and J. T. Cobb of Greene. We are indebted to them for an invitation to attend.

The Steamer Kinston.
We jumped aboard the steamer Kinston yesterday evening for a trip down the river for the purpose of testing her speed after a heavy fall and winter's work. Four and a half miles down the river she rounded the steamer Defiance and in a nip and tack race back to the city the Kinston pulled up ahead, making the time—a distance of nine miles—in fifty-three minutes. She will now rest a few days until a larger dome can be made for engine, then the same distance will be run in order to test the advantage of the work.

Inconsistency.
One of the opponents of the Graded School employed a very effective weapon to have it defeated, and we think it is one that ought to work both ways. He went around and increased his rents, telling his tenants that he did it on account of having to pay taxes for the Graded School, which would amount to about one-tenth of the increase. His property had rapidly increased in valuation on account of the Graded School, but still he voted "against schools." The tax assessors should stick a pin there.

The Bar of the Court.
Judge Gilmer tells a good one on ex-Judge Gilliam. At a term of the Federal Court in Raleigh, Judge Bond, a sharp, sarcastic man, who presided, and Judge Gilliam had been cutting at each other all the week.
They both met at a banquet at Col. John W. Hindsale's. Judge Bond procured the head of a whole-roasted pig to be cut off and sent to the end of the table occupied by Judge G., and placed before him.
Silence prevailed, while the guests awaited the movement.
Judge Gilliam surveyed it, bowed to Judge Bond, and said:
"Thank God I've got the ear of the Court at last." Bond took umbrage—Tribune Chronicle.

Ox Stealing.
On Monday morning Messrs. L. H. Heath, W. W. Koonce and Ben Koonce from the upper portion of Jones county arrived in the city on the fresh track of a fine ox which had been stolen on the night before from Col. G. C. Moses.
They found the ox in possession of one Moses Beeton, col., who early in the morning had been trying to sell him to Mr. B. Swert who demanded proof of ownership, and before Moses could give it he was picked up. The Mayor had in the mean time received a telegram from Col. Moses to be on the look out for his ox, and His Honor had so instructed the city marshal. As soon as Moses saw these gentlemen from Jones he took to his heels but was picked up in a distance of 400 yards. He was taken before the Mayor for a preliminary hearing where he pleaded not guilty. He admitted however that he brought the ox in and offered him for sale, but denied that he knew it was Col. Moses' ox until daybreak that morning. He was held to bail in the sum of two hundred dollars for his appearance at the next term of Superior court of this county in default of which he was sent to jail.

Memorial Day.
The Memorial services will begin on the Academy Green on Thursday evening at 4 o'clock. The following order of exercises will be observed:

II. Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. V. W. Shields.
III. Music—"Honor to the Braves."

The Election Yesterday.
The annual municipal election took place yesterday. The Democratic candidates in the 1st, 2d and 3d Wards were elected by handsome majorities.
The Graded School bill was also voted upon and we are glad to state, received a majority of the votes cast sufficient to gratify the advocates of the measure and secure the permanent establishment of the school. Below will be found the vote in the several wards.

Washburn & Co.
Quite a number of the newspapers in this State are still publishing the advertisement of these Salicylic acids. There is not a cent of money in it. We exposed these rascals last winter for the benefit of our editorial brethren, but some of them refused to surrender their faith in Washburn & Co. Indeed, the New Berne JOURNAL took the other side of the question and asserted that, so far as its business transactions were concerned, Washburn & Co. were all right. We didn't dispute this proposition but thought it strange that the Salicylic ad was allowed to drop into utter oblivion, a few weeks after, without one farewell shot from the batteries of the JOURNAL as Washburn & Co. disappeared from the advertising columns of that paper. A few of our State exchanges continue to run the advertisement but for this they may perhaps be pardoned as times are dull and the advertising business slack and there must be something to fill up with.—Wilmington Review.

We confess we were taken in, and now regret we did not take our neighbor's advice. Our first bill was paid promptly; we suppose this was intended as a bait, but as soon as the second became due and was not paid, not needing Salicylics to fill up with, we immediately dropped it; and intended to add our testimony to that of the Review's that Washburn & Co. were first class humbugs, but from an oversight failed to do them justice.

The School Bill Carried.
It has been argued on our streets that in order to carry the Graded School bill it was necessary to have a majority of the registered voters in favor of it, but upon a careful examination of the act we find that such is not the case. Sec. 2d provides, "In case a majority of the qualified voters at such election shall vote 'for schools' an assessment shall 'be levied,' etc. As a voter who failed to vote was not a qualified voter at such election, then it only requires a majority of those who did vote. Two hundred and ninety-six votes were cast against it and we are gratified to know that not exceeding thirty or forty white men can be counted in this number, and we are also glad to know that a few colored men voted for schools.

Swansboro Items.
Another spell of very bad weather; more rain fell here on the 1st and 2d days of May than at any time this year; much damage to the cotton planters, and very cold for the time of the year. The pea and potato crops look well considering the cold and rain.
The 1st day of May Banks party came off on Tuesday as per programme, and considering the not very favorable weather, all enjoyed themselves finely. Capt. Dennis gave his services with his fine schooner Roy and carried a large number of old people as well as scores of young ones free of charge.
Mrs. A. F. Farnell, Sr., has sold 184 dozen eggs since last November, eat almost as many at home, now has about 20 dozen on hand, besides, has in the last week set 9 hens with 15 eggs each. About one half of the eggs eaten were bought, all the rest were gathered from the yard farm of Mrs. Farnell.
Major Russell, Capt. Loughlin and Dave Ward all have good potato patches. The latter has the largest potatoes I have seen; saw some on the 28th of April as large as a goose egg. Loughlin will ship some peas this week; by the way Loughlin has been appointed post master at Swansboro in place of J. A. Pittman, who has been post master at this place for several years.

I understand Mr. D. S. Aman, of Palo Alto, has the finest crop, taking altogether, in the county; don't doubt it, for he is one of the best farmers we have, and he has some good land to farm on, too, but Dave is getting so big and fat, eating so much milk and butter from those fat cows, that I expect he is getting rather lazy to work much and I don't blame him. Dave has got some of the best breed of cattle and hogs, to be found in the country anywhere; his nephew, N. S. Shepherd, is merchandising, has a good stock of goods on the place and does a splendid business. Good for Nat.

A grand Sunday school picnic and celebration came off at Queen's Creek church on Saturday, the 5th inst in honor of the Queen's Creek school class with invitations to all the Sunday Schools around to join in the celebration and such a time has not been seen at Queen's Creek church for a season. Addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Smith and Dr. C. Thompson of the Legislature. Those who did not hear and see this, missed a treat worth seeing, having, of course, eating too—we never leave out eating when we can help it—though I am not much of an eater, myself, I like to see it going on. I sometimes like oysters and clams, but don't like them as well as Dr. Barker does. I recollect once in New Berne the Doctor played off on me about eating 16 plates of the fruit at one time, when it was the Doctor, himself, that did the eating and I got the credit of it from the Doctor and Dr. C. J. Mattocks, who were there at the time. Now the Doctor is playing "Nology" on the plates of some of the people in and around Washington City.

Mr. John A. Coston and wife, two old and respected citizens of our community, are going on a visit to Wilmington for a few months, to see their son-in-law, B. G. Willis, jr. Mr. Coston is 74 years old, and is as lively as any man of his age. Though having a good home he is not able to work now, so rented out his farm, and is going to engage in selling books. We wish him success for he is a good man, not having an enemy in the county. Another son-in-law, who is a mechanic, has just completed all the work at Mr. Farnell's; also moved a house, built a chimney, underpinned same, and left for Mr. George Freshwater's, where he will complete a house for that gentleman, lately enclosed by W. H. Hill of Swansboro. Mr. Hill was taken sick and could not finish the job. Henry Willis wants to hire two good workmen, as he intends to carry on work in his line all the year. Another son-in-law of Mr. Coston, A. L. Willis, has a fine little schooner (Moy-flower) built by himself on the sharpie style, which he runs himself up and down New river from its mouth, boating shells, oysters, lumber, etc., making about $1,200 per year. He usually makes two trips per week. In one of these trips his son, Glenn, shot and killed a large alligator with a small gun with small shot, something unusual for a boy only 9 years old. The 'gator was 9 1/2 feet long. The 'gators are scarce this season so far, but if nothing happens in a week or so your humble servant will show you some large teeth, and some large backbones both of alligators and snakes.

Seven Springs Items.
Seawell's Tannery is now in full operation and the woods now resound with the echo of the axes of the bark cutters.
Mr. Wiley Rouse, one of the oldest and most respectable citizens of Trent township, Lenoir county, died last Sunday.
Next week is Superior court in our county and the vile and the guilty quake in their boats and evil doers look as if they smelt brimstone.
A fine tabby house cat was seen a few days since floating down the river on a raft. Grimalkin was rescued at Carter's landing, six miles below this place.
A gay party of excursionists from Kinston and elsewhere came up on the steamer Kinston yesterday, and our streets were filled with throngs of young ladies, gentlemen, children, etc.
Our townsman, Dr. I. S. Davis, has been in ill health for some time and is spending a few days at Mt. Olive with his daughter, Mrs. Hawkins. We are glad to hear the Doctor is improving.
The very rare occurrence of a whisky seller, armed with a petition to prohibit the sale of liquor in our town, was witnessed one day this week. A petition in opposition was also being circulated, but the Dry beat the Wet two to one. Better times are coming.
The wife of John Kornegay, colored, was shockingly burned to death near here one day last week. She had laid down before the fire and while asleep her clothing took fire. When found by the neighbors she was dead in the yard with her clothing burned off and the cabin on fire.

Vanceboro Squibs.
A grand picnic at Mr. H. Bryan's store has passed and all seemed to enjoy it pretty well, especially the little ones. Quite a large crowd of young ladies enjoyed an excursion on our creek and river on Tuesday, the first day of May, under the care of Capt. C. T. Cherry at this place.
Mr. George Vintis, our accomplished postmaster at Calico, in Pitt county, is trying to get a semi-weekly mail from Vanceboro to Greenville. Our mail is improving on that route.
A large crowd came down from Pitt on the steamer L. H. Culler. We learn from Cicero Griffin there were 150 persons. They met at Cow Pen landing and everything passed off lovely. Fiddling and dancing was the order of the day.
