LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun sets, 8:33 | 12 hours, 54 minutes.
Moon sets at 9:38 p. m.

We regret to hear that our townsman, W. F. Rountree, Esq., is quite sick.

To-morrow being a holiday the National Bank of New Berne will be closed.

W. A. Coleman, Esq., has been appointed Postmaster at Kinston. An excellent appointment.

The steamer Trent arrived from Trenton yesterday evening with 70 bales of cotton and passengers.

In the municipal election on Monday, Mr. W. F. Rountree received every vote cast in the Second ward for Councilman.

The schooner Mary Fleetwood, Capt. J. P. Flowers, will sail next Saturday morning for Swan Quarter, Hyde county. All who desire to go to Hyde court can secure passage on this boat.

Among the cotton sellers at the Exchange on Tuesday we observed Messrs. B. P. Stanly, S. H. Phillips, Nathan Gilbert and Elijah Scott, the owner of the wonderful turkey hen, of Chinquapin, Jones county.

Rev. E. M. Forbes of Beaufort came up yesterday and says there was considerable excitement over the municipal election down there. He started to tell us who was elected but couldn't remember the names.

The steamer Trent will to-day make a trip to Pollockville, and every Wednesday hereafter during the season, leaving at 8 a. m. and returning at 4 p. m. The low rates charged, 25 cents for round trip, will enable many of our citizens to take a view of the picturesque Trent.

The steamer Cutler made her second trip to Bachelor's Creek on Tuesday, and returned with 300 boxes of peas and the following passengers: Messrs. B. Weatherby and W. P. Richardson, Mrs. Mat. French and Bettie Hart, and Misses Maggie, Alice and Clara Richardson.

The steamer Snow Hill arrived last night from Snow Hill with thirty-nine bales of cotton and the following passengers: R. J. Williams, W. C. Munroe, Esq., W. H. Holderness and W. H. Dail of Snow Hill; and D. V. Dixon, John Patrick, W. P. Ormond, Esq., and F. A. Simpson of Hokerton. They all took quarters at the Gaston House.

Messrs. Watson & Street, of this city, General Insurance Agents of the Hartford Life and Annuity Insurance company, have paid to Mrs. Christina Jarvis, of Washington, N. C., two thousand ($2000) dollars, insurance on the life of her late husband, John E. Jarvis. The prompt and businesslike manner in which this truly popular company manages its affairs should, as it does, commend it to the favorable consideration of all who contemplate life insurance. A large number of our citizens, principally business and professional men, hold large policies in the Hartford; some of them for as much as fifteen thousand dollars each who, after an experience of a few years, pronounce its plan the perfection of life insurance.

Hands Paid Off.
The employees of the A. & N. C. Railroad were being paid off yesterday. The usual time for paying off is the 15th, but we presume the Receiver management is having better luck and are able to pay off ahead of time.

Heavy Shipment.
The Shenandoah carried out the heaviest shipment of peas on Tuesday; there were 4,570 boxes, 131 barrels of cabbage, 6 barrels of turnips, 3 barrels of potatoes, 23 boxes of eggs, 3 barrels of fish, 60 bales of cotton and 80 barrels of peas. There was also a good shipment via the A. & N. C. E. R. the same day.

Meeting of State Board of Pharmacy.
E. H. Meadows, Esq., left for Goldsboro yesterday to attend a meeting of the State Board of Pharmacy which convenes to-day. The Board consists of E. H. Meadows, of New Berne, W. H. Green, of Wilmington, Wm. Simpson, of Raleigh, E. M. Nadal, of Wilson and John Tull of Morganton. The meeting is for the purpose of examining applicants, two of whom, Leinster Duffy and Benj. Jones, are from New Berne.

Cotton Market.
New York futures closed quiet and steady on Tuesday with sales of 80,000 bales. Spots closed steady. New Berne market firm, sales of sixty-five bales, the best bringing 10 cents.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT:
Middleling 10 7-8
State low middleling 10 11-16
Low middleling 10 3-8

NEW YORK FUTURES:

Morehead City Election.
The following municipal ticket was elected at Morehead City last Monday:
For Mayor, John J. Royal.
For Commissioners, Silas Webb, W. N. Dennis, W. L. Arendall and Phillip Leffer.
Commissioners of Navigation, Dr. M. F. Arendall and Daniel Bell.

The Graded School Vote.
The Board of City Councilmen at a meeting held yesterday morning adopted the following resolution:
We, the Mayor and Council of the city of New Berne, have, in accordance with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina entitled "An Act to establish Graded Schools in the city of New Berne," passed at the session of 1882, caused an election to be held in said city by the qualified voters thereof on the seventh day of May, 1883, to determine whether the assessment of taxes provided for by said Act should be made, and having this day met and canvassed the votes and returns of said election according to law, do find and declare the result of the aforesaid election to be, That a majority of said qualified voters at said election voted "For Schools," and that the result of said election was in favor of the assessment of taxes aforesaid and that at the proper time the said assessment be made.

Kinston Items.
William A. Coleman has been appointed Post-master at Kinston, North Carolina.

The people voted last Monday overwhelmingly in favor of levying taxes to establish Graded Schools for the white and colored races at Kinston. The vote stands 247 "For Schools," and 88 "Against Schools." It was a very light vote, not more than half of the electors turning out to vote.

The town election resulted in the success of the "diaper" ticket. The "diapers" were a little scorched, but not torn. J. R. Uzzell, for Mayor, received 140 votes; W. F. Stanly, who was not a candidate, received 46 votes; E. F. Cox, J. C. Jackson, S. H. Abbott and Horace West were elected town commissioners without opposition. The election passed off peaceably and pleasantly.

"State against Wm. W. N. Hunter—Arson. Nol pros on account of the death of the defendant."—Beaufort Telephone. Mistake, perhaps, of the printer. The defendant is not dead, but is still figuring away as deputy clerk of Lenoir Superior court. Any one, however, who can suffer his "troubles and tribulations" and live, promises to enjoy the longevity of Mahuselah. Many of our people believe he was more "sinned against than sinning" and will be pleased at his halt in the prosecution.

The marshals, Messrs. Sutton, Murphy, King, Cobb, Wooten and Corbett have politely extended us an invitation to the commencement exercises of La Grange Academy on the 30th and 31st instants. Declarations commence at 10 o'clock a. m., May 30th; recitations and dialogues at 7.30 p. m. Judge Merrimon delivers the annual address at 10 o'clock a. m., May 31st, and the exercises close with the annual concert, commencing at 7.30 p. m. of that day. The well known entertaining exercises of the citizens of La Grange and vicinity and the reputation of the orator of the day offer an attractive bill to the public. The occasion promises to be very pleasant and instructive to all visitors.

Stonewall Items
Miss Annie Sullivan is gradually growing worse. She has the sympathy of the whole community.

Dr. G. S. Atmore informs me that while on a professional trip to Adam's Creek to see Mr. Jno. M. Lane, who is and has been in a painful and precarious condition last week that he was informed that Sol Burgess, col., had one of the most exciting May days he ever witnessed. He, Burgess, rejoices that while in Smith's Creek in his boat he caught a small alligator and to his horror others kept appearing until he counted 401 more, big and little ones; he became so excited and frightened that he lay down on his back in the bottom of his boat and left that spot as fast as he could scull away.

The county commissioners met yesterday to transact their routine of business. They have had preparation for the poor who are dependent on the county for support at Bayboro, and have had them removed to their new quarters, which rest on the part of the commissioners every good citizen of the county will approve. There are four inmates for the whole county; can any other county show a smaller list according to population? There are but two in jail, the man and woman for murder; not the Hyde county hanging murder, for they have not as yet been heard from except through report and the JOURNAL.

The town election for Bayboro resulted in the election of the regular nominated ticket. To wit: Jas. B. Turner for Mayor, Democrat, and Nathan Hooker, Lawrence Miller, Democrat, and Jno. W. Stilly, Rep., Commissioner. The election in our place resulted in the election of not the exactly nominated ticket, a majority of the voters not being satisfied at the nominated ticket, which was James W. Dawson for Mayor, and Jas. G. Cherry, Rufus H. Baxter and W. T. Caho for commissioners. Those who did not agree to that ticket ran Jas. B. Lane for Mayor and Jno. W. Brabble, Jas. G. Cherry and Rufus H. Baxter, and the result of the vote was Jas. W. Dawson 15 votes, Jas. B. Lane 15; Lane's majority 3; R. H. Baxter 24 votes; Jas. G. Cherry 21; W. T. Caho 16; Jno. W. Brabble 16. All are Democrats and no Republicans.

Jones County Items.

Quarterly meeting at Shady Grove on next Sunday, Rev. Mr. Mann Presiding Elder. A rich treat of the kind is expected, as Mr. Mann never makes a failure.

We would be pleased to see our young friends, Holland & Guion, at some of our commissioner's courts. As G. would say, "How does that strike you?" for "Ram Shack."

A town election is being held in Trenton to-day for the purpose of electing a new set of officers under the new charter granted by the last Legislature. Some little interest is felt in the matter, everything is progressing quietly.

Joseph A. Smith was elected Mayor of Trenton at the recent election and J. P. Brogden, George Coble, Balam Meadows, commissioners. The question now arises, who is Mr. Meadows? For the benefit of the enquiring public, we would state, he is a humble colored individual, elected by white votes over two of the best business men of the place, C. H. Foy and Thomas C. Whitaker. How does that strike the public?

Steamer Trent came up to Trenton a few days ago, arrived at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. Several ladies came up on the boat, among which was Miss Peyton, of Brooklyn, who is a very accomplished young lady. She made a host of friends during her short stay in our little village. Several passengers went down to New Berne on return of steamer. Mr. C. H. Foy and lady and P. M. Pearsall, of this place, were with the number.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of listening to two very good sermons on Sunday last, preached by Rev. Mr. Bowen, of the Disciples Church. He is an earnest and impressive speaker and is doing much good as a laborer in the noble cause in which he is engaged. Two accessions to the church at Deep Spring last Sunday, quite a large membership there now. Mr. Bowen seems to be very popular with his church and deservedly so we believe.

Commissioners Court in Trenton to-day; all the Board present; no business of importance transacted. The question as to a reappraisal of the tax upon real estate was raised. No action was taken. The subject was left open for the present. If the tax upon real estate is increased, the sheriffs will be in clover. They pray and wait patiently for the good time coming. Shout and sing "What will the harvest be?" A rich one to them, we presume.

Capt. Simmons of the U. S. Revenue cutter and Mr. Clement Manly came up to-day. Brother Manly wears the same beaming, jovial face. His friends are legion in this county. He has the knack of making friends wherever he goes. By the way, he is about as good on Shakespeare as he is on law. He is well versed in Hamlet and can tell you all about "My fathers spirit." He and the Solicitor frequently get up rehearsal in Shakespeare and give private entertainments for the benefit of their many friends and admirers all of which are very clever. The Solicitor tells an imitable story which every manager of a menagerie ought by all means to learn. The description of the old lady's view of Daniel and the lion is side splitting and brings tears (not of sorrow, oh no; Galloway would not do anything like that) of laughter to the eyes. Zeb Vance cannot beat Galloway on an anecdote.

La Grange Items.

Levis Foss, a citizen of this township, received on Saturday a legacy of $207.69 from deceased relatives in Denmark.

Messrs. Joyner & Murphy's school building is being repaired and put in "apple pie" order for commencement. A big crowd is expected to hear Merrimon.

Services at the Methodist Church last Sunday by Rev. Mr. Ialer of the Presbyterian church. Text, Mark, 1st chap., latter clause of 37th verse; subject, attractions of Jesus.

A pair of shoes was believed to have been stolen from the store of Simeon Wooten on Saturday, but the taker affirmed that she bought the shoes, and the matter was adjusted without the judiciary.

The town election in this place passed off to-day as quietly as could be expected. The following were elected commissioners: H. M. McDonald, McDonald Taylor, Macon Pully, James K. Driver and William Warters (col.).

The planting of a tree by the Graded School in New Berne, to the memory of James W. Harper, was a worthy tribute to a worthy man. Among the worthy ones of this, his native county, he stands in the front rank:
"He who does the best his circumstances allow.
Does well, acts nobly, angels could do no more."

A base-ball match was commenced here last Saturday between nine of the Goldsboro club and nine of the Davis High School club. Three innings were played, each club scoring two. The fourth inning was being played by the Goldsboro boys, when a controversy arose as to the rules, and the umpire, J. P. Joyner, deciding adversely to their understanding of the rules, they withdrew from the game.

A Presbyterian church will be organized in this place the 1st Sunday in June. Committee of organization: Revs. L. C. Vass, J. C. Alexander and Mr. George Allen. The following exercises will be observed: Preaching on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. L. C. Vass. Subject, What is Presbyterianism? Preaching Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m., organization of the church; reception of members and election of officers. Preaching Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, and the ordination and installation of officers.

Your itemiser has received, with the compliments of the Marshals, an invitation to the commencement exercises of La Grange Academy, May 30th and 31st, 1883. Programme: May 30, 10 o'clock a. m., Declarations; 7:30 o'clock, p. m., Recitations and Dialogues. May 31st, 11 o'clock, a. m., Annual Address by A. S. Merrimon of this State. 7:30 o'clock, p. m., Annual Concert. Marshals—K. E. Sutton and D. L. Wooten of Lenoir county, E. C. King and Redin Corbett of Pitt county, H. F. Murphy of Fender county, and J. T. Cobb of Greene county.

Vanceboro Items.

Truck farms are looking well in this vicinity.

Mr. R. C. Cleve is the happy man; it is a boy.

Pea picking commenced on May 1st. Irish potatoes are doing well.

A heavy rain and cool weather has stopped cotton planting for a few days.

Very little sickness. Dr. D. W. Smith, our practicing physician, has but few calls of late.

Miss Sarah Elks was in town this week visiting friends. Miss Elks is from Pitt county.

Mr. C. T. Cherry is making three trips per week from this place to New Berne, with good cargoes each.

Mr. J. D. Dinkins has sold his liquors and bar to B. F. Dinkins and moved to New Berne to keep Mr. A. Holton's bar.

Mr. Wm. Forest, of Green county, is here visiting relatives and likely on other business. Mr. Forest is a single man.

A good congregation at the Baptist church, Sunday, expecting to hear Eld. R. K. Hearne preach, but the old gentleman did not attend. We learn he is sick, as he seldom fails to meet his appointments.

The L. H. Cutler came down from Jolly Old Field with a large crowd of pleasure seekers and met the Florence at the Cowpens, and all partook of a bountiful dinner, which they spread on the banks of the Neuse.

The M. E. Church held their second quarterly meeting for this mission at this place last Sabbath and Saturday before, Elder Nelson presiding. He also visited our Sabbath school in the morning. We have a good Sabbath school and a good subscription school in charge of Mr. J. A. Jackson.
