Very few fish in market yesterday.

Overcoats comfortable yesterday evening.

Buffalo Mead is a silver pitcher at John Dunn's to-day.

Eggs are selling from the carts at from nine to ten cents.

The schooner Theresa, Capt. Fisher, arrived from Germantown yesterday with cotton.

The steamer L. H. Cutler arrived from Jolly Old Field yesterday evening with 13 bales of cotton, corn and meal.

Our typo, R. R. Hill brings us a bucket of the finest Irish potatoes we have seen. Mrs. Hill must superintend that garden.

Henry Wahab returned from Hyde yesterday evening, driving Abdalla, a fine horse. He says George Credle sustained his reputation at court.

J. R. Dillon's bakery is turning out fresh pies, cakes and bread of the best quality. No hungry man can pass his door and forego the temptation to leave an order.

About one thousand gallons of peas were received at the Canning Factory yesterday; also several boats loaded with oysters were on hand, making it a busy day.

The city appeared deserted yesterday. A large crowd attended the Methodist picnic at Rock Spring on Trent river, and Andrew's Chapel, col., carried four or five hundred on the steamer Trent. Several trips had to be made by the boat to get them all out.

In one of the schools in Paterson, N. J., a negro girl was put as substitute teacher in the schools two or three times. The girl has graduated at the city high school, was in the teachers' training class, and entirely competent; but scholars left the rooms or refused to recite, parents protested, and the negro girl was dismissed.

Die.
At the residence of Mr. B. Smith in this city, Mrs. Francis L. Blount, of Washington, in the 64th year of her life. The funeral will take place from Christ church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Large Cabbage.
Mr. W. Dunn sent in from his farm yesterday to Mr. E. H. Meadows the finest cabbage of the season. It weighed eighteen and one-fourth pounds. Mr. Dunn is a scientific trucker and a very successful one. We have seen some very fine heads of cauliflower from his farm this spring.

Cotton Market.
New York futures off a few points, closing barely steady. Sales of 15 bales 9-10 the highest paid.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT:
Middling 11-11 1/2
Strict low middling 10 7/8
Low middling 10 9/16

NEW YORK FUTURES:
May, 10.95
June, 10.97
July, 10.98
August, 10.98

Hyde Court.

Our canvasser, C. C. Taylor, returned from Hyde county yesterday evening, bringing a good list of subscribers. Court adjourned on Wednesday. John Gibbs, col., was convicted of larceny, and sentenced for four years to the penitentiary. He was sent up for a term of ten years several years ago, and was sent to work on the W. N. C. R. R., where in blasting rock he was permanently disabled and afterwards pardoned by the Governor. He was not so disabled, however, as not to be able to practice his old tricks, in less than a year he is convicted of stealing a turkey and a chicken.

Your Name in Print.
Mr. W. J. Street, the popular hotelier of Kinston, and lady were in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Sarah Kachoff and her daughter, pretty Miss Irene, left on the Western bound train yesterday evening.

Mr. H. L. Way, and family left for their Northern home in Connecticut yesterday. For several years they have been spending the winter in New Berne and have made many warm friends. Mr. Way says he sees signs of improvement in the city on every visit, but he hopes that the streets will not be again allowed to get in the condition they were last winter.

Mr. Isaac Brown of Truckee, Jones county, was in the city on Thursday with a lot of fine mutton hams. He was at Geo. Allen & Co.'s investing in agricultural implements.

Mr. J. G. Wilby returned from Hyde county on the steamer City last evening and reports good sales in his line.

Solicitor Blount is in the city on his way to Pamlico court.

TRUCKING.

Mr. J. L. Rhen has shipped two thousand barrels of cabbage this spring from twenty-five acres so far and will get about one thousand more. The prices have held up well, bringing an average of $3.00 per barrel.

The secret of success in trucking is making some of everything that is marketable. Those who have relied upon peas alone this spring will rarely come out even, while cabbage, turnip and onion growers have made money.

City Improvements.
Mr. F. G. Simmons is having his dwelling on Johnson street thoroughly overhauled and enlarged.

James Thompson is having a new store built on Broad street.

The roof of Mr. A. H. Holton's store on Commercial row has received a new coat of shingles.

The law office of Nixon, Simmons & Manly has been thoroughly renovated and made pleasant for visitors, especially clients.

Mr. Geo. Guion has had the wall next to his store newly painted. His example might be followed by others to good advantage.

Rev. Mr. Eason has had his study repaired, and is having the paint brush used.

MORE SUITS.

Appleton Oaksmith began an attachment suit in superior court of this county against the Midland N. C. R. R. Co. yesterday claiming fifteen thousand on a bond made to him by the Company for thirty thousand dollars. A warrant of attachment was executed on the bonds in the National Bank deposited by said company.

Transcripts of judgments in fifty-six cases against the Midland Co. were also docketed in the superior court and supplementary proceedings instituted by L. G. Tillotson & Co., of New York, and others—employees of the company. Nixon, Simmons & Manly and L. J. Moore, Esq., appeared for the plaintiffs.

Dr. J. A. Guion, cashier of the National Bank, was summoned before the court and testified that the Midland Company had on deposit $85,000 in N. C. four per cent. bonds with one set of coupons past due attached, and that no attachment in favor of Oaksmith was served before the notice for him to appear before the court in this case. An order was issued by Probate Judge Carpenter to the cashier to safely keep said bonds and coupons and in no manner dispose of them.

There are desperate efforts being made to get "the bonds," but wouldn't it be funny if all hands fail to touch 'em.

A Big Lie.

MR. EDITOR:—I was as much astonished as any subscriber of your paper, when I read, May 10th, that Peter Cox had hauled two hundred and twenty-five loads of manure in one day on my place.

Peter Cox, with three other hands and four carts, with two small boys to drive, hauled out of my lot two hundred and twelve loads a distance of about two hundred and fifty or three hundred yards. One of the best hands remained in the lot all the time and loaded. These hands did good work, the manure being bad to take up. They traveled two miles before they commenced work in the morning.

I think most people that know Peter would excuse him in part for lying, it being hereditary.

Very respectfully,
H. W. HUMPHREY,
Richlands, N. C.

Sub-Contracts.
RICHLANDS, N. C., May 18, 1883.

MR. EDITOR:—I see the following notice posted on the door of the post-office in this place, to-wit:

NOTICE.
The Post Master General has awarded me the contract for carrying mail from Richlands to Trenton, July 1st, 1883, to June 30th, 1884.

Any one wishing to sub contract for services on said route will please address me by letter, Black Water, Va., 82183.

Andrew Easley, M. D.
I hope that this man will find no sub contractor but will be compelled to carry out his contract and have to ride a long eared animal whose initials are J. A. We are suffering on account of the low contract from here to Kenansville. That is irregularly in the arrival of the mail on account of the amount being insufficient to keep on the line strong horse power. There are Star route contractors on trial in Washington City now. The writer is not a contractor for any route, neither did he bid for any, and is only interested as to the prompt arrival and departure of the mails. But was the law of Congress carried out in good faith? How is it that one way in Virginia can afford to carry the mail from here to Trenton cheaper than one who lives in Trenton or Richlands? It is not a little surprising how it is done. Let no one in Trenton or Richlands sub contract, but let him come and straddle the J. A. and carry out his own contract. We hope too the Government will be more careful and execute the laws so as to save Star Route trials such as have been going on for some time at the capitol.

Kinston Items.

Strawberries 10 cents a quart.
Showery and electrical last Tuesday—cool and fair next day.

New dip, or virgin turpentine, is now coming in quite freely—it brings $2.40 per barrel of 280 lbs, and $1.40 for scrape.

Messrs. Cummings and Davis will commence shipping new Irish potatoes next Wednesday. Their potatoes are now large as goose eggs.

Deputy Sheriff King is fattening about the jaws like a guinea pig. It may be the mumps, but many believe it is the "good thing" he finds in his office.

W. T. Oast, who has served as town constable and collector of taxes under several administrations, after a lapse of one year, again wears the badge of authority, the new board of commissioners having appointed him to his old place for the existing fiscal year.

The Clem Baily Gold Medal, intended to stimulate regular attendance in the Kinston Graded School, was presented in the presence of a large and intelligent audience last Tuesday night, by Rev. W. C. Gannon, to Master Paul LaRoque of the Second grade, who gallantly committed the prize to the keeping of Miss Amelia Hardee, the efficient teacher of his grade.

The Spring sessions of our schools and colleges are drawing to a close, when commencement exercises, with its gayeties, begin. The "nice young men" and the Flora McFlimseys are wondering "what to wear" and where to find their wants. Their attention is directed to the fine collection of fashionable styles at Einstein's, where just what they need and want can be had.

J. F. Parrott, Esq., of the Kinston Saw Mill Works, is filling an order from Randolph county for sixty thousand of his regular cut shingles. He is also the happy and fortunate recipient from "fair ladies" of an elegant invitation to attend the Greensboro Female College commencement exercises on the 27th, 29th, 30th and 31st instants. Our young attorneys, D. E. Perry and Senator Loftin also have, from fair hands and loving hearts, invitations to the same literary entertainment; and ex-Judge J. Q. Jackson thinks the weighty professional labors of his young friends will prevent their attendance—he calculates not, however, of Cupid's influence over these young men. Our fine looking young Mayor is also expecting, with palpitating heart, similar favors from the same loving and enlightened quarters.

STATE NEWS

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Greensboro Patriot: J. Van Lindley has 500 early peach trees hanging with fruit, and promises us a basket by the 20th of June. He reports about two-thirds of a crop of peaches and a full crop of apples and other small fruits.

Elizabeth City Economist: Sunday night of the 13th inst. was the scene of one of the most disastrous fires that has ever occurred in Elizabeth City. It broke out about 2 o'clock in the morning between the stores of W. A. Moody and W. C. Harrison on Main street near the water, and before it could be arrested, burned every house and store on the two adjacent blocks north of Main street, between Water and McMorine streets—except the two brick stores of W. W. Walker and W. W. Brown. Thirty-five buildings were destroyed, among them the dwelling of Marsey Sanderlin, the store and dwelling of W. C. Harrison, the large block of buildings owned by B. C. Brothers, including a hotel and several stores, the new livery stables of Samuel Williams, the dwelling and beer-bottling establishment of Jos. Salomonsky, and the carriage and buggy factory of J. F. Sanders. The aggregate of insurance on all the property destroyed was only $26,000. The loss is variously estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000. In blowing up a frame building to arrest the fire, a colored man named Jacob Riddick was badly injured. It is thought that he cannot live. No lives were lost in the fire.

Raleigh News and Observer: The wheat near this city is not so good as last year, which it was a remarkable one, but is nevertheless quite good.—Judgment in the sum of $5,000 has been taken against J. H. Cox, lately sheriff of Perquimans county, for failing to pay his State taxes.—Yesterday 80,000 young shad were placed in Neuse river near this city, making a total of 321,000 placed in that stream here for this season. Fish Commissioner Worth is doing a good work.—Most of the fruit growers say that the present season bids fair to be an exceptional one for fruits of all kinds. All the trees are loaded, and berries are very abundant, while strawberries are of large size and delicious flavor.—The Auditor yesterday completed the difficult task of sending out to each of the ninety-six counties of the State the tax list blanks.—The cost of the Governor's mansion, a turkey job, is to be, it is said, $25,000. This includes an iron fence around the lot, a steam engine for pumping water etc. This will leave some $9,000 for furniture, etc.—As the train was passing Col. Thos. Holt's residence, on Sunday, at the rate of twenty-five miles per hour, a partridge flew into the window, brushing Capt. M. Jordan's head. The bird was caught by the Captain, and was enjoyed at breakfast by him Monday morning.—Mr. P. A. Dunn, of Wake Forest, tells us that the crops there are looking well. Corn, wheat and oats are all in fine condition. The stand of cotton is good and the plant growing well. It is as far advanced as last season at this date, and is growing better, he thinks. His opinion of crop prospects is very encouraging.
