STATE NEWS

Cleaned from our Exchanges.

Greenville Reflector: The far-mers in this section are not com-plaining. If there is no more un-favorable weather Pitt county will favorable weather Pitt county will make a large crep.

Wil. Star: We regret to hear that Mr. Joseph W. Taylor was quite badly injured by the sudden parting of one of the belts at his mill on Wednesday afternoon, by one end of which he was stricken and knocked across the timber carriage among a pile of lumber and sustained severe bruises about the face and body beside spraining one of his wrists. He was taken to his home, near by where he received nome, near by where he received the necessary surgical attenton. He was better yesterday, we under-stood.—The latest curiosity is a chicken, two or three weeks old, chicken, two or three weeks old, that has but one wing. The gentleman who owns this queer represensative of paultrydom had his attention first attracted to the chicken by noticing that it could not walk good, the ode-sided arrangement of its external make up seriously interfering with its powers of becometion. ers of locomotion.

Fayetville Observer : Mr. W. J. Hollingsworth, who has been with the State Fish Department at Avoca and more recently at Welden, returned home the other day, bringing some fine specimens of the rock ova and young fish, show-ing their appearance just after hatching and when one or two days old. We hope we may soon see some substantial and beneficial results from the labors of the Fish Department in North Carolina'-The other day, while the La Payette Light Infantry were target practicing, a minnie bail whizzed by ticing, a minnie bail whizzed by the head of Mr. J. K. Kyle, at work in his field three quarters of a mile away. He was too far distant to distinguish the report of the gun, but the old familiar 'zip' could not be mistaken he has heard it too often. These guns about an the child are respectively. shoot as the children say; 'clean out of sight; and the only way to discharge one safely is to bang away in the ground, calling out for the people on the other side to lookout down below.

Chatham Record: The assessors of this township have increased the valuation of the real estate therein 043,000, making it 174,000 instead of $131,000 as heretofore. If the valuation of the property in all the other townships has been increased as much as in this it will amount to about half a million dollars in this county. We doubt, however, if many townships have made so great an increase, and we do not know a man in this who will sell his farm at the valuation placed on it by the assessment. it by the assessors.—Mr. John Wicker, of Moore county, and his sister Mrs. Stephen Johnson, of this county, both died the same nightlast week. It was quite a remarkable coincidence.—Mr. D. Y White, of Bear Creek township, has brought to the Record's museum a tebagge leaf raised by him that is quite a curiosity. It is a double or twin leaf, each half of which is exactly the same size.

Trish Faction Fights.

Among the miseries brought upon Ireland by the use of whiskey were the Faction Fights, wherein O'Kelley's belabored the skulls of the O'Leary's, because they belonged to the rival clan. It was a high compliment which one of Father Matthews' converts paid to the labors of the Apoetic of Temperance, when he said, "At the last fair in Tralee there wasn't a stick lifted; but the Lawlers and the Cooleens met for the first time in lifted; but the Lawlers and the Cooleens met for the first time in the memory of man without laving a dead boy to be carried home to the widdy's cabin." In Mr. S. C. Hall's "Retrospect of a Long Life," there is reported a scene which illustrates the traditional story of the draken Irishman rushing about a fair bassessing agency.

charged with nearly killing a bald-headed man, who a head bald-headed man, who is head was a bloody mass.

Being asked to sweet information against the accused who had wounded him, the injured man was silent, and on being pressed refused to say anything.

The magistanta turned to the culprit and said, the plan but ashamed to have killed this old man who will not give information who will not give information against you? Had you any illwill to him!"

"Oh, none at all, yer Honor; I never saw him before today."

"Then, what made you do it?"

"Well I'll tell yer Honor God's truth. Ye see, I came late into the fair. Late, was agin a, for all the fighting was ever, to as I was strutting about, looked for some boy to cross a stick at I saw this poor many buld head so taded out of a slit of the tent that he might cool it; and the below to inviting that for the seel of me, I couldn't help hitting the blow."

Weekly Courier-Journal.

The Courier-Journal, (Henry Watterson, Editor), is by circulation and reputation the acknowledged Representative Newspaper of the South. As a reliable and valuable newspaper it has no superior in this country or in the world. It makes earnest, vigorous war on Protective Tariff robbery and Mor-mon Polygany, two evils that blight the prosperity and morality of the United States. It is able, bright and newsy, contains the strengest editorials, the most complete summary of the news or the world, the best telegraphic and general correspondence, full turf and stock reports, market reports, fashion reports, Talmage's sermons, splendid original serial stories and novelettes, poetry department for children, answers to correspondents, etc.; in a word, every-thing to make it a delight to the family circle, and invaluable to the man of business, the farmer, the mechanic and the laborer.
