half a century ago to make up for any loss of violence.

The cholera news from Egypt will certainly be watched with great anxiety throughout Europe, and if Americans fail to share the same feeling it will be because of a false sense of security.

The Atlantic was no barrier to the advance of the terrible epidemic before the days of ocean steam navigation; and now that the sea is almost bridged by daily steamships the disease may be expected to travel almost as fast by water as by land. It is possible that its progress may be checked by a rigorous quarantine throughout Europe. It is no doubt possible to stop it if the quarantine be rigorous enough; but it is exceedingly difficult to make it rigorous enough, and if the epidemic shall become as general in Egypt as it now promises, the chances of its following the lines of westward travel around the world are strong.

GENERAL NEWS.

EL PASO, Texas, July 6.—Joseph Brewster, the soldier who outraged Mrs. Davis at Fort Davis one year ago, was hanged at Ysleta yesterday afternoon. He made no confession, but delivered a speech of twenty minutes' duration, during which he took two big drinks of whiskey, his religious adviser taking the bottle away from him once. The knot was tied in a bungling manner, and after the trap fell Brewster writhed and twitched terribly. Then the rope slipped, and he was hauled up from the trap and upon the platform. The rope was replaced, and the man was then hanged again. After being cut down the body was placed in a redwood coffin and given in charge of the attending Catholic priest. Over 800 persons were present, and thirty vehicles were scattered about. The best of order prevailed.

CINCINNATI, July 6.—Fannie Dilling is a pretty girl and the pet of the household of Mr. C. T. Dilling, a leading merchant of Cincinnati, a sturdy blacksmith, sober, industrious, and a good business man, and withal a fine-looking young fellow. Joseph proposed and Fanny consented, but the girl's parents objected because Fanny was only 18 years old. The lovers apparently acquiesced. A temptation which proved too much for them presented itself on July 4. They set out that day for a picnic in the woods, but on the way concluded to take an excursion to Cincinnati, which they did by rail. Yesterday they returned as man and wife to Fanny's former home, and the parents of the bride are delighted, after all, at so neat a thwarting of their wishes.

CHICAGO, July 6.—In the lard investigation before the Board of Trade Committee, in which McGeoch charges Fowler Bros. with the adulteration of prime steam lard, the case for the defence was concluded this afternoon. The prosecution then put on the stand William Martin, formerly foreman for Fowler Bros., who corroborated the statements made by other witnesses to the effect that fallow and beef bones were mixed with the hog fat and put in the rendering tanks, and the product of it in tierces and labeled prime steam. He knew this positively, because he had entire charge of the rendering. He also testified that in December last between 5,000 and 6,000 tierces of this stuff had been made by Fowler Bros. and tierced as prime steam lard. This evidence contradicted that given by Prof. Rose, chemist for Fowler Bros.

Mr. Pierre Lorillard, of New York, is to bring suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad for damages to his yacht Radha in the collision between the yacht and the ferryboat Jersey City on the 23d ult. The amount to be sued for has not been determined. It will depend on the amount of the bill for repairs to the yacht. The Radha lies at the yards at the foot of East Twenty-third street and Mr. Lorillard expects that the repairs will be completed some time next week.

BOSTON, July 6.—A unique lawsuit has grown out of Gov. Butler's investigation of the Tewksbury abuses. A reporter met to-day a member of the boot and shoe firm from whom the Governor obtained the largest specimen of tanned human hide. The reporter said: "Mr. Donaldson, did you ever recover the skin you loaned Gov. Butler?"

"No, I have not, but I am going to."

"Was it of much value to you?"

"I should say it was. I was making a pair of shoes from it for the museum in Rome. I valued that skin at about $1,500."

"How do you propose to get it back again?" You have received word from the Governor that he does not acknowledge any property a human skin, and that he intends to bury it when it has served his purpose as evidence in the investigation."

"I understand that, and have begun legal proceedings to secure it. I anticipate success in my suit, and on account of the publicity given the matter in the recent investigation I would not take less than $3,000 for that skin."

PARIS, July 6.—The Count de Chambord yesterday received the last sacraments, remaining perfect calmness throughout the ceremony. To-day he was able to take a few spoonfuls of soup and wine, and to address a few words to his entourage. The Count has invited the Ducs de Nemours and d'Alencon and the Count de Paris to Frohsdorf.

The Count de Paris is at Vienna awaiting advice from Frohsdorf, where the Count de Chambord is lying ill. Prince Jerome Napoleon is in Paris busily consulting with friends. It is said that several private meetings have been held at his residence.

VIENNA, July 6.—The Secretary of the Count de Chambord has conveyed to the Count de Paris the thanks of the sick Prince for coming to Vienna. The Secretary added that since the physicians' consultation of yesterday the condition of the Count de Chambord is less favorable and that vomiting was renewed during the night.

LONDON, July 6.—The striking iron workers at Wednesbury, county of Stafford, entered the foundries there, damaged the machinery, and forced the employees to quit work.

The striking iron workers are ceasing their riotous proceedings, having been informed that the police are being armed with cutlasses.

MARSEILLES, July 6.—Four hundred Italians employed in an oil factory here struck work yesterday and endeavored to wreck the factory. They were dispersed by a force of policemen who charged them with drawn swords. It is feared that there will be a renewal of rioting by the strikers.

LONDON, July 6.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, replying to Mr. O'Brien, member for Mallow, said he had been informed that of a thousand emigrants who had gone to America only two families had been inmates of the workhouse at Belmont, from which section they came, and those families had received money on landing and were doing well. He was not aware of the grounds on which the United States had returned emigrants, but he supposed they thought that those returned were not desirable settlers.

DUBLIN, July 6.—At a meeting of the Catholic hierarchy here motions were adopted condemning State-aided emigration and pointing out that there are large tracts of land in Ireland which, if cultivated, would maintain the surplus population.

CALCUTTA, July 6.—Five hundred members of a tribe of natives attacked a detachment of British troops which, with a political agent, had been sent to chastise a refractory village in Assam. The natives were repulsed with a loss of fifty killed. The British did not sustain any loss.

BERLIN, July 6.—A terrible tragedy has occurred at Ricksdorf, a village near Berlin. The wife of a small shopkeeper cut the throats of her two children, and, after setting the house on fire, cut her own throat. The cause for the commission of the deed was poverty.

LONDON, July 6.—The House of Commons to-night, by a vote of 130 to 114, rejected a motion made by Mr. Hugh Mason (Advanced Liberal), member for Ashton-under-Lyne, in favor of female suffrage. The motion was supported by Mr. Leonard H. Courtney, Financial Secretary to the Treasury, and was strongly opposed by Sir Henry James, the Attorney-General.

The privilege contemplated by Mr. Mason's motion was to be limited to women who by virtue of the property qualification already possess the municipal franchise. The motion was seconded by Baron Henry De Worms (Conservative), member for Greenwich.

LONDON, July 6.—A despatch from Copenhagen says a prisoner named Nielsen, who is charged with committing arson there, has confessed that he set fire to the Victoria Docks, London, in 1881, with a view to obtaining plunder. The opinion heretofore entertained regarding the origin of the fire was that it was the work of Fenians.

For DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, Depression of Spirits and General Debility, in their various forms; also as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other Intermittent Fevers, the "EMBO-PURIFIED EXTRACT OF CALHANA," made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best remedy; and for patients recovering from Fever or other sickness, it has no equal. Mr. Walter S. Nelson, Monroe, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for indigestion and sick stomach. It naturally relieved me."
