were highly pleased with their trip.

The boys from Wilmington arrived last night, and marched from the depot with the Silver Cornet Band in the lead to the engine house and disbanded after giving the JOURNAL office a most giorious serenade; they promise to give a full report of what they saw and did for the JOURNAL to-morrow.

Mr. J. W. Pipkin, of Pamlico, reports early cotton and corn as very ordinary, crops generally had. In fact he says the prospects are worse than they have been for thirty years.

Capt. Midyett, of Lake Landing, says there will not be an average crop made in Hyde county this season.

Hyde County Visitors. We notice a good sprinkling of per-ms from Hyde county in the city yesterday. Among them are the Rev. Mr. Thorp and wife and Miss Patrick, of Kinston, from Nebraska, ex-Sheriff H. S. Gibbs, Messrs. Seth Gibbs, Ed Mann, D. B. Wilkinson, R. P. Midyett, J. C.

McLoud, E. D. Tunnell and others. We call the attention of our Hyde county friends to the fact that they will always find a welcome at the JOURNAL we would not grab in, one stout visitor

EDITOR JOURNAL .- "Where does the money go?" is a question often asked and seldom answered, but where it mes from I to-day availed myself of an opportunity to learn. On passing invitation, or rather permission: "Visitors admitted to-day." So I folded my umbrella and entered the rotunda, where I was seated with a number of persons evidently on the same mission -curiosity hunting. We were not detained long by the gentlemanly ushers, who took charge of us.

The first thing brought to our atten tion was the immense pigs of pure silver, which varied in value from ten hundred to nineteen hundred dollars, to which he told us to help ourselves and not be backward; taking the hint that the weight was the guaranty that tried the "heft" of it and found it "all he wanted." But when we reached the room in which it was rolled into tation was not extended, and when we Haskitt and Levi Mewborn, sr., last and the conductor stood at the entrance lar pieces were the coins they were working on, and the old lady who was dropping the pieces of copper in the die to make the cents looked just as rich as the one who was making the silver dollars, and I suppose the Government would pay her just as much for a day's work.

We were informed that the coining capacity of that room in good coin was thirty-four thousand dollars per minute. We were then taken to the specimen rooms and about all sorts of coin was shown, but these are in glass cases and you can look at your leisure while your polite escort goes below to meet another group of visitors.

I shall not describe how the money is Musichusette Bay was invaded and he town of Boston thought to have en destroyed, and in their consternase and moved that some minister be stel to attend the next morning's ONE OF GRACE. Two members ob soted, one from Massachusetts, I hink, the other from South Carolina, not because they did not believe in the propriety of it but the inexpediency on mt of the difference in the religiou th of the members. There were, d they, Episcopalisms, Presbyterians, es agrecable to all. Some one of the Puritan faith, I beated that he was willing to hear that a committee be appointed to wait upon that gentleman and request his esence for that purpose on to-morrow. The committee was appointed and received the reply from Mr. Duche that if his health would permit, he would surely be present.

At the hour of meeting he was present with his clerk and in his clerical robes. He read the Psalter for the 7th day of the month, which was the 35th and 36th Psalms, and proceeded with his prayers from the Prayer Book of the Church of England, but having finished such collects as he could appropriate on the occasion he closed his book and led off in a most feeling and impressive extemporaneous prayer, especially invoking divine assistance on the Congress and protection to Massachusetts Bay and the town of Boston then under sore trial.

The picture represents the body in the attitude of prayer, some standing, others kneeling, and one old friend with his hat on, but the earnest countenances and devout appearance of all would favorably compare with any Congress of the present day, no doubt.

Another relict was a printed invita tion to dine with the President, reading thus: 'The President and Mrs. Washington will be pleased, &c., which shows that even General Washington understood the value of printers' ink when he wished to work off some of his surplus groceries, and I think it a fact worthy of grave consideration among merchants that if the judicious use of printers' ink would procure a full attendance of the elite of Washington to a presidential dinner at that distant the Mint I noticed the door bore this day, why not be equally potent in obtaining a full attendance of the country to the well loaded counters of an obliging and polite merchant of this enlightened age?

Kinston Items.

That spruce Onslow county widower, J. H. Foy, has again been afloat at Kinston, still "on dress parade," looking out for some gay widow whom to make happy and contented.

John Becton, Esq., and family, of Arkansas, are visiting George E. Kornegay and family of this place. Mr. Becton is a native of this county, being a son of the late Thomas Becton of Lenoir county. Surveyor, J. Q. Jackson, with B. W. huddled in an inclosure of iron railing laid out a public road from the foot of Queen street in Kinston to the county to see that we all staid there while he bridge over Neuse river. About three explained the "modus operandi" of hundred yards of the low lands near making money. One cent and one dol- the river bridge will have to be tresseled, embanked and bridged. This, the surveyor thinks, can be done and a good way opened for about one thousand dollars. The necessity of this work is too obvious and urgent to require any suggestion. It is hoped the commissioners will now put the road in order in the shortest time.

A sort of a western spiral cyclone passed over Kinston last Tuesday night, striking the town about 9 o'clock, p. m. and lasting about ten minutes. The colored Methodist church in the southern portion of the town was blown down and demolished. The Odd Fellows' Lodge, colored, was blown down and badly damaged. The new dwelling in process of construction for A. Mitchell was partially blown down. The residence of Mrs. Eliza B. Green was badly damaged, a chimney being broken off and the roof of the house partially stove in by falling trees and limbs. The residence of J. T. Albritton was partially unroofed, Mrs. A. being found after the blow in a ditch close by the house, During the storm, lightning struck the court house and also a tree in front of the dwelling occupied by Thos. Magee, tearing the tree to pieces. A cooling and drenching rain accompa nied the blow. No one was hurt so far as it has transpired.

Terrible Ending of a Baltimore Excursion.

BALTIMORE, MD., July 24. - A terrible calamity occurred at North Point Tivoli, an excursion resort on the Pa-tapsco, about ten miles on this city, about 10 o'clock last night, by which many lives were lost, the number being estimated between sixty and seventy. The accident was occasioned by the giving away of the outer portion of a pier on which several hundred persons had congregated awaiting a boat to return to a city.
Yester ay an excursion was given to

Tivoli under the management of the Mount Royal Beneficial Society of the Catholic church of Corpus Christi, of which Father Starr is pastor, Mount Royal avenue and Mosher street. The excursionists went down on the barge Cockade City, which was towed by the tug Amanda Powell. The barge was formerly an old canal boat which had been fitted up with several decks for excursion purposes, and used as such for several years. Yesterday she made three trips, the last being made from this city between 6 and 7 o'clock last evening, and reached Tivoli before 10 o'clock. During the day she had taken down about 300 persons and on her last trip about 100. Large numbers of those who went down during the day had remained, intending to return the last trip. When the barge approached all those on shore made a rush for the end of the wharf, which is several hundred feet long, and were closely packed together at the gate, about two feet from the end, impatiently awaiting to get off. As the barge came alongside and struck the wharf it suddenly and without warning gave way and large portion of the crew were precipitated into the water, which is about ten feet deep. Many were able to save themselves by fleeing toward the shore as the outer end of the pier crumbled and fell. The darkness added to the confusion and terror and little could be done at once to rescue the drowning, most of whom were women and children. The first news of the disaster reached this city a little after 2 o'clock this morning, when a barge landed at Henderson's wharf, bringing a number of the bodies of the drowned. Up to this hour it is said sixty-one bodies have been recovered. BALTIMORE, July 24.-Up to noon sixty-five bodies had been brought to the city, all of which except four have been identified.

The Great Strike.

CHICAGO, July 24.-A rumor was in circulation here last night that it had been determined by the Telegraphers' Morehead City & Return Brotherhood to order a strike by all its members on all railroad lines where the Trent River Transportation management permits the operators to work for the Western Union Telegraph Company; that the call will begin on the Gould roads at 2 o'clock to-day, and that it will probably be followed by a call on the Baltimore and Ohio.

BROOKLYN, July 24.—The strikers held meeting here last night, where it was stated that while the Western Union company declared they had 800 operators employed in the New York office. the fact was that they had only about Chibin, 48 at Mehallet, 9 at Ghizeh and 75. Statements were received from operators in the main office of the Western Union setting forth that the company was totally unable to handle the busi Out of 800 operators employed net week it was said only 88 men and 9 girls were left with the chief opera-

Over 800 operators were at this desks and all important wires fully manned; the only delays in handling business this a. m. were for points west of Buffalo and Pittsburg, where it was reported considerable damage had been done by the

the company.

If disease has entered the system the If disease has entered the system the only way to drive it out is to purify and enrich the blood. To this end, as is acknowledged by all medical men, nothing is better adapted than iron. The fault hitherto has been that iron could not be so prepared as to be absolutely harmless to the teeth. This difficulty has been overcome by the Brown Chemical Company of Baltimore, Md., who offer their Brown's Iron Bitters as a faultless iron preparation, a positive cure for dyspepsia, indigestion, kidney troubles, etc.

Mr. A. A. Miller, Armfield P. O., N. C., says: "My wife has proven your medicine to be good for nervousness and general debility." w
