No marriage license issued during the last week. The Register of Deeds says it is too hot to write 'em.

Mr. R. W. Bell, of Harlowa creek, sent up a boat load of very fine lumber for L. H. Cutler's new store on yesterday.

A Kinston grocery merchant wants to buy a lot of cabbage to supply his retail trade. Perhaps some of our truck farmers can supply a crate or so.

The Beaufort Telephone has closed its second volume. It is a good local paper and ought to be sustained liberally by Beaufort. A good local paper is essential to the prosperity of every live town.

Mr. N. M. Gaskill is repairing and painting up his tailoring establishment on Middle street, and getting ready for the fall business. He is already receiving a full line of excellent fall samples.

Sheriff M. Hahn returned Friday night from Long Island. He says it is hot in New York, more pleasant in New Berne; no place like home. There are large crops of peaches and pears, but no apples. Corn crops exceedingly fine. The early crop of large fine Jersey Irish potatoes are now selling for one dollar per barrel.

Mr. J. C. Whitty returned from a trip to the country on yesterday. He went up Trent road to E. M. Foscoe, Esq., and set the machinery recently sold to him to work, and then to Enoch Wadsworth to set his in order, and from there to Dr. Carr's at Barnesville. He says the crops on Neuse road are decidedly better than on Trent, and that it's no trouble to get a good dinner up that way if it is known at the house that Enoch Wadsworth is along.

While at Kinston on Friday we stepped in to see Laughinghouse's new patent feed attachment to the saw mill now on exhibition at Miller & Laughinghouse's machine shops. The attachment consists of a circular disc upon which works a friction pulley, which gives the sawyer complete control of the movements of the carriage, in running back or forward, slow or fast, at will of the operator, cutting a small log very rapidly, and while being driven through a huge log the speed of the carriage can be made slower. The new invention has been examined by a great many practical steam mill men and sawyers and pronounced a decided success.

METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. Joseph H. Wheeler, of the N. C. Conference, who was in charge of the Methodist church here in 1833 and 1834, will fill Dr. Burkhead's pulpit to-day at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. The public are invited.

A Good Man.
Deputy Wood passed through the city on Saturday morning last on his way home from Pamlico. He had been down for a good time and says he had it. He tells a good story on Senator Cabot. While on a deer hunt a fine buck was driven to the Senator's stand. He emptied both barrels of his gun but the buck traveled right on. All at once he seemed to be struck with the idea that he could get him if he couldn't kill him, so he threw down his gun and went on to the far side of the stand. If the Senator had remained in and run the buck the buck would have been his.

At the Cemetery.
Our marble man, J. K. Willis, continues to adorn Cedar Grove Cemetery with his beautiful monuments and fences. On yesterday he placed around Mr. Lemuel Wood's lot a one rail fence of galvanized pipe, with centre ornaments and tulip eyes, into six inch Rutland marble post. It makes a neat and substantial fence. He also erected the monument for our late townsman, Jno. D. Howard. It is of pure white Rutland marble. The bottom base is 2 feet 4 inches by 2 feet 4 inches and 1 foot 2 inches thick; the base is 1 foot 10 by 1.10 and 1 foot in height, with "Howard" in large letters; the die is 2 feet 6 by 1.4 and 1.4 in height; the plinth 1 ft. 4 by 1 ft. 4 by 6 inches; the cap, of the Corinthian order, 1 ft. 8 by 1 ft. 8 by 1 ft. 1, and the urn 1 ft. 8 by 10 inches by 10 inches. The mean height being near 8 feet. It is a beautiful monument, well finished and well proportioned.

Some people think seven lawyers are too many for our Kinston. Oh no, there are not too many lawyers here, but not half fools enough for clients—that's all.

There is a "poor devil" in Kinston too stingy to write to his sweetheart at present, promising to do so after October, when postage is reduced to two cents.

An ex-mayor of Kinston was the first to discover a distinguished arrival from Florida into this place last week. It is the "early bird that catches the worm," you know.

The bright Kinston youth who recently misused, in conversation, "cundrum" for conundrum, made another mistake recently when he said, if Jacob Langston, who is 98, lives two years longer, he will be a centurion.

STATE NEWS

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Fayetteville Observer: Our brother of the Chatham Record should come down and interview Mr. Henry M. Robinson, with Myrover Bros., at Cedar Creek, in this county. He has a young four legged chicken—and, though growing from the body in a rather crazy and independent manner of theirs they are unmistakable legs, with well formed feet. The fowl is healthy and thriving.

Wilson Advance: The Collegiate Seminary property has been purchased by a joint stock company for the use of the Graded School.

Old Fields, Wilson county, has had a regular, old-fashioned runaway match. The high contracting parties were W. H. Barnes and Miss Mary E. Hinant, and Elder B. H. Boykin tied the knot, August 19th. Though married in haste, we feel quite sure this happy couple will have no cause to repent the act in their leisure moments.

Winston Sentinel: From 6,000 to 8,000 people, it is variously estimated, attended the meeting of Friends at High Point on last Sunday.—The aggregate valuation of real and personal property in this county is $3,982,000, an increase of $375,848 over last year.—What is known as the old Salem Water Works have been discontinued. They were erected nearly one hundred years ago and are said to have been the oldest in the State. The new and increased water supply take their place.

Chatham Record: A lad near this place named Samuel Hunt accidentally cut off two fingers of his left hand, a few days ago, in a cutting-knife.—A protracted meeting is going on at Rock Spring church, near this place.—During the recent rain a flash of lightning struck a tree in the yard of Mr. J. A. Womack, of this place, and glancing from the tree, ran to the fence (a few feet distant) and followed the fence, which was a barbed-wire fence, about 100 yards, shattering many of the posts. What was singular about it was that the lightning skipped some of the posts—splitting to pieces some of them and passing others by untouched.

Toisnot Sunny Home: The Graded School is flourishing. There are now about 130 pupils in attendance. The teachers, three in number, have their hands about full.

Mr. Spencer D. Moore, who lives near Pleasant Hill, in Edgecombe county, was in town last Friday wearing a pair of white jeans pants, which he had had for 30 years. He stated that he bought the cloth from Col. W. W. Parker, of Rocky Mount, in 1853, paying him 10 cents per yard. The pants did not seem to have been badly used, though the color had somewhat changed. We asked him why he had kept the pants so long, to which he replied: "I liked them so well when they were made, that I thought that I would keep them to be buried in when I died; but I have lived to see the fashions, dispositions and notions of people so changed, that I have come to the conclusion that the pants were not fine enough for me. I considered them fine pants when they were made, and good enough for any one to wear or be buried in either."

Hon. W. F. Pool Dead.
ELIZABETH CITY, Aug. 25.
Hon. W. F. Pool died this morning at 7 o'clock, greatly loved and lamented by all classes. He was one of our best and ablest men, and his death creates an irreparable loss with us.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 24.—The American Bar Association held its closing session this morning. The meeting was called to order by President Lawton at 10:30 o'clock.

William Allen Butler, of New York, offered a resolution extending the most cordial welcome to Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, who arrived on the steamship Celtic, from England, this morning. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

ROCHESTER, MINN., August 24.—The number of persons killed by the cyclone on Tuesday is now fixed at thirty-four and the number injured at eighty-two; of the latter nine were fatally injured.

Details from the surrounding district show that the cyclone swept over a territory sixty miles in length and above two miles wide, leaving in its path nothing but ruins. To form an idea of the loss one has only to estimate the value of all the improvements that had been made in the section visited by the cyclone and which are all gone. The loss in Rochester is now estimated at $350,000. Reports from the town of Salem indicate that considerable damage was done in that locality.

The streets of the city to-day are full of people from all over the State, some from curiosity and some to care for friends, while a large number are prominent men, come from all portions of the State to see the effect of the cyclone that they may know its extent and the needs of its victims. One thousand men, women and children of a class that possess hardly anything outside of their homes and what there is in them, are to-day without anything. Of the 200 houses which were standing before the approach of the storm, there is not sufficient material to build an ordinary frame shelter. All household furniture and clothing was also completely destroyed. The reported list of killed has been exaggerated through the confusion of names. Careful inquiry shows that sixteen comprises all those instantly killed. The loss of life by the cyclone in the country adjacent to Rochester has not yet been accurately computed.

The Wife of an Ambassador recently put the following question to the daughter of one of our merchant princes at a Presidential levee: "My dear, I was told before I visited America that your country women were not remarkable for fine teeth. I find it quite the contrary. Take your own for instance. Pray what dentifrice do you use?" I have used SOZODONT for years and prefer it to any other." was the response. Reader, follow her example!
