Accident to the Shenandonh. The steamer Shenandoah, on her regular trip from Elizabeth City to this city on Monday night, when between N. W. Point and Brant Island, at 12:30, the cross head of the engine was found to be broken. The steamer was immediately brought to anchor, the broken piece strapped and lashed to the best advantage, and at 7 o'clock, a.m., started for New Berne, arriving at 4 p. m. Through the watchfulness, daring and skill of the chief engineer, Samuel T. Hand, jr., and the patience and good judgment of Capt. Southgate, the steamer was brought safely through without injury to any other part of the machinery. Capt. Southgate speaks in high

Two of the laziest men in town sat down last week to a lying match for the watermelons. One runs a soda foun-tain, the other a watch repairing establishment. One began: "The last hard work I did"-and the other got up and paid for the melons without waiting for his competitor to finish.

The battle of the giants occurred in a law office of our Temple of Justice last Saturday. Mr. Richard C. Hill, of about 300 pounds, avordupoise, and Mr. Jesse C. Kennedy of 200 pounds, were assist ing an attorney in stating a guardian account, wherein both were interested. when the latter called the former a liar which provoked a Sullivan-Slade pum melling in a single round. Mr. Ken-medy got painfully lacerated in the face from a fist blow of his opponent, as well as otherwise injured, while Mr. Hill came off unhurt. Later in the evening, the injured man contemplated a challenge, like the Virginia editors but remembering the size of his enemy and wishing to give him a fair showing concluded to wait till he could be re duced in size to his own proportions by the use of anti-fat medicine.

Joe Allen thinks his girl has gone back on him because she insisted on his going to tea while she stayed in the parlor with the other fellow. Shouldn't be surprised if Joe takes a notion to commit "Susan Sides," He says he can't expostulate a girl but some other fellow gets in his way.

The barbecue and picnic given in honor of the completion of the bridge at Broadhurst landing, was largely at-tended, notwithstanding the warm weather. About 47 roasted pigs were gobbled up almost in a twinkling. But a huge table groaned with other good things too tedious to mention.

Capt. G. C. Buchan, who was watching his flock of goats as they filed up the lane a few evenings ago on their homeward march, thought he noticed one more trim and graceful than the rest.
