LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

The Blanche arrived from Trenton last night with 48 bales of cotton.

Mr. F. Ulrich is making a new side walk in front of his store on Commercial Row.

Several small lots of rice were sold yesterday. The market is firm at prices ranging from 80 cents to $1.00.

W. H. West, Esq., and W. W. Arnold were among the passengers on the steamer Kinston yesterday evening.

The Cotton Exchange has begun taking the market reports now, which we will give in the JOURNAL every morning.

Smithfield is booming as a cotton market. Capt. Gray, who was there on Wednesday, says there were about 400 bales in market that day, some of it coming from within three miles of Raleigh.

The Baptist State Convention convenes at Edenton, November 4th. The members would find it a pleasant trip to come this way and take passage on the steamer Shenandoah to Elizabeth City and thence by rail to Edenton.

Mr. Robert Jennett, of Hyde, sends us the rattles of a rattlesnake. There are fifteen full rattles and two buttons. One can hardly handle them at first without chilling the blood at the thought of having a rattlesnake in hand.

A party of young men went ducking up Neuse river on Thursday morning, and while one was standing loading his gun the boat capsized and spilled them into the river. A resort to Detrick's "sour rock" is a good life restorer under such circumstances.

Sheriff Jones, of Carteret, was in the city yesterday. He says the "Regulars" keep the door open for penitent "Independents" to return to the fold. It has been suggested that if the Governor would take the lead in returning to the Carteret Democracy the restoration of all the disaffected would soon be complete and Skinner would certainly go to Congress.

Fine Potatoes.
Mr. Geo. D. Connors, of this county, sent up a schooner load of very fine sweet potatoes on Thursday. They were barreled and shipped aboard the steamer Experiment. They were the "yellow borks" or "brimstone" potato, which are held in great favor at the North. We are pleased to hear good reports from this crop in every direction.

Steamer Movements.
The steamer Neuse arrived from Jolly Old Field yesterday evening with forty-six bales of cotton and fifteen passengers. She leaves early this morning for Kinston with merchandise.

The Trent leaves this morning at 6 o'clock for Trenton with a good cargo. The Experiment, of the Clyde Line, arrived on Wednesday night with a good cargo of goods which she discharged and sailed last night for Baltimore with 500 bales cotton, 200 barrels of naval stores, and fifty barrels of potatoes.

The Kinston arrived from Kinston last night with 150 bales of cotton—104 through and 52 local—and several passengers.

The Cutler is on a trip to Snow Hill and is expected this evening.

Died.
In Swansboro, N. C., on Oct 7th, 1883, Katie Shackelford, infant daughter of M. and M. A. Russell, aged eight months and ten days.

Budded on earth to bloom in Heaven. She has crossed the vale to the other shore.

A Colored Herb Doctor Arrested.

For the past two or three months a colored herb doctor, who gave his name as Dr. Richard Kane, has been perambulating our streets, equipped with a valise or two, and purporting to work marvelous cures upon those upon whom he was called to try the efficacy of his medicines. A few days ago he administered a dose of his medicine to one Maria Smith, colored, who was almost immediately afterwards seized with a violent vomiting, and Dr. Potter, the city physician, had to be called in to administer an antidote. He also gave some of the same medicine to one Henrietta Harris, colored, who is now said to be completely prostrated from its effects. It is also stated that he took a good portion of Maria Smith's furniture in part pay for his medical services, and removed the articles to the house he had rented, on Ninth, between Castle and Queen streets.

"Dr." Kane was arrested yesterday, on a warrant issued by J. C. Hill, J. P., and had a preliminary examination on the charge of violating the pharmaceutical law. The Justice reserved his decision in the case, and in the meantime the "Dr." is under bond for his appearance. He says he came from Charleston.—WV. Star.

Letter From Florida.

FONVILLE, Marion county, Fla., October, 1883.

MR. EDITOR:—The health of this country has improved since I last wrote, the days are cool and windy, putting on a full aspect. The nights are pleasant, even in mid-summer, much more than they are in North Carolina. We sympathize with the good people in the Old North State on account of the late storm and short cotton crops. The bad weather has passed us of Florida by, this fall, perhaps we are reserved for future calamities. The Orange crop is said to be short this season owing to the cold snap in the spring. The crop will soon begin to ripen. I think I will ship you one crate just to try the shipping from here. Most of the shippers think oranges unsafe, unless expressed by shortest route. This country is destined to be almost an orange grove in the near future. There are thousands planted out annually and they seldom ever die. Old settlers here aspire to an orange grove and a bunch of cattle and to live a few years longer and they feel all right. Cotton here is looking up and sells readily for 26 cents per pound. I mean long staple, I have seen no other during my stay here. Hope it may rise there soon. Success to your untiring efforts in the completion of the Quaker Bridge road.

Since writing the above I learn that cotton has gone up to 30 cents.

Smithfield Dots.

SMITHFIELD, Oct. 9th, 1883.

MR. EDITOR:—I hope the railroad authorities will move away the cotton as fast as it is bought here. Our buyers are buying 125 to 150 bales a day, prices paid to-day 10 to 10½. I think the crop is short one-third. Our farmers are well pleased at the prices that they receive for their cotton in this market. Large crowd in town last week, being our court week. Number bales of cotton sold for the last week is 1174.

Very respectfully, J. T. C.

A Horse and Mule Thief on His Travels.

A few days since Sheriff E. W. Taylor, of Brunswick, received papers from a neighboring county in South Carolina for the arrest of W. H. Swain, charged with stealing a mule. On Tuesday night, the 2nd of October, he stole a large bay horse from Mr. David Flowers, in Bladen county, and on Wednesday he proceeded to Brunswick county and secreted the horse in the Snowfield section among the cow thieves. The sheriff says he then loafed around in the neighborhood of Bell Swamp until Thursday, when he walked to Frank Gray's, near Snowfield, on the Georgetown road, where he learned that parties from Bladen county had passed in pursuit of him. He left before day Friday morning and walked to Snowfield, got the stolen horse and started towards this city, successfully flanking all the parties that were looking for him. Sheriff Taylor says he either passed through Wilmington, or went towards Fayetteville, or in the direction of South Carolina. Swain is the man, says the sheriff, who was tried in Brunswick county in 1875 for the murder of a negro on the C. C. Railroad, near Phoenix, named Cobb, and was acquitted. Afterwards he was tried in this county for stealing ducks or geese, and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. Since his term expired his whereabouts has been a mystery until now, when his transactions in horse and mule flesh have come to light.—WV. Star.

Kinston Items.

Cotton of the best grade is selling at 94. Seed cotton brings from 24 to 28 cents a pound.

A popular tailor recently applied by letter to our young bachelor friend, David R. Jackson, for the position of governor of his children. He says if he can find them, he will give her the place with pleasure.

Trade here is unusually dull for the season. There is no money here which the ordinary mortal can command. If the patrons of the Louisiana lottery drawing of the 9th instant have all failed, the country is entirely broke.

The Kinston man who habitually takes "77 drinks" before breakfast occasionally gets in a poetical mood. In his last phrenzy, he brought forth the following:

"Little drops of lager,
Little sips of gin,
Make the red proboscides
And consume the tin."

F. B. Becton's head is level. He recently shot a popular sewing machine agent in Cox's watermelon patch, re-pering him from "stem to stern" with small shot. If it had been a book agent or a lightning rod man, the county would have built him a monument along side of our Caswell monument, "to tell posterity his worthy deeds."

Married—On the 4th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, L. J. Smith, in Sampson county, by L. C. Hubbard, J. P., Mr. Whitfield Grady, of Lenoir county, to Miss Martha A. Smith, of Sampson county. The attendants were: Miss Sudie Grady and Grady Smith, Mr. J. B. Smith and Miss Sue Grady, Mr. J. A. Grady and Miss Cattie Smith, Mr. W. W. Grady and Miss Puss Grady, being a Grady-Smith affair in every view taken of it.

A good thing is told of Jesse C. Kennedy, Esq., of "Glen Jesse," Woodington township, Lenoir county. It is known how he loves official position and keeps himself well "before the people." His love of position became touched with a feeling of religious conviction some time since, when he applied to a minister to show him the way to salvation. The minister, whose faith teaches him he must first be baptized, told him he must go under the water. "How long?" asked the anxious sinner. "Half a minute," replied the man of God. "I can't stand it," replied the South Commander, "I can't stay that long from the view of the people."

Vandemere Items.

Cool nights. Look out for frost.
Cotton picking is in full operation now.

Rice is ready to be prepared for market.

Revenue cutter was in yesterday. Some of the crew were out hunting, but I don't know what luck.

Mr. Burch, overseer on Dr. Abbott's farm, is "mashing" away at the jute yet. He will get through in a few days.

Schooner T. C. Cruise sailed last Sunday with lumber for Dr. Abbott. Schooner Annie E. Hall is loaded and ready for sailing, also.

Mr. Geo. Edwards had his foot cut to-day by a saw at Dr. Abbott's mill. Mr. R. L. Daniels got his hand mashed, also, a few days ago. Not serious though.

"Bayboro Items" will please wait a few days for fish, until we get a better supply at home. We do not get as many as a few weeks ago, hardly enough for ourselves.

A Verdict of Censure.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—The coronor's jury in investigating the recent accident by which several passengers in a street car was killed when the car was run into by a train on the Reading railroad, brought in a verdict of general censure. The street car company is censured for not having conductors on the cars, thereby compelling the driver's to collect fares; the driver of the car is censured for being inside the car collecting; the flagman of the crossing is censured for neglect of duty in failing to warn the street car, and the Reading road is censured for running trains through the city at a high rate of speed and for not having gates across the street at the point of crossing.

No Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—Surgeon General Hamilton, of the marine hospital service, has received the following replies to telegraphic inquiries made yesterday as to the truth of the reports of the appearance of the fever at Brownsville, Ala., Galveston, Tex., and Pensacola: "Do not believe any alarming reports. There is not a case of yellow fever in Brownsville, but a good deal of malarial fever. I will always promptly notify you of any real danger."

(Signed,) JNO. B. GALTMAN,
President Board of Health.

Another Result of the Circus.

Constable Sloan, from Steele Creek township, was in the city yesterday hunting for a horse that was stolen from him on the night of the circus in Charlotte. The horse was a fine large animal and was in charge of an old colored man. The old man had started to ride home, but stopped at a store on Trade street to light his pipe, leaving an accommodating young darkey to hold the horse while he went inside. As the old man entered the store, the darkey who was left to hold the horse, jumped into the saddle and cantered off and neither horse nor negro have since been seen.—Journal-Observer.

Earthquake Shock in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—The earthquake shock felt here at one o'clock this morning was the most severe that has been felt in several years, and was the third shock during the night. Two previous shocks were felt early in the evening.

THE LATEST NEWS.

The Ohio Election.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 10—12 M.—No additional returns of any consequence have been received here this morning except by private dispatches and scattered telegrams. On what has been received, however, the Democrats claim Hoadly's election by 9,000 and the Legislature. They claim that Hoadly is running ahead in Cincinnati, and that he will have 4,000 majority in the county. The Republican committee believe that the Hoadly's majority will be 3,000 or 4,000, and that Rose will be elected. Governor Foster thinks that Hoadly's chances are the best but does not abandon the hope of either the Governor or the Legislature. The latest reports from Cleveland indicate that Hoadly will have a small majority in the county, and that the legislative ticket will stand four Democrats and two Republicans. At their headquarters the Republicans are still hoping for a change. The Democrats claim the Legislature by five and the Republicans the Senate by one.

CHICAGO, October 10.—The chairman of the Iowa Democratic State committee telegraphs to the Associated Press from Des Moines, as follows: "Returns come in slowly. There are large Democratic gains in the interior. The State is doubtful. The Republicans will not have to exceed 5,000 plurality. The Democrats and Greenbackers will have a majority in the lower House. The Prohibitionists are entirely defeated. Cook, (Dem.) is elected to Congress from the Sixth district by 1,000 majority."

WASHINGTON, October 11.—

Nothing from Ohio since the Columbus dispatch, sent after midnight, saying the returns from eighty counties and the other eight estimated, give the State to the Democrats by twelve thousand, and the Legislature by 20 to 25 to point.

LATEST.

Special to the JOURNAL.

RALEIGH, Oct. 11.—10 P. M.—The latest news from Ohio says that Hoadly's majority is probably twelve thousand, perhaps more. Democrats have a majority of twenty-four in the Legislature on joint ballot. The Democrats are jubilant over the news. Reports made by reliable papers used in obtaining the result.

The latest news from Iowa is that Cook, Democrat, is elected to Congress, but the State goes Republican by thirty to forty thousand.
