Important to Justices of the Peace.
On and after November 1st, 1883, all appeals from Justices of the Peace go directly to the Superior Courts and not to the Inferior Courts. The new Code, which goes into effect on that day, so provides.

Encouraging.
"Don't these rains give you farmers the blues?" asked a JOURNAL reporter of a Jones county farmer yesterday.

"Yes, it is mighty bad," said the farmer, "but I will tell you boss, when I bring cotton down here and get 9¢ for it when I had calculated on taking 8¢, it is mighty encouraging."

Division of the Diocese.
In the Episcopal General Convention the House of Deputies consented to the division of the Diocese of North Carolina, but the House of Bishops rejected it for the reason that they had no satisfactory assurance of suitable provision for the support of the Episcopate in the contemplated new Diocese. A conference was asked for.

Pay Your Taxes.
Sheriff Hahn gives notice in this issue that he wants money, and he says he means business, means just what he says in that notice, and, judging from his manner when he gave the notice, we believe he is in earnest, if any one thinks to the contrary just let them wait until after the 1st of November, and they will have the pleasure of paying cost.

Mayor's Court.
Pierson Hoyt was before the court yesterday morning charged with an assault upon Asa Jones, colored. He was found guilty and fined five dollars and costs.

Asa Jones, colored, was up for an assault on Pierson Hoyt. He was found guilty but it appearing to his Honor that it was an aggravated case, Asa was discharged on payment of cost.

The Reader Monument.
We are gratified to see by the Tarboro Southerner that the Edgecombe Guards would take immediate action in the matter of the monument to the memory of General W. D. Pender. The gallant men of Edgecombe are not of the material to let this laudable undertaking either fail or lag, and since the JOURNAL, through the noble generosity of Maj. Ginter has been able to lay the corner stone in the fund, we shall hope to be present at the laying of the corner stone of the monument at an early day.

Special Announcement.
A large proportion of the readers of the JOURNAL are farmers, many of whom desire a great deal more of farming literature than we are able to give in our limited space. To accommodate all such we have made arrangements with the publishers to the American Farmer to give it as a premium for one year to every subscriber of the JOURNAL who pays his subscription in advance. The American Farmer is a large 16 page paper, published at Fort Wayne, Ind., the subscription price of which is $1.00 per year. Every farmer should avail himself of this offer.

The Disciple's Convention.
FIRST DAY.
This assembly convened at Farmville, Pitt county, Oct. 10th. The annual sermon by Rev. E. E. Orvis, of Kinston, caused a larger delegation for the first day than usual. But sickness prevented Mr. Orvis, and Rev. F. M. Green, of Ohio, addressed the meeting from II Cor. IV. "We believe, therefore, we speak"—"The Source of Missionary Zeal." He proved by abundant evidence that, as is one's faith so will be his words and deeds, closing with a review of general missionary work and an appeal to all to bestir themselves in the good work.

Rev. J. J. Harper of Smithfield was elected Moderator, and J. V. Harper, of Johnson county, Secretary. It was decided to receive the reports from churches by districts. Rev. F. M. Green addressed the convention, explaining the nature of our general missionary convention which assembles in Cincinnati Oct. 26th and 27th, and insisting on this State uniting with the general work and delegating. The singing was good, and a lively interest prevailed.

At night, Rev. D. W. Davis, of the Jones county district, preached. He spoke from the passage, "Ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints." By practical illustrations he showed the disadvantages of being both a stranger and foreigner, and on the other hand the great pleasure and profit of being a fellow-citizen in the sense of being "fellow-framed together" in the great temple of God's people for a dwelling place in His Holy Spirit.

SECOND DAY.
Thursday morning came bright and promising for the work of the day. Quite an increase in the number of delegates and preachers was manifest. Promptly the business began. The important business of the morning was hearing reports from churches, which showed a prosperous condition with here and there a shading of gloom and despondency.

At 11 a. m. the convention adjourned to hear the reading of Rev. E. E. Orvis' address on "The Ancient Order of Things." It traced the history of the church from the days of the apostles to the present, showing the decline of primitive pure Christianity till the days of Luther, Calvin and Wesley; since their day the gradual return to the simple teachings of God's word, which now clearly shows itself in the spirit of this age. He concluded with an appeal to be wise to the situation, catch the spirit, and take advantage of the tide, which if taken at its flood will lead on to fortune.

The convention appointed a very important committee whose duty it was to arrange preaching for the churches of the entire State, under what is commonly known as the District Plan.

At 3 p. m. Rev. J. L. Burns, of the Roanoke district, preached one of his ablest sermons, which was full of good suggestions—weighty and powerful.

Begin Early in Life.
To cleanse the teeth with SOZODONT, and you will be repaid in maturer years and very probably in age, by the possession of sound molars and incisors, which will give you a more youthful look than you would otherwise have, and enable you to chew without incurring the penalty of a toothache. And when you have children, use the same fragrant preparation, and they will have ample cause to be grateful to you. Don't omit it for a single day.

Kinston Items.
The crops of all kinds are short in this section except the crop of failures, which seriously abounds.

A. L. Griffin and Geo. H. Herring were playing "gentlemen at large" last Thursday, keeping "Yom Kipper," like their bosses.

Stockton Cook, the dashing Norfolk cotton buyer, reached here last Tuesday and cotton immediately popped up to 9¢. Farmers feel more hopeful.

A. S. Padrick, of New Berne, formerly of this place, who has a Jerusalem boss, was with us last Thursday, both out of love for Kinston and respect for "Yom Kipper."

Lenoir Superior Court begins Monday the 23d instant, Judge Fred. Phillips being on the bench. There are no cases of any great public interest on hand, all such having been heard and gone to the Supreme Court.

Dr. W. A. J. Pollock has established agencies for the sale of his "No. 7" with Barrus and Hay at Pollockville, and with Greene, the druggist, at Trenton. He is determined to give the people of Jones a chance to get a "good thing."

La Grange Items.
Beef has taken a sudden fall. Steak now sells at 7 cents.

As soon as the baby can talk, James Bizzell will be called papa.

The largest crowd seen at a burial for a long time, was at the interment of Rev. Dr. Paris last Tuesday.

Cotton is coming in slowly and selling from 8¢ to 9¢ to-day (Friday). 150 bales sold during the past week.

Sim Wooten took a serious fall Friday evening by a ladder giving way. The fall was dangerous but the hurt was not serious.

When you bring a kerosene can to town, don't send a bar keeper to the buggy after it; one might think it was whiskey you wanted.

There has been less billiousness and sickness of all kinds in this section this fall, than for many years. The doctors don't fair so well, but it is a blessing on the people.

A visit of Joyner & Williams' school to the State Fair next Thursday, is anticipated. The trip will do the pupils good, and I hope there will be no disappointment.

D. M. Stanton, Esq., returned from a visit to the Louisville Exposition one day this week. He is well pleased with the visit and what he saw, especially so with the exhibit of agricultural implements, which he says is equal to that at the Centennial.

A notice has been served on the Board of Commissioners of our town to answer the complaint of C. W. Joyner, Esq., which will be filed at the next term of our Superior Court. This action is supposed to be long talked of action for the recovery of pay for the streets of our little village. It would seem to one not interested, that such an action might have a tendency to stop the growth of the place, which is just now considerable. Let those more interested than I determine.

The Fair.
Out at the grounds preparations for the fair are in progress. Machinery is coming in, as well as many articles for the general exhibition hall. Besides many cattle and horses are in the stalls. Some choice cotton in bales has been sent in. Secretary Williams is kept as busy as a bee. He says the fair will be a gratifying success. The list of entries is very large and the exhibit will certainly be a varied one. The races will be a feature of the week. The sporting men say that some capital trotting and running will be seen. There will be races each day. The Bingham cadets will be here Tuesday and will, under command of Lt. Bachelor, U. S. A., give their usual exhibitions of drill. Troops of the State Guard will also be at the fair, and it is expected that some Virginia troops will be present. Hon. George B. Loring, U. S. Commissioner of Agriculture, is expected to deliver the annual address. The marshals are to be in charge of that popular gentleman, Mr. H. H. W. Word, who has a corps of handsome and efficient assistants. There will be music. No gambling of any kind, will be permitted on the grounds, and the best of good order will be preserved during the week. There will be quite a number of special attractions, such as side-walks of all kinds, curiosities, etc. The week in the city will be a grand ball, hops and serenades will be given, while both the theatres will be occupied by troupes. The presence of several distinguished gentlemen will be a matter of interest. Senator Vance, always so heartily welcomed here, is expected. Many prominent ex-Confederate soldiers will be here. So the week promises to be a brilliant one in all respects. It is the State fair and it gives us pleasure to note general interest manifested in it. It is a good sign. All sections of the State will be, as they ought to be, represented. Many ladies will be here, and an array of beauty of which North Carolina may well be proud will grace the balls and all the grand stand. We must not omit mention of the bicycle races, in which there will be a number of entries. It is hoped the merchants of the city will make special displays at the grounds. Some of the factories and mills in the various sections of the State will make displays of their goods. The tobacco exhibit promises to be interesting.—News-Observer.

Six Costly Bricks.
Mr. E. G. Spillsbury, superintendent of the Haile gold mine, was in the city yesterday, carrying $6,000 worth of gold in his hand. There were six bars in all and it was a beautiful sight. From the frequency of Mr. Spillsbury's visits to the city with gold, we would imagine that the Haile is doing good work. He brings five to six $1,000 bars in from the mine every two weeks and makes the other gold miners envy him. We are told that well, as the Haile is doing, there are three mines in the vicinity of Charlotte that are doing as well, if not better.—Journal-Observer.

THE LATEST NEWS.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The October corn report of the Department of Agriculture fully sustains the telegraphic summary of the 10th of September, relative to the injuries by the frosts of the 8th, 9th and 10th. There were light frosts later, the most noticeable being on the 16th in the northwest. The State average of condition shows the extent of the injury, which was greatest in Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio and New York. There was also a severe loss in Minnesota and Dakota, and some damage in the elevated portions of Pennsylvania and West Virginia, in the northern counties of Indiana and Illinois, in the least advanced fields of Iowa; but scarcely any in Nebraska and none in Kansas is reported except a few places in northern Kentucky and Missouri. There is no mention of frost in any of the States south of Pennsylvania.

The reduction of State average is: In Michigan from 60 to 45, in Wisconsin from 76 to 50, in Ohio from 82 to 63, in New York from 77 to 57. The reduction is 7 points in Illinois, and 5 in Indiana. The high September figures have been materially reduced by the frost. The loss of condition from the drought has become more apparent, causing slight reductions of the September estimates of many of the Southern States.

COTTON.
Sales 38 bales yesterday at 91 to 9.90. Sales for the week 700 bales against 855 the same week of last year—deficit 155 bales.

Total sales this season 1207 bales against 2614 bales last year, showing a deficit of 1407 bales, or in other words, we are behind over one half the amount received to date last year. Of course the unfavorable weather for picking has had much to do with the falling off in receipts, but then it begins to look as if the crop in our immediate vicinity is badly short.
