The steamer Goldsboro sailed for Baltimore yesterday evening with a good cargo of cotton. This is the fourth boat sent out during the week by the Clyde line, carrying in all about 3,000 bales of cotton.

In the case of Starkey McDaniel vs Susan King et al from Jones, pending in the Supreme court, the court denied the motions of the plaintiff, in an opinion delivered by Judge Merrimon, whereupon plaintiffs moved for a writ of certiorari to the judge below, which was allowed.

The carpenters of this city are all busy, at least they say so. We have been making an effort for several days to get one to do a small job of work but it's nogo. Evan Moses Bryan responds with a broad smile and shake of his pate when we show him the money in advance. We will take a walk through the city one day next week and see what they are all so busy about.

Church Services.

Christ Church—V. W. Shields Rector, Twenty-third Sunday after Trinity—88, Simon and Jude, Apostles, Services 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 3:30 p. m. The public are always invited to the services of this Church.

Smokers, take Notice.

We call attention of smokers and dealers in cigars to the sale at the store next to the postoffice to-morrow. This large supply of cigars has to be sold, regardless of prices, so all interested should be on hand.

Sunday Reading.

Our editorial page in this issue will be found a sermon by Rev. Dr. J. L. Burrows on "Our Dead From Arlington." We are indebted to our friend Thos. J. Latham, of Norfolk, for the copy. It is excellent Sunday reading.

Out to Beaufort.

Several of our attorneys left for Beaufort last night to attend Carteret court, which convenes to-morrow. Messrs. F. M. Simmons, H. R. Bryan, M. Daw Stevenson, Clement Manly and Philommon Holland, jr., were among the attorneys. Dr. W. H. Barker was also along and ready to tell each one of his strong points and how to guard against the weak ones.

Gov. Jarvis' Letter.

Mr. L. A. Potter, of the Beaufort Telephone, and Dr. M. F. Arendall, chairman of the late Carteret Convention, have published replies to Gov. Jarvis' letter to Mrs. Jno. D. Davis on the resolutions of the Convention. The fight between the regular and independent of that county aided by the Governor bids fair to be the Tammany fight of North Carolina.

Clinton now has telegraphic communication. A message of greeting was sent to the Governor of the State upon the completion of the line and the following was the reply:

The Governor returns glad greetings to Clinton. Step by step different sections of the State are moving forward and the aggregate of these makes up her great march of progress. I rejoice ever each and all.

Steamer Arrivals.

The Snow Hill from Snow Hill with 91 bales of cotton and 12 barrels of corn.
The Carolina from Snow Hill with 80 bales of cotton.
The Neuse from Kinston with 110 bales of cotton.
The Trent from Trenton with 85 bales of cotton.

Convicted of Rape.

Guilford Soon was convicted of rape at Lenoir Superior Court last week and sentenced by Judge Phillips to be hanged on Thursday, December 20th. We learn from parties present that the defense was conducted with much zeal and credit on the part of the young attorneys Messrs. Uzzell and Rouse, who were assisted by A. J. Loftin, Esq. This was Mr. Rouse's first case and we are pleased to hear his effort spoken of in such commendable terms.

The County Line Question.

We publish below the proceedings of a meeting held by the tax payers residing in the disputed territory of Craven and Carteret county. This action of these people certainly ought to satisfy even Sheriff Jones that there is doubt about the line being established according to the law. Why don't the commissioners of the two counties select men to go down and examine the matter, take testimony and settle the question as to where the turnpike road is? A very intelligent gentleman, Mr. Wm. Hardesty, from that neighborhood was in to see us a few days ago and assured us that the line was run in accordance with the act, while we had a communication from a gentleman in the same neighborhood that pointed out clearly that the line was not run according to the act. So this is the way the matter stands. The Craven county commissioners have this advantage in their claim: Had they known that any such line was to be established by that act they would not have consented to it nor would the General Assembly have passed it without transferring a portion of the debt of Craven county with it.

A meeting of the tax-payers residing in the Territory that is in dispute between the counties of Craven and Carteret, was held on Saturday the 19th inst., to take some action in regard to paying taxes.

The meeting was called to order by electing Abner Whitehead, chairman, and J. H. Wallace, secretary. The chairman stated the object of the meeting, and after some discussion the following preamble and resolutions were adopted.

Whereas, At the last session of the Legislature an act was passed establishing a dividing line between the counties of Craven and Carteret, and

Whereas, There was dispute between the two counties regarding said line, each county claiming the Territory in which we live and demand of us our taxes, and

Whereas, We did not bring about such a state of affairs, (knowing nothing of said act of the Legislature until it was passed) therefore we are not responsible.

Whereas, We are neither able nor willing to pay a tax to both counties, and

Whereas, In view of the facts above set forth, and being in doubt as to which county we should pay our taxes in justice to ourselves and our posterity, we do

Resolved 1st, That we will not pay our taxes to either county until they have settled the dispute and we are satisfied who has a right to collect.

Resolved 2d, That each tax-payer be requested to keep in readiness money sufficient to pay his tax.

Resolved 3d, That a copy of these resolutions be sent the Telephones for publication and the New Berne Journal be requested to copy. (Signed)

Abner Whitehead, Peter F. Carraway, C. M. Edwards, Benj. Edwards, Dempsey Mason, Esq., H. Huff, Anthony Huff, T. H. Huff, Henry Barce, J. C. Edwards, C. H. Edwards, A. J. Edwards, John W. Merrill, S. H. Moy, Wm. H. Ball, James T. Gilbert, James Gilbert, Stephen T. Bright, E. E. Carraway, Geo. T. Carraway, Thomas T. Wallace, Anson Banks, B. O. Simpson, J. M. Carraway, John E. McClesse, Robert B. Ball, William E. Salter, James M. Salter, James Hall and James Pittman.

About Mosquitoes.

The letter of Governor Jarvis, published in the columns of the Telephone, was received with expressions of surprise by its many readers, for but few of the electors officers in this country reach a point of elevation from which they can, with propriety, hurl expressions of contempt at those who elevate them. But I think from a perusal of the letter, that the ambition of the Chief Executive is entirely satisfied, and he does not expect to see the suffrages of the Democrats of North Carolina of which the party in Carteret county forms a part, or else that the "bite of the feeble mosquito" has thrown him into a fever and causes him to chafe and worry and abuse the world and the rest of mankind in a manner which looks only reasonable to those who reside in the vicinity of the Old and New, and suffer from the annoyance.

The Democratic party of Carteret County, by its convention in which the writer was a delegate, spoke for the support and protection of its organization and gave utterance to what, in the judgment of the majority of its members, would tend to strengthen that organization; further, the party would listen with pleasure to any reasons which Governor Jarvis may assign for disregarding its wishes, but an assumed don't care attitude will not convince a single Democrat in this county that the convention did wrong in censuring a public servant.

L. A. POTTER.

and protection of its organization and gave utterance to what, in the judgment of the majority of its members, would tend to strengthen that organization; further, the party would listen with pleasure to any reasons which Governor Jarvis may assign for disregarding its wishes, but an assumed don't care attitude will not convince a single Democrat in this county that the convention did wrong in censuring a public servant.

Beaufort Telephone.

The weather cleared off last Friday and cotton may now come in more freely. It then sold for 9¢. Seed cotton brings 8 cents. Fresh pork 8 to 9 cents.

Kinston Items.

The ladies of the Episcopal Church at Kinston will give an oyster festival on Wednesday nights Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st, for the benefit of the Church. Go help them.

It is generally believed the jury in the Soon rape case now in progress in our Superior Court will disagree if the stock of peanuts and rutabagas, with which one of the jurors supplied himself, don't become exhausted too soon.

A La Grange liquor seller, who makes little boys drunk by selling them whiskey, says he found four kinds of time in Kinston last week—town clock time, postoffice time, railroad time and a devil of a time with Judge Phillips.

Upon a numerously signed petition, Judge Phillips has granted the 6 months imprisonment of R. S. Taylor, but required bond and sufficient security for his good behavior 12 months, together with payment of all costs.

The marriage of Mr. James H. Kinsey, of Kinston, to Miss Blanche Robey, of Goldsboro, took place last Thursday at Goldsboro. The newly married couple arrived here Thursday night on the train and stopped with Dr. W. A. J. Pollock.

At the late term of our Superior Court a La Grange liquor dealer was convicted before Judge Phillips of selling liquor to a small boy and making him beastly drunk. The Judge imposed a fine of $25 and costs on the liquor dealer for his fun.

A drunken chap whose horse was held by a livery keeper for his food, was heard begging Rom Johnston, of the Messenger, last week for a quarter dollar. The Messenger man suggested that he was a newspaper man and the beggar sloped.

Henry Bark, the New York friend and protector of dumb animals, has found a practical follower in Judge Phillips, who means to do justice to beasts as well as to man. A negro was convicted before him last week for cutting a mule with a hoe, for which cruel act he gets 9 months in the county jail.

The Guilford Soon rape case was taken up in the Superior Court last Thursday morning. Many witnesses have been introduced by the State. There is no direct testimony, all of it being circumstantial. Solicitor Galloway, C. Manly, Esq., and John F. Wooten prosecute, while A. J. Loftin and Uzzell and Rouse defend. The case will probably consume the rest of the court week.

La Grange Items.

Business dull for this season. Will N. Hadley is marshaling Rocky Mount Fair this week.

Still the cry comes, "cotton crop shorter than expected."
Cotton selling to-day (Friday) at 9¢ for the best; 90 bales sold.

The La Grange Citizen's Cornet Band will play for the prize at the Tarboro Fair next week.

Creech & Co. will soon open a store of general merchandise in this place, at J. D. Walter's store.

The railroad has the thanks of the cotton buyers and sellers, for building a shed over the platform in this place.

Bad colds (they are always called this) infect our community. In Bucklesberry a troublesome cough accompanies each cold, which makes it more annoying.

Oscar Williams, representing Henry S. King & Sons, of Baltimore, was in town Friday, together with a lot of other drummers.

Died—On the 25th inst., in this town, James Norman, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Dillon, aged one year and six months.

"Death loves to strike Where deepest loss his shafts infict, Is not the number but the one."

Married—In Bucklesberry, on the 24th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Miss Lou V. Elmore and Lonnie (Sister) of Trenton (this county). Capt. W. B. Byrd, Esq., officiating. "Marriage, when rightly understood, Is to the virtuous and the good A paradise below."

Call of Primary Convention, HOUSE OF BISHOPS, PHILADELPHIA, October 23d, 1883.

To the Clergy and Laity within the limits of the new Diocese in North Carolina: DEAR BRETHREN:—The division of the Diocese of North Carolina, having been ratified by the approval of both Houses of the General Convention, it now becomes my duty, agreeably with the provisions of Canon C, sec. 1, title III, to summon the primary convention of the new Diocese. I therefore hereby call such convention, to meet in Christ Church, New Berne, on Wednesday, December 12th, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of organizing the new Diocese and electing a Bishop for the same.

T. B. LYMAN, Bishop of North Carolina.

THE LATEST NEWS.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 26.—Cholera has reappeared in Fayoum, on the west side of the Nile and at Ziftah.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Business failures throughout the United States and Canada as reported to R. G. Dun & Co.'s mercantile agency, number 218, as compared with 248 last week. Nearly half these failures occurred in the West and South.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 26.—The latest Nihilist proclamation is being extensively circulated. It demands that the Czar summon the representatives of the Russian people and asks full amnesty and the freedom of the press and of speech and the right to hold public meetings as the only means of preventing a revolution. Vengeance is threatened if the demands are disregarded.

NEW YORK, October 27.—The total visible supply of cotton for the week is 2,116,409, of which 1,608,909 is American; against 1,838,618 and 1,315,618 respectively last year.

Beaufort Items.

The N. C. Oil and Guano Company succeeded last week in catching and pressing about 300,000 fish, which yielded a fair amount of oil. The other factories did proportionately as well, though we have no figures from them.

A brief visit to the Mullet pond fishery on Wednesday last afforded us considerable enjoyment. Through the courtesy of Capt. G. W. Springle we saw the seine hauled ashore and about 35 barrels of robins and other fish landed on the sands.

The prospects for the future of the New Berne, Beaufort and Onslow Inland Coasting Company, are bright. Freights are beginning to be moved by the company in flats chartered for the purpose, and the work on the first steamer of the line is being rapidly pushed forward. We are informed that she will be ready in a few weeks, and will be immediately put upon the route.

On Tuesday morning last, Dr. E. W. Owen, while walking from his room to the restaurant where he takes his meals, fell in the street and wrenched his back and fractured one of the bones in the knee. No one saw him fall and it is not known exactly what caused the accident, but it is supposed he stepped on the edge of a brick, a pile of which lay just where he fell, and the brick turning threw him suddenly and with considerable force. He suffered greatly and will be subjected to long confinement at the very best.

Mr. M. E. Hawkins, Ridgway, N. C., says: "My daughter was thin, emaciated, with no appetite and much debilitated. Brown's Iron Bitters gave her health."
