Prepare for the 14th.

The Board of City Council meets to-night.
Eggs command 22 cents from the carts.

New York cotton exchange closes to-day on account of the election.

H. L. Hall gives notice of books, stationery, etc. Give him a call.

The County Commissioners were in session yesterday, and will meet again to-day.

A. W. Wood gives notice that he is in the market and wants to buy or sell rice, corn and oats.

We call attention to the advertisement for sealed proposals to build a bridge over Little Swift creek.

We have made arrangements for the press dispatches during the week or until the result of the election is known.

The Silver Cornet Band left in full force yesterday morning for the Weldon Fair. We hope to see them employed here during Fair week before many more falls roll by.

Several of our citizens and several attorneys were off to Trenton yesterday attending the Commissioners court. We understand the tramroad was to be discussed again.

Elections to-day in Virginia, New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Maryland and New Jersey. We will endeavor to give our readers the news as early as possible.

We have received the first number of the Telegraph, a brand new weekly paper just started at Snow Hill, edited and published by W. C. Munroe, Esq., and Mr. Samuel B. Smith. It is well supplied with editorial and local matter.

A Gala Day in New Berne.

Have our citizens thought of the fact that Wednesday of next week will be the 14th of November? And are they making preparations to make it a day to be long remembered? There are many things to be done. The committee on firemen's parade are doing their work with commendable zeal, but there is something for all to do. Every house in the city should be illuminated at night, public buildings should be decorated and flags, mottoes and transparencies should be prepared for the procession at night. Let those who visit us on that day know that New Berne is not a "dead town."

Challenge for a Glove Fight.

Two youngsters, Olive Parsons and Magnolia Womble, became cross-grained at the Cotton Exchange yesterday evening, and a bloody glove fight was expected by the by-standers. Parsons felt indignant at some remark made by Womble and asked him in the street. Womble got in the door of his home and threw down a challenge. Parsons, though much the smaller of the two, immediately accepted and invited his antagonist into the back yard, whereupon Womble subsided. A little baiting from their mamas would do them good, and in that case it would be unnecessary to observe the rules of Marquis of Queensberry.

Special Notice.

Our canvasser, C. C. Taylor, leaves this morning for Swan Quarter via Washington and Williamston, and will arrive there in time for court next Monday. On his return he will be at Aurora on Saturday, November 17th, in the morning and at Idalia in the evening of the same day. We wish our subscribers in that section to make a note of this and meet him there prepared to settle their accounts.

He will also be at Bayboro, Pamlico county, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of court week, and all of our subscribers in that county who wish to continue the JOURNAL must settle their arrears or they will not receive the paper longer.

Not so Very.

"A fine lot of Northern cabbage in market."—NEW BERNE JOURNAL.

"Inappropriate for a trucking centre."

—State Chronicle.

Not so very inappropriate, brother Chronicle. We are famous for early vegetables and not late ones. We send early cabbages north and bring back late ones. New Jersey does the same thing, and merchants in New York frequently ship cabbages to Maine, Massachusetts and points east at one season of the year, and then receive large consignments from that same eastern section later on. If the north will take our early peas, beans, radishes, potatoes, melons, squashes, cucumbers, cabbages, etc., at living rates, we will buy all our winter cabbages and Irish potatoes cheerfully from there.

The Second Effort.

We have been shown a full grown apple, which is the second effort of this tree this season. It is of the Transcendental variety and nearly as large as any of the first crab, which matured in July.

Steamer Arrivals.

The Arctika from Bell's Ferry with 20 bales of cotton and 600 bushels of rice.

The Kinston from Kinston with 187 bales of cotton—81 through and 56 local—and 25 passengers.

The Blanche from Trenton with 50 bales of cotton and passengers.

The Cutler arrived from Snow Hill with a cargo of cotton, discharged and returned up Neuse.

The flat, Eagle with a cargo of cotton.

A Specimen of N. C. Railroading.

Why don't you buy your apples from the fruit growers in Western North Carolina? asked a JOURNAL reporter of a leading confectionery and fruit dealer yesterday. "Because," said he, "I can get them put down here from New York for less money than I can from Western North Carolina—the freights are so much less." A sad commentary on North Carolina railroading and Southern railroading generally. Even the oranges grown in Florida cannot get here without first going to New York and letting the yankee get his speck out of them, in fact it seems that Southern people don't know how to make anything succeed unless a yankee has hold of one end of it, and that is generally the money end. We wish we could get them to take hold of more of our enterprises in this section.

Pender Monument Entertainment.

It has been determined to have entertainments in the New Berne Theatre on the 26th and 29th of November in aid of the Pender Monument Fund, to consist of readings, recitations and music.

Prof. Walter L. Beasley, of Philadelphia, a graduate of the National School of Elocution of that city, will be here on the occasion and offer some of his best renditions.

The following gentlemen have been designated as a committee of arrangements, and are requested to take charge of the matter and make all necessary provisions for the same: Maj. John Hughes, Col. J. V. Jordan, Gen'l R. D. Hancock, Capt. Alex. Miller, Capt. K. R. Jones, Capt. E. B. Roberts, Capt. Matt. Manly.

These gentlemen are selected because they have worn the grey, marched in the same trying campaigns, and shared in the same sanguine battles with the gallant Pender, and will doubtless esteem it a privilege to do all in their power to perpetuate his memory.

We bespeak for the undertaking the patriotic support of every citizen of New Berne. Our city has been selected as the starting point in this movement and we feel sure that she will not be lacking in her appreciation of the distinguished honor, nor exhibit the least want in a willingness to do a full share in commemorating the virtues of so eminent a christian, soldier and gentleman as the lamented Pender.

We deem it needless to add that the columns of the JOURNAL are at the service of the committee.

A Mysterious Find.

A few days ago Mr. W. B. Bowden was walking out in the direction of Hilton, when a short distance the other side of Fourth street bridge, over the track of the Carolina Central Railroad, in a piece of woods, he came across a good straw hat, two pairs of pants, one pair stuffed into the other, and a sack, which looked as if it had been formerly used as a pillow case with a white cord at one end of it and a leather strap attached to the other. It is a matter of uncertainty as to whether the articles were stolen and concealed there, or whether they were the property of some tramp and only left there temporarily. Mr. Bowden left the articles where he found them.—W. H. Star.

Cross Roads Items.

Quite a short crop.
Cotton picking is about over.

Mr. Bynum, the fat man, has returned from New Berne.

But few cases of chills and fevers here now: frost has stopped them.

Some bad dogs in Pollocksville. Don't you think so Mr. H.?

The Magistrates met at Maysville on Monday for a rehearsal of the road law.

Mr. Frank H.—has a chicken four months old which is 2 feet and 8 inches high. Trot out yours, Dr. E.

Messrs. Bynum & Jenkins do as much sawing at Maysville as they do at any one place of its size in North Carolina.

Mr. Ed Dixon has a goose over twenty years old, or at least says he has owned her that long, says he bought her at a vendue of one Milton Meadows over twenty years ago; says she was an old goose then.

The most delicate persons enjoy taking EMORY'S LITTLE CATHARTIC PILLS, give a wholesome appetite, put new life in a broken-down body. 15 cents. 5

Swansboro Items.

Major Russell has a fine lot of sweet potatoes.

Schooner Ray arrived after a long term of head winds.

The farmers are gathering in their crops of corn, potatoes and peanuts.

Mr. J. C. Corbin, the gentlemanly telegraph operator at Dr. Ward's place, has left Sloop point.

Dr. J. W. Sanders and Bob. Humphry has splendid corn crops; so has Steve Holland and Bill Bell.

Mrs. J. W. Shepard and Miss Della Koonce, from Pollocksville were in town last week visiting Mrs. H. K. Ward.

Capt. John Moore, of schooner Gold-Leaf, made a quick trip from New River to Wilmington and return; time 31 days with head wind.

Pittman is smoking, Dave Ward is fishing, Dennis is whistling, Thos. S. is smiling and Loughlin is selling rye and corn, so we are all busy here now.

Dr. Ennett has just bought a novelty in the way of a vehicle—a genuine Syracuse road cart, also a fine set of harness for his fine stallion, made by W. S. Phillips, of New Berne.

Mrs. Mary Williams, relict of the late A. B. Williams of Angola, died last Friday of pneumonia, aged 79 years. She was a strict member of the Missionary Baptist Church for 61 years.

The cotton crop is just about picked out, and a short one too, but the corn crop is better. Rob. H. Jones has made about 500 barrels good corn, and don't you know he has some good hogs too.

Mr. Whitfield and daughter, from Mt. Olive, came down with Dr. Blount and all went on the banks fishing with hook and line which at this time is very pretty sport. Next summer Swansboro will be a watering place of the first type if nothing happens for a hotel and church is certain to be had here before that time.

Bell says he is the best politician in the State, and is going over to Jacksonville soon and show the people there how to take light. He gives a warranted receipt for the killing of Lincoln bugs on collards, which is to put a few weeping willow twigs on the leaves and kill them immediately. Guess they cry themselves to death.

Things are looking bright and acting lively now. Dr. Blount has arrived safely with his newly made spouse, all looking as happy as two fleas; and the people are shipping their cotton, etc., by the Inland Coasting Company. Flats are being chartered until the steamer gets ready, which will be very shortly. Very reasonable bills of lading from here to any of the Northern cities can be procured now from the agent at Swansboro, who is E. W. Matlocks, at this time.

Smithfield Items.

SMITHFIELD, N. C., Nov. 3d, 1883.

MR. EDITOR:—Noticing a local in yesterday's JOURNAL wherein you mention the receipt of eleven car loads of cotton over the A. & N. C. Railroad, probably from Smithfield. We are glad to note the interest you take in Smithfield's progress. We wish to state that that amount of cotton is being shipped from here almost every day, and on some occasions a special train is sent here to move the freights that accumulate. A few mornings ago we saw an engine pull out nineteen cars all loaded with cotton. The cotton trade here is quite large and our merchants make it lively. We need another buyer, as on some days our buyers (only two) have more than they can handle well. Our receipts last year were about 9,000 bales and from present indications we will get more than double that amount this season. A boat that would carry about 200 bales cotton is badly needed and would do a good business between Goldsboro and Smithfield.

Trade is very good; we need a hardware house: one would do a large business here, especially in stoves and tinware. Another drug store would pay well.

Several new stores are nearing completion—one a very fine brick, iron front store—and when finished will be an ornament to our little city.

Mr. H. G. Williams, from Speight's Bridge, has purchased a nice residence and is building a handsome store adjoining Messrs. Rand & Rand's new store. We extend to such men as Mr. Williams a hearty welcome and know that his new field is well chosen.

The health of our town and surrounding country is remarkably good and has been for the past few months.

We have two flourishing schools under the management of two able Professors, Davis and Rains. Any one moving here can rest assured they can place their children in no better schools than ours.

Northern Prospecting Parties.

We learn that Mr. John T. Patrick, State immigration agent, has perfected his plans for a series of excursions from the New England, and other Northern States, during the season. Thousands of Northern people will thus be afforded an opportunity to visit and see our State for a small outlay. He desires to have the best appointments for the comfort and pleasure of the excursionists, and to that end he wants a good man to act as sutler on all trains from Norfolk, Va. A sutler's car will be fitted out for him in which he is to keep fruits, confectioneries, cigars, refreshments, etc., for the accommodation of the parties. His whole outfit including cooking utensils will not exceed in cost seventy-five dollars. He will go with each excursion. He must be active, agreeable and accommodating. Persons desiring this position will apply at once to Mr. John T. Patrick, Wadesboro, N. C., giving good references as to character, etc. The first excursion will arrive at Norfolk from Pennsylvania, Nov. 13; the second from New England two weeks later; and one every two weeks afterwards throughout the season.—News and Observer.

STATE NEWS

Cleaned from our Exchanges.

Statesville Landmark: The American of this week announces that it has been bought by Dr. J. J. Mott, who will take possession December 1st and put an experienced editor in charge.—Mr. Joseph Mize, of Turnersburg township, recently lost a cow, and going out to hunt her, found her twenty-four hours later with her tail fastened tight around a sapling. She had a long tail, the brush of which was filled with burrs, and Mr. Mize supposes that in brushing the flies she wrapped her tail around the tree. At all events there she was found tight and fast, and probably there she would have stayed and starved if she had not been discovered.

Greensboro Patriot: Dr. Benbow is building a $100 hog pen, and will give a house warming when his Red Jerseys make their debut.—Mr. W. C. Staples has purchased a half interest in the Reidsville Times, and takes editorial charge of the paper.—About 7:10 last night a brilliant meteor flashed across the heavens. It was visible about 20 seconds, when it exploded leaving behind it a light similar to a huge sky-rocket. Its brilliancy was startling.—What Mr. W. K. Murray mistook for a stump in his potato patch yesterday turned out to be an enormous potato of the white yam variety. It tipped the scales at 8 lbs. and measured 25 inches in circumference.—Rabbits never were more abundant. One hunter bagged sixteen yesterday.

Gemmed with Pearls.

A mouth gemmed with pearls flashes radiance every time it opens. The contrast between the ruby of lovely lips and the pearly teeth they enclosed has winged the fancy of many a poet. SOZODONT, fair ones, is the thing that most contributes to adorn the feminine mouth. It is pure, it is aromatic, it retains the natural color of teeth incrustated with yellow tartar. No gritty or other objectionable ingredient contaminates it, its odor is balmy, and its purifying operation thorough.

A Druggist's Story.

Mr. Isaac C. Chapman, Druggist, Newburg, N. Y., writes us: "I have for the past ten years sold several gross of DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I can say of it what I cannot say of any other medicine, I have never heard a customer speak of it but to praise its virtues in the highest manner. I have recommended it in a great many cases of Whooping Cough, with the happiest effects. I have used it in my own family for many years; in fact, always have a bottle in the medicine closet ready for use." d&wlv
