The Shenandoah took out a full cargo of cotton and rice yesterday evening.

Kate Chapman was declared a pauper on yesterday and sent to the poor house.

The steamer Stout sailed last night for Norfolk with about 900 bales of cotton.

Yesterday was the biggest day of the season for both cotton and rice in this market.

The Misses Schenk, of Riverdale, are in the city visiting Mr. F. C. Roberts' family.

Rev. Edward Bull will preach in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Quite an improvement in the beef at the market. B. Swert brought in some very nice yesterday evening.

Oscar Williams is in the City, stopping at the Central. He represents the firm of Henry S. King & Sons of Baltimore.

No turkeys in the market yet but friend Street, at the Gaston House, set 'em up to fine canvass-back ducks yesterday.

The Nightingale Minstrels will give an entertainment at the Theatre next week for the benefit of some aged poor colored persons in the city.

A large number of delegates passed down on the Elm City on Wednesday last for the Free Will Baptist Conference now in session near Stonewall.

A little negro boy tumbled into the market dock yesterday evening, but was picked out by a bystander and saved, though frightened out of a year's growth.

The oysters that arrive now are fine. Some plants—garden oysters—from Core sound yesterday were fat and fine flavored. David Speight keeps the best the market affords.

Great activity prevails around the cotton yard and steamer and railroad wharves, but still the merchants complain that it is dull. We fear this complaint has become chronic with them.

Mr. J. A. Simpson has broken ground for another iron covered building near the market dock. This will fill up the gap caused by the fire last spring and adds much to the appearance of that part of the city.

Wm. Fisher, colored, who was convicted at last term of the Superior Court for injury to the jail of this county and sentenced to two years imprisonment in the county jail, died in the jail on Thursday night.

The regular Quarterly meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association will be held at the residence of Mrs. Daves, on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, November 13th, 1883. The members are all invited to attend.

The remains of Mrs. Carrie B. White, of Adams creek, who died a day or two since, were brought up on the Elm City on Thursday night and transferred to the Shenandoah on yesterday to be taken to Virginia for interment.

Married.
Nov. 7th, by V. A. Tolson, Esq., Mr. Benj. E. Williams to Miss Bettie Hunter, at the residence of the bride's father, on Slocumb's creek.

Marriage and Killing.
We are informed by a gentleman in the city just from Hyde county that a fatal affray occurred at a wedding in Currituck township on last Wednesday night. A young man by the name of Credle was married on that night, and after the marriage ceremonies were over the crowd in attendance got to drinking, a row ensued in which a young man by the name of Ballance, was killed and another, whose name our informant did not learn, was mortally wounded.

Rice Markets.
We are afraid our friend of the JOURNAL does not read the Gazette regularly or he would know that Washington is one of the best rice markets in the State. Large quantities of rice have been sold here at $1 and higher. By the way will the JOURNAL tell us how many bushels have been sold in New Berne at $1.10?—Washington Gazette.

Nearly all the best rice offered in this market for the last ten days has brought that price, the most of it included sacks, but some lots have brought that price in bulk. Upon reading the above item in the Gazette we immediately turned to its market quotations, corrected weekly by W. P. Baughman, to see the price of rice, but it is not even mentioned in the list of country products. If you have the best market in the State you have a poor way of letting the people know it. We give the actual sales of each day and give the price paid, from the lowest to the highest. On yesterday a lot of 1,000 bushels sold for $1.08 in bulk, which is equal to $1.10, sacked. We are not afraid to quote the actual sales in this market.

Personal.
Mr. John Patrick, of Greene, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. F. W. Hargett, of Richlands, was in the city yesterday. He reports progress on the Quaker Bridge road.

Miss Carrie Goelett, of Plymouth, is in the city on a visit to Miss Gertrude Carraway.

Thomas G. Skinner, Esq.
We learn that this gentleman is making a vigorous canvass of his district and shows his sincerity in the interest of the Democratic party.

Now this is noble in Mr. Skinner, but it deserves more than a passing compliment. It demands the cordial support of every Democrat in the district. Every one should make it a point to go to the polls and give him the only tangible evidence of their support that can be given.

It is said the old first was lost to the Democracy in the late election by apathy, and it is earnestly hoped that the new first will profit by the lesson and see to it that there be no repetition. Absence from the polls is very nearly equal to a vote for the opposite side, then let the slogan be "To the polls, Democrats," on the 20th inst.

The Davis Cadets at Tarboro.
We copy with pleasure the following compliment to the Davis Cadets, of La Grange, by the Tarboro Southerner.
Capt. Davis is a young man of promise, and bids fair to stand in the front rank of his profession at an early day.

The Davis High School Cadets behaved admirably both in and out of ranks. They are perfectly drilled and present a very handsome appearance. On Thursday while going through their evolutions they were the cynosure of all eyes. An old army officer remarked that they reminded him of West Pointers. The battalion was 90 strong and was commanded by Captain A. C. Davis. Cadet Captain G. W. McSworn had charge of Company A, and Captain W. E. Ormond had charge of Company B. The boys were quartered in the court house. Professors G. M. Starke and C. H. Walker, both graduates of the University of Virginia, and Dr. A. C. Davis, Sen., surgeon, accompanied the battalion. We congratulate Captain Davis upon the excellent school that he has, upon the manly and scholarly appearance of the cadets, and upon their gentlemanly conduct while here. Not one was seen to enter a bar room or any place where moral young men should not be, although when not in ranks they had every opportunity. The writer met many of the boys and in mingling with them, he found they were much attached to Captain Davis and appreciate the advantages they have under his charge. Military duties do not conflict with school duties, and we are of the opinion that this school will hold its own with any in the State. Some of its Edgecombe patrons are Mrs. A. J. Charles, Dr. A. B. Nobles, Mr. C. M. Cooke and Exum L. Moore, Esq. We saw much of Adjutant Logan D. Howell, of Goldsboro, and Cadet Henry R. Bryan, Jr., of New Berne. Friday at 3 p. m., the battalion returned to La Grange, much to the regret of the many people whose admiration was won during their stay here.

The Railroad Meeting.
NEW BERNE, Nov. 8th, 1883.
EDITOR JOURNAL.—According to announcement, Mr. E. F. Martin, general manager of the Wilmington, Wrightville & Onslow Railroad, came to our city on Wednesday the 7th inst., and at 7 o'clock p. m. he lectured to a large and intelligent assembly of our colored population at the court house, in the interest of his road.

The meeting was presided over by Rev. B. W. Morris and the speech of Mr. Martin was received with great enthusiasm.

When the speaker had completed his remarks, books for subscription to the road were opened and sixty one shares were taken at twenty-five dollars each, one thousand five hundred and twenty-five dollars.

The stock holders for the county of Craven then elected Geo. H. White Director and sub-treasurer for this county, and Messrs. B. W. Morris, M. W. Chapman and Joseph Weathering Finance committee; after which a committee on resolutions made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of Craven county, we, your committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

Whereas, It is the duty of the colored people as a race to take hold and aid any enterprise that tends to elevate them in any honorable way and

Whereas, This railroad plan looks feasible and likely to result in good to all. Therefore,

Resolved, That we, the colored people of Craven, in mass-meeting assembled, do heartily endorse this movement inaugurated by Mr. Martin, to build the W. W. & O. Railroad, and we pledge our earnest co-operation.

Resolved, That it is the duty of every colored man to give substantial aid to this and kindred enterprises, thereby elevating himself and the community in which he lives.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to State papers with a request to publish the same.

Respectfully submitted,

STATE NEWS
Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Raleigh News and Observer: The cotton gin and 10,000 pounds of cotton belonging to Mrs. J. J. Gillman, three miles from Sandford, were burned Saturday night. The origin of the fire is not known.—Sunday night a negro man and woman who live near Sandford left their house and went to church a mile or more away. When they returned they found the house a bed of coals, all having been burned down. In the house had been left three children, the eldest a girl fifteen years of age. All these were burned to death, only their bones being found by the horrified parents.

Raleigh Visitor: The Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum met at that institution on Nov. 1st for the purpose of inspecting the repairs and improvements which have recently been made there, and they pronounced them comfortable and complete. They found about one hundred applications for admission, on file, all of which were disposed of, either by admission of the patient, or on account of supposed incurability. For the future the Board expects to be able to admit promptly and without delay, all applications of acute and curable cases in the State.

Wilmington Star: There are a great many tramps in the city just now, as we have before intimated, and they are making themselves a great source of annoyance to housekeepers. In visiting residences for the purpose of asking alms they usually go through the side gates into the back yards, and as a matter of course frighten the females into a ready submission to their demands. In some instances two or three enter a yard at once. The sooner the authorities get rid of them the better.—Several Wilmingtonians who have been seeking to better themselves in "other fields and pastures new," are now talking of returning to their "first love."

Charlotte Observer: Sheriff Smith, of Richmond county, who was in the city yesterday gave us news of a very destructive fire that occurred in Rockingham about 10 o'clock last Sunday night. The stables of Mrs. Julia A. McDonald, proprietress of the hotel in Rockingham, were burned to the ground with everything in them. A large quantity of live stock perished in the flames. One horse, a fine animal belonging to Mr. Zach Long, clerk of the Superior Court, and for which Mr. Long paid $235, was burned. Another horse equally as fine, was also burned. In all, three horses, one mule, three calves and a cow perished in the flames. A large quantity of hay, fodder and straw and thirty bushels of corn were burned with the barn. Everything except the horse belonging to Mr. McDonald and it is a very severe loss to that worthy lady. The fire was of an incendiary origin.

Pollocksville Items.
Seed cotton 3¢ per pound.
Quiet in town to-day; all was stir yesterday.

S. J. Hudson has gone to Kinston on a visit.

News has fled from our town, and when it returns I hope to do better.

The gathering of corn has been progressing rapidly for the last few days. Report says that the corn crop is short.

A goodly number of our people expect to visit your city on the 14th and hear the Governor's address and see all that is to be seen. We hope to have a good time.

Our people want the steamer Trent to leave our town on Wednesday at 6 o'clock a. m., and returning leave New Berne at 10:30 o'clock p. m. See to this, Capt. Gray.

Mr. H. was riding out of town yesterday and caused quite a laugh with the boys. He was riding a horse that was sold at a mortgage sale on Wednesday and is in quite low spirits.

The steamer Trent cast off from her wharf with a cargo of 40 bales of cotton and 407 sacks of seed on Tuesday, and on Thursday with 45 bales of cotton and 13 tons of seed for New Berne.

Messrs. Hudson & Hudson are having their new front painted. Mr. Manly suggests that a large star be painted upon each pane of glass in the windows. The color of the front is red, white and blue.

One case in magistrates' court yesterday—Wm. Ballard or R. J. Ange, action to enforce claim and delivery. Manly for plaintiff and Pelletier for defendant. Plaintiff non-suited upon the ground that a magistrate had no jurisdiction. The property claimed was worth over fifty dollars.

Mr. S. A. Wormble, New Berne, N. C., says: "I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and consider it an excellent tonic and appetizer."

Jones County Items.
I saw at Trenton, on the 8th inst., two wagons loaded with household goods; their destination was Swansboro.

The farmers of our county have been making good use of the fair weather for the last week and are fast placing their crops in their barns.

Mrs. Hay, wife of R. S. Hay, died on Saturday last in Trenton of malarial fever. She was the daughter of Rev. J. B. Webb of Kinston.

The Clerk of our Superior court, Mr. T. J. Whitaker, has several little reminders to visitors posted in his office, asking his good visitors to "please not spit on the floor."

If you wish to get into an argument of a very lengthy nature, just pay Trenton a visit on some public day and hint to our people that you are in favor of the No-Fence law.

Mr. B. D. Winty, a very useful and good citizen, died at his residence in Trenton on the 8th inst. of typhoid pneumonia, leaving a wife and four small children to mourn their irreparable loss.

I have seen and thoroughly tested some corn meal ground at Mr. E. M. Fosenc's mill which is of a superior quality to that which is generally ground at steam mills. I consider it equal to any of our best water mill meal.

An old citizen of Trenton, who, in olden time, was some on a trade, has a peculiar way of advertising. He had his buggies, wagons and carts painted and rolled under the sycamore trees on Jones street, about two years ago, where they have been ever since. But not likely to last another two years, for the elements are fast making them decay.

A gentleman of our county says that if Abner Dawson was to travel about a little more he would find that other people were raising potatoes in Jones county as well as Abner, for Jas. C. Moore had, he knew, the largest in the county, for Moore had not tried a hand-saw to cut them in twain; he supposed, that a cross-cut saw would answer to cut them. I would like to enquire of Abner if the potatoes pushed the fence outwardly or inwardly; our fences are pushed inwardly. The potatoes attracted the force inwardly, but the real cause was a rotten fence and an old black sow and her pigs. Would it not be better for us all to have better fences or none at all than to have such some of our colored people have? And some white people too are very careless, and depend on their guns and dogs for a fence.

THE LATEST NEWS.
Election Notes.
Low is re-elected mayor by 1,840 majority.
Carr's majority over Maynard is stated to be 20,425.

The legislature of New York is Republican in both branches.

The Democrats have a majority of 25 on joint ballot in the legislature of New Jersey and elect Abbott by 7,244 majority.

McLane is elected Governor of Maryland by 12,000 majority.

The Democrats elect all State officers in New York except Maynard, the nominee for Secretary of State.

The popular majority against Mahone in Virginia is near 30,000.

In Virginia the returns fulfill the promise of the first night. The vote was the greatest ever polled, and the Democratic popular majority will be very large—not less than 20,000, it seems now. In the Senate there are two vacant seats, the one held by Mr. Eue when he qualified as postmaster of Norfolk, and the other held by Mr. Martin when he qualified as railroad commissioner. Of the 38 other members we have 22 sure, not counting Mr. Pettit, who seems to be elected by a majority of 1. The Republicans have 13 Senators. Of the 100 members of the House we have 59 sure, and the Republicans have 31, and 10 not heard from.

Pennsylvania is Republican by about 10,000.
