Greensboro Patriot: The notorious Eph Moore, colored, of Stokes, who shot another negro and afterwards escaped and went to Indiana, passed down to the penitentiary to-day on a five years ticket .-- "Man's ingratitude to man, makes countless millions mourn." Police Detmaring arrest ed a tramp last night at the depot. The tramp says he found the police asleep and awoke him to ask where he could get lodging, when he got mad and marched him off to the calaboose.

Clinton Caucasian: The Indian mound fever is spreading. Messrs. Murphy & Phillips and their school boys opened one on Mr. R. Page's land, three miles west of town, the other day. It was 40 feet in diameter and 3 feet high. They found 16 skulls and some beads. The boys LARGEST Ever Shown in New Berns. became so enthusiastic that one of them wrote a local about it and tried to sell it to us. He was a small boy and we didn't get mad but politely informed him that we did not wish to purchase.

Statesville Landmark: On a farm of 23 acres, on the western side of town, Mr. J. T. Webb has this year raised 100 bushels of sweet potatoes, 200 bushels of wheat, 80 of oats and will make 60 of corn, though the season having been bad his corn crop will be cut short. He raised the 100 bushels of potatoes on one-sixth of an acre, this being at the rate of 600 bushels per acre. -A handsome wedding car l, received some days ago, announced the marriage of Prof. William Earl Hidden, of the Emerald and Hiddenite Mining Company, Stony Point, Alexander county, N.
