Personal.

We notice at the Gaston House Judge A. C. Avery. The Judge was in this section of the State four and a half years ago. Thus runs the whirligig of time. The Judge's many admirers and friends will be glad to see him again among us. While in the city many took occasion to meet him, and last night he was the guest of our distinguished citizen General Ransom.

The Judge goes to Pamlico to-day, where he holds court next week.

A Dastardly Assault.

Yesterday as the senior editor of this paper was peaceably making his way up Craven street, he was attacked by Moses E. Whitehurst, a large and athletic man, while it is well known that Mr. Nunn is a man of very light weight and weakly physical power-and brutally beaten and seriously injured by him. It is loudly proclaimed on the streets used.

The attack has been very universally

Turner's N. C. Almanae for 1884.

This popular Almanac, "The old Reliable," which for forty-six yearsnearly half a century-has been paying its annual visits to the homes and firesides of our people, has been received from the publisher, James H. Ennisa Raleigh, N. C. As usual, it is full of important information, to all classes. and especially to the farmer, gardener and housekeeper, to whom it is invaluable. A very valuable feature of Turner's N. C. Almanacis its ANNUAL STATE RECORD, in which are recorded the most important events.

The Ballance Murder Case.

From our agent, C. C. Taylor, we learn that the trial of W. L. Credle and George H. Harris, at Swan Quarter, for the murder of W. T. Ballance, be last Wednesday. Out of a special ventre of one hundred the following jurous were obtained at 8 o'clock the same evening: Leroy Smith, Benj. Midyett Thos. McKinney, Robt. Williams, N. Jarvis, Wm. Chester, J. A. Smith. J. T. S. Tyson, S. S. Lupton, Jack Mason, B. S. Gibb and T. M. Ross. Mesars, Latham, of Greenville, and Brown, of Washington, are employed by the de-feudants. Considerable interest is man-

Some time near a year ago it became a matter of public knowledge that the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the New Berne Academy, H. C. Whitehurst was in arrears in his account with that body. It was further known that a demand was made upon his bondsmen for the amount found to be short.

Mr. Whitehurst published a card in which he admitted all the principal facts, that is, that the account was short and gave some vague reasons as to the loss of memoranda, etc., and promised to make good the deficit.

The Board of Trustees in the goodness of their natures allowed him an additional commission of five per cent for collecting and disbursing which additional commission did reduce the deficit grand affair. It opens December 3d, to some dozen or less dollars. This small balance Whitehurst promised to make up, but to this day has not done secounts, whereby he could prove him to possibly come about in time that children will be taught to read, write, speak

During the late discussion of the Graded School bill, pending the election upon that question, he was opposing the ashamed that a man claiming New measure which he, as every citizen, had a right to do. Yet for the purpose of giving additional force to his opposition did write a communication to a paper and use the signat "Trustee." Right here we wish to say, we have more people and this now is a good time never denied the right of any attorney to bring this or any other matter before a court of justice, but we do think and shall continue to think such trafficing Trustees in their efforts to build up one in a public trust unbecoming and censurable in the highest degree.

> In view of these facts we, as a public journalist, 'said in yesterday's JOURNAL the following:

The next character we have to deal with in this business is the attorney, Mr. H. C. Whitehurst. He is a Trustee of the Academy. He was formerly the collector and disbursing officer of the funds of the Academy, and is now a defaulter to the same. We have known for sometime how Mr. Whitehurst stood with his account of this sacred fund to it because we did not think he city, after squandering the funds entrusted to his care for this purpose, we think it time to speak and to speak plainly. Instead of appearing before Judge Shepard as an attorney to prevent the collection of taxes, he should appear as a defendant under a bill of indictment for squandering the funds that have been squandering the funds that have been set apart by noble hearted men, for the education of the children of this city. Furthermore, if the other Truste the Academy have any regard for the trust imposed in them as guardians of this sacred fund they will, at their next meeting, demand Mr. Whitehurst's resignation as a Trustee,

For this his brother, a man of some 180 or 190 pounds, made an attack upon us on the public streets which has been pronounced both brutal and cowardly.

Of this Moses E. Whitehurst we may yet have something more to say, but will content ourselves at present with remarking that his chivalry would have appeared to better advantage at the time the demand was that some missile other than the fist was made upon the bondsmen of his brother or at least after the deficit had been reduced by the charitable pronounced as dastardly and cowardly. allowence of the Board to an amount so small that nothing but wilful intent to defraud can be offered in excuse for not

EDITOR JOURNAL:—A very lengthy communication appears in this evening's Nut Shell, signed by H. C. Whitehurst, making a very feeble effort to explain his position in regard to the Graded School question, saying that "twelve dollars is the sum that I owe and have not accounted for."

Mr. Whitehurst fails to may to the public that the amount of this default was between eighty and one hundred dollars and that, by the generosity of the new part of the Board of Trustees elected within the last two years, they doubled the amount of his commission in order that he might settle the amount of his default and not be branded by the old Board of Trustees a thief.

> Solicitor Galloway-The Other Side Messrs. Eps.—A communication ap-peared in your paper last week which to some extent, reflected on the official acts of Solicitor Galloway, and the opinion of magistrates was called for by your correspondent. I have known So-licitor Galloway for some years, and his official record is one of which any officer or attorney may well be proud. His kindness of heart has made him ever ean toward the side of mercy, while his integrity and strict regard for his official oath, have caused him to perform his whole duty without regard to fear or favor, and his overwhelming majority at the last election shows that

But in the particular case of which your correspondent writes, I think the writer has been misled, and is probably writing from information furnished by others who may be prejudiced. The facts as I understand them were these: "A presentment was made on which a grand jury found a bill of indictment, and it was this grand jury, composed of our own citizens who arraigned Mr. Watson and dragged him before the court. It became the duty of Solicitor Galloway to prosecute, as in pressed by the many friends who have called, and beg to assure them and the friends of the paper that the Journal cannot be silenced by such conduct from exposing corruptions wherever found in public trusts.

> One of Solicitor Galloway to prosecute, as in all criminal actions, but he, believing that Mr. Watson did not intend to commit a crime, and desiring to be as lenient with him as possible, dropped the prosecution for "corruption," asked that judgment be suspended on the charge of "assuming jurisdiction" and permitted him to desert the paper. him to depart on payment of costs. Nay, more, I am informed that the kind Solicitor even threw off the fee to which he was entitled. I hope that J. P., who doubtless is mistaken, will hasten to correct the error into which he has fallen.
