LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Minute Almanac.
Sun rises, 6:48 | Length of day,
Sun sets, 4:49 | 10 hours, 6 minutes.
Moon rises at 11:50 p. m.

Wild ducks are yet in the market.
It is time to look out for the Thanksgiving turkey.
A new wall has been built around the court house yard.
Neuse Council No. 1, Order of Chosen Friends, meet to-night.
The pump in front of the JOURNAL office has been repaired.
Mr. Jas. Kay, of the firm of Messrs. Jas. Kay & Co. is at the Central.
Gum Branch, Onslow county, was well represented in the city yesterday.
New Berne Lodge, No. 245, A. F. & A. M., meets to-night at Masonic Hall at 7 1/2 o'clock.
A couple of young nimrods came in the city yesterday with a pole strung full of rabbits and birds.
H. G. Griffin, Esq., agent for N. R. N. Co., at Kinston, has been assigned to assist the agent at this place temporarily.
A letter from Professor Beasely informs us that he will arrange to be here on the 23rd and 29th in aid of the Pender monument fund.
Another cargo of Philadelphia brick for the outside work of the court house has been received and the work is gradually going up.
The Ladies' Working Society of the M. E. Church of this city meets to-night at the residence of Mr. B. G. Credle, at seven o'clock sharp. A full attendance is desired.
We are glad to know that the lectures of Dr. Barkers continue so interesting as to keep up good audiences. The Doctor manifests much interest for the good cause that he is now engaged in.
Some of the delegates from the Baptist Convention held at Edenton arrived in our city yesterday morning. Among them were Rev. C. A. Jenkins, of this city, Rev. Dr. Pritchett, of Wilmington, and Rev. Mr. Cashwell, of Pollockville. They report having a most excellent time.
The men with the monkey and the rubber balls were in the city yesterday on their way from Hyde to Pamlico county, where they go to-day, where their perpetual song may be heard: "Throw at the monkey! Throw at the monkey! Two for a nickel and four for a dime; hit the monkey four times, three dollars; three times, half dollar;" and every time you hit the monkey you get a nickel.
From Chronicle, Raleigh, Nov. 17th, 1883: "Joseph Shillington, the editor of 'Wheeler's Reminiscences,' applied not long since to Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke to furnish him with a sketch of the New Berne Bar prior to 1860, to be published in the next number of the 'Reminiscences.' Mrs. Clarke having declined to do so, on the plea of incompetency, application was then made to the Hon. C. C. Clark of New Berne to fill the bill, who also declined on the ground of inability to spare the time from his professional work. Is there no one competent and willing to undertake the task for the honor of performing it? Perhaps if suitable remuneration for the time and labor necessary were offered, the right person might be forthcoming."
Personal.
Mr. Gerrit Yyne, of Michigan, and family have arrived in the city and will remain during the winter. Mr. Yyne owns a large quantity of land in Eastern North Carolina.
Political.
During the canvass just closed in the First Congressional district, Mr. Adolph Cohn, of this county, has delivered speeches in the interest of the Democratic candidate at various precincts in Beaufort, Hyde and Pitt counties.
The remarks of Mr. Cohn were, we learn, well received, and while the big guns may have made greater breaches in the walls of their opponents, the mimic balls of truth hurled by him were anything but comfortable to those at whom they were aimed.
Superior Court.
The Superior court for this county convenes next Monday. Judge Shepard presiding. There are about eighty cases on the criminal docket, mostly for minor offenses. At the last term of the court but little was done on the civil docket, though there were cases that had been standing for a number of years. There are now 104 cases on the civil issue docket and 85 on the summons docket, though we presume to consume the entire term of the court, but as the criminal docket is first to be disposed of it is not to be presumed that not more than half the cases that are ready on the civil docket will be tried. Another evidence of the imperfection of our judicial system.

More Transportation Needed.
Our agent, Mr. C. C. Taylor, who has just returned from a trip through Beaufort, Hyde and Pamlico counties reports that along the Pamlico river on both sides, and a part of Hyde county along the Pungo river embracing a large and fertile section, there is needed rapid and sufficient transportation for grain and cotton to this market.
At Yeatesville, Leachville, Makeleystown and Pantego there is an earnest desire expressed by merchants and others to ship to New Berne, and at each of these places there are large accumulations of corn, cotton and rice, which would reach here were there such facilities as are enjoyed by points nearer to us.
This route, we believe, is embraced in the contemplations of the New Berne and Pamlico Steam Transportation Company, and we earnestly urge this Company to give this portion of their territory a careful consideration. The Elm City has done well on the route she is running, and may be taxed to her capacity as to distance, etc., but the Company to which she belongs is composed of the right material and will not doubt cast a glance towards the section indicated and see what can be done.
The trade of these places in general merchandise is now large and constantly increasing and our merchants are also admonished to look to it.

An Appeal.
At the recent commencement of Trinity College, the Trustees and the Alumni Association resolved to erect in its Campus a monument to perpetuate the name and memory of its founder and builder, the lamented Braxton Craven, D. D., L.L.D., and to this end a committee, representing both the Association and the Trustees, was appointed to issue an appeal to the old students of the College and to the friends generally of the illustrious Craven throughout this and other States, to aid in the work. It is the desire of the committee to do so heartily and at once to work and to have the monument ready for unveiling at the next annual commencement, in June, 1884. They think they have but to offer the thousands who were under the tutelage of Dr. Craven and who love and revere his memory an opportunity to contribute their votive offerings to so noble a purpose, in order to meet a ready and generous response, and they are alike confident that there are thousands of others also who need only the opportunity to show their appreciation of this great and good man, who gave his life and labors to rear and make complete a great institution of learning, and also died a martyr to the cause for which he had lived and labored.
To embalm his memory in the hearts of all who knew him, he needs no monument of marble or brass; to perpetuate his fame, the grand and noble institution he reared, stands a beacon light for all ages, but we would rear a monument to show our admiration for a life so gloriously and directed and so unselfishly spent, in the sacred cause of education, and our unfeigned gratitude for the blessings that his life has conferred upon our people and our State. His life was a grand success, and we confidently expect next year to witness unveiled in the Campus of Trinity College a monument worthy to commemorate a success so complete, of a self-made man, a profound scholar, an eminent educator, a great preacher, a noble philanthropist, a great College President and founder. The monument is to cost not less than $3,000, and by instructions of the committee all money subscribed to aid in this work should be forwarded at once to Rev. C. C. Dodson, at Winston, N. C.

Election in the First District.
Special to THE JOURNAL.
BEAUFORT, N. C., Nov. 20, 9 p. m.—A light vote in the county. Harlowe, Hull Swamp, Newport, Morehead City and Beaufort give Skinner three hundred and fifty majority. He will have about six hundred majority in the county.
N. M. JUNEY.

Satisfactory Evidence.
J. W. Graham, wholesale druggist, of Austin, Texas, writes: "I have been handling Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lunga for the past year, and have found it one of the most salable medicines I have ever had in my house for Coughs, Colic, and even Consumption, always giving entire satisfaction. Please send me another gross."
Allen's Brain Food botanical extract strengthens the brain and positively cures nervous debility, nervousness, headache, unnatural losses, and all weakness of generative system; it never fails. $1 per 1/2 doz. At druggists, or by mail from J. H. Allen, 315 First Ave. New York City.

A Fair Offer.
The VOLTAIC BELL CO., of Marshall, Mich., offer to send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltaic Bell and Electric Appliances on trial, for thirty days, to men, old and young, afflicted with nervous debility, lost vitality, and many other diseases. See advertisement in this paper. d&w

Kinston Items.
Fresh pork, 7 to 8c.
Cotton still hangs fire at 91 for the best. Good seed cotton 3 cts.; inferior 2 1/2 cts.
It is said that parting the hair in the middle brings on softening of the brain. Dudes and the "fair sex" may take warning.
Over in Virginia, when a man tells a "whopper," they do not accuse him of lying, but simply say, "oh he is from Farnville."
Farnville, Va., according to Boss Taylor, is the exact locality where Job's hippopotamus that "drinketh up a river" settled soon after the flood. It is a wonderful place and wonderful occurrences happen there too.
A sneak, after taking a smile sneaked out of the "Big Short" barroom last week without settling with the captain, when our old campaigner directed his bartender to "durn dose rascal inside out" and he did so and got a nickle.
It is supposed the robbers which have been troubling other towns are now with us. Three suspicious characters are now lurking around Kinston, seeking whom they may devour. It is expected every morning to hear of some one being found under the bed of our nervous old ladies.
Nuptial contracts were sealed by Rev. Henry Cunningham between Lewis J. B. Davenport and Miss Maggie O. Herring, on the 14th inst. at Mrs. S. A. Herring's residence in Trent township; also, by the same minister, between Ivey King and Miss M. J. Rouse, on the 15th inst. at the residence of Benjamin Rouse in Trent township. Between preaching and marrying, this useful man of God has his hands full.
Married, by J. D. Sutton, J. P., at the residence of Mrs. Mary E. Cox, in Sand Hill township, Lenoir county, on the 15th inst., Mr. W. B. Avery and Miss Jennie L. Cox. His Honor tied the knot with all the dignity and solemnity of a parson and tongue and grooved his work. The occasion was exceeding gay and festive, and will be long remembered by young spiritualized gents who ride with circular saws in wagons drawn by a mule hitched to the wagon tongue.
Capt. B. T. Webb's steamer, Carolina, arrived here last Sunday and was visited by a crowd of our people. She is indeed a "Little Daisy" and sets on the waters like a duck. She is expressly intended to facilitate commerce between Snow Hill and New Berne, being light draught, swift running and easily handled. She is red as a "feller" that habitually takes Snow Hillers and is airy and roomy enough to put the Snow Hill of our remembrance in, bag and baggage.
The House of Oettinger Bros. probably do the largest business of any of our Kinston merchants. They have a heavy trade on mortgages and as assignees of landlords. The other day a white landlord and his colored tenant were settling up with "Father Abraham" of that house, when the white man was satisfied with the proper credit on their books, balancing his account for the year, but Sambo would have a receipt in full. He was curious to know why he was so particular about a receipt. "Oh," said Sambo, "I'll have to carry all my credits to heaven to show I had paid up in this world and if I don't get your own I know I'll have to travel hell over looking you up."

La Grange Items.
Simon Wooten has opened a bar room near his brick store.
Cotton sold in this market last Saturday at 91 for the best.
The colored festival in town Saturday night was accompanied with "muchee" fuss.
Joe Williams, colored, lost a child last Saturday night. It was buried on Sunday.
Taylor, Britt & Co. have opened a store at the stand purchased by them from E. & M.
It is with regret that I hear of the unfortunate affair of my friend Nunn. He has my sympathy fully.
Mr. Dillon's house and lot, (the Woodland place) reported sold some time ago to Mr. McIntyre, has not been sold. Mr. McIntyre failing or refusing to comply.
Major Davis has organized a Sunday School at barracks, exclusively for the cadets. This made the number at the Methodist Sunday School quite small last Sunday.
Sheriff Davis, collecting taxes, W. W. Dunn, S. C. F. B. Loftin, Esq., and others from Kinston, were in town Saturday. N. J. Rouse, Esq., was also at his law office in town.
Shade Wooten, of the firm of J. S. Wooten & Bro., while at his farm in Greene county last Friday, accidentally fell on his gin and had his left arm entirely cut off, just below the elbow. This is the second time Mr. Wooten has been seriously cut in a gin. His condition at last accounts was easy.
Some one took James Field's mare from his lot last Tuesday night. The mare returned Wednesday morning seriously damaged from overriding the night before. Mr. Fields claims to know the guilty one, and brought an action, which resulted in binding Andrew Rouse to next Superior Court.
John Creech, near Lenoir Institute, had some houses burned last Sunday. The houses were occupied by Henry Lucas, who with his wife, had gone to church, leaving two small children alone, and it is supposed that the fire occurred by their playing in it. Lucas' loss was about 1800 pounds of seed cotton, all his corn and meat, household and kitchen furniture, and one of the children came near being burned to death.
A few days ago an old resident who had been absent for some time returned to this village; old memories revived, and the "over joyful" was used excessively.

Swansboro Items.
Fish and oysters are plentiful now. Ben Gibson is as fat as a bear and his club baby is as chubby as Ben is.
All's well that ends well. With us this week times are pretty hard but very good.
Ed. Harget and his polite clerk, Dave Moore, are busy buying and ginning cotton. Ed. has a fine stock of goods and sells them too, you bet.
No school in our little town yet, but we need one very much. Won't some one come and start one? Mine friend Michael is dare and would do somedings, but he hash no monish.
Mr. Coburn and his chum drew $2,500 in the Louisiana State Lottery and spent all of the money inside of 48 hours, so he said. But I'll bet a leather hand-saw that I and Claude don't spend ours as quick as that, if we spend it as foolish, because we don't drink.
Pitman has the run of trade in Swansboro now. Dennis has got rich and don't want any more money, and Tom don't want to get rich, and Ned, it seems, can't. Dave Ward won't, Major Russell would if he could, so would your humble servant. Claude Frazelle is going to buy another lottery ticket and divide with us; then we will be rich too.
Dan Weeks has some of the smartest children in the county, he has one about five years old who can read and write, and as for spelling she can't be beaten by older heads. Mrs. Eva Harget, a former New Bernian, is her teacher. It has been said that Mrs. H. is one of the best lady teachers in the State, and that is saying a good deal, but if she is not one of the best she certainly is a good teacher.
Ned Morton and Ned Jones both claim the best cotton made in this community, but I tell them if I could not carry in a sack what they both made on an acre at one time, I would give them leave to indict me for a breach of promise. Lewis Cox, the sewing machine man, says his is best, but the people say Lewis is some kin to his brother John, and I reckon he is too, for they both stutler a little.
No one dead or married this week, but one young couple got their license over three weeks ago to "git spliced," but concluded to wait awhile longer and now Mr. O— wants to know how long it will take for a marriage license to get out of date; says he will sell out at half price if they get out of date inside of a year. If any one wants to invest, they can get married cheap, as the gent bought them before they "riz."

About 150 barrels small mullets were caught at Goose Bay fishery in one day this week and plenty of fine trout were caught at Brown's inlet this week. Capt. Heady and Littleton are also doing a good business. Our Inland Coasting Company is at work, but somehow no steamers are on hand as yet, fish being used instead. All will be right in a few days more in regard to the steamers. Don't get disheartened friends, because everything can't be done in a minute.
Some sickness yet. D. E. Humphrey is still very low with pneumonia and Mr. Samuel Simson, the oldest citizen in our community, is expected to die. Miss Mary Hurst, the champion stone and shell thrower has been very sick, but is better. Mr. John Sammon's family are very sick and Mrs. Dr. E. W. Ward has a bone felon on her finger. The Doctor has a large quantity of cane seed of different kinds sent to him by the department of agriculture, which he will distribute to any one wanting the same to plant.
Mr. James Kay, of Messrs. James Kay & Co., 159 Washington Market, New York, wholesale dealer in butter and cheese, is in the city, and stopping at the Central.
Masonic.
New Berne Lodge No. 245, A. F. & A. M.: BRETHREN—You are hereby summoned to attend a regular communication of your Lodge to be held this Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at Masonic Hall. The craft is fraternally invited.
