SKINNER ELECTED.

The following telegrams were received by us last night:

Special to THE JOURNAL.
GREENVILLE, N. C., Nov. 21.—In Pitt county, seven precincts give Skinner six hundred and nine majority, and three give Pool one hundred and sixteen majority. A Democratic gain of four hundred and eighty-one. How is Pamlico? J. R. WICHARD.

WASHINGTON, N. C., Nov. 21.—Fourteen precincts give Skinner one hundred and thirty-five majority. Skinner is undoubtedly elected. GAZETTE.
ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Nov. 21.—Skinner is elected by a thousand majority. Perquimans, Camden, Pitt and Carteret gain on last Democratic vote. Pasquotank, Chowan, Currituck, Pamlico and Washington fell off. Republican conceded Skinner's election. CHEROKEE.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry, of Charlotte are in the city visiting their daughter, Mrs. L. J. Moore.
We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Lewis Whitty which occurred near Polkville on Tuesday.
The steamer Defiance arrived from Baltimore yesterday evening with a cargo of general merchandise.
The steamer Trent brought in a good cargo of cotton, cotton seed and rice yesterday from up Trent river.
Governor Jarvis' friends in Carteret seem to have taken his advice and piled up a pretty big majority for Skinner.

To-night will be the last of Dr. Barker's lectures. His subject, "Morality," will be thoroughly discussed, and promises to be the most interesting one yet.
Maj. George Credle returned from Hyde county yesterday. He says things were going all right for Thomas Skinner when he left on Tuesday.

Mr. W. J. Street, the popular proprietor of Nunn's hotel at Kinston, and lady spent a few hours in the city yesterday, returning on the freight train.

We are indebted to Bro. Creecy, of the Economist, and Bro. Wichard, of the Reflector, and Bro. Small, of the Washington Gazette, for election news by wire.

Pamlico county gave Skinner a majority of sixty-two. This is a Democratic loss, but Carteret shows a big gain. The present indications are that Skinner is elected.

The N. C. Conference of the M. E. Church South convenes at Statesville next Wednesday, Bishop Keener presiding. Rev. W. H. Call, of the Pamlico Circuit, leaves this morning in order to be on time. If the brethren here so desire we would be glad to see this body convene in this city next fall.

At a banquet during the State Fair at Columbia, S. C., last week, Prof. D. B. Johnson, the accomplished superintendent of the Columbia graded schools, responded to the toast to the "Public School," which was characterized as "the great boon of modern progress and the true basis of higher education."

We learn from Geo. H. White that in Raleigh last week the Directors of the Wilmington, Wrightsville and Onslow Railroad ordered an assessment of five cents on the dollar to be collected from all the stockholders by the first day of December. He is Director and sub-treasurer of this county, and will receive and receipt for money from stockholders of Craven at his law office, on Craven street.

We have a letter from John S. Hood, consular clerk at Matamoras, making inquiry about one Frank or Francis Gaines who he says left New Berne about 1857 or a little previous to that time. He left Matamoras in 1867, or about that time. The writer is very anxious to know something of said Gaines' family if any of them still live in New Berne; is willing to pay for the information if it can be obtained. Address, John S. Hood, Brownsville, Cameron county, Texas.

We have a note from Trenton stating that the two boys now in jail there are from this city and that one gives his name as Kellum and the other Heritage. The writer adds that they are anxious to be taken out and say they will go to work. We learn that the theft for which they were arrested was a trivial one and for which the incarceration has been a severe penalty. They were tramping through the country and raised a hen roost for subsistence.

Wooden Wedding.
Mr. John Dunn and lady celebrated their wooden wedding last night. A good time and general joy prevailed. We don't know exactly what a wooden wedding is, but hear it means "something good to eat."

Thanks.
We tender thanks to our Carteret correspondents who so promptly forwarded us the election news on Tuesday night, and although the telegrams from Newport and Morehead were not printed, were none the less appreciated; that from Beaufort covering the same ground, rendered it unnecessary to publish them.

Barn Burned.
Mr. Allen Johnson, of Pitt county, called to see us on Wednesday and informed us that Mr. J. J. B. Cox's barn and stables together with about one hundred barrels of corn, forty bushels of wheat, all farming utensils and four bales of cotton were burned on Wednesday night of last week. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

Sport for Thanksgiving Day.
We are requested to state that there will be a "Hare and Hounds Chase" in and near New Berne on Thanksgiving Day. It will be conducted in much the same manner as the chase of Christmas, 1880. Ladies and gentlemen of Craven and neighboring counties are invited to take part. Proper allowances will be made for ponies and horses under fifteen hands in height. A substantial prize will be offered. No entrance fee required. Notice of meeting place will be given hereafter.

The Old Court House.
Our New Berne friends, as we learn from the JOURNAL, are discussing the question as to the time of the burning of the old court house in that city. We cannot give the exact day, but the fire occurred in the early part of January, 1861. A venerable lady of the town—Mrs. Lovien—who had been aroused by the fire, stood on her back piazza and could see the clock distinctly as it pealed the hour of four in the morning, and as the last stroke sounded forth, the steeple, which was enveloped in flames, fell in with a crash that was heard several squares off. The lady afterwards remarked that the striking of the clock, under the circumstances, sounded like the last words of a dying friend.

On the leaden dome, near the top of the steeple, was inscribed the names of many of the older as well as younger citizens of the place; some cut with knives and others scratched with nails or other sharp instruments.—Wil. Star.

Pender Monument.
We are pleased to learn that General M. W. Ransom and General A. M. Scales will deliver addresses at several points in the State during the next month in aid of the Pender Monument Fund.

We are to have an entertainment here on the 28th and 29th instants for the same object, when our citizens may contemplate a rich treat and at the same time enjoy the pleasing thought of honoring the memory of one of North Carolina's most worthy sons. Professor Beasley of Philadelphia, will be here and offer some of his most pleasing recitations and readings which are said to move his audiences alternately from laughter to tears.

Since Pennsylvania, where he fell wounded, and Virginia, where he breathed his last, have so patriotically moved in this matter through two of their citizens, it would seem almost a work of supererogation to urge upon North Carolina, where he was born, and for whose honor he so heroically devoted his life, and beneath whose soil he sleeps, to arise to this evidently appropriate work.

The Southerner says: "We are happy to be able to announce that Gen. M. W. Ransom has consented to make two speeches in behalf of the Pender monument at Tarboro and Wilson between this time and Christmas. Due notice will be given of the date at each place." In addition we are glad to say that Gen. A. M. Scales has agreed to deliver one or more lectures for the same object.—News-Observers.

Next Monday the application for an injunction against the stockholders of the A. & N. C. Railroad by one Christian, of Richmond, to restrain them from leasing out or disposing of said road, will be heard before Judge Bond at Raleigh. A short time since, while in conversation with the President of the road, we understood him to say that the case had been transferred to the State courts and would be heard at our next Superior Court for this county. The President says that we were mistaken; that he only intended to convey the idea that the case would be heard upon the same day that our court assembles.

Professor Beasley.
We give below some extracts of notices of Professor Beasley's entertainments. Rev. Reese F. Alsop, Rector of Grace Church, Philadelphia, writes: PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27, 1883.
It gives me great pleasure to bear testimony to the more than ordinary ability of Mr. Walter L. Beasley as an eloquist and humorous reader. As a member of my church, he is personally known to and esteemed by me. In some readings which he has given in my hearing, he has both amused and delighted the audience.

Cumberland Times, Md., says: The reading at the Y. M. C. A. last evening by Mr. W. L. Beasley was very entertaining. The programme consisted of a variety of selections which were admirably rendered.

Paper at Bedford Springs, Pa., says: Mr. Walter L. Beasley, of Philadelphia, the well known eloquist, gave a series of readings and recitations before the guests of the Bedford Springs hotel on Wednesday evening. Through the courtesy of the Messrs. Anderson the dancing hall was given up for the entertainment. A good audience greeted Mr. Beasley, whose artistic rendition, both of comic and pathetic pieces, gave general satisfaction. Mr. Beasley is a graduate of the National School of Elocution and Oratory of Philadelphia and has a good and well trained voice. A similar entertainment was also given before the guests of the Arandale on Thursday evening and it will be repeated at the Cramer Cottages this evening.

Very Sagacious Horses.
We have heard a good deal said about the sagacity of animals, but old Baldy's blacks did something yesterday that proves that animals have sense, good hard, solid sense. For years the afternoon train for Richmond has been leaving here at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, but Sunday a change went into effect, the train going out several hours later. Yesterday the usual hour for hitching up the blacks to the bus at Wadsworth's stables arriving, and old Baldy not appearing, the four horses left their stalls one after the other and took their places at the bus, two at the sides of the tongue and two in the lead, ready to be hitched up. Nobody appearing to hitch them, they waited about fifteen minutes, and then started by themselves for the hotel, the same as if they were hitched to the bus and old Baldy had hold of the lines. The horses had nearly reached the Charlotte Hotel before they were caught and brought back. When old Baldy heard of this smart trick in the horses, he went into their stalls and lugged each one.—Charlotte Observer.

The Baptists had raised $32,000 of the $100,000 desired for the endowment of Wake Forest College, and the convention raised $3,000 more. It is said that the other $4,000 is assured. We are glad to know this. It puts the college on the best basis.—News and Observer.

Polkville Items.
"Dull, dull," is all the cry with every one.
Seed cotton is selling for 3 to 3.10 per hundred.
No parties, marriages, or deaths during the week.

Mrs. Mary Hunter, of Kinston, is here visiting relatives.
The Trent cast off from her wharf on Saturday with a cargo of 55 bales of cotton for New Berne.

The Neuse passed up on Saturday instead of the Blanche. On her return on Monday she received 25 bales of cotton here for her city.

Our people were much surprised to hear that such a dastardly and cowardly outrage should be committed in our mother town as was committed upon the much beloved and highly esteemed editor of the JOURNAL, H. S. Nunn. We say bravo for Wood and Roberts.

Divine services at the Missionary Baptist Church on Sunday. By request of the Pastor, Rev. Mr. Cashwell, who was absent, Mr. B. M. Gates of your city officiated and gave us a plain, practical sermon upon these words: "What shall I do to be saved?"

A little hair pulling and a stand up swing around between William Mills and Carson on Saturday, was the only excitement in town. Mills and Carson were both soaked. Mills was the first to say take him off and Carson soon followed with the same exclamation. Neither one was thrown.

Washington and Elsewhere.
Very little political excitement around here.
Crops will not average much, if any, over a half crop.
A few more days of the present beautiful weather, and the farmers of this section (near Washington) will be done housing.

Mr. Oliver Jarvis, so well and favorably known in our county, died on Sunday the 18th inst. Mr. Jarvis has been in the employ of S. R. Fowle & Son for many years.
Senator Z. B. Vance spoke at the court house on Monday night to a large crowd. His speeches appeal to men's better judgment and not to their passions or prejudices.

Rev. D. May, of the M. E. Church, (who has labored for that Church in this town for the past two years) delivered his farewell address on Sunday night; a very large crowd in attendance.

It is a Positive Luxury to brush the teeth with Sozodont, so fragrant and refreshing is it, and so pleasant is the taste it leaves in the mouth after the operation. Then how gratifying is the effect and how complacent feels the beholder who views in the glass a row of ivories rendered spotless by this benign and delightful toilet article. Only a few drops on the brush, a rag or sponge, is needed for an ablution and yet it is wondrously effective.

Emory's Little Cathartic Pills are sufficiently powerful for the most robust, yet the safest for children and weak constitutions. 15 cents.

The distillation is superintended by a gentleman who understands his business thoroughly. Nothing deleterious is allowed to enter into its composition, and none of it is allowed to be sold until it is fully three years old in order that it may be entirely free by evaporation from the fusel oil. Venable & Heyman offer these goods as perfectly pure to fill a long felt want for medicinal purposes. It is their own brand and they stake their reputation on the truth of this assertion.
