BUVAL & NORTON'S

Celebrated HORSE TONIC or improving the condition of horses, mules cattle and hogs, giving them an appetite, relieving them of both worms, hidebound uric acid, distemper and all diseases to which a horse is subject internally. After an animal is improved by its use it may be left off without its falling back to its first poor condition.
It is highly approved by all who have given it a fair trial. We have yet to hear of a single instance where the HORSE TONIC has failed to accomplish what we claim for it. From a large number of testimonials we select the following:
MR. E. P. REEVE: Dear Sir—I have been using your Buval & Norton's Horse Tonic for the last eighteen months, and find it the best medicine I have ever used for improving the general health and appetite of horses in bad condition. Respectfully, ROBERT VAUGHAN,
Manager stables Richmond City Railway.
To place this invaluable remedy in reach of I have reduced the price to 75 cents a bottle. Manufactured only by E. P. REEVE, Druggist, 602 East Marshall street, Richmond, Va.
Sold by druggists generally. aug2d&wlm

Outwitting a Lion.

The poor little Bushman of South Africa is not only small in size, but feeble in mind. Yet an English officer tells a droll story of an encounter between a Bushman and a lion, which shows the man as cool in danger and fertile in resource.

The officer says:
The Bushman while a long way from home was met by a lion. The animal, assured that he had his victim completely in his power, began to sport and dally with him with a feline jocosity which the poor little Bushman failed to appreciate.

The lion would appear at a point in the road and leap back again into the jungle, to reappear a little farther on.

But the Bushman did not lose his presence of mind, and presently hit upon a device by which he might possibly outwit his foe. This plan was suggested by the lion's own conduct.

Aware that the brute was ahead of him, he dodged to the right, and feeling pretty sure of the lion's whereabouts, resorted to the course of quietly watching his movements.

When the lion discovered that the man had suddenly disappeared from the path, he was a good deal perplexed. He roared with mortification; when he espied the Bushman peeping at him over the grass.

The Bushman at once changed his position, while the lion stood irresolute in the path, following with his eye the shifting blackman. In another moment the little man rustled the reeds, vanished, and showed himself again at another point.

The great brute was first confused, and then alarmed. It evidently began to dawn upon him that he had mistaken the position of matters, and that he was the hunted party.

The Bushman, who clearly recognized what was passing in his enemy's mind, did not pause to let the lion recover his startled wits.

He began to steal gradually toward the foe, who now, in a complete state of doubt and fear, fairly turned tail and decamped, leaving the plucky and ingenious little Bushman master of the situation.

Mr. B. O. Harris, Littleton, N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters have given me great relief from kidney disease."
