One of our German citizens in discussing certain people with a couple of friends, complained of the superserviceableness of certain persons, and one of his listeners remarked that a certain person was very officious, whereupon the German gentleman remarked "yes! and dare is dot ----, he is tam fictitious. too."

Tue Carteret county Telephone is informed that the large majority given in that county for Skinner was not on account of the Governor's request but because of dissatisfaction in the Republican ranks in regard to the federal office holders. We mentioned the fact merely as a matter of pleasantry and not with the intention of offending the Democrats of Carteret by calling them the Governor's friends.

Professor Beasly left yesterday morning for Raleigh, having been delayed over Sunday by the failure of the train to connect for that city on Saturday. We commend him to our Raleigh friends, and the cause in which he goes. the Pender Monument, we know needs no commendation to the patriotic citizens of the capital. While here, we are glad to knew that he spent the time quite pleasantly in looking around the scenes of his early boyhood, and renewing old school day acquaintances. Every North Carolinian should hear him read and recite.

Pamilico in the City.

Quite a sprinkling of Pamlico citizens arrived last night. Among them we had the pleasure of meeting C. H. Fowler, J. W. Dawson, T. C. Hadder, W. H. Gaskins and others.

Personal.

B. F. Mayhew, Esq., of Bayboro, is attending court this week. Rev. J. L. Winfield, of the Washing on Watch-Tower, is in the city.

Grand Gift Enterprise.

Messrs. Duffy & Ives, upon opening their new store on Middle street, put up a handsome Domestic sewing machine to be drawn for by their customers on Christmas day. They have given tickets to all who have traded to the amount of one dellar and now request that the tickets be sent in on or before the 24th, that the drawing may be prepared.

The Speakership Decided. We received on Sunday morning the following telegram: Washington, D. C., Dec. 1.—Carlisle was nominated on first ballot for Speaker; Clark, of Missouri, for Clerk, Leedom, of Obio, for Seargent-at-Arms, and Wintersmith for Door Keeper. The Republican caucus nominated Killer and Missouri of Control of Contr Keifer and all of the present officers. R. HANCOCK, JR.

Steamer Arrivals.

Steamer Kinston, from Seven Springs, last evening with O. K. Uzzell, S. Cook, of Norfolk, Va., Hodges, of Kinston, Mrs. Duffy, of New Berne, Mrs. Biddle and others; 207 bales through cotton, 36 local. O. K. Uzzel has 34 bales cotton and 100 sacks of No. 1 rice, which he will put on market to-day.

The Blanche, from Trenton, with 55

bales of cotton.

An Interesting Event. We learn that on Wednesday evening one of New Berne's most attractive daughters will be united in marriage to one of Wilmington's worthy business meu. The ceremony will take place at Christ Church at 81 o'clock. We learn that no cards of invitation have been ed in New Berne, but we learn tro good authority that all the friends of family are expected to be present to ceremony, and at the reception thy afterward.
