LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun sets, 4:46 1/2 hours, 47 minutes.
Moon sets at 12:33 a. m.

The Experiment cleared for Norfolk last night with a full cargo of cotton.

The Shenandoah carried out a full cargo of cotton, between eight and nine hundred bales, yesterday evening.

The city authorities have erected a platform at the market dock for the reception of oyster shells. This is a needed improvement as the sidewalk at that place has heretofore been blocked with the shell.

The steamer Goldsboro arrived from Baltimore last night with a full cargo of general merchandise. We reported her as arriving on Thursday night, but in this we were mistaken; it was the Experiment.

Another Tammany.
Senator Loftin's communication, which we publish elsewhere as an advertisement, speaks of a "Tammany Hall" in Kinston, but he fails to tell us who is to be the John Kelly of the concern. The Senator is evidently taking time by the forelock and preparing his sails for the next campaign, which bids fair to be a warmly contested one.

Still at It.
Willis continues to adorn Cedar Grove Cemetery with those elegant monuments. On yesterday he put up one to the memory of Dr. E. R. Hubbard. It was of Rutland white marble, cottage style, 2 feet square at the base and 6 feet 5 inches high. To-day another goes up, and before many days he will erect one of the largest and most handsome ever put in Cedar Grove. Willis knows what to do with a piece of marble.

Prompt Payments.
Warrants for the payment of $5,000 from the American Legion of Honor and $3,000 from the Royal Arcanum to the beneficiaries of the late Jno. F. Hanff, are now in hands of the proper officers of the lodges and will be paid as soon as called for. Mr. Hanff died on the 25th day of October, but little over a month ago, and the payment of the death benefits so soon is an evidence of promptness which will commend those orders to the people.

Canal Bound.
One of the officers of the steamer Experiment informs us that his vessel was detained in the canal between Norfolk and Currituck sound, three days on this trip. The delay was occasioned by the formation of sand bars in the canal and for nearly a week some forty vessels, thirty of them steamboats and the rest sailing vessels in to-w, had made an almost continuous string of craft in the nine miles of canal. At some points there was but two or three feet of water and dredges had to be used to remove the obstructions. This is an unusual occurrence and is attributed to some peculiar action of tides and wind.

Miraculous Escape.
Capt. Hancock informs us of the miraculous escape of a colored child at Kinston on Tuesday last. Just as the down freight train had fairly started, running about fifteen miles per hour, engineer Harding discovered the child between the cross ties just raising its head from a nap. Mr. Harding put on the breaks and endeavored to get to the cow catcher so as to reach out and grab the little one from the jaws of death, but before he could do this it was picked up by the cow catcher and tossed about twelve feet to one side. The train was stopped as soon as possible, but as Capt. Hancock started back to learn the fate of the little "nig," it jumped up and went running to the house. It was only about three years old and had evidently dropped to sleep while playing on the track. The mother was frightened worse by the accident than the child was hurt.

Superior Court.
Judge Shepherd concluded the civil docket on yesterday and will to-day sit for the purpose of hearing motions on the summons docket, and will also hear the injunction cases. He has given two weeks hard work to the criminal and civil dockets of our court and deserves the thanks of the people of this county for the manner in which he has discharged his duty.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:
Hahn vs Dail; judgment for defendant.
Hill vs M. N. C. Railway Company; judgment for defendant.
Bell vs M. N. C. Railway Company; judgment for defendant.
Beeton vs Brock; judgment for plaintiff.
Brinson vs Bell; judgment for plaintiff.
Foy vs Miller; judgment for defendant.

The Public Library.
Mr. C. R. Thomas, jr., has kindly presented the Graded School Library with thirty good, useful and appropriate volumes. This is a worthy example Mr. Thomas has set our citizens. We hope there are many of them who can find on their shelves duplicate volumes or books which they do not use and which would be quite acceptable and useful on the shelves of our Public Library.

Prof. Thomas is writing to all the principal publishers asking for donations of books. He says he has been promised liberal donations from some houses. The amount which was raised here on Dr. Barker's lectures will be expended to the best advantage, and we hope to have some entertainments soon which will swell that amount. In the meantime Prof. T. will send for or receive any books the people may wish to give the library.

Personal.
Capt. H. A. Bourne, General Superintendent of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, and Capt. Bodine, a Director of said Company, arrived on the Shenandoah yesterday morning, and left during the day for Washington by private conveyance. They were on a tour of inspection for the Company and were much pleased with the movements of their business at this point.

Mr. W. S. Edmunds and family of Virginia, arrived on Thursday night, and will remain with us during the winter. Mr. Edmunds is a fine sportsman, and we believe, about the only man that Dempsey Wood, of the Falling Creek Club, fears on a bird hunt.

P. H. Pelletier, Esq., of Pollockville, was in the city yesterday, fresh from a big wedding.

Mr. J. L. Kinsey's family have moved to the city from Trenton. Several additions to the Graded School.

W. F. Howland, Esq., of Beaufort, was in the city yesterday. He examined the Old Dominion wharf in search of the corner post of the old county line.

It Was Night.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—In the JOURNAL of to-day, Dec. 7th, you say that an article in the Goldsboro Messenger states, that Gen. Stonewall Jackson was wounded late in the afternoon of May 10th, and not at night." This statement is quite incorrect. I was a chaplain in Jackson's old Stonewall brigade. He moved this brigade late on Saturday, May 2d, to the front to relieve the troops that had been engaged in battle that day, and to enter into the engagement on the next day. Gen. A. P. Hill's fresh columns were relieving Gen. Rhoades' troops, who had marched twenty miles that day, and fought over three miles of rough country. Darkness had arrested the conflict, and great confusion prevailed from the rapid advance in battle, and the intermingling of regiments. On every side might be heard men shouting out loudly the number of their regiment, in hopes of hearing a friendly response. Gen. Jackson, having personally arranged for the relief of the waried in front, rode down the turnpike toward Chancellorsville to ascertain exactly the position and intention of the Federal army. It was then, in the darkness—very little light being given by the moon—that he was wounded in both arms. With great difficulty he was borne back, and placed in an ambulance, which stopped at the position of the Stonewall brigade. As a profound secret I was informed by one of the surgeons, that Gen. Jackson was wounded and then in the ambulance. He was faint from loss of blood, and it had been impossible to get alcoholic stimulants necessary for his relief. I was requested to procure some spirits for him if possible, and with great difficulty I secured enough from the Brigade Surgeon. All this was on the night of Saturday, 2nd May, 1863, and not in the day light. The troops were then lying in trenches captured in the afternoon, and the dead of the battle were beside them. It was desired to keep the fall of Gen. Jackson a secret, lest the soldiers should be discouraged in the hot contest on the next day.

On Sunday, May 10th, about 3 p. m., Stonewall Jackson "passed over the river and rested under the shade of the trees" on the River of Life in the Paradise of God. The night of earth unfolded into the clear and fadeless day of Heaven. L. C. VASS.

Nothing Like It.
No medicine has ever been known so effectual in the cure of all those diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood as Scovill's Sarsaparilla or Blood and Liver Syrup, for the cure of Scrofula, White Swellings, Rheumatism, Pimples, Blotches, Eruptions, Venereal Sores and Diseases, Consumption, Gout, Boils, Cancers, and all kindred diseases. No better means of securing a beautiful complexion can be obtained than by using Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup, which cleanses the blood and gives beauty to the skin. edw

Rev. G. W. Offley, New Berne, N. C., says, "I have taken Brown's Iron Bitters and consider it one of the best medicines known."

NEWS FROM THE OLD WORLD.

TRYING TO SAVE O'DONNELL.
LONDON, Dec. 4.—Gen. Pryor to-day requested Mr. Lowell, the United States Minister, to apply to the English Home Office for a respite for O'Donnell, with the view of obtaining time to set on foot a proceeding for a commutation of the death sentence. Mr. Lowell entertained the request, and will apply to the American authorities at Washington for instructions in the matter. Mr. Russell of O'Donnell's counsel will wait upon Mr. Lowell to-morrow to submit to him the legal grounds upon which will be based the application for the commutation of O'Donnell's sentence.

RELIGIOUS RIOTS AT WEXFORD.
LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Press Association says the reports of the rioting at Wexford, Ireland, on Sunday evening, were greatly exaggerated, that the damage to property was confined to broken windows, and that nobody was seriously injured. Major Whittle, the Chicago evangelist, held two services in the theatre yesterday and was not disturbed. Another report says the riotous disturbances were renewed at midnight, when the Methodist church, the rooms of the Christian Association, the county court house, and some houses of the Protestant population were again attacked. All is quiet to-day, but the police are patrolling the streets leading to the theatre.

SURVIVORS OF HICKS PASHA'S ARMY.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 4.—The Marquis de Noailles, the French Ambassador here, has been instructed by his Government to inform the Porte that under conditions will France allow Turkey to intervene in the Sudan.
CAIRO, Dec. 4.—The telegram from the Austrian Consul at Khartoum announcing the destruction of only one-third of Hicks Pasha's army is generally discredited. The Khedive to-day received a telegram from an English officer who is lying wounded at Birkett, which is due south of Koshgii.

MOVEMENTS OF CHINESE TROOPS.
LONDON, Dec. 4.—A Paris despatch to the Post says: "The Chinese Embassy deny the evacuation of Bao-Ninh, and ridicule the story that the Black Flags fled at sight of the Turcos."

The Times' correspondent at Hong Kong, in a despatch dated yesterday, says: "Eleven hundred Chinese troops passed by here to-day in a Chinese merchant steamer on their way from Shanghai to Canton. More troops are following them."
The English squadron has arrived at Shanghai.

FRANCE PREPARING FOR WAR.
LONDON, Dec. 5.—A despatch to the Daily News from Toulon says that a telegram from Paris orders that all available transports be despatched to Algerian ports, where they are to embark at least 12,000 men, with provisions for seventy days, and large supplies of ammunition. The greatest activity prevails in the arsenal at Toulon.

PROMPT ARREST OF AN INFORMER.
ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 4.—A woman recently appeared at the Gatchina Palace, declaring that she had hitherto belonged to the Socialists' society, but had deserted it, and wished to tell the Czar something important. The woman was promptly arrested.

BOMBARDING TOWNS IN MADAGASCAR.
LONDON, Dec. 4.—According to advices from Madagascar the French have bombarded Mohambo and Fenerif, on the northeast coast, and two French frigates have gone to bombard Fort Dauphin and other places on the south coast.

KINSTON, N. C., Dec. 5th, 1883.
MR. EDITOR:—A question that has agitated the public mind of our town and county for several days past was on yesterday settled by the bonding of W. W. Dunn, Esq., C. S. C., by Dr. H. Tull, Ch'mn Dem. Ex. Com. for this county, and Mr. Commissioner J. L. Kennedy. I say they bonded him because I have been informed and it is generally believed that but for their known responsibility financially he could not have given bond. I have no hesitation in saying the commissioners would have been justified in taking these gentlemen alone. There was a general rejoicing among the Republicans at the result and it amuses us very much to know that one or more petitions of Democratic aspirants found warm reception; that those who expected the treat there are many irate Democrats who do not hesitate to use "cuss words" in this connection. (Applause.) My object in writing this, however, is not to give the above information simply, but to place myself in a proper attitude before my party friends in regard to this bonding of our clerk, into which I have been drawn against my will by others, and grossly misrepresented. On Friday, Nov. 30th, the writer addressed a letter to Mr. Dunn in which I stated in substance, that I had been credibly informed that he had stated that the lawyers in general, and I in particular, were doing all we could to prevent his bonding. I stated that it was false as to myself. I gave him the names of some of my informants and requested that he give me the names of his at once in writing which he has failed to do, notwithstanding my special request. Now sir, I desire to state while the subject is warm from much discussion that I have never advised or counseled or in any other manner tried to hinder or delay, or in any manner interfered with Mr. Dunn's bonding to his prejudice. In 1882 he requested me to help him bond, which I did with my limited capital and influence; during the present year he has not requested any assistance from me and standing bonds is not such an interesting business as to induce one to seek an opportunity.

Between Mr. Dunn and myself there are strong ties, first, that of friendship; second, consanguinity, and a third, which he understands which in my judgment ought to induce him to do me justice in this matter by either stating who his informants are, or exonerate me from any intention to injure him or benefit the Democrats by causing his failure to bond.

I do not believe Mr. Dunn would do me an intentional wrong but, it is well known that we have in our county an organization styled "Tammany Hall" composed, it is said, of both Democrats and Republicans, or it is so reported, as an authority on this point I would refer to Kilby Jones' celebrated letter during the last campaign. Now I don't think "Tammany" should act thus, for I introduced a bill to give them corporate powers. See Senate Journal, 1883, page 154.
Respectfully etc.,
F. B. LOFTIN.

Try POTTER'S COUGH DROPS.

When you come to think of it, it is not odd that literary men prefer a pipe to a cigar. It is handier to smoke when they are writing, and ever so much cleaner. And then it gives them the true essence and flavor of the tobacco. In Blackwell's Durham Long Cut they have a source of solace and inspiration quite unknown when a less dainty and luxurious leaf is used.
