Mr. Wm. B. Swindell, of Swan Quarter, Hyde county, is in the city with a cargo of rice.

Christmas turkeys are arriving on every boat but the price holds up to $1.80 and $2.00 per pair.

The Atlantic steam fire engine was taken on yesterday to the well just bored at the depot. A stream of water was turned into the well for several minutes but it didn't fill. It is intended for drainage as well as to afford water, and, as the test showed, will answer for both purposes.

Personal.

Mr. J. A. Pittman, of Swansboro, is in the city. He leaves this morning for Salem, where he has a daughter at school who will return with him home to spend the Christmas holidays.

Died.

In this city, on December 11th, Mrs. Emma C. Collins, aged 19 years.

Funeral will take place at St. Cyprin church, at 2:30 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend.

Good Clothing.

Jos. Schwein offers special inducements to customers in this issue of the JOURNAL. He makes a specialty of fine clothing, and has a very attractive stock this fall. Those who are in need of a good suit or any other goods in his line will do well to call on him.

East-Carolina.

The Convention yesterday with great unanimity, voted to adopt the name East Carolina as that of the new Diocese. We think this a good selection and expressive of the facts in the case. The Diocese is composed of parishes in the eastern portion of the State, and such will be the impression conveyed whenever and wherever the name is heard.

The Stockholders' Meeting.

To-day the adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the A. & N. C. Railroad Co. will be held in Goldsboro. Friend Latham, of the Statesville American, tells us that the road will not be leased or sold until Gov. Jarvis steps down and out. Bro. Latham will remember our reasons for ever wanting the road leased or sold. We have advocated leasing whenever a fair price was offered, and always opposed getting rid of it for a mere song. If the stockholders of this valuable property could borrow money at a reasonable interest, say 6 per cent, for a term of thirty years, sufficient to pay off their present indebtedness and put the road in good condition, we see no reason why they could not, with proper management, declare a dividend in less than two years. We propose to figure a little on this proposition. It has been estimated that $400,000 will pay off the debt, iron and equip the road, and put it in first-class order. Once in this condition and under permanent and economical management, the receipts in less than two years will exceed fifty thousand dollars. This is no extravagant statement. We think those familiar with the earnings of the road for the last six months will endorse it. Now of this $50,000, $24,000 would pay the interest. It would be necessary to set aside a sinking fund of say $10,000 annually to discharge the principal of the debt and the balance would be applied to paying the officers and other incidental expenses and to the stockholders a dividend. True, the dividend for the first year or two would be very small, but there is another thing that ought to be done, and this is, the State stock ought to be reduced. If the State pays off the debt created for the building of this road with forty cents in the dollar, then she is not justly entitled to more than forty per cent of the original stock. The counties of Craven, Lenoir and Pamlico have paid and are now paying their debt, dollar for dollar, principal and interest. If the State's stock was reduced to the actual amount of money she has or intends to pay out, then a dividend could be justly made to both county and private stockholders. But how can we get it under permanent management without a lease? We believe this question can be solved readily and successfully if the stockholders would come together, not for the purpose of putting some one out and getting somebody else in, but purely for the purpose of advancing the interest of the road. With this object uppermost in their minds we believe the A. & N. C. Railroad can be made one of the best paying pieces of property in the State. But if the stockholders have not the capacity to take care of their property and put it under permanent management, or if there is so much strife among them over the few leaves and fishes that they cannot operate it successfully, then the sooner they get rid of it the better it will be for all concerned.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock by Bishop Lyman. Prayer by the Bishop.

The resolution passed by the House of Deputies and concurred in by the House of Bishops authorizing a division of the Diocese of North Carolina was read by the Bishop.

Mr. Winston offered as a substitute, that the delegates hand in their credentials to the Secretary and that he call the list of parishes entitled to representation.

The Secretary proceeded with the call for a few minutes, when, on motion of Rev. Dr. Watson, the call was suspended and a committee was appointed to receive the credentials, examine and report upon the same. The Bishop appointed on said committee Rev. Israel Harding, Mr. F. A. Boyle and Mr. Geo. H. Roberts.

Rev. R. S. Huske moved that a committee be appointed on permanent organization. Lost.

Mission stations: St. John the Evangelist, Edenton, Mr. Armistead Davis; St. Cyprin, New Berne, Mr. John Brown; St. Barnabas, Snow Hill, Mr. Jno. D. Grimsley. Thirty-three parishes were represented.

The Bishop declared the convention duly organized and announced that the first business in order was the election of a president.

Rev. Dr. Watson, Rev. E. M. Forbes and Rev. Dr. Huske were put in nomination.

The Bishop appointed Revs. Ebone and Mears as tellers for the clergy and Messrs. Harding and Shepard for the laity.

On motion of Dr. Watson, the rules of order of the old Diocese were adopted. The tellers reported the first ballot, for Dr. Watson 39, Rev. Mr. Forbes 23, Dr. Huske 16.

Rev. Dr. Watson was declared duly elected and invited to the chair by the Bishop.

On assuming the chair, the President announced that the next business in order was the election of a secretary.

The names tellers were continued. Revs. Nat. Harding, Israel Harding and Robt. B. Drane were placed in nomination.

Pending the balloting for secretary, on motion of Mr. John S. Long, Dr. A.

J. DeRossett was unanimously elected Treasurer. The Doctor accepted, hoping that the brother who moved his nomination would provide something for the Treasurer to do immediately.

The ballot for secretary resulted: Nat. Harding 47, Israel Harding 11, Robt. B. Drane 13.

Rev. Nat. Harding was declared duly elected.

The President announced that motions respecting the name of the Diocese were in order.

Dr. DeRossett offered the following preamble and resolution, and spoke to the same:

Whereas, The General Convention at its recent session in the city of Philadelphia did give its consent to the formation of a new Diocese within the limits of the original Diocese of North Carolina, embodying all the territory within the limits of the following counties, viz.: Beaufort, Bath, Bladen, Brunswick, Camden, Carteret, Chowan, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Dare, Duplin, Gates, Greene, Hertford, Hyde, Jones, Lenoir, Martin, New Hanover, Onslow, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Pender, Perquimans, Pitt-Robertson, Sampson, Tyrrell, Washington and Wayne—thirty-two in number.

And whereas, All the other constitutional and canonical requirements, for the formation of such new Diocese have been complied with.

And whereas, Canon VI title III the General Convention provides that the name of a new Diocese shall be a part of its organization. Therefore,

Resolved that the Diocese, as above indicated and described, shall be named and known as the Diocese of Wilmington.

Rev. Dr. Huske offered to amend by striking out Wilmington and inserting East Carolina.

Quite a spirited discussion arose on this question.

Maj. John Hughes spoke at length in favor of Dr. Huske's amendment.

Mr. Griffin moved to further amend by inserting Roanoke instead of East Carolina.

Mr. John S. Long warmly supported Mr. Griffin's motion in a short, pointed speech. He touched the Wilmingtonians very tenderly by prophesying that their city would be duly honored before the Convention adjourned.

Dr. DeRossett spoke again in favor of the original resolution.

Mr. Chas. Skinner advocated Mr. Griffin's amendment.

Rev. N. Collin Hughes, sr., favored East Carolina.

Dr. Van Bokkelen moved as a substitute for the original and amendments that the Diocese be named Albemarle.

Rev. Mr. Ambler advocated the original resolution.

Rev. Mr. Kiernan was for East Carolina.

Col. J. G. Burr spoke for a compromise, and moved that the name be "Carolina." Ruled out of order by the chair.

Dr. Van Bokkelen's substitute was put and lost.

Mr. Griffin's amendment was lost.

Mr. Winston moved to substitute the name Clarendon. Not seconded.

Col. Burr renewed his motion for Carolina. Lost.

A vote was then taken upon the amendment of Rev. Dr. Huske, and was carried.

The question recurred upon the original resolution as amended.

The preamble and resolution were read by the secretary, as amended, and adopted with great unanimity.

Rev. Dr. Huske offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of North Carolina, be requested to take charge of this Diocese until a Bishop shall have been consecrated for the same.

The Bishop, upon taking the chair, congratulated the convention upon having disposed of the question of a name and thought a very appropriate one had been selected.

Adjourned to 8 o'clock.

NIGHT SESSION.
Convention called to order at eight o'clock by the Bishop.

The Bishop announced that the first business in order was the election of Bishop.

Dr. A. J. DeRossett moved that the election of Bishop be made special order for to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. The motion was lost.

The Bishop announced that nominations were in order.

Rev. N. Collin Hughes, sr., raised the point that the clergy should first nominate in secret session.

The Bishop did not know the custom in North Carolina on that point and asked for information.

Revs. Forbes and Hughes, sr., stated that at the last Convention which elected a Bishop the clergy first nominated in secret session.

Mr. F. A. Boyle moved to reconsider the vote by which Dr. DeRossett's motion for special order was lost. Carried.

Dr. DeRossett renewed his motion to make the election of Bishop special order for to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

A motion to table was lost.

The motion was then adopted.

Dr. DeRossett moved that a committee of five be appointed to make nominations for the various committees and report to-morrow morning. Carried.

The secretary asked for the appointment of Rev. Mr. Drane as assistant secretary. Carried.

Rev. Dr. Huske offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Revs. Dr. Watson, Forbes, Hughes, sr., Dr. DeRossett and Major John Hughes be a committee to prepare a minute expressing the sense of this convention in severing its relation to the Bishop, clergy and laity of the Diocese of North Carolina.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Watson, Rev. Dr. Huske was added to the committee.

On motion of Maj. Hughes, the Bishop was requested to appoint the committee of five to nominate the committees of the Convention. The following gentlemen were appointed: Revs. Ambler, Israel Harding, Shields and Col. Fie-mont, Dr. Hinsdale and H. R. Bryan, Esq.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Watson, the Constitution, Canons and Rules of Order of the Diocese of North Carolina were referred to the committee on Canons, when said committee is appointed, and they instructed to report to the next convention of this Diocese.

The committee on separation reported and the report was responded to by the Bishop in a feeling manner.

Adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

The Public Library.
On yesterday there were two hundred and ten volumes placed on the shelves of the Graded School Library. Most of these were presented by the teachers and pupils of the school, while some were donations from publishers. They are all good and useful books, including histories, autobiographies, poems and standard novels, and extending in size and shape from a Worcester's Unabridged to a First Reader. This is a good start.

Suppose you wish to change to a tobacco whose purity is beyond suspicion, which will prove less irritable to the nerves, whose flavor and fragrance are more inviting. What would you choose? Careful analysis shows that Blackwell's Durham Long Cut contains only a trace of nicotine and the nitrates. As these are what make tobacco irritable, you can avoid them by resorting to the Durham Long Cut.

Rescued from Death.
William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with bleeding from the lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I got a bottle, when, to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past.
