The steamer Shenandoah arrived yesterday morning on time, bringing tors, Messrs. Freeman, Lloyd, Mason & til disposed of. This decision freight and passengers, and left yesterday evening with a right good show of cotton on board.

The case of State vs. Wm. Waters, J. Clark appeared for the State and L. J. by calling upon Messrs. Meadows & Co. Moore for the defendants. R. H. Hilton was released and the decision in regard to the others was reserved until Monday.

Moses Bryan's small wood shop, near the depot, was found to be on fire yesterday morning just before day, but through the extra exertions of railroad police J. R. Thomas and others the flames were put out without any serious damage. Kerosene oil was profusely sprinkled over the shop and was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

The Orphan Asylum is a great blessing to the orphans of North Carolina.

At the Exchange.

Miss Nannie Mitchell, of this city, and the Misses Sutherland, of Henderson, were visitors at the Cotton Exchange yesterday.

Revived.

For several hours yesterday business on the cotton yard seemed to have revived from the dullness brought about by the holidays, and the whirling of trucks and swinging of scales was quite fall-like. We trust that the revival may go on and increase in business circles until the trucking season opens, at which time it is always brisk.

Solomon Gorato, of Onslow county, was in the city yesterday. He called in and renewed his subscription to the Almost every seat in the opera house was sold before the Alice Oates troupe arrived in New Berne and long before seats could not be bought at all.

As we go to press early, we cannot give a full report of the performance, but from all of our exchanges comes the most flattering notices.

The Wilmington press was enthusiastic in their praises. It is seldom we have among us a distinguished artist like Alice Oates. Our theatre-going people seem to appreciate such talent by their liberal patronage.

GENERAL NEWS.

LONDON, Jan. 2.- A dispatch to the Times, from Khartoum, confirms the hour for the doors to open, reserved seats could not be bought at all. the recent report of an engagement between 600 soldiers of the garrison of Gezierh and a force of rebels. The dispatch adds that the soldiers beat off the rebels, who are now trying to retreat on Berther. This movement endangers our postal and telegraphic communications.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 2—The obsequies of the late Archbishop Perche, which took place here today, were of a very imposing character. The procession included, in acter. The procession included, in addition to the Cotholic clergy, various Catholic societies, sisters of charity and mercy in charge of inmates of the Catholic asylum here, and a great concourse of citizens. St. Louis Cathedral was decorated with funeral emblems and appropriate inscriptions. Right Rev. T. X. Levy officiated at the cathedral, assisted by clergy from this and other States.

KANSAS CITY, January 2.—Judge ALICE OATES' Krekel, of the United States Court, to-day announced his decision on the question of the right of the Federal Government to the custody of Frank James, on the charge of being concerned in the Muscle Shoals (Ala.) robbery. The Court ordered that the prisoner be returned to his bondsmen in the Blue Cut (Missouri) robbery case; holding that the State tribunal first gained possession, and is conse. quently entitled to his custody un-

DUBLIN, Jan. 2.—Despite the proclamation of the Lord Lieuten- MATINEE, ant prohibiting the gathering of Nationalists at Coote Hill, County of Parliament, with a number of members of the organizing committee of the Irish Nationalists arrived at the depot there and were enthusiastically received by a large crowd. The magistrates and a force of police were also present at the depot. The magistrates waited ing the meeting. Biggar mounted TO-DAY, crowd in mass meeting as was exwhich he said he was not aware how the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland obtained the title to his property; but unless some successful church robbers amassed it years ago, his lordship would probably at the present day have been a drunken horse broker.
