Owing to the severe storm of yesterday the Washington, N. C., mail failed to arrive here.

We direct the attention of shippers and travellers to the change in the advertimement of the Trent River Transportation Company, which appears in our columns to-d.y.

The U. S. C. S. steamer Arago, Lieut. Pillsbury, U.S. N. commanding, arrived here yesterday and will probably re-main in our waters some time. "The Snow! The Beautiful Snow!" An unfortunate wretch handed in yesterday a poem with the above heading, and our hired murderer almost annihilated him upon the spor. The county undertaker, Moses Bryan, took charge States. of what fragments remained of the reckless man.

But the snow-fall of yesterday was indeed an old-time Santa Claus occasion, and falling as it did on Old Christmas, was peculiarly seasonable. The young folks enjoyed themselves by formthrowing them at one another, a costly amusement in one instance, resulting in the breaking of one of the large panes of glass in the postoffice building.

From present indications there will be fair sleighing to-day.

Assaulted in our Sanctum.

Yesterday evening, after returning from an earnest endeavor to gather an item of news through the inclement weather, the editor of this paper was disturbed from his reveries by the sharp inquiry from a bright-eyed brunette, vet in her teens, "Have you heard all the news about snow-balling?" And on approaching the counter to respond, was popped in the breast by an unusually cool snow-ball, the party throwing it rushing to the street.

The editor, after recovering from the shock, followed in hot pursuit (for such weather), and overtaking the fair assailant at Prag's corner, an earnest en-

EDITOR JOURNAL:-We find the above in your issue of Dec. 29th. 1883, taken from the Statesville Landmark. The editor certainly possesses a level head; he is correct in the opinion that "a State can no more run a railroad than it can a theological seminary." In the matter of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, the State is anxious to wash her hands of the whole affair, and has signified her intention by responding to an overwhelming majority of a stock vote. She has willingly resigned her stock to the management of the Eastern N. C. Syndicate, composed of some of our best citizens here; also in Goldiboro and Raleigh; but unfortunately there is an unreasonable opposition to this step on the part of a very small minority, of whom it is reported that they will resort to an injunction to prevent the directors signing the proposed lease; this report we can scarcely credit, for the reason, that we do not believe that any person would so uselessly antagonize the interests of the stockholders of the road;

also the best interests of this community; and we do not think that any Judge in the State would grant an injunction based only upon absurb grounds. We cannot for the life of us see a reason why any one should object to the terms of this lease; it must be for want of a proper discernment of the benefits that would accrue to the road and to the people at large; we can assign no other cause for their strange opposition to the dw will of the stockholders. There is not

THINK OF IT NOW!

Although much is said about the importance of a blood-purifying medicine, it may be possible that the subject has never seriously claimed your attention. Think of it now! Almost every person has some form of scrafulous poison latent in his veins. When this develops in Scrofulous Sores, Ulcera, or Eruptions, or in the form of Rheumatism, or Organic Diseases, the suffering that en-sues is terrible. Hence the gratitude of thoso who discover, as thousands yearly do, that

Order of Exercises.

The topic recommended for prayer by the Evangelical Alliance to-morrow night (Monday) is as follows:

Praise and Thanksgiving:-For our calling and election to the divine favor, our merciful preservation during the year, and all the gifts of God's past kind kind providence; for the blessing of peace and quiet in the earth so largely pence and quiet in the earth so hargely enjoyed by the nations; for the greatly enlarged opportunities of preaching the Gospel to mankind; for the power of the Holy Spirit given to efforts for the con-version of souls in different lands; for the removal of stumbling-blocks to reon and morality in answer to united
