

THE DAILY JOURNAL.

VOL. II.

NEW BERNE, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1884.

NO. 250.

LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Minute Almanac.
Sun rises, 7:31 Length of day, Sun sets, 5:17 10 hours, 9 minutes.
Moon rises at 2:10 a. m.

This is old fashion winter weather.
Geo. B. McCotter, Esq., of Bell's Ferry, is in the city.

The revenue cutter Stevens is on Howard's ship railway for repairs.

Business on the A. & N. C. Railroad is picking up since the holidays.

The steamer Defiance arrived from Baltimore on Sunday with general merchandise.

The Maryland Legislature elected Judge E. K. Wilson to the U. S. Senate on the 18th inst.

The beautiful sunsets have returned and we may expect good weather for a few days at least.

O. H. Guion, Esq., of the firm of Holland & Guion, is off to Raleigh this morning on professional business.

A fine lot of 2,000 Bay river trout in market yesterday. The clever dealer that sent around one will accept our thanks.

The old market house, at the foot of Middle street, caught on fire Sunday, but was discovered in time and arrested by ex-policeman Hunt.

The steamer City of Columbus, bound for Savannah from Boston, was driven ashore on Devil's Bridge, Gay head, on the 17th. One hundred lives are reported lost.

We have received the prospectus of the Raleigh Register, the publication of which will commence early in February. It will be a Democratic paper edited by P. M. Hale.

What has become of the Charlotte Observer? We have not had a copy in several days. And the Daily Advance, of Asheville only comes in occasionally.
Hope they have not frozen out.

Thos. S. Gillett, Esq., of Maysville, is in the city, but he has failed to call around yet and tell us the outlook for a crop this year. It is nearly time for mortgaging, and the outlook must be good.

The Agents' Herald, published at Philadelphia by L. Lum Smith, has changed its name to the Public Herald.
The main object of the Herald is to expose frauds, making it invaluable to publishers.

Several cases for disorderly conduct and affrays were disposed of by the Mayor yesterday. One for larceny, Charles Williams, colored, was remanded to jail in default of bail for his appearance at next term of the Superior Court.

Mobile has lost, it is estimated, two million dollars in its truck interests by the recent severe freeze. Is not Mobile's loss New Berne's gain? The extreme South was severely visited, and presuming upon a reasonably early change of weather, would it not be well for our truck farmers to put in a large crop?

Job Work.
The JOURNAL office is now prepared to print letter heads, bill heads, tags, envelopes, cards, etc. We have just purchased a lot of new material for this purpose, and we have an excellent job printer, Mr. R. R. Hill, whose efficiency in this line the people of New Berne know something about. A full supply of deeds, real estate mortgages, lien bonds and chattel mortgages on hand.
Before sending abroad to have this work done give us a trial.

White Oak Pocosin.
We surrender our editorial columns to-day to Col. Pardee's trip to White Oak pocosin, which we copy from the New Haven Palladium. It will be interesting reading to our Maysville subscribers especially. We regret that the weather was such that the Colonel and Panzer Pools could not stick to George Washington Smith in his explorations.
He would have shown them something in one day longer. The Colonel tells in this letter how he walked that footlog.

Inauguration Frauds.
We publish as a warning to our readers two paragraphs from the Insurance Age which shows that there are frauds in this business as there is in almost everything else. When a man wants to insure his property or life it is wiser to go to some reliable agent whom he knows than to deal with a traveling agent whom he knows nothing about.
We think it doubtful whether a suit could be sustained against a company for loss if the policy had been issued contrary to the laws of the State.

Commissioner Spooner, of Wisconsin, is making a patriotic and consistent speech in the Wisconsin Assembly. An agent of the Iowa Great Eastern Life-no lack of name, if there be of means, was recently arrested at Milwaukee, charged with extensive frauds in that State. So note it be!

John C. Faigo, Esq., manager of the City of London, and lately of La Metropole, has paid the sum of $2,000 to the State of Massachusetts for alleged violation of the insurance laws of the Commonwealth in the matter of reinsurance and incorrect returns.

Cheating the Printer.
We clip the following from the Carteret Telephone:

We received on Tuesday morning a notice from the Postmaster at Newport stating that the paper addressed to one of our subscribers was not taken out, and the reason given was "that he did not want it any longer." As said subscriber had the paper more than a year without paying for it, we suppose he thinks he will cancel the debt in this way. If he is honest, he will pay what he owes, or come forward like a man and ask us to forgive the debt, and show his inability to pay. If he does not do this we shall place his name among our list of "dead beats" and sometime in the near future will publish them altogether and advertise their accounts at public auction. We hope we have not another subscriber on our list who thinks he can cheat the printer out of what he owes by refusing to take the paper. If so, however, the sooner he shows his want of honesty, the less we will lose by his rascality.

The people in this section, and we may say throughout North Carolina, have become so used to taking a paper "on time" as well as everything else they buy that it is almost impossible to run a paper on the strictly cash in advance plan. But we do not blame a man for not paying for a paper in advance unless he has full confidence in its stability. Many good men have been swindled by short-lived newspapers in this way.
The subscribers to the JOURNAL have generally paid up well, but we have a few not unlike the one referred to by our neighbor. We have recently cut off a number, without waiting for a notification from the postmaster, some of whom we learn were surprised at not getting the JOURNAL as usual, notwithstanding we had notified them in advance what we intended to do. There are plenty of men who like to read newspapers but they want to do it on the "dead beat" plan; they manage to get their names on the mail book by taking it on trial for a few months, and after the editor sends it as long as his good nature will let him and cuts them off: they soon become subscribers to some other paper, and by continuing this plan they get a newspaper for ten or fifteen years without paying a cent. The JOURNAL has had a few of these, and we are glad to say they are only a few. We think the idea of publishing these delinquents a good one if all the newspapers would adopt it. It would afford us protection against "dead beats."

Dr. Milburn's Lectures.
MR. EDITOR:—We have heard Rev. W.
H. Milburn, D.D., "the blind man eloquent," both preach and lecture. We will not attempt a full analysis of his discourses, but merely give some of the leading impressions produced on our mind by his several efforts. Of course, we expected much, as we had read his record in American and English journals, but, be it said now, that he is, in some way, the only man that, under similar circumstances, far surpassed our expectations. His manner before the public bears no signs of ostentation.
He seems solemn beneath the vast magnitude of his theme for the great sake of the truth that presses his heart for the world's benefit. He is no common thinker, no common orator. He opens the field and principles of his discourse on a broad and liberal foundation. He speaks with logical exactness, the right thought and word in the right place.
His diction is chaste, pure, unaffected, ornate, but not too diffuse, and his gestures graceful and impressive. With his dignified humor and wit, you are strongly attracted without shock to delicate emotions. You follow closely every utterance, act and feeling of the speaker.
His power expands with the increasing volume of his subject. With a clear conception of the true historic record of the characters under investigation, he carefully places human conduct, and motives in the heated crucible of a critical analysis, and steadfastly holds them to the blazing focus of truth, till every transported bosom throbs with thrills and assents to the splendid triumph of the speaker.
Both he and the audience seem to be unconscious, that they are toiling up some stupendous height, till the fiery summit of a mighty truth volcanic-like springs before them the awful ascent, and when you turn to see on whom it rests, you find it rests on the man who fills the electric current. He is a master of nature's description of men, oceans and things. His sermon on the temple at Jerusalem and its application; his sermon on Solomon and his application; beautiful in memory for the head and heart of all; his lectures on "What a Blind Man Saw in England," "What an Angel Saw in England," "A man rich in elegant finish and potent warning to young and old. A full attendance of our citizens on every night of the memorable lectures, bespeaks with the writer an earnest hope of again hearing the world's speaker. May the great Ruler of all things give him strength and many days to tell the truth in his peculiar manner.
G. W. NASH.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a special meeting of the Atlantic Steam Fire Engine Company held Monday eve, January 21st, 1884, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, the Chief Engineer of the Universe, to remove from us, in the midst of a life of usefulness, our friend, Elijah Ellis, and

Whereas, The intimate relations long held by our deceased comrade with the members of this company render it proper that we should place on record a testimonial of our appreciation of his services as a fireman and merits as a man. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow with humble submission to the will of Him who knows and does all things well, that it is with sad hearts and a deep sensitivity of our loss, we pay the last sad tribute to our comrade who has been called from his labor to rest.

Resolved, That in the death of Elijah Ellis this Company loses a member who was always active and zealous in his work as a fireman, prompt to advance the interests of the company, devoted to its welfare and prosperity, one who was wise in counsel and fearless in action, an honest and upright man whose virtues endeared him not only to the members of his company, but to all his fellow-citizens.

Resolved, That this company tenders its heartfelt sympathy to the family and relatives of our deceased member in this time of sad affliction, trusting that God will alleviate their sufferings.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That the city papers be requested to copy the same.

Respectfully submitted,
ALPHEUS W. WOOD,
J. R. B. CARRAWAY, Com.
J. K. WILLIS.

Swansboro Items.

John Pittman is plowing.

L. O. Fonville is building a new addition to his house; Johnson Olive, builder.

All well in town, I believe, except W.
H. Hill, who is still very low with cancer of the face.

I understand that Mr. C. Vost, of Jacksonville, has bought Lip Hancock's saw mill on French's creek.

Isaac Henderson killed two grown deer at one shot last Saturday. Ike is a great hunter as well as a good farmer.

Dr. Blount has gone to house-keeping. He and his good wife enjoyed themselves so well Christmas that they grew fat laughing at the boys.

Everett McLean, from Wilmington, has been out on a visit to Swansboro, his old birth-place, and is visiting his sister, Mrs. Nash Matlock.

Ned Farnell speaks of moving. Says he, "be-hemmed" if he pays Nash one sixteenth part of a cent more than he has for the last year, and Nash says he won't take the same.

Capt. J. Loughlin killed a fat hog the other day that had two hearts, all well developed. That looks strange, but it is so. Write to the Captain, if you don't believe it; also Jim Smith.

Dave Ward and Major Russell have gone to work. The latter is building a house for Dr. Dick Ward, near Jacksonville, and moving another at the same place for George Gurganus.

Capt. A. L. Willis was at Foscoe's Landing, White Oak River, yesterday, after a load of shingles for L. O. Fon-ville and A. J. Hurst. Capt. Willis has a fine yacht of his own make, the May Flower. He lives on New river, near Snead's Ferry.

Clem Manly, from your city, and Tom Gilman, from Jacksonville, were down to our place a few days ago; also Henry Jarman, deputy sheriff. Expect Clem was looking out for money for some of his northern clients. He says it was his first visit to Swansboro and will come again. Do so Clem.

Schooner Roy just returned from Morehead City, where she has been with a load of cotton for Hahn & Co., so said.
And schooner Katie Edwards, Bell, just cleared for New river, and schooner Pocket, Bloodgood, for New Berne, with naval stores from John Gilman to Maj.
Dennis.

More bad weather; another heavy fall of snow on Thursday, the 17th inst., makes it bad on the farmers who are getting ready to commence farming.
Some are all ready to work, plowing and hauling manure. Hope they won't plant so much cotton that they will have to give too big a mortgage, as that is what is the matter with so many broken merchants, as well as broken farmers, the last year.

Bob. Humphrey got so scared the other night when he went to marry a couple that he shook the buttons off his coat sleeve, and George Dennis says he shook the house from top to bottom.
You must not do that way Bob, though he must have been badly scared, as I understood he forgot and said, "I presented you man and wife in the name of the United States of America, and State of Carteret county."

STATE NEWS.

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Wilson Advance: The cotton mills are now making satisfactory progress. An average of 12 per cent. on the investment is now being made.

Albemarle Enquirer: Our old fishermen say that we will have a good fishing season this year. Our many fishermen around Edenton are making extensive preparations for it, and we sincerely hope they may realize their expectation.

Raleigh Visitor: The jury in the case of the State vs. Wesley Bunn, for murder, after being out five minutes, came into court at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and rendered a verdict of not guilty.
The verdict was received with demonstrations of applause by the large crowd present, which were quickly suppressed by the Judge and the Court officers.

Greensboro Patriot: Trinity College has nineteen Cherokee Indians as students this year. The State is paying for their education.— Mr. James W. Forbis, our county treasurer, has, through his energy and perseverance, gotten all the magistrates and county officers to make their sworn annual report of money received and disbursed during the past year, as required by law.

Wilmington Star: Messrs. Davis & Son caught the first white shad of the season at their fishery yesterday.—A Wilson correspondent of the Goldboro Messenger nominates Hon. R. R. Bridges, of this city, for Governor. Mr. Bridges would make a capital Governor, but we do not suppose he would give up the responsible position he now holds if the gubernatorial nomination were unanimously tendered him.

Western Sentinel: A farmer in this county killed twenty-five rabbits in six hours one day last week during the snow.—A young gentleman of Winston went turkey hunting one day last week. After a long and weary tramp he spied a bird and making a good shot proceeded to bag his game. But a farmer came upon the scene about this time and claimed his share of the sport—in the way of a $1.00 bill for the loss of his feathered property.

Tarboro Southerner: Our people will not be entirely dependent on Northern ice next summer. Many have gathered full crops. Sheriff Bryan has filled his ice house with ice four inches thick.—Mr. Wilkinson, county superintendent of instruction, reports great need for teachers. There are a sufficient number of capable teachers, in this county, if they would apply for certificates. We dislike the idea of going out of the county to get teachers but this is what the committee will be forced to do unless ours will come forward.

Scotland Neck Commonwealth: Mr. Preston Riddick, who has been living with his brother, Mr. W. T.
Riddick, at Spring Hill, a little station on the S. N. R. R. was very painfully, if not fatally injured, at Warren station, on the A. & R. railroad, one day last week. For some purpose he had gotten off the train which started before he had time to get on again, and in attempting to do so, was caught between the moving car and the warehouse platform, crushing six or seven ribs. His physicians say that he may recover, though his condition is quite serious.

Carteret Telephone: Mr. J. F.
Jones was quite a loser during the late storm, his lumber being scattered and his new sharpie considerably damaged.—The works of the N. C. Oil and Guano Co., and Messrs. Dey & Bro., escaped without injury during the storm of last week. So much for choosing a protected location.—Every farmer in Carteret county but one, lives within a half mile of navigable water and can go to market either in a wheeled vehicle or a boat. How is this for natural advantages!

Collector A. C. Davis informs us that Lieutenant Ross, of the U. S. revenue steamer Cofax reports he saw in with a large fore and aft schooner, painted green, with black rails, lumber laden capsized.

The purest fragrant natural tobacco for the pipe or cigarette is Blackwell's Durham Long Cut. With no colloid in it, and only traces of the nitrate and nicotine, it is essentially the purest tobacco in the world, to say nothing of its delicious flavor and fragrance. d

Mr. A. A. Miller, Armfield P. O., N.C., says: "My wife has proven your medicine to be good for nervousness and general debility."
