NEWS FROM THE OLD WORLD. LONDON, Jan. 21.—A despatch to the Times from Khartoum, dated Jan. 18, says: "It is reported here that a number of dervishes near here have summoned the people to join El Mahdi."

Seven hundred blacks, who have been recruited at Suakim, and sent to the camp outside the city of Cairo, and who were yesterday ordered to board a train preparatory to being shipped to Suez, openly rebelled and refused to go.

Gen. Gordon left Brindisi, Italy, today for Port Said, on his way to the Sudan.

Gen. Gordon goes straight to Suakim. He will meet Sir Evelyn Baring at Suez, and come to an agreement in regard to the co-operation of the English authorities in Egypt.

Mussa, chief of the Hadendawa tribe, whose sons Gen. Gordon saved from death to which they had been condemned by the Egyptian officials, will be summoned to Suakim, and Gen. Gordon will go under his escort to Khartoum, where he will assemble the heads of the tribes and announce that he has come on behalf of England to restore their liberty and remove the adventurers who have been the curse of the country.

A. J. Jenkins, of Chicago, Secretary of the National Prohibition Committee, says that a convention will be held, and a National Prohibition ticket be placed in the field in 1884.

Gordon's place in the Congo country until Gen. Gordon is ready to fulfill his engagement.

The Times says that the evacuation of the Sudan south of Khartoum is the condition precedent of all healthy reorganization of the country.

CAIRO, Jan. 21.—The Khedive has received a telegram from the Governor of the Sudan saying that on the arrival at Khartoum, which is shortly expected, the town will be able to repulse any attack.

Honor the illustrious Dead.

For more than ten years we have been in our way urging upon North Carolinians the duty of adorning the capitol of the State with statues of our illustrious men.

W. D. Pender. We would be delighted to see a group like that in Richmond in honor of some of the great men, civil and military, of the past.—Wil. Star.

If disease has entered the system the only way to drive it out is to purify and enrich the blood.
