The warm weather of the past week has started the truck farmers to work. The steamer Kinston came in yesterday evening with a full cargo of cotton from up Neuse.

Mr. N. M. Gaskill gives notice of a full line of samples. Go around and have your measure taken.

The schooner Theresa, Capt. Jim Williams, arrived yesterday from Germantown with a cargo of corn.

To-day is the anniversary of the invention of the marine compass, which dates from 1302. St. Paul speaks of a compass in Acts 28:13.

The good weather this week has brought quite a number of farmers to the city with bacon hams, lard and cotton, and business has been quite lively.

The House elections committee has settled the Skinner-Pool contest by awarding the seat to Mr. Skinner upon the ground that he was legally elected. The vote was 6 to 5.

About seven hundred roe shad were shipped from this market yesterday. Over five hundred of these went North per Shenandoah, the balance went West over the A. & N. C. Railroad.

The transforming power of the paint brush is abroad in our city, and we hope that the contagion will spread until the gloom produced by some of ye ancient houses will disappear.

This is the season when people usually read all the patent medicine advertise-ments, and, we fear, take too many of the nostrums, instead of seeking the timely aid of a skillful physician.

Mr. J. O. Foy and family, of Richlands, have moved to the city. Rev. G. W. Sanderlin left yesterday for Elizabeth City on the Shenandoah. Mr. W. T. Oast, boiler inspector, accompanied by Mrs. Oast and their little boy, was in the city for a few hours yesterday, arriving and departing on the Shenandoah.

Wants to Meet Them in Heaven.

On Thursday we had the pleasure of a county. They are both farmers, both magistrates, and Mr. Bynum is a merchant. We thought it a good opportunity to get an item, and began on Mr.

Gillet. "What are the prospects for a crop this year, Mr. Gillett ?"

"Well, first rate, in fact, very bright -we are bound to make a good crop this year. Merchants may feel safe in running a fellow pretty extensively."

Bynum. "We don't want many chattel mortgages at our place. I want to meet all my friends out there in Heaven. but if I continue this credit business I am afraid I shall never see them there." "Why?"

"Well, they tell me so many crooked tales about when they are going to pay up that I can't see how they will ever get to Heaven. So you needn't print many chattel mortgages for us this year."

Revolution in Farming. Rev. G. W. Sanderlin gave us a pleas ent call on Friday. He was enroute for Elizabeth City via the Shenandoah, aking along with him eleven select hands Mayor yesterday, and was found guilty from the Bear creek neighborhood, Lenoir county, under the charge of Mr. W. Garris, who understands working happy. As it was the Sabbath they improved machinery, which he is going to introduce on his extensive farm in Pasquotank. He expects to revolutionize that section by the use of modern improved machinery, and we think he showed us every attention. I saw a is the right man to do it. Mr. Edgar May and brother have opened a first-class bar in Trenton. Ely Franck's, col., is preparing to open a fish and oyster house in Trenton. Mr. Perry has opened his school in Trenton and has, as I have been in-formed, about 20 scholars. We have some nice weather now ing the defeat of Baker Pasha are I have been informed that a Mr. Grifconflicting, but these details have been received: Baker Pasha began fin, of Kinston, has been to Trenton looking around and intends opening a buggy shop. Trenton is looking up in her old days. In olden time, before the war, the editor of the New Berne Progress passed through Trenton and in his advance from the entrenchments at Trinkitat on Sunday. His force consisted of 3,000 troops, badly his next paper he said that Trenton was many of whom showed an unwil-"a finished town, for he never heard the sound of a saw or hammer in the town.' call from Thos. S. Gillett and Lewis Should he pass there now he would Bynum, Esqs., from Maysville, Jones certainly think that a great revolution had taken the place of the olden time.

1 would like to suggest to our citizens the importance of taking steps to have Jones county represented in the great exposition that will be held in Raleigh this year. It will never do for the other counties to take a lively interest in the exhibit and we do nothing. Would it not be a good idea for our leading citizens to have a conference together and see what steps ought to be taken? I will offer a suggestion: Let them call a mass meeting in Trenton of all of our citizens, and let them appoint commit-tees in the various townships to talk with people and enthuse them on the subject. Let Jones coanty claim a space at the exposition, and let us see that that space is filled with our county products—corn. rice, cotton, peas, wheat, rye and in fact everything that can be produced in the county. We ought to have also specimens of our timbers and marls. If we commence in time Jones county can astonish even her own people at the exposition. I have made these suggestions hoping our leading and pro-gressive citizens will wake up and take hold of this important matter and carry it through.
