The city marshal has had some much needed work done on Change street.

Let him who regrets the loss of time make the proper use of that which is to come.

We return thanks for an invitation to attend the grand ball at Trenton next Friday night.

The conductors on the A. & N. C. Railroad tell us that business is good on both ends of the road at present.

A merchant on Broad street was teasing a country widower yesterday for carrying out a cookstove, as if it was something unusual for widowers to eat cooked victuals.

The hum of machinery in Stimson's and Congdon's mills near the railroad depot sounds business like, and causes the stroller who passes that way to quicken his pace.

Business has been lively in the matrimonial line during the past week. Nine marriage licenses have been issued by the Register of Deeds, four to whites and five to colored couples.

The country is not yet full of engines, nor are the times too hard for people to buy, as we see Mr. J. C. Whitty shipping a 20 horse power tubular to Mr. Marcus Carawan at Goose Creek Island on yesterday.

Mr. Alex. Miller has received some beautiful shrubbery from an Augusta, Ga. Nursery, for Cedar Grove Cemetery. Mr. Miller is perfectly devoted to his work in looking after the Cemetery and having things kept in the neatest order.

Capt. L. T. Oglesby, of Carteret, called to see us yesterday and renewed his subscription to the JOURNAL. He is one of the few farmers who never buys meat and bread but makes it at home, and a few bales of cotton for pocket change. He is a Jeffersonian Democrat, and before the war was a wheel horse in a canvass. We think there is good service in him yet if the Democrats of Carteret will make the proper use of it.

What is It?

B & D

The Graded School is asked to answer this.

Big Hogs and Big Snakes.

The big hogs are all killed, but it is nearly time for the big snakes to begin to crawl. When they do begin every liar in Christendom will ask for a hearing in the newspapers, and every editor that is fool enough to listen to them will get the credit of doing the lying himself.—Clinton Caucasian.

[Will our Swansboro correspondent make a note of this?—ED. JOURNAL.]

Schooner Arrivals.

The Lucretia, Capt. Thos. Payne, from Wysocking, with corn.

The Ohio, Capt. Wm. Wabab, from Sladesville, with corn.

The Theresa, Capt. Williams, from Sladesville, with corn and rice.

The Ella Hill, Capt. Ed. Hill, from Elizabeth City, with corn to J. A. Meadows.

As Item from Hyde.

A friend just from Hyde county reports that a negro who was in jail escaped last Saturday night by beating a chisel and burning out the staple of the lock on the door. After getting out he went to Rev. Mr. Besman's and stole his fine horse, with which he made his escape. He crossed Alligator river in the neighborhood of Kilkenny, and while crossing the marsh the horse got mired down. He went out to get help to get him out, promising the gentlemen who assisted him five dollars. After the horse was out he could not pay the money. This circumstance caused his assistants to suspect that something was wrong. They sent over to Fairfield and there learned of the escape from jail, and the boy and horse were returned, the one to gladden the heart of the minister, the other to console the sheriff and "let the law take its course."

Church Services.

Methodist Church—Centenary. Services at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m., conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Burkhead. Sunday school at 3 p. m. Pollock street Chapel. Sunday school at 4 p. m. Prayor meeting at 4 p. m.

Christ Church—V. W. Shields, Rector. Exegesis Sunday. Holy Communion at 8 p. m. Other services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 3:30 p. m. The public are always invited to attend the services of this Church.

Presbyterian Church—Services at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m., by the pastor, Rev. L. C. Vase. Subject of the morning sermon: "Lawful Christian Amusements." Sabbath school at a quarter before 9 p. m. A cordial invitation to all to attend these services.

Baptist Church—Services morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Johnson. Sunday school at 8 p. m.

The Colored Graded School.

Prof. J. A. Savage, of the colored Graded School of this city, informs us that the attendance at that institution is steadily on the increase. There are now enrolled 473 pupils with seven teachers. The committee has bought and placed in the room a handsome clock which is of great convenience to both teachers and pupils.

Superintendent Long has discharged his duty well in looking after this school and seeing that the teachers have the proper qualifications to discharge their duties.

Chronological Events of which To-day is the Anniversary.

1188. Saladin, leader of the Saracens in the third Crusade, and founder of the dynasty of Ayyubites, died at Damascus, aged 58.

1461. Edward IV., Duke of York, claimed the throne of England.

1475. Michel Angelo died.

1546. Martin Luther died.

1770. Joseph Jacotet, a noted French educator, born.

1776. Gen. Washington occupied Dorchester heights.

1789. The first capital of the country was New York, by reason of the meeting of the first Congress, which declared Washington President of the United States.

1790. In February, Major John Daves appointed the first Collector of Customs for the Port of New Berne.

1791. General Arthur St. Claire assumed command of the United States army.

1815. The war of 1812 ended.

1865. Columbia, S. C., burned.

1873. Great San Salvador earthquake.

1878. Revolt of the Swiss Guard of the Vatican.

1883. During February the tide at Cincinnati rose to the height of 66 feet and 4 inches.

Nothing to Do.

We had thought that the bad weather through January had put the farmers behind, and that there was no end to work on the farm at present, but we had this warmly disputed on yesterday. A young white man walked into our office and said:

"I wish you would lend me fifteen cents to buy me something to eat until I can get some work."

"We don't keep money to lend, the National Bank is just around the corner, and they are a very clever set of fellows there. Why don't you go out in the country and get work on a farm?"

"Nothing to do there now. Farmers won't have any work before about one month."

"I think you are mistaken; the farmers are rather behind hand and need good hands."

"Well, but I've tried, I know there ain't nothing to do." (Then we knew he was a humbug.)

"Are you disabled, crippled any way so you can't work?"

"No sir."

"Well, I have been a farmer myself and I know from actual experience that this is one of the busiest seasons of the year, especially when the winter has been disagreeable."

"I only want fifteen cents; that aint much."

"It's a power of money to us, and to every other man that has to work for it. You ought to be ashamed of yourself; a young, healthy man going around begging for a living."

"I am not begging! I only wanted to borrow the money!"

"Yes, but I had rather give it to you than lend it to you. Go to the country and get work with some good farmer."

"I can get work at twenty-five cents a day, but I don't work for no such prices."

"Nor do I lend money on such security."

He walked out, shaking his head, and we picked up the Code and found section 3,884, which we hope some one will read to the young man. It is as follows:

"Any person who may be able to labor and who has no apparent means of subsistence, and neglects to apply himself to some honest occupation for the support of himself and his family; or, if any person shall be found spending his time in dissipation, or gaming, or sauntering about without employment, or endeavoring to maintain himself or his family by any undue or unlawful means, such person shall be a vagrant, and guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars or by imprisonment not to exceed thirty days; and the offense shall be cognizable before a justice of the peace, who may release the party on his giving a recognizance, with or without security for his industrious and peaceable deportment for one year or less from the date thereof, or may also impose on him a punishment not to exceed that above mentioned."

If a well be poisoned, woe to those who drink thereat. It is worse to poison the fountain of life for one's self, and for posterity. Often by carelessness, or misfortune, or inheritance, this has been done. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cleans the blood, the vital stream, and restores appetite, strength and health.

STATE NEWS.

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Asheboro Courier: The C. F. & Y. V. is now within 13 miles of Greensboro, having passed Honliv's store and is now averaging a half of a mile a day.—The school building at Flint Spring, in Brower township, was burned last Wednesday night. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Clinton Caucasian: There is a great demand for corn in Clinton and it commands the cash. If you have any to spare bring it along.

Mr. W. L. Hill expects to plant eight or ten acres in strawberries at Warsaw this season. He is putting out plants now. It is said that the berries ripened two weeks earlier last year at Warsaw than at Faisons.

Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: Augustus W. Graham, Esq., and other young gentlemen of this State, have become owners of a large mining property near Birmingham, Ala., and are now engaged in organizing it on a business basis.—The accident at the new Episcopal church in Henderson recently, was duplicated at Jonesboro on Friday evening, by the giving way of a scaffold at the new Methodist church there. Four or more men were precipitated a distance of 25 to 30 feet, and lay until help came.

Charles Riddle, John Brown, Jos. Johnson, and Jos. Wicker were hurt; the two last named not seriously.

Orphan's Friend: There are now 135 children at the Asylum, and a number of applications for admission.—In order to run the Asylum successfully, the contributions must average about $800 per month, or $200 per week.—Mr. Honeycutt, of Johnson county, who, having been married seventeen years, has no children, last week adopted Fannie Hall, of New Berne.—Mr. Mills leaves to-day (Friday) for his home at Thomasville, where he will open a school for boys on the first Monday in March. Mr. Mills has been Superintendent of the Asylum ever since its organization, and it is hard to realize the fact that he has severed his connection with it. The Board of Directors meet on the first Tuesday in April, when they will elect a Superintendent. Miss Jordan is in charge, and will act as Superintendent until the election of Mr. Mill's successor.

Durham Tobacco Plant: Some two weeks ago a party of revenue officers went to the residence of A. W. Pendergrass, near the Orange and Durham county line, and acted in a very unbecoming manner. Mr. Pendergrass was absent at the time, his wife and little children being alone. Mrs. Pendergrass and her little children were in the kitchen, when three men with guns cocked and presented; rushed into the house, and without ceremony or giving any intimation of what their business was, commenced to tear up the floor in order to reach a potato cellar under the house. Mrs. Pendergrass and her children were terribly frightened. We direct the attention of the authorities to this outrageous proceeding and call upon them to have the matter investigated. The people will not long quietly submit to such high handed measures.

Chatham Record: On last Thursday Mr. Caleb Dixon, a highly respected citizen of Albright township, met with a most horrible accident that caused his death in three or four hours. He had recently put up a saw mill at his flour mill on Tick creek near Ore Hill, and on last Thursday was there to see about starting it. Late in the afternoon, everything being ready, he pulled the rope that let in the water and in doing so slipped and fell right in front of the saw, which cut him almost in two. Dr. Kirkman was at once sent for, and rendered all the aid that was possible, but no human help could avail. Mr. Dixon remained perfectly conscious to the last, expressing his willingness to die, and gave several messages for his family.—A great many rabbits are carried from this county to the Raleigh market, and it is frequently made a matter of jest and laughter, that rabbits are one of our chief products. We were recently told, while in Raleigh, that a prominent merchant of that city was seen walking across the street with a countryman in friendly conversation, and after they had separated a group of Raleighites asked the merchant who was his acquaintance. He replied that he was a Chatham man, but did not know his name. They then asked him how he knew that the man was from Chatham. To this he answered, "Oh, I know that he is a Chatham man, because his breath smelt of fried rabbit and corn whiskey!"

Beaufort Items.

Quite a number of licenses to make oyster beds have been granted by the clerk of the Superior Court during the past week, and we hope the number will be largely multiplied. Select your location at once and go to work planting.

Jim Batson, a colored boy about sixteen years of age, who accompanied a party of men to Georgia in January last to engage in labor in the turpentine district for the coming year, returned Wednesday, having managed to get back alive and well without the assistance of money or friends. He did some pretty good walking.

Mr. David W. Russell, on Newbern road, lost a valuable horse last week. The animal was taken suddenly and severely with colic or some affection of the intestines and nothing that could be done seemed to be of any avail. Such a loss at this season of the year is quite a misfortune.

On Tuesday night of last week the farm dwelling of Mr. M. R. Springle, on Newbern road, took fire and burned to the ground, a total loss. The fire is said by the neighbors to have, seemingly, originated in the roof, which is unaccountable, as Mr. Springle was at the time in Newbern, and the house was vacant and no ladder could be found anywhere near the premises. Mr. Springle was fortunate enough to have an insurance of $300 on the house, which will in part reimburse him for his loss.

A colored man, brother to the would be criminal who is now in jail on a charge of larceny, took his gun and ammunition on Thursday last week and entered the swamp near Harlowe creek. He soon became confused, then lost, and wandered about until Sunday, without finding a road or habitation. On Sunday morning he heard the crowing of a rooster and following the sound he came to the farm of Mrs. E. Hardesty, completely broken down in body for want of food, and considerably dazed in mind. Mrs. H. supplied him with food and started him on the road home, but he gave out in a short time, and would probably have died but was discovered by a party who were out in search of him, and proper means were taken for his relief.

The New Episcopal Diocese.

Three of the five members of the standing committee of the Diocese of East Carolina met here Tuesday. These were Rev. J. C. Huske, D.D., of Fayetteville, chairman of the committee, Rev. T. M. Ambler, of Wilmington, and Dr. A. J. DeRosset, of Wilmington, secretary of the committee. The meeting was for the purpose of receiving, officially, the replies which had been received from the standing committee of other dioceses, relative to Dr. Watson's election as bishop of the new diocese. These replies were from 34 out of 48 dioceses in the United States, and all were in the affirmative, thus making two more than the necessary two-thirds. The next step by the committee was to send off the credentials of the bishop-elect to the venerable Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, the presiding bishop of the church of the United States, and Bishop Smith will submit it to the other bishops. When their approval is obtained (of which there is no doubt) and Bishop Smith is again heard from, the necessary steps will be taken towards Dr. Watson's consecration. At one time it was thought that this would take place next month, but it is now probable that it will not be until April, perhaps early in the month.—Wm. Review.

The Darkey of To-day.

It is obvious that the negroes of the South are gradually exhibiting an antipathy to that kind of labor required on the farm. They are happy so long as they can by desultory services earn money enough to buy the necessary food to enable them to pose at their favorite places of resort on Sundays, with a cigar protruding from their lips and a suit of clothes bearing a greater or less resemblance to gentility, now and then decorated with a brass watchchain of loud pretensions.

One of the consequences of this is that in many sections of the country owners of land are perplexed to get the proper quantity and quality of help they require for the successful cultivation of their farms.

Another consequence is that the colored people, unless in occasional cases, are not making that progress in material property that would be easily within their grasp, were they "wise in their day and generation."—Orphan's Friend.

Sweet Gum.

When we consider the medical authority of the world recognizing our Sweet Gum to be the finest stimulating expectorant known, and that the proprietor of TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLIN has the formula of the Cherokee Nation of incorporating the sweet gum with the tea of the mullein plant of the old fields—which many of our readers will remember our grandmothers making under the direction of the old family physician for croup, whooping cough and colds—it is no wonder that TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLIN is producing such effective cures in Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Bronchial Affections. For sale by all leading druggists, 25c and $1.00.

One can't dissociate the highest taste and comfort from a gentleman in slippers and gown, on piazza chair or sitting-room lounge, with a pipe filled with Blackwell's Durham Long Cut in his mouth. In appreciation of this Oriental pose and dolce far niente air, his tobacco is served in an artistic package of embossed and pictured foil, at once a delight to the eye and a study for the mind.

J. C. Hester, Kittrell, N. C., says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters as a tonic for general health and found them good."
