LOCAL NEWS.

Sun rises, 8:35 | Length of day. Sun sets, 5:59 | 11 hours, 34 minutes. Moon sets at 12:39 a. m.

Peach trees are blooming.

Charlotte is soon to have street cars. John Detrick advertises another lot of eaur kraut.

February had five Fridays and March has five Sundays.

New Orleans is discussing the introduction of cremation.

The wind blew so hard down the river on vesterday that the tide was very low.

Mr. John Suter, the furniture man, was getting in a large lot of furniture sterday 120

The oyster canning establishment is now running on full time. Eight oyster boats were unloaded on yesterday. T. A. Green, one of our popular grogers on Commercial Row, has moved out his dry goods to make room for a large lot of flour, pork and tobacco.

An application for a new postoffice on the north side of Neuse river, on the road leading from New Berne to Vanceboro, by the name of Ernuls, with J. G. on yesterday.

A good many of our citizens were off for Goldsboro yesterday, to be present at the funeral ceremonies of H. F. Grainger, Esq. Among them were O. Marks, Jno. Detrick, H. Sperling, W. F. Rountree, A. W. Wood, Joe Hackburn, A. M. Baker, and others.

Mr. J. D. May, of Maple Cypress, was in the city yesterday, to make his report as one of the commissioners of the boundary fence in the upper part of Craven and lower part of Pitt, on north side of Neuse river. He says it is completed, is about eleven miles long, and cost the tax-payers about eight hundred and fifty dollars.

precision with which the pupils march cal excellence, while the author has few elevated places are covered. On from the school buildings. But this clothed it in an attractive style, which good order did not last all the way home, for no sconer were ranks broken than two young Hercules, overflowing with ire, clinched and though the work was published originally by subscription, and is not on sale at Mercules of Organizations were constituted it in an attractive style, which the country is not so badly overflowed, although several plantations on that side are under water. The loss to the planters in houses, fences, stock and damage to land is immense. Very few leves have stood. The water has

es. Miss Clark was a member of possess on the subject. one of the old families of this city, beone of the old families of this city, being the daughter of the late Elijah Clark, Fsq., and aunt of the Hon. C. C.
Clark, and Col. J. D. Whitford. She

E. L. Burkhead, the captain of the condition of the A. & N. C. Railroad ing a large majority, passed it.

Enterprise Base Ball Club of this city, effected his purpose or not, we are not has received a challenge from the Bre-informed, but we do know that he made main Base Ball Club of New Orleans to the trip on foot both ways excepting was held here to-day and it was found that Tilden was their first choice for the Presidential nomination, Payne city. In answer to the letter the presi- run down to Goldsboro by rail on the dent informs them that the Enterprise home stretch. had dishanded, having only been organ-Southern States, and that New Berne they sent the challenge here, but the members having removed from here.

A friend from Mt. Olive tells us of an escapade in that town on last Saturday on the part of two tramps of the genus dude. They walked into the hotel just at dinner time, took their dinner, and and the dinner time, took their dinner, and at dinner time, took their dinner, and ordered a room. They were so elegantly dressed that the landlady was thrown off her guard and sent a servant to show them a room. Meantime she went out of the house for some purpose. Her private room was between the room assigned to the dudes and the exit of the house. They watched their chances, and when all was quiet started out. The landlady's door was open. They entered her room and borrowed her watch and some other jewelry and hastened to depart. They left the village by a circuitous route and atruck the railroad some half mile below. As soon as it was ascertained what his dhappened measures were taken for Concesion, and learn they were the same two fellows who chiseled the Central lots) in this city out of two or three nearors and took the train for cario, but have been caught at list for the building fund of the tions can be paid in monthly instal-Academy in to-day's paper. The ball is ments, during the progress of the buildnow in motion and it is hoped that it will keep rolling until it attains the thus far subscribed. We propose keepsize required to put up the building. ing this column open, and will add to The first day's work is encouraging to the list, from day to day, until the all concerned.

Takes the Cake.

There is on exhibition at the Bee Hive

The Ball in Motion.

Personal.

Major John Hughes is off on a visit to Geo. Allen.

Washington City. Mr. L. F. Tillery, our telegraph opera-ness of his grandmother.

Rev. J. R. Brooks and lady arrived in the city last night and will remain a few days visiting friends.

Mrs. Lieut. Rosseau left yesterday to join her husband, who, we learn, has been transferred from Florida to Fortress Dr. W. H. Barker.....

Capt. Simmons, of the cutter Stevens, Spier as postmaster, was duly signed he was called to the bedside of his father; who died while the Captain was returned last night from Boston, where there, at the advanced age of 76 years.

New Publications.

We have received the first number of The Truth, a historical monthly journal published at Durham, N. C., by the well known gentleman long editing the Raleigh Sentinel, Josiah Turner, Esq.

eigh Sentinel, Josiah Turner, Esq.

It is an interesting paper, and when we have named the editor and given the name he gives his paper, we have very wall introduced it to our readers. We searched earnestly for the terms of subscription without finding any, and can only suppose that Mr. Turner places Truth above price.

"The Life and Times of S. S. Prentiss," by Joseph D. Shields, has been Happening near the Adcademy Green placed on our table; it is from the press vesterday as school was turning out, we of J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, witnessed with pleasure the nicety and which is an assurance of the typographifrom the school buildings. But this clothed it in an attractive style, which Marquis of Queensbury rules were en- any place that we are aware of, but the tirely unobserved, some lively rounds interest aroused in the life of Mr. Prenwere passed.

The funeral of Miss Betsy D. Clark here, would seem to present a suitable took place at 4 o'clock p. m. vesterday time for some one to solicit subscribers

The wind blew almost a gale, and owing se at 4 o'clock p. m. yesterday time for some one to solicit subscribers m the Baptist Church, attended by a for it. To any one thus inclined we ge number of friends and acquaint- will furnish such information as we

Mr. Pate left this city Friday evening ized to play last summer during vaca- and reached Kinston on Saturday morntion. We learn that the Bremian club ing, having travelled all night. From are the champions of three or four that point he pushed on to Goldsboro fire alarm can be sounded. The wires which he reached on Saturday evening of the Western Union Telegraph Comheld the championship of this State; and having a brother living there, he they sent the challenge here, but the called a halt and rested until Tuesday champion club here were the Elm City's, morning when he again put the column and they have been compelled to dis- in motion for Raleigh, which he reached band on account of several of their on Thursday morning, having rested by the wayside at a farm house over night Wednesday on account of unpropitious weather and a dislike to arrive name of The Southern Guardian. at the capitol in the dead hours of the at the capitol in the dead hours of the night. Arriving at Raleigh he called upon Governor Jarvis, to whom he exhibited his title to the property in litigation, who he states referred him to the "General Protector." On being conducted to the office of the G. P. this functionary had gone to dinner,—he dining at the plebian hour of twelve—and would not be back before one o clock.

o'clock.

At one o'clock sharp Mr. P. was again at the office of the General Protector, but this time he was at the Supreme Court and could not be interviewed, but meeting Gov. Jarvis again he got some good advice without charge, and that was to go and employ two good lawyers, which Mr. Pate is sure he found in the persons of Hon. Geo. V. Strong, Eaq., and Col. Walter Clark, and we think he did. These gentiemen are in charge of the matter and Mr. Pate is sanguine of success in his suit.

One things only we have to say in the

New School Building. The Trustees of the New Berne Acadat the postoffice, a cake which for real emy have resolved to erect another beauty takes the cake. It is from the school building, in order to accommobakery of Mr. Archbell, at Kinston, and date the Graded School children, and has much the appearance of a good have appropriated the sum of four thousand dollars for the purpose, provided a similar amount can be obtained We call'attention to the subscription by private subscription. The contribuing. The following amounts have been amount is made up: Henry R. Bryan

E. H. Meadows..... Wm. Hollister..... Wm. Hay...... Dr. J. A. Guion..... Dr. J. B. Hughes..... A. Miller..... L. H. Cutler.....

John S. Long.....

E. W. Carpenter.....

GENERAL NEWS.

LONDON, March 1, 11:30 A. M.—Unot-ficial dispatches from Trinkitat this morning state that the battle raged all day yesterday, that the rebels fought desperately, and that immense numbers of them were shot down. The British, it is said, fought in an oblong square and the rebels were beaten at every point.

12 M .- Special dispatches to the Daily Telegraph confirm the report that the British were everywhere victorious in mounted at an old fort three miles from

SHREVEFORT, La., Feb. 28.—The water is stationary. Nearly all the river plantations for a distance of 100 miles above the city are under water. Below the city the flooded district extends 90 miles, and on the west side all except a levees have stood. The water to this cause and the great distance be-tween the various points whence came Asheville Register: Dr. Hall the alarms, the firemen found much trouble in keeping the flames under control. The most destructive was that second, and Bayard third.

BOSTON, Feb. 28.-A severe snow storm in this city and vicinity has com-pletely wrecked telephone wires and he would take a stroll out over the the wires of the fire-alarm system. Un-hill for exercise, and when he had til the latter are repaired no telegraphic pany were rendered practically useless for a large part of the day owing to the telephone wires falling upon them.

The Church Messenger has moved from Durham to Charlotte, where it will be consolidated with the Church Herald of South Carolina and published under the

The March winds bloweth, The small boy goeth His kite for to showeth; He sends it to the breeze, He finds it a tight squeeze, To get it over the trees. When tangled it gits, The boy has fits, And concludes to play quits.

A fresh supply of Saur Kraut at A fine Milch Cow and Calf-Northern tock-for sale by marl.iw

Fine lot apples on consignment. DAIL BROS.

Job Work. The Journal office is prepared to print Bill Heads, Letter Heads, En-velopes, Cards, Tags, Circular Envelopes, etc., in neat and handsome style, and a trial.

Chattel Mortgages, Real Estate Mortgages, Deeds, Lien Bonds, always on hand.

Blanks for the appointment of Overseers, and for making Overseer areport, on hand.

STATE NEWS. Gleaned from our Exchanges.

again.

number of people, many of the most prominent citizens of Scotch descent being present. A banquet was given their efforts to make the "new Scotch" feel at home among the "old Scotch," In his speech of welcome, Commissioner John T. Patrick spoke most pleasantly.

Durham Truth: Salem was the home of one of the men who with a whip-saw cut the timbers for the old College buildings of Chapel Hill. We talked with him soon after the war. He had much to say on the subject; and he made two and a half and three dollars a Cut. You will not only have no after day. We forget his name. The regrets, but you will then be in posses-President we know will be glad to learn the name of the humblest man who, with plane, hammer or saw, struck a lick, or laid a brick.

Statesville American: Tobacco is just at this time the staple of conversation among our agricul-turists and we should judge that it will be the staple farm product the present year. The acreage in the weed will be larger than ever before known in this section .- We are sorry to say that we have heard Fort Baker. The firing opened on both sides and lasted for a long time. The rebels were finally repulsed after 1,000 of their men had been killed. The British loss is 10 killed and 40 wounded. not good policy to publish such news, but we think differently, for being warned of danger we can take measures to provide against it.

Kernersville News: Mr. 1. J. Kernersville News: Mr. 1. J. Middling, 10 7-8; Low Middling Brittain living near Friendship, has 10 1-2; Good Ordinary, 9 7-8. an old flint and steel musket that was the property of an old veteran soldier of 1812, who did valuable service at Ogdenburg and Sackett's Harbor. He also has a sword worn by Capt. James Sapp at Norfolk in war of 1812. The Captain's son Wobert wore the same sword during the Mexican war until he was killed at Buena Vista. We learn also that Mr. B. has in his Asheville Register: Dr. Hall Fletcher, of Shutordsville, a young physician of prominence in the upper edge of our county, while at-Clark, and Col. J. D. Whitford. She had attained the ripe old age of 73 years, and in her death another one of those familiar with the early history of the town is taken from among us.

In a case of importance coming up before the Supreme Court, determined to attend the session of that body in person and accordingly set out for the capital of the State.

Whether the various reports of the was trenuous opposition to it from the first, but the government party was united, and, have a long of the loss at this place will be over $1,000,000.

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—The bill to grant a loan of $22,500,000 to the Canadian Pacific was passed by the House of Commons to-night. There was strenuous opposition to it from the first, but the government party was united, and, have a loan of the Newark Hospital, at a handsome Newark Hospital, at a handsome salary. Score one more for Western North Carolina; her boys seldom inal; not wanted. Building 5 inch, hearts, $4.00; saps, $3.00 per M. fail to win in an equal race.

Fayetteville Sun: A few Sunday evenings ago a dignified, elderly business man of our city concluded got out about half a mile from town, he passed through an old field, grown up with broom sage. As he got about the centre of the field, an old goat ran up behind him and THURSDAY AND FRIDAY butted him a summersault. The old gent rose, and the Billy Goat made at him again, when our friend gathered him by the horns and threw him down and sit on him, and Dramatic and Musical Art, swore he would keep his seat till some one come to his rescue, or till IN HARRY LINDLEY'S DRAMA OF his goatship should pass from this world to the next. Just then two young men came up and helped our elderly friend out of his dilemma. He thanked them heartily; but now denies the whole story.

Durham Recorder: Our liberal and public spirited townsman, Mr. J. S. Carr, has donated a beautiful lot in front of his residence on Railroad street, to the Durbam Graded School. The lot is situated in the center of town, conveniently located.

It is worth upwards of $3,000. This large douation is characteristic of Sterling Dramatic Company. the man, and we are sure will re-ceive the hearty thanks of the four hundred pupils, the Superintendent and teachers, and every citizen of Darham.—The Durham Fertilizer Company will erect a new brick factory 200x60 feet, two stories, in the eastern part of town. Their trade is increasing so rapidly their present facilities are not large enough. This enterprising firm is certainly meeting, with unparallel success. Orders are pouring in every day, and the farmers in this vacinity are rushing to lay in their

Chatham Record: D. S. Phillips. Wilson Advance: Wilson Su- of Bear Creek township, is 52 years perior court will be in session next old, has never taken a chew of toweek. We trust that the Grand bacco: never smoked; never took Jury will be true to its trust and a dose of medicine; never went indict those road overseers who hunting or fishing; never fired but have not done their duty.—We one gun in his life and never—well! regret to hear of the failure of —hardly ever took a drink.—We Thomas & Hart, Rocky Mount. hear that our old friend Bryant Their liabilities are $30,000. They Burroughs, of Bear Creek townare both excellent men and we trust ship, was recently swindled out of that they may soon be on their feet $100 by two men who were traveling through the country in a vehicle Raleigh News and Observer: To-drawn by two fine bay horses. One day the Crofters arrived at Laurin- of them represented himself as a burg and were received by a large salesman for the other, who he said was a Frenchman and could not speak our language, and had a large amount of machinery for sale at and several speeches of welcome Raleigh. Our people cannot be too made. The people are untiring in cautious in dealing with strangers who travel about the country swindling the unwary. We remember that, several years ago, another respected citizen of Bear Creek township was swindled out of a considerable sum by a salesman of brass jewelry.

> When you enter your tobacconist's, not knowing exactly what brand you want for your pipe or cigarette, the handsomest way to dissolve your doubt is to ask for Blackwell's Durham Long session of a tobacco about whose purity and fragrance you can raise no question.

Is your hair turning gray and gradually falling out? Hall's Hair Renewer will restore it to its original color, and stimulate the follicies to produce a new and luxuriant growth. It also cleanses the scalp, eradicates dandruff, and is a most agreeable and harmless dressing.

COMMERCIAL.

JOURNAL OFFICE, March 3, 6 P. M. COTTON-New York futures steady spots quiet. New Berne market steady. Sales of 4 bales at 7 3-4 to 9.65. Middling, 10 1-16; Low Middling, 913-16; Good Ordinary, 9 1-16.

NEW YORK SPOTS.

FUTURES. March. 10.95 April, 10.99 May, 11.15 June, 11.27 CORN-Steady at 63a68c.

DOMESTIC MARKET. TURPENTINE-Dip. $2.00. TAR-Firm at $1.25 and $1.50.

SEED COTTON-$2.50a3.50. BEESWAX-25c. per lb. HONEY-75c. per gallon. BEEF-On foot, 5c. to 6c. COUNTRY HAMS-13tc. per lb. LARD-13 c. per lb. FRESH PORK-7a8c. per pound.

FODDER-80c. to $1 per hundred. ONIONS-$3 per bbl. FIELD PEAS-85c.a$1.00 per bushel. HIDES-Dry, 9a11c.; green 5a6c. TALLOW—6c. per lb. CHICKENS—Grown, 45a50c. per pair.

MEAL—80c. per bushel. POTATOES—Bahamas 30c.; yams 40c. TURNIPS—50:175c. per bush. Wool-12a2 c. per pound. Shingles-West India,dull and nom.

WHOLESALE PRICES. NEW MESS PORK-$18.75a19.00; long clears 10 a 10 to c; shoulders, dry salt

MOLASSES AND SYRUPS-20a45c. SALT-95c. per sack. FLOUR-$4.00a7.50 per barrel.

NEWBERN THEATRE

MARCH 6th and 7th.

MOLLY; World of Sorrow With the eminent Tragedienne,

Miss LOUISE FORSTER

IN THE TITLE ROLE, SUPPORTED BY

FRANK NEWMAN,

POPULAR PRICES.

Seats secured at Meadows' Drug Dr. G. K. BAGBY.

SURGEON DENTIST.

We will sell at Public Auction, at the Court louse door in the City of Newbern, on the 25th Day of March, 1884,

DAVIDSON COLLEGE

MECKLENBURG CO., N. C.,

1884-'86.

The next Session opens on THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER II.

For Catalogues apply to the CLERK OF THE FACULTY. febisdawsm

LAND FOR SALE AT AUCTION

Good Chance for Speculation.

A large tract of land situated in the upper part of Craven county, about eighteen miles from Newbern, on the north side of Neuse River, adjoining the lands of George J. Dudley, Nancy Adams and others, and known as a part of the Bishop Dudley Plantation, and containing about eleven hundred acres, with dwelling and outhouses.

Said lane is beautifully located on the Neuse River, where steambouts are passing everyday, and has six or eight horse farm cleared; is well timbered with pine, cypress and juniper.

is well timbered with pine, cypress and juniper.

TERMS-3595 cash, and the balance in one, two, three and four years, in equal instalments, at six or cent interest, with mortgag o on the property to secure said notes,

W. F. ROUNTREE,
JAS. W. CARMER,

Executors of Alex. Mitchell, deceased.

fe26 dew in Country Hams.

FROM THE BEST FARMERS OF ONSDOW.

helding of the bull our Hole fe21-dim HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S.

For Sale, HORSES AND MULES; Native Stock, broke

and unbroke, for Cash or on time, by JAS. S. LANE, TT febl3-d&wtf Stonewal', N. C.

Uvsters.

A. E. KIMBALL has opened a not FIRST CLASS OYSTER SALOON at south end of People's Market—Moore's Old Stand—and is prepared to furnish oysters in my style. Families supplied at their homes if desired. nov17-dtf

For Sale,

FOUR SHARES in the New Berne and Pa lee Transportation Company. The Company owns the fine steamer ELM CITY. Apply at jan30-dtf JOURNAL OFFICE.

Lost, " of the

Two CRAVEN COUNTY COUPONS for $3; each, being annual interest on Bonds Nos. 3; and 94, payable on the First day of July 188; at the office of the Treasurer, Newbern, North Carolina, signed Jas. A. Bryan, Chairmar, Jos. Nelson, Clerk.
All persons are votified.

All persons are notified not to receive said coupons as the payment thereof has been stopped. A liberal reward will be paid for the stopped. A liberal to return of the same to GREEN & STEVENSON.

NEW HOTEL,

Snow Hill, Greene Co., N. U.

Well furnished, and Table supplied with the BEST the market affords. Sample rooms for commercial travelers. RATES REASONABLE.

fel5-dewtf W. E. GRIMSLEY,

NOTICE. Sale of Valuable Steam Mill Property.

Pursuant to the powers conferred on us by a mortgage executed by Joshua Dean, dated the 7th day of November, 1882, we will sell at Public Auction, at the Court House door in Bayboro, Pama lico county, N. C., on MONDAY, the TENTH day of MARCH, 1884, at 13 o'clock, midday, all that tract of land whereon is situated the large SteamSaw Mill, fermerly known as "The Dean Lumber Company's Mill," together with all the valuable improvements and michinery on said premises.

The boiler in said mill is 100-horse power and the engine is 63 horse power. This property is situated on Lower Broad Creek in said Pamlico county, about two miles from where said Creek empties into Neuse River, with deep water up to the mill wharf.

A fine opportunity for parties wishing to engage in the lumber business. Terms cash,
Feb. 6th, 1884.

GEO. F. M. DAIL,
W. H. DAIL.

By Green & Stevenson, Att'ye.
For information inquire of Dail Brothers, Newbern, N. C. fe6d&w30d

For Sale or Rent,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION on the south side of the Neuse River, three miles and a half below Newbern; also situated on the main road. The railroad runs through the land. It contains 327 acres, 190 of which are under cultivation, and a valuable seine beach. Also, HOUSE and LOT en George street.

Apply to P. TRENWITH,

Blacksmith Shop,

Jan 18-diwthwiw Middle street.

Sealed Proposals.

Commissioners' Office, New Berne, Feb'y 5th, 1881. } Sealed Proposals for building a Bridge across with Creek at Vanceboro, in accordance with plan and specifications on file in the office of the Register of Deeds of this county, will be accelved until the First Monday in March