the South included, was under the famous Walker tariff from 1846 to 1860. We admit that the inquiry was not based on facts, but was for racts. We thank the Star for telling as where we can get the figures. We were brought up in a Democratic school where "tariff for revenue only" was taught as one of the fundamental principles. But we have lived to see Democrats embrace the protective idea, and we frankly confess that we believe that it has been the means of fostering industries that we would now be without but for the fact that they are protected against foreign competition. We will endeavor to procure a copy of Mr. Lamar's Vacant houses to able-bodied negro and under the view of hiring these persons at intervals through the year, as their services may be needed. The negro being naturally disposed to idle the bigger part of his time, and finding it to be an easy way to make a living, as day labor is always higher than working by the month or year (and also to get from under the control of white men as much as possible), of course will adopt this plan of hiring, when encouraged by white men who are too short-sighted to see the evil that will most certainly follow in the course of time.

Ten years' experience and observation have clearly demonstrated the fact to my mind, that the negro, when left to his own judgment, is absolutely incapable of planning and directing a farm so as to make it pay him or any one else. I have tried the tenant system of farming with the average run of negro with the average run of negro farmers, and after fifteen years' experience have found my best lands worn out, or impoverished to such an extent that nothing scarcely will grow on them but crab-grass. My fencing, which was once good, is rapidly going to decay, the briars is rapidly going to decay, the briars and bushes offering the best protection now against mischievons

It is urged by that nice Republican Protection organ, the Chicago Inter-Ocean, that Protection speeches should be heard in the South during the Presidential campaign. This leads the Washington Post to say that the other side must be heard also. We would like to see some of the ablest Republican Reformers in the South in the cam-
