About this time look out for squalls in Third ward.

The Editor left for Kinston yesterday, hence a superior issue this morning.

Hancock's bean blossoms, reported a few days ago, are now good sized beans.

Cyclones are fearful, but they seem to be getting nearer and becoming more frequent.

A large lot of clams from Morehead City were shipped from here on yesterday per steamer Shenandoah.

The question for discussion at the next session of the Jewels is, When was Major C. promoted to the rank of Colonel?

A grand picnic to take place at Poplar Springs, near Vanceboro, on the first of May is on the programme. The Silver Cornet Band, from this place, has been engaged to furnish the music.

J. T. Lincoln, of Bayboro, called in on yesterday and reported the farmers in Pamlico as being quite busy; says some of them have finished planting their corn crops; that there will be more cotton planted this year than ever before.

We learn from parties below that a portion of a rain and wind storm that caused so much destruction on last Tuesday night, passed near the town of Aurora and did considerable damage, completely demolishing a barn, the property of Mr. John Boyd, and damaging other houses, barns, blowing down trees and scattering fences, greatly to the hindrance of farmers in their work. The storm was accompanied by a heavy rain fall.

A Chicken in the Dock.

On yesterday evening at the market wharf a large chicken escaped from the coop in which he was imprisoned and made his way directly to the dock, into which he plunged without hesitation, and to the astonishment of all, he seemed perfectly at home in the water; he swam around under the market house for some time, and finally came out, swam ashore and allowed himself to be picked up. We heard a great many remarks that they never knew before that a chicken could swim.

Disappointed.

We learn that the minister of Andrews Chapel, colored, received a postal card requesting him to announce to the congregation on Sunday last that there would be a wedding at that place on Thursday night.

The obliging preacher gave the notice at both morning and evening services, which of course attracted a large crowd on Thursday night, but no bride or bridegroom came.

And the congregation neither slumbered nor slept, but got up and dusted for home, wreaking maledictions on the head of the writer of the card who had perpetrated an April fool in advance of the season.

Personals.

Rev. C. A. Jenkins and F. W. Hancock were off yesterday morning for Kinston to attend the Union meeting of the Baptist Association.

J. V. Williams boarded the western bound train Friday morning for — well, some one says to see Wm. H. Vanderbilt to confer with him in regard to the election of a councilman in the Third ward of this city.

Benj. S. Gujon, of Lincolnton, N. C., a civil engineer, spent Thursday in the city with his brother, Dr. J. A. Gujon, and returned on Friday morning for his home.

Mr. B. B. Rainey, proprietor of the Xarboro House, Raleigh, and managing partner of the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, together with his celebrated French cook, Mr. Eugene Testera, passed through the city, en route for Morehead, Thursday night. Under the excellent and experienced management of Mr. Rainey, with Mr. Testera presiding in the kitchen and Waum's orchestra to furnish the music, the Atlantic will indeed be a pleasant place to spend the hot months. The extensive improvements now in progress will be completed in time to open the house for the season by the 1st of June.

Mrs. Goddin, who has been visiting Mrs. Geo. W. Neal, left on the Shenandoah for Suffolk, Va.

Mr. Fred E. Street, who has been on a visit to the family of her father-in-law, yesterday on the Shenandoah for Suffolk, Va.

Mr. C. V. Vann returned from Snow

Visitors Gone.

The Italian scissors grinder and the Indian bead-work vendors took passage yesterday on the Shenandoah.

Hurrah for Hyde.

Mr. Wm. M. Credle, of Hyde county was at the Exchange yesterday with thirteen bales of cotton, for which he obtained ten and a half cents per pound, which is the highest figures reached in this market this season. That is why we say hurrah for Hyde.

Fire at Sugarville.

Mr. John F. W. Suggs, living about three miles from Snow Hill, lost his carriage house, stable and barn, with some 90 barrels of corn, by fire on Thursday last. No insurance. Loss about $1000. The fire was seen at Snow Hill, and some thought they perceived the smell of burning corn.

Garden Peas.

The first garden peas of the season were handed into the JOURNAL office yesterday by Mr. D. G. Smaw. Another week of this delightful spring weather and our truckers will be shipping.

Since the above was put in type Mr. I. C. Yeomans handed in another nice bunch of peas.

Shooting at an Escaped Prisoner.

As Constable Mason was taking a prisoner to the station house last evening just after dark, the prisoner made a break for liberty and the Constable instituted proceedings to recapture him without delay, but finding that in this case the race was to be to the swift—and the prisoner was about to be the swift—opened fire on his rear, but without perceptible effect except to hasten the retreat. At last accounts the constable was several rods behind, with several precincts to be heard from.

Consecration of the Bishop of East-Carolina.

It will be seen by a notice in this morning's paper, that favorable arrangements have been perfected with the railroad companies to convey visitors to Wilmington on the occasion of the consecration of the bishop of the new diocese, the Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, which will take place in St. James Church in that city on Thursday, April 17th.

The presence of the distinguished clergy, and the importance of the event will doubtless attract a large gathering of persons from various parts of the State.

We are informed that Rev. Mr. Shields, of Christ Church, and several other persons from this city contemplate being present.

Cyclone in Catawba County.

The following is a letter to Dr. Burkhead, from Catawba county:

NEWTON, N. C., March 27th, 1884.
DEAR PA:—A terrible cyclone swept the lower part of our town yesterday evening. The Methodist Church is a complete wreck. Several houses are level with the ground, and many more injured, but nobody in town was killed. Hail stones fell for half an hour and they were the largest I ever saw. You can form no idea of the amount of damage done unless you could see the track of the storm. Trees torn up by the roots, twisted off, hauled for hundreds of yards, trunks and clothing carried to all parts of the town that the storm affected. Large pieces of scumming were driven through houses. Sixteen houses were badly damaged, besides those that were completely demolished. We have a meeting to-night to see about rebuilding the church. With the exception of the table in the altar and the sofa in the pulpit, nothing of value was saved; many pieces of the church timber were carried a quarter of a mile, and the cedar trees and oaks in the graveyard were torn up and great limbs carried away. Many houses in the country were blown down and some people hurt—one woman killed. We haven't learned the full extent of the loss. Great many people more or less injured, but with the exception of the lady, no one, as far as has been heard, is fatally injured. WILL.

Hence, the allusion was unkind. FULL.

Currency No. 2.

“Heardst thou ever
A story of a wandering fay,
Who, tired of playing slyph for ever,
Came romping to the earth one day;
And flirting like a little love,
With everything that saw and flirted,
Made captive of a sober dove,
Whose pinions, (as the tale asserted)
Though neither very fresh or fair,
Were well enough for common wear.
“—Summoning her waiting sprites,
Who bore her wardrobe on her back,
She took the wings she wore at night,
(Silver stars on plumes of black.)
And, smiling, begged that he would take
And wear them for his lady's sake.
He took them; but he could not fly!
A fay-wing was too fine for him;
And when she pouted, by and by,
And left him for some other whim,
He laid them softly in his nest,
And did his flying with his own;
And when she swooned upon his breast,
When many a night he slept alone,
And many a thought those wings would stir,
And many a dream of hers'd rise.”

BAPTISTS IN COUNCIL.

The Union Meeting of the Baptist Eastern Association assembled with the church at Kinston on Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

The following Ministers, Deacons, Clerks and Superintendents of Sabbath schools were present: Rev. C. A. Jenkins and F. W. Hancock, of New Berne; Rev. Dr. Theo. Whitfield, Rev. C. J. Nelson and Dr. J. D. Roberts, of Goldsboro; Rev. C. S. Cashwell and B. F. Dillahun, of Pollocksville; Rev. W. M. Kennedy, of Warsaw; Richard McGlohon, of Greenville; Rev. W. B. Knight, of Snow Hill; Revs. R. C. Sandlin and W. B. Oliver, of Mount Olive; Mr. D. J. Middleton, of Kenansville; Rev. W. T. Jones, of Beaufort; S. E. Loftin and J. M. Wooten, of Kinston; Rev. D. S. Kennedy, of Warsaw; Rev. Mr. Carroll, of Antioch; and Rev. Mr. Olive, of Richlands.

The opening services were conducted by Rev. W. B. Knight, of Snow Hill.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Whitfield, F. W. Hancock, of New Berne, was elected Moderator, and Rev. Wm. B. Oliver, of Mount Olive, Secretary.

Dr. Whitfield asked if the committee on Queries had anything to be considered by the meeting.

The committee not responding he moved that a committee, with Rev. C. A. Jenkins as chairman, be appointed to present subjects for discussion.

The motion was adopted and the Moderator appointed, with Rev. Mr. Jenkins, Dr. Theo. Whitfield and Rev. Mr. Cashwell.

The committee retired for consultation. Any person desiring to attend the services at the consecration of the Bishop-elect of East Carolina, in St. James' Church, Wilmington, N. C., on April 17th, can secure return tickets over the following railroads at three cents per mile each way: Wilmington & Weldon, Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta, Carolina Central, Raleigh & Gaston; and on the last three named roads tickets for clergymen will be sold for one straight fare for the round trip. Though not officially notified, it is understood that the North Carolina, Western North Carolina, and Atlantic & North Carolina will sell tickets at the same rate.

Visiting clergy will be received at the several depots on the arrival of the trains on the evening of the 16th and morning of the 17th, and provided with hospitality, if they will notify the undersigned of their intention to be present.

The vestry of St. James', considering the occasion of Diocesan interest are not simply parochial, and in order to avoid disorder and confusion, have instructed that cards of admission shall be issued. All visitors will be supplied with such cards upon application.

The Mullein Plant.

Dr. Quillan, a celebrated physician of Dublin, has just written in an English medical journal of his wonderful experimental results with the common mullein plant upon lung and bronchial affections, citing cases where he had given it to consumptives with the most astonishing result, and recommends its use by the profession. Referring to the above, we would state that TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN, made from the formula of the medicine men of the Cherokee Nation, is composed not only of the mullein plant, but has incorporated with it the sweet gum, the finest stimulating expectorant known, presenting an agreeable taste and a certain panacea for Coughs, Whooping Cough, Colds and all Bronchial Affections. For sale by all leading druggists at 25c. and $1.00 per bottle.

Prevent sickness by taking occasionally one of EMORY'S LITTLE CATHARTIC PILLS, a wonderful appetizer, an absolute cure of biliousness. 15 cents. 4

It would be folly to tamper with a tobacco whose peculiar flavor and inherent excellence are known among all nations. Blackwell & Co. recognize this in the manufacture of Blackwell's Durham Long Cut. To sustain the fame of the Durham Bull brand among pipe and cigarette smokers they must keep their tobacco pure—give it as nature gave it. Both policy and pride raise a perpetual guarantee of purity.

MEN'SMAN'S PEPTONIZED BEEF TONIC the only preparation of beef containing its entire nutritious properties. It contains blood-making, force generating and life-sustaining properties; invaluable for INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, nervous prostration, and all forms of general debility; also, in all enfeebled conditions, whether the result of exhaustion, nervous prostration, overwork, or acute disease, particularly if resulting from pulmonary complaints. CASWELL, HARRIS & Co., Proprietors, New York. Sold by Druggists.

The Doctor's Endorsement.

Dr. W. D. Wright, Cincinnati, O., sends the subjoined professional endorsement: "I have prescribed Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs in a great number of cases, and always with success. One case in particular was given up by several physicians who had been called in for consultation with himself. The patient had all the symptoms of cold, med. consumption—cold night sweats, hectic fever, harassing coughs, etc. He commenced immediately to get better, and was soon restored to his usual health. I also found Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs the most valuable expectorant for breaking up distressing coughs and colds."

Dr. Whitfield offered the following amendment to the report of the committee:

That the brethren who are present from the churches within the field of the proposed new Association meet and arrange for concerted action in order to effect the division.

After some discussion the amendment was adopted.

The question recurring upon the report of the committee as amended, it was adopted unanimously.

Mr. Wooten offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of Brethren Whitfield, Roberts and J. E. Peterson be appointed to correspond with the churches in the bounds of the New Association in order to secure concert of action.

Mr. Wooten submitted the following report of the committee on devotional exercises, which was adopted:

Prayer meeting at 9 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Oliver.
Union meeting at 10 and 2 o'clock. Preaching at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. T. Jones.

Rev. W. M. Kennedy asked permission to address the meeting to-morrow at 10 o'clock on the Warsaw High School. Granted.

Meeting adjourned to 9 o'clock this morning.

WATSON & STREET,

Stock Brokers and REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

Shares of Bank, Railroad, and Steamboat Stocks a Specialty.

Yielding to the popular demand for an Agency for the purchase and sale of Local Stocks and Real Estate, we have concluded to add this new feature to our business of GENERAL LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE, and would respectfully tender our services to the public to that capacity.

The increasing demand for our farming and other lands among capitalists abroad who are being attracted hither by the splendid investments offered, creates, we think, a necessity for an Agency of this kind which has not been felt heretofore.

The great success which has attended the efforts of our Steamboat Companies and other enterprising corporations in our midst, has caused a demand for these stocks which has made them an article of every-day purchase and sale.

We respectfully refer to the National Bank of New Berne, and to business men of New Berne generally. WATSON & STREET, New Berne, N. C. mar27 dtm
