House Council No. 1. Order of Chosen Friends meet to-night.

Mr. R. O. E. Lodge was receiving a large lot of hay yesterday.

The Steacy troupe is looked for in New Berne at an early day. They are spoken of in very complimentary terms.

The M. E. Church Working Society will meet to-night at the residence of Mr. R. P. Williams on South Front street.

Jones Superior Court convenes at Trenton next week, Judge Shepherd presiding. Our man Taylor will be on hand to receipt for the JOURNAL.

The steamer Kinston brought down on Monday evening a long list of passengers. Among them Mrs. J. M. White and Mrs. Henry Dunn, of Kinston. Capt. Jas. Biddle, Mrs. James Biddle and Miss Brown, of Fort Barnwell, and others whose names we failed to learn.

We learn that there will be an entertainment given at the McLean building, recently occupied by Mr. Pragg, this evening for the benefit of Ebenezer Presbyterian Church. There will be music, popular elocution, and refreshments. Doors will be open at 7 o'clock. The object of the entertainment merits the patronage of the public.

Passengers on Shenandoah.
Lieut. Gooding and lady for Norfolk; Mrs. M. D. L. Dinamore and daughter, Miss Jessie, for Boston.

"Entitled" on the Street.
A. H. Holton, Esq., received yesterday a demijohn of superior scuppernong wine from his grandfather, in Pitt county. As he was taking it to his place of business, he was "entitled on the street about it" and several judges pronounced it of excellent quality.

Personal.
Cyrus Foscue, Esq., of White Oak, is in the city.

John B. Long, Esq., leaves this morning for Washington, N. C., where he delivers his address on "Nineteenth Century Perils" in the new opera house on to-morrow evening.

Dr. J. H. Scarborough and lady, of Trenton, are in the city.

The Elm City for Bayboro.
The steamer Elm City will leave this city on Tuesday, the 8th inst., for Hyde county and will arrive at the New Ditch Canal on Wednesday morning. A number of gentlemen in the city will go down for the purpose of making arrangements to establish a weekly line of communication between this city and some point in that county. They desire the people of the county to meet them at that time, and co-operate in establishing the line.

Steamer Movements.
The Stout sailed for Baltimore with a cargo of cotton, naval stores and a large shipment of canned oysters.
The Shenandoah arrived with a large cargo of merchandise and took out in the evening a good cargo of cotton, naval stores and radishes.
The Kinston, for Kinston, with a full cargo of fertilizers and general merchandise.

The Trent, for Jolly Old Field, with a good cargo of fertilizers and merchandise.

The Snow Hill clears for Snow Hill this morning at six o'clock with general merchandise and fertilizers.

Elm City for Bayboro this morning, general merchandise.

Ward Meetings.
The Democrats of the several wards in the city held their meetings last night for the nomination of candidates for City Councilmen and for the appointment of Executive Committees for the ensuing year.

The First Ward made quick work of it, nominating Capt. S. H. Gray, the present incumbent, by acclamation, and the meeting was adjourned in twelve minutes. Executive Committee: T. A. Green, S. R. Street, Jr., and J. T. Lewis.

The Second Ward had a very harmonious meeting and nominated on first ballot, by a large majority, the present incumbent, W. F. Rountree, Esq. Executive Committee—R. D. Hancock, W. B. Boyd and K. R. Jones.

In the Third Ward the contest had been pretty warm between the present incumbent, Mr. A. Miller, and A. W. Wood, Esq., resulting in favor of A. W. Wood. Executive Committee—Thos. Daniels, S. R. Ball and Alex. Miller.

In the Fourth Ward Mr. F. G. Simmons was nominated. Executive Committee—H. B. Lane, W. S. Phillips and F. M. Simmons, Esq.

The Fifth Ward nominated J. A. Simpson. Executive Committee—J. H. Hackberry, J. E. Gashill and F. J. Hardison.

Why Don't They?

"Why don't the county commissioners have their proceedings published in the JOURNAL?" inquired a Justice of the Peace of this county last Saturday. We were unable to answer the question, but we presume the plea that would readily be put in by the commissioners is, "we are not able." But is this a reasonable answer to the question? Will the people who are paying from twenty to thirty thousand dollars per year accept this as a reasonable excuse? Is it not a bad precedent for the Democrats to establish, in refusing to have their proceedings published? How long would a Republican Board be in office before the Democrats would want to know what they were doing? The commissioners of Wayne, Lenoir and Jones, not fearing to let their people know how they are conducting the affairs of their counties, have their monthly proceedings published regularly, those of Wayne in the Messenger, those of Lenoir in the Free Press and those of Jones in the JOURNAL. Should the government of these counties ever go back into the hands of the Republicans, the Democrats can consistently demand that their proceedings be published.

It is a mistaken idea on the part of the commissioners to think that because the taxes are high the people are not willing to pay fifty or one hundred dollars per year to know what is going on at these commissioners' courts. When the taxes are high is the very time they are more anxious to know what is being done with the money. We publish the proceedings of the Jones county board and their chairman informs us that the people are pleased with the idea. The man who has work to do at home, and pays his taxes would like to know what the commissioners have done as well as the loafer who has nothing else to do but hang around the court house on commissioners' day. The magistrates cannot keep posted on the affairs of their counties without knowing what the commissioners do each month, and we submit that it is cheaper for them alone to pay for the publication than to go and examine the books for themselves.

Now the justices are to meet with the commissioners of each county on the first Monday in June for the purpose of levying taxes. How many justices know the necessities of their counties? If they assemble simply to grant whatever the commissioners may ask, without any idea of their own as to whether it is necessary or not, then why go through with the farce of calling them together?

There is a responsibility resting upon the justices of a county as well as upon the commissioners. They should acquaint themselves with the affairs of their counties, so that when they assemble for the purpose of levying taxes they can act intelligently; and in order to do this they should subscribe to their county paper and demand that the commissioners' proceedings be published therein. Now will the magistrate who asked us the question on Saturday last when he meets the other justices here on the first Monday in June move that they request the commissioners to have their proceedings published in the WEEKLY JOURNAL? We will "guarantee rates," as the commercial tourist would say.

Rev. W. H. Darnall.
Mr. Darnall is Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Durham. He is in our city assisting Rev. L. C. Vass in a series of services in the Presbyterian Church, and will preach to-night and succeeding nights. He has been successfully building up his church in Durham, and is beloved as a pastor, and most excellent preacher. We welcome him in our midst, and think our city pastors do well to exchange such services with each other.

A daily prayer-meeting will also be held in the Presbyterian Church at 9 a. m. All these services are open to the public, and will doubtless be exceedingly profitable.

Quick Work.
The nominating convention in the 1st Ward was at 8 o'clock last evening. At 8:12 the result was known in this office and a good selection made at that.

Med.
Near La Grange, in Lenoir county, on Tuesday morning, the 26th of March, 1884, of paralysis, in the 65th year of his age, B. E. Warters.

For forty years he has been a member of the Free Will Baptist Church. He was extensively known and respected. He leaves beneath the shadow of his long absence a most faithful wife and five children to mourn their loss. Let not the bereft family and kindred mourn as those without hope, but look with consoling confidence to the glorious Christian faith, by which he has conquered the ill and last enemy of life. "Leaves have their time to fall, And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath, And stars to set, but all—Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O Death!"

Nause river is now threatening Brightsville, opposite Kinston, with an Ohio river flood.

The town was full of Baptists last Sunday, every church being occupied by ministers of that persuasion.

The colored man, George Foy, lying in jail here under the charge of committing rape on a colored woman, came very near effecting a jail delivery last Sunday night. With two others in jail, he wrung the hinges off the door to his cell and picked a hole into the brick walls of the jail, only one thickness of a brick remaining between him and liberty. It is remarkable how strong close confinement makes these criminals. He was removed to Goldsboro jail for safe keeping.

Two little boys, Tommie Clayton and Elisha Daily went out in the vicinity of the Cemetery last Sunday morning on a sporting expedition. While Tommie was handling his pistol, it was accidentally discharged, lodging the ball in the leg of young Daily just above the knee. The ball has not been found after probing for it. It is not supposed the parents of either boy knew of their having a pistol. Yet the habit of carrying fire arms, even by adult persons, is a dangerous one and ought never be allowed.

Oettinger Brothers, the leading business house of Kinston, are extending and improving their possessions wonderfully. They have recently purchased of Dr. C. B. Woodley the lot in the rear of their store, thus opening their way clear through to Hermitage street. They have changed the appearance of the old Woodley lot very much to its advantage. This house has been established here about eleven years and from the way they are dealing in and improving their real estate, it looks like they are here to stay. They have the finest stock of goods in their line of any house in the place. Buyers will be offered such terms that their interest will prompt them to trade there.

The old campaigner, Lewis Grady and his favorite candidate for sheriff, John R. Phillips, with a full campaign jug and two bottles of Wizard oil, took an electioneering jaunt last Sunday in the region of Trent township recently visited by the great cyclone. They went to heal the wounded and comfort the distressed. Grady used up two bottles of wizard oil on his candidate, who thinks he can make a successful race, if his groomsmen will use two more bottles of the same oil on him and keep the jug full; but he charges that everything shall be kept dark from Sheriff Davis, A. McF. Cameron, John Fields, Jr., and the La Grange dark horse. The old campaigner believes the threatened secession of Pink Hill will hurt his favorite very much and talks of attacking the Pink Hillians with his "big jug" and sword rife and squash the secession movement at once.

We have further particulars of the fearful cyclone which passed over a portion of Duplin county and Trent township in Lenoir county Tuesday night, March 25th ult. It commenced on North East river, about 12 o'clock at night, and swept away everything as it went. The dwelling house of William Harper, of Duplin, was completely demolished and blown away and the out-houses of Mrs. Mary J. Potter blown down. Joseph Worley's dwelling was torn down, he and his family fortunately being absent at the time. Elisha Robinson lost everything—houses, crockery and clothing. It struck the plantation of Elder Henry Cunningham, but did not reach his buildings. It demolished the fine grape arbor and orchard of Jones Hill and blew down some of his out-houses, while he himself had a very narrow escape. The tenant houses of Lemon Smith were destroyed, while his plantation was badly damaged. It visited the home of James Herring, Esq., and did great damage to his tenants, Richard Williams and Richard Herring. No one was killed, but Wm. Harper and Elisha Robinson were slightly injured.

Hookerton Items.
W. H. Dail, of Snow Hill, was in town last week.
We were glad to shake hands with our sheriff to-day.
Several of our ladies are making artificial flowers.
Shad are getting to be cheaper, as they are now plentiful.
Miss Kate Johnston, one of Pitt's beauties, is visiting Friends here.
The Farmers and Merchants Steamboat Co. held a meeting here last week.
There has been more kainit brought to this market this season than ever before.
The steamer Trent came up Friday. We are glad to see the Trent visit our little town.
Mrs. Dr. Jordan has returned from near Goldsboro, where she has been visiting her parents.
Bro. Betts, our young Methodist minister, holds prayer meeting in the Methodist church every Thursday night.
Mr. Williams, one of Kinston's undertakers, came to town this week to move Mr. Doc Taylor's three children, which have been buried about ten years.

Mr. H. C. Murphy has purchased a span of fine horses. He says he is tired of being on the bachelor's list; there are too many bachelors here, anyway.

La Grange Items.

N. J. Rouse, Esq., was in town Saturday.

McD. Taylor has Irish potatoes six inches high.

Mayor McIntyre's condition is improving.

W. H. Whitfield is quite sick at his home near this place.

Two new pupils enrolled at the La Grange Collegiate Institute Monday.

G. R. Whitfield received a serious hurt at a "log rolling" on Dr. Hadley's place last Friday.

Last Sunday was review day at the Sabbath school in this place. The "Banner" was awarded to class No. 3, Prof. Walker teacher.

A patron of the Dismal Swamp Lottery wants information as to who drew the capital prize in "Class E," last drawing in the "D S L."

Rom. Johnson, the Messenger's general agent, reports Nause river to be higher at Smithfield than for two years. We did not doubt this, until he reported the shad to be swimming through the corn fields, above the corn stalks.

Senator Loftin passed here Friday evening on his way to Snow Hill court via Kinston. The Senator speaks encouragingly of his prospects in Goldsboro, and says he is out of politics. He excuses himself for leaving our county by saying he had to do so to keep from being sent to Congress.

Sheriff Davis was here Saturday. The prediction of the Jones county prophet has given our place considerable attraction for the Kinston Republican politicians just now. They come, but return without being able to know upon whose shoulders the mantle will fall.

M. H. Wooten purchased one of Stanton's rice and corn planters and used it in planting rice last week. He pronounces it a complete machine, and says that it paid for itself in the planting of his rice crop, and that it will do the same the present week, in planting the corn crop. Labor-saving machinery is what our people need, and the sooner they are put in use, the better.

The services at the M. E. Church have been suspended till Wednesday night prayer meeting. The meeting has been protracted continuously for six weeks and one day, during which time there has been fifty-six conversions, fifty-two of which have taken membership in the M. E. Church, the others joining the different churches worshipping here. A great amount of work has been done, and much good accomplished.

Jones County Items.
Our fishermen have as yet made but a small catch of fish in the Trent this season.

Corn is commanding 70 cts. per bushel in Trenton and scarce at that. Lard 12c., hams 12c., eggs 10c.

Our county Superior Court will convene next Monday, April the 7th. Judge Shepard will preside.

Our farmers must be enlarging their cleared lands, for it has been one continual log rolling for nearly every Saturday for several weeks past.

Trenton was very dull on Saturday last. The trading people were too busy on their farms to come out. They were utilizing our fine spring weather.

The new road is fast approaching completion from their quarters to Trenton. Captain McIver had a severe job of it at Muscle Shell creek wheeling in earth across the swamp.

The fence around the graveyard at Trenton is falling down and is needing new post. Will not the citizens of the town and vicinity have it repaired as soon as they can obtain the necessary material?

Our farmers had better put on their best eye glasses when they commence picking out their seed corn. Corn is very defective this year in consequence of the rainy season before gathering. If you get a bad stand you can't make a fair crop.

Mr. Louis H. Mallard is a neat overseer of the public road; he has put timbers in the road near E. M. Foscue's on two bad clay hills that is as smooth and level as I have ever seen. A few more workings on his road will certainly make a very bad road a good one.

Our farmers are hauling kainit again largely to put on their crops of corn and cotton. All that I hear enquiring for fertilizers enquire for kainit. The fertilizer agents are not so ready to sell on time to every one who calls as they were during the past season, but are rather selecting their customers.

I have seen pigs with yokes to keep them from slipping through fences, but never until this year have I seen ducks yoked and blocked to keep them home. Quash Harrison has one with a corn cob to one of his feet and a yoke fastened to his neck and breast. His duckship seems cheerful and contented, notwithstanding.

I heard two young gents the other day discussing the tax on marriage license; one of them remarked that the tax was not right, and the whole of it, he said, ought to be abolished; that he wished every one could marry that wanted to without paying a cent. When another gentleman remarked to him that he was opposed to every one marrying that wished to, for, he continued, "we would soon have a severe famine, and it would not be long about it, either."

A beautiful scene—in part—a lady and gentleman sitting on the roadside on Sunday afternoon playing "stick frog."

Prof. W. wants to purchase a ring, but can't decide which is the more adapted to a small finger, cameo or amethyst. Who will tell him?

Fishing seems to be the pastime of many of our people. They sit upon the banks of the river and patiently await the arrival of the funny tribe and often return with but little success.

Pollokville Literary Society met on Tuesday night in accordance with adjournment, and elected officers as follows: P. H. Pelletier, president; T. P. Wynn, vice-president; W. M. Koonce, Secretary; T. S. Bender, treasurer; J. B. Hay, sexton and monitor. Four new members.

There is some complaint against the N. & T. R. S. Co. by our merchants as to the advance made in the freight charges on their goods. One says if he had a certain freight bill to pay without a proper rebate being made, he would make arrangements for the old flats to run as in former times. He means what he said.

A New Berne Boy Victorious.
Eating at Metropolitan Hall last night under the auspices of Hickman Lodge was very largely attended. The exercises of the evening were nicely arranged. Rev. B. C. Phillips gave a nice little talk on Temperance which was listened to with much interest. The Rev. J. F. Butt also delivered an interesting address. The event of the evening was the contest between some dozen or more boys, to see which one could devour three apples in the shortest time and the prize of $1.00 in silver, was awarded to a Mr. Eddie Lewis. The ladies return thanks to the many friends of the cause for kindness shown.—News-Observer.

The Mullein Plant.
Dr. Quillan, a celebrated physician of Dublin, has just written in an English medical journal of his wonderful experimental results with the common mullein plant upon lung and bronchial affections, citing cases where he had given it to consumptives with the most astonishing result, and recommends its use by the profession. Referring to the above, we would state that TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN, made from the formula of the medicine men of the Cherokee Nation, is composed not only of the mullein plant, but has incorporated with it the sweet gum, the finest stimulating expectorant known, presenting an agreeable taste and a certain panacea for Coughs, Whooping Cough, Colds and all Bronchial Affections. Yielding to the popular demand for an Agency for the purchase and sale of Local Stocks and Real Estate, we have concluded to add this new feature to our business of and would respectfully tender our services to the public in that capacity.

The increasing demand for our farming and timber lands among capitalists abroad who are being attracted either by the splendid investments offered, creates, we think, a necessity for an Agency of this kind which has not been felt heretofore.

The great success which has attended the efforts of our Steamboat Companies and other enterprising corporations in our midst, has caused a demand for the stocks which has made them an article of every-day purchase and sale.
