CINCINNATI, March 29 .- Teu thousand persons gathered at Music Hall, last night, to take action on the Berner verdict. Strong resolu-tions were adopted condemning the refdict, and a committee on legislation was appointed. Upon adjournment the large crowd moved directly to the jail, and began an attack on the front door. The riot alarm was sounded, summoning the entire police force to the jail. The greatly superior strength of the dearmed and impromptu mob, was so manifest when the former opened fire, that it would have been utter folly to make any further effort. Some twenty-five or thirty men were arrested and are in jail.

The jailor's residence in the jail, which was entered by a portion of the mob, was rudely handled, the windows broken and the furniture smashed. From this a number of men made their way into the kitch-en, and thence to the lower corridor. After the relinquishment of the main effort to get at the prisoners, the mob lingered outside, throwing stones and brickbats at the win-

For the purpose of getting more arms and ammunition the mob is now in the extensive gun store of B. Kittridge, the largest in the city. The mob took all the arms they wanted from Kittridge's store, ineluding a small cannon. About fifty men, the leader of whom is said to be thirsting for revenge, began firing on the jail with a cannon, but the cannon produced no

The Chicago people tauntingly tell the New Yorkers, who fail to get the necessary subscriptions for the Bartholdi pedestal fund, that "if they will send along their statue, they'll raise the mount for it.

When the train reached Loveland the crowd made for Berner, who ran through the car and escaped.
