THE LATEST NEWS.

Severe Storm.

WASHINGTON, April 9.-Between 10 and 11 o'clock this morning a severe wind storm passed over the country in the vicinity of Baltimore, prostrating every telegraph wire between Baltimore and Philadelphia and cutting off direct communication north in an instant. The extent of the damage in other respects is not ascertained. Thirty large poles of the Western Union Company in a single stretch were blown down. Snow fell for five hours here this morning, but by 1 p. m. had all disappeared.

Ohio Election.

CINCINNATI, April 8.—The returns for Cincinnati of yesterday's election were not all reported at noon to-day, but enough is known to show that the total lines just received a FRESH vote is about 40,000. Police clerk Richard's (Republican) majority will be from 400 to 700, and it is possible that the Republicans will elect one member of the board of education. With these exceptions the Democraic ticket is elected by majorities of from 400 to 800. The returns show very large Republican gains in the German wards compared with a year ago.

The municipal reform ticket, though nominally the work of both parties, it is generally understood has drawn most of its votes from the Republicans. Throughout the State the reports show
