J. W. WEBB, Observer.

Yesterday was the warmest day of the season.

Irish potatoes and beans are plentiful in the market now.

A trip on the Shenandoah to Elizabeth City is delightful at this season of the year.

The M. E. Church Working Society meet at the residence of Mr. Thos. Daniels to-night.

The steamer Goldsboro cleared for Baltimore yesterday with a cargo of general freights.

The street sprinkler has extended its operations to South Front and Pollock streets. It is quite an institution.

George Washington submitted to a verdict of manslaughter at Pamlico court on Monday and was sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary.

The old iron that has been taken from the A. & N. C. Railroad bed, which was replaced by new steel rails, has been drilled and is now ready for the fish bars.

It was remarked yesterday that since the contractor had commenced work on the Episcopal church spire, the number of round-shouldered men had diminished.

Mr. S. R. Street, sr., is making a great improvement on the dining room at the Gaston House. The walls and ceiling are receiving attention and soon the dining room will be as neat as the nearest.

Much interest is being manifested in the meetings at the Baptist Church. Dr. Whitfield is a very impressive speaker. The simplicity of his manner of presenting the Gospel carries conviction to those seeking a better way.

The steamer Kinston will run an excursion on the 29th and 30th of May from Beeton Old Field to Riverdale, stopping at New Berne. This excursion is given for the colored people in the neighborhood of Beeton Old Field and all others who wish a pleasant time. See ad.

The N. C. Republican is a new paper published at Weldon by MacD. Lindsay. It claims to be the Civil Rights advocate, opposes the sacrificing of the cardinal principles of the Republican party by forming a coalition with dissatisfied Democrats, and is the very paper to bring out a full Democratic vote at the next election.

The work of painting and repairing the cars at the railroad shops is being pushed along, and soon a handsome train will be on the road, painted the color of the Pullman Palace cars, and provided with improved lamps, nickel plated racks, etc. W. B. Charlotte is applying the paint brush with much taste and good judgment. By the 1st of June a train of cars will be running that will equal any in the State.

We regret that we could not attend the theatre on Monday night to hear the address of our County Superintendent, John S. Long, before the colored graded school. His effort is highly spoken of by those who heard it, as being one eminently practical and suitable for the occasion. Mr. Long is perfectly at home in literary matters, and on all public occasions can always hold his audience. He delivers the address before the white graded school at Kinston on the 30th of May, and he will be equal to the occasion.

Our correspondent "Z." wants the shelling of the streets stopped until cold weather, and we think he is right. If any one denies that he is right let him go and reside at the end of Craven street, where they are being spread, for a few days and he will be converted. We are informed by Mr. Brady, however, that the canning business will stop after this week. They have informed the overseer that they have been up this week not to bring any more and are only waiting a few days for those who have not received the information.

Hail Storm.
The storm from Maysville, Jones county, is that a heavy fall of hail in that section last Sunday damaged the crops considerable and killed several sheep by Thos. S. Gillett, Esq. A severe wind accompanied the hail and demolished the grove of Mr. Alonso Foy. Capt. C. F. Foy had chopped his cotton almost to a stand but had to plow up and plant again.

The Onslow Trade.

The efforts the JOURNAL has been making for the last two years to secure steam navigation for Onslow county will eventually succeed. The only question now is, who will get there first, New Berne or Wilmington. If our merchants here knew it they are already connected with White Oak and New rivers by the steamer Margie and the A. & N. C. Railroad. But the farmers in that section have been doing business with Wilmington so long that it is hard to break them off suddenly, therefore it will require some little extra effort on the part of the business men of New Berne, in addition to the advantages of transportation, to turn the trade in this direction. Many good and responsible farmers want accommodation through the season when the crops are being cultivated; the New river farmers have been getting this in Wilmington as that has been the only city to which they could ship their products by boat. The filling up of the new inlet has made navigation to that city from New river more dangerous and tedious and the people here, for many years, been anxious for an outlet less dangerous and more expeditious. Wilmington knows this, and the work of the Margie and the frequent allusions made to the wants and the capabilities of the New and White Oak river sections by the JOURNAL have aroused them, and they may yet rush a railroad down the sound and regain what they are likely to lose.

That our merchants and business men may keep posted on what is going on in this matter we copy an article from the Star of the 18th of the Inland Coasting Company:

"We were shown yesterday a copy of a hand bill issued by the 'New Berne, Beaufort and Onslow Inland Coasting Company,' in which are offered all sorts of inducements to secure the trade of Onslow county. The people of New Berne realize the value of that trade and are 'moving heaven and earth,' as it were, to secure it. Now the question simply is, can Wilmington afford to lose that trade and let other towns monopolize it? If she cannot, and our people resolve to prevent such a sacrifice, and will go to work at once to carry their resolution into effect, then there is nothing to fear. But if we fritter away the precious time in talking, while our neighbors are acting, we shall all wake up some fine morning and find New Berne and other cities monopolizing the trade of that important county, its fine fish and oysters diverted from our market, and our successful rivals laughing in their sleeves as they contemplate their own smartness and our supineness and indifference.

Judging from what we have seen and heard the 'New Berne, Beaufort and Onslow Inland Coasting Company' is a wide awake corporation, and if we expect to keep the trade of Onslow, even to the extent that we have heretofore done, we must be up and doing. No time now for procrastination. What we intend to do must be done quickly, or else the time for action will be past."

Now our merchants must not undervalue the work being done by the Margie. The peanut and naval store trade of Onslow is considerable. We must be prepared to handle these articles and pay Wilmington prices for them. We already hear it whispered around that the Margie is to deliver naval stores at Beaufort to be taken to Washington. Just think of it; Onslow products marketed at Washington! This announcement would certainly be very complimentary to the business qualities, enterprise and push of the citizens of New Berne.

The farmers of the New and White Oak river sections have put their money into a steamboat and are endeavoring to get to us. Let us extend to them our right hand and welcome them. We must do more than this; we must not only encourage the Inland Coasting Company, but we must strike the very heart of Onslow by first a tramway and then a railroad. We are much nearer there than Wilmington. We have quick connection between this city and the North by the Old Dominion and N. C. Freight lines and there is no reason why the products of that rich county should not come this way if we make the effort to bring them.

Passengers by the Shenandoah.
Dr. Foster and family returning north. Mr. Marshall Parks for Norfolk, and our Bergme & Engel man Jns. Redmond. Quite a number of others left but we failed to get their names.

We clip the following lines from the New York Observer. They were "In Memoriam" of a lady who died in New York. There is something singularly impressive and beautiful about them: "Tis idle to talk of the future. And the rare 'might have been' mid our years. God knew all about it, yet took her away from the on-coming years. God knew all about it. How noble, How gentle she was and how brave. How bright was her possible future. Yet he put her to sleep in the grave. God knew all about those who love her. How bitter the trial would be— And right through it all—God is loving And knows so much better than we.

Personal.

Mr. Marshall Parks was in the city yesterday. He is preparing to push work on the Harlowe creek canal.

Messrs Clement Manly, L. J. Moore, W. E. Clark, W. W. Clark and O. H. Guion, attorneys, and Dr. W. P. Ballance, wholesale merchant, are attending Pamlico county Superior Court.

Mr. J. C. Bryant, of Jones, was in the city yesterday and reports a good stand of cotton.

Meeting of Democratic Executive Committee.

The chairman, E. H. Meadows, calls a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee to be held in this city on Saturday next at the court house at 12 o'clock for the purpose of fixing a time for holding a county convention to select delegates to the State and Congressional conventions. We have published a list of the committee that they may be reminded that they have been entrusted with the duty of representing their townships in all meetings, and to advance as far as in their power the interest of the party. Political conventions name the men for the people to vote for, but the convention starts primarily with the people, provided they assemble and attend to the preliminaries which are necessary to having them represented in said conventions. Those who stand aloof and take no part in the primary meetings will have no right to complain afterwards of packed conventions and cliques and rings. This is true of all parties. The people should attend the meetings, or their representatives should, and prevent the formation of rings to defeat their wishes.

Stop Shelling.

MR. EDITOR.—It is said that the three essential elements conducive to good health are: pure air, pure water, and sunshine. In view of the approach of the warm season, and the continued shelling of our streets, the first and second of the above elements are very much marred and rendered dangerous to health. The degradation of animal matter which is constantly going on, the effluvia emitted, and the impregnation of well water, all arising from the putrefaction of animal life adhering to the oyster shells, is a constant menace to the public health at this particular season. The authorities ought to postpone any further spreading of shells on the streets until the weather becomes cold, when the practice would prove less dangerous to health. Z.

Kinston Items.

There is no change in town market quotations since last week.

The next convention of the Episcopal Church for the Diocese of Eastern Carolina will be held at Kinston.

"When in society never talk of yourself," is the injunction of an authority on etiquette. Some people in Kinston never do—they run down other people.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of Kinston College Stock Company will be held Wednesday, June 4th, 1884, 11 o'clock, a. m., at Kinston College. A full attendance is desired.

Our mayor and town commissioners have struck boldly for revenue and reform. It is now said, however, they contemplate taking the tax-off dogs to cheapen the price of sausage.

Hon. W. M. Robbins, F. C. Robbins and J. S. Robbins are some of the candidates for Congress in the Salisbury district. The birds seem to be over-plentiful in that district. It is the place for L. J. Mewborne to go and grow fat.

Nature in all of her creation is governed by the laws of compensation. What is lacking in one quarter is amply provided for in another. The man with the softest brain generally has the hardest cheek. This is fully illustrated in the candidacy for sheriff of our old "jug campaigner" of Kinston.

From bi-litigious passing between the belligerents, it appears that Granville and Lenoir counties have declared "war to the knife and knife to the hilt." If any of our young gents shall attend Greensboro Female College commencement this year, they expect to go armed with Gatling guns.

It is said that one of our candidates for sheriff strayed over into Wayne county last Sunday and turned loose his fog horns in a church to the great delight and astonishment of a Wayne county candidate for sheriff. The Wayne county candidate took lessons at once in the art of electioneering practiced by the Lenoir county candidate, and is now sure of his election.

Kinston has chosen distinguished exemplars in State craft and town government for imitation and adoption, to wit, Prince Bismarck of Germany and the mayor of Goldsboro. Hereafter we are to run the machine just as Goldsboro runs it, and, like Bismarck, we have interdicted the presence of the American hog in our city limits. The examples of "big bugs" are contagious.

Anthony Davis, Esq., the hospitable proprietor of Pink Hill, sent us last Monday meal prepared of corn made in 1833; We pronounce it the best article of meal that ever went into a "corn dodger." It is not now surprising that Pink Hill is reaching out after blooded stock, Plymouth rocks and Maltese oats when there is such a bountiful supply of good things to feed on in that famous locality.

La Grange Items.

Miss Fannie Gardner, of Pitt, is visiting relatives in our town.

It is not often that you see a red headed man with a black mustach.

Lovitt Hines is making a lumber yard in town. He proposes to keep it well supplied with lumber of all kinds.

Rev. J. D. Carpenter preached here last Sunday and Sunday night, and at Hickory Grove at 3:30 o'clock p. m.

The Democratic township meeting held here Saturday, to elect delegates to the county convention and to elect a township executive committee, was largely attended.

C. W. Joyner, called the meeting to order and acted as chairman, and S. I. Sutton acted as secretary.

M. H. Wooten, J. W. Rice, S. I. Sutton and G. L. Taylor were appointed to recommend a township executive committee and delegates to the county convention.

The following were recommended and elected: Executive Committee—S. I. Wooten, J. P. Joyner, S. I. Sutton, D. W. Wood and O. K. W. Howard.

Delegates—C. S. Wooten, M. H. Wooten, W. S. Uzzell, Noah Rouse, J. L. Rouse, G. L. Taylor, J. Y. Joyner and B. F. Sutton, jr. The township executive committee was added to the list of delegates.

The meeting warmly recommended N. J. House, Esq., to the Democracy of Lenoir county as one in every way worthy of their support, and urged his nomination as a candidate for a seat in the next Legislature of the State.

Stonewall Items.

The stand of cotton bids fair to be excellent.

The happy man of this place is R. H. Baxter, and the cause of his joy is the finest girl baby that ever arrived in this place is at his house.

The ladies of Bayboro are holding a festival to raise funds to build a church in their place. My opinion is that a church there will do no harm.

There are several of our citizens in the Bairds creek section in this court about setting the woods on fire. Will have to wait the decision of the court for the result.

Rev. B. B. Holder has worked himself pretty well down in a series of meetings in this place for the good of this community. He has had rather poor success. A hard set to work on.

The insects are doing serious damage to corn and rice, and I heard some one say that the cerlew bugs were eating the children. My opinion is that it is another kind of bug that troubles the children.

Judge Gudger was a little behind time on Monday; however, he opened court about 12 m., charged the grand jury and the case of George Washington, the man charged with having committed murder in your city and found guilty by the jury and sentenced to be hanged at the fall term of our court but took an appeal to the Supreme court and by that court was granted a new trial, was called and the criminal submitted to manslaughter and was sentenced to twenty years in the State penitentiary.

More Trouble in Danville.

DANVILLE, VA., May 19.—George Adams, a colored man from the country, who was the ring-leader in bringing about the riot on Nov. 3d, appeared on the streets here Saturday. He was discovered to be armed and was reported to have made threats. He came again this morning armed, and a difficulty having arisen between him and four citizens in the office of one of the factories, Adams was knocked down and severely injured. The citizens appeared before the mayor and were admitted to bail on their own bond in the sum of $250 each to appear in court on the 26th inst. A 38-calibre Smith & Wesson revolver and a belt of cartridges were found on Adams' person. Adams was one of the witnesses before Senator Sherman's investigating committee.

Job Work.

The JOURNAL office is prepared to print Bill Heads, Letter Heads, Envelopes, Cards, Tags, Circular Envelopes, etc. in neat and handsome style, and also at prices to suit the times. Give us a trial.

Chattel Mortgages, Real Estate Mortgages, Deeds, Lien Bonds, always on hand.

Blanks for the appointment of Overseers, and for making Overseer's report, on hand.

A Youngster's Teeth

demand greater attention than they usually receive. Mother's careful of their children's physical well-being wisely adopt Sodont as an article of the family toilet. If the first set of a juvenile's teeth are daily polished with this matchless purifier, the second set are almost invariably white and strong, and prove a life-long blessing, otherwise they frequently turn out carious and irregular. Young and old alike benefit by its use.

"Will the coming man smoke?" was settled by Prof. Fisk in his charming pamphlet. He says, moreover, that the rational way to use tobacco is through the pipe. All agree that only the best tobacco should be used. Which is the best? That to which nature has contributed the most exquisite flavors. Blackwell's Durham Long Cut fills the bill completely. Don't be deceived when you buy. The Durham Bull brand mark is on every genuine package.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has such concentrated, curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and purest blood purifier known.
