Currency in Pamlico county—curlew logs.

Sarah Oxley gives notice of pure ice cream.

The steamer Stout arrived yesterday morning from Baltimore with a good freight.

Mrs. Dillingham has opened an ice cream saloon at Potter's old stand on Pollock street.

There will be an exhibition of the graded school at the theatre, on next Friday night.

Pamlico Superior Court adjourned yesterday. Three convicts were made for the penitentiary, two colored and one white. The attorneys of this city have returned.

The season for excursions is now upon us, and with the many steamboats in our waters the public ought to have ample opportunity of enjoying a sea breeze at a small outlay.

The fourth annual session of the colored Normal school will open in this city on June 2d, and will continue about three months. For particulars see advertisement in this issue.

Mr. Clifford Simpson informs us that the Railroad Company is now preparing to put down a turn-out at his place, this side of Riverdale. Also that he is now clearing off and preparing a beautiful grove for the benefit of picnic parties.

The proverb "Meadows' Liver Pills," so long buried beneath the illuminated theatrical posters on the side of the store at the corner of Pollock and Middle streets, was yesterday brought to light by Solomon with the aid of a broom and a bucket of water.

The success of the Keely motor is anxiously awaited by the scientific world, but what we want is a Bovine motor, judging from the stubborn resistance offered by a critter on the market dock Monday to the butcher who was leading him to the slaughter.

His Honor Mayor Meadows signaled his entry upon official life by ordering that the spreading of oyster shells on the streets be discontinued. We were not aware of the Mayor's order or we would have published it in yesterday's issue, in lieu of the communication of "Z." on that subject.

To furnish a supply of water, in case of fire, we understand that the property owners and tenants resident on the square comprising Middle, Pollock, Hancock and Broad streets will petition the Board of Councilmen to have a well bored on Middle street between Pollock and Broad.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a measure of fine Irish potatoes from E. R. Dudley, one of the prosperous colored farmers of this city. He has shipped sixty-one barrels from two acres, two-thirds of which were prime. The potato crop is earlier than usual this year, and so far are very fine. We are glad to hear that good prices are obtained.

A mule created quite an excitement at the corner of South Front and Middle streets yesterday evening. In brushing off the flies that were troubling him he caught the ring of the bridle bit in the hook of the shaft and almost doubled said mule up in a knot. The more he struggled the more tangled up he became, but finally, after several efforts of the numerous bystanders, he was released.

Our Wilmington exchanges are certainly aroused on the subject of building a railroad to Onslow. We propose to bring the bulk of the produce of that county this way. Not many years nor even many months will pass before a bale of cotton will leave Richards, change hands in New Berne and be in Norfolk within two days from the time it is packed. Our sister city must look westward and southward for its increase of trade.

The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church, now in session at Vicksburg, Miss., have appointed Rev. L. C. Vass, Pastor of the Presbyterian church of our city, a delegate to represent the Southern Church, the Pan-Presbyterian Council, which meets in Belfast, Ireland, on the 24th June, 1884. Mr. Vass expects to sail from New York on June 15. He will also attend the meeting at New York, August 1st.

Personal.
Solicitor Blount of the First Judicial District, arrived from Pamlico court last night.

Miss Maud H. Amyette, one of New Berne's accomplished young ladies, is visiting friends in Petersburg, Va.

Teachers Elected.
The school committee of the 8th township held a meeting on Tuesday night and elected the following teachers for the colored Graded school for the next session: J. A. Savage, Principal; Assistants, Mrs. Margaret Godley, Misses Sarah E. Dudley, Hattie Randolph, Emma Tucker, Annie E. Abbott, Mrs. Lydia Smith and Rev. Alexander Bass.

Serious Shooting Affray at Jacksonville.
Intelligence reached the city late yesterday of a serious and perhaps fatal difficulty in Onslow county between Mr. A. C. Huggins, Clerk of the Superior Court, and his brother-in-law, Dr. Chas. Lesine.

As we understand the facts, the shooting of the latter gentleman by Mr. Huggins was in self-defense.

Mr. Huggins was at his home, in Jacksonville, when the shooting occurred. Dr. Lesine came into the yard with a pistol—fired in the direction of Mr. Huggins—and was advancing towards him with his pistol drawn, when Mr. Huggins seized his shot gun and shot him through the bowels. The Doctor instantly fell, and when the pistol was picked up it was found to be cocked. The report of Dr. Lesine's condition yesterday morning was unfavorable, and is considered very critical. The difficulty arose from family troubles that had been brewing for some time.

This is a very sad affair, and it is very much to be hoped that it may not prove fatal. Mr. Huggins is well known in this city, where he has many friends and warm sympathizers.

Messrs. Simmons & Manly have been retained for the defense, and one or both of them will leave this city this morning to attend the preliminary examination.

The Columbia Graded Schools.
We clip from the Charleston News and Courier the correspondence given below relative to the graded schools. Prof. Johnson's many friends in this city will be pleased to know that he has succeeded so well in his work, which certainly required no little amount of perseverance and good judgment to organize and conduct two graded schools of over seven hundred children each. We see the graded schools of Wilmington, as well as of Columbia, are all under one superintendent. Would it not be well for the trustees of our graded school to investigate the workings of this system, and if found to be successful adopt the same for the schools of this city?

COLUMBIA, May 3.—The first week of the pay term of the Columbia graded school closed to-day with a larger number of pupils in attendance than on Monday last. It was stated in this correspondence, some time ago, that a sufficient number of pay pupils had been pledged to guarantee the continuance of the schools for the full session of nine months, ending June 30. But more have continued coming than had last week promised to attend the pay term, and the running of the schools for the full term is thus made doubly sure.

The Columbia graded schools, during their first year's existence, have been put to an extraordinary test. After seven months' free tuition they have been, on account of the exhaustion of the public fund, (so largely drawn on for the expenses attending the establishment of the schools) compelled to depend for existence upon tuition fees, and this, too, during the two hot months of the school year when many children cease attending school on account of the weather. The graded schools have, however, stood the test successfully, as is proven by the large number of scholars now in attendance, a number increasing as the term advances. The action of the people is a very strong endorsement of the management of the schools, and shows that the people of Columbia appreciate the great necessity which existed for the establishment of efficient public instruction. When the graded schools needed money to complete a pay term of seven months the citizens of Columbia furnished readily the full amount asked for; and when it was proposed to continue the operation of the schools on a pay basis for two months longer the great body of parents agreed at once to pay for their children. These facts, it will be admitted, are very creditable to Columbia.

The final examinations of the schools will be held in June, and tickets of promotion and classification will be given to the pupils in attendance for use at the next session. All the indications are that the applications for admission to the schools next fall will be so numerous that the seating capacity of the schools will be insufficient for the admission of all applicants. It is understood that preference in admission will be given to those who secure tickets of classification for this session.

Although there are 760 colored pupils enrolled in the schools against 710 whites, the average attendance of the whites has been, every month, much greater than that of the negroes. As far as Columbia is concerned, this fact contradicts the assertion, so frequently made by the opponents of public education, that the negroes are more ignorant than the whites.

Present Your Claims.
All persons holding checks or claims against Moore & Brady will please bring the same at our office by Friday next, as the books will be closed on that date.

The Confederate Monument.
We call attention to the notice of the Memorial Association in this paper. The names subscribed to the appeal, if we should call it such, are those of well known ladies of our city whose devotion to the work they have in hand has been such as to command the esteem of every one.

For near twenty years these patriotic women and their associates have worked assiduously in the interest of the perpetuation of the memory of our fellow soldiers. Their success has been all that could have been expected when all the surrounding circumstances are considered; they have a mausoleum equal to any in the country; they have gathered the decaying bones of many of the brave men from distant fields and placed them there to be under the watchful care of themselves and their successors, and now wish to place a monument over them, that generations to come may read both of the brave deeds of the men who sleep beneath and the devoted women who have given so much of time and care to the patriotic duty of erecting this memorial.

Only four hundred and fifty dollars are asked for to complete the work. Let us raise the amount, and raise it promptly.

Moore & Brady, our oyster canners, want to pay their debts. See notice given elsewhere.

THE GRADED SCHOOL REPORT.
The following is the report of the Graded School for the ninth month of the current scholastic year:

Total number of pupils..... 518
Per cent. of attendance..... 94.20

Maj. John Hughes, of New Berne, for Lieutenant Governor.
Correspondence Washington Gazette.

The present Governor being from the East, from the West will naturally come the next occupant of the gubernatorial chair, and to the Eastern people more especially will belong the duty of selecting from among themselves the coming Lieutenant Governor. He should be a man fully alive to the wants of our people living in the counties with large negro majorities and should be a resident of the Black District; for at no time, save when a State ticket is to be nominated, have the citizens of that district even an opportunity to ask for representation at Raleigh with the rest of their race in the State, and in no other manner can they send a representative to the General Assembly; so unless a place on the State ticket be granted to them there is no way in which the vast number of white people living in that section can make their needs and necessities as effectively known and appreciated as their brethren in counties more politically favored. Of all Eastern men none deserve more than Major John Hughes, of New Berne, and no one would make a more acceptable Lieutenant Governor. Major Hughes is a lawyer of more than ordinary ability, of fine personal appearance, and of particularly pleasing manners. As a speaker he is logical, exhaustive, convincing, and his well rounded periods show the strength of his convictions as well as culture of his style. On the stump he probably has no superior except Gov. Vance, and like Vance he carries his audiences with him from the beginning to the end of his speeches. He is a hard worker in a canvass and in every campaign since the war his voice has been heard. He is a firm believer in the present system of county governments, and coming from a county dominated by a large negro majority he knows what value to set upon the bulwark that is protecting his fellow-citizens from the terrible scourge of African supremacy. In all troubles and struggles of the Eastern people Major Hughes has taken part, and to his untiring efforts in some measure is due the relief which came at last. Not one word can be urged against him. Of spotless character and unquestioned integrity, he has so lived as to win the respect and confidence of all who know him. As president of the Senate he would bring to his aid a mind well filled with legal lore, and would preside over its deliberations with dignity and ability. We can nominate no man better qualified to fill the position, and assuredly there is no one who has more to heart the interests of Eastern North Carolina.

Notice to Mariners.
Notice is hereby given that on or about June 2, 1884, the position of the Shovelful Shoal lightship will be changed to a point about five-eighths of a mile N. E. & E. from her present position. Magnetic bearings are, approximately, as follows:

Pollock Rip lightship, S. E. & E. | Handkerchief lightship, S. W. by W. | W.

Monomoy Point lighthouse, N. & W. | All vessels should pass to the northward of the lightship.

Also, on or about the same date, a black buoy will be substituted for the buoy with red and black horizontal stripes which now marks the north end of Stone Horse Shoal.

By order of the Lighthouse Board.
STEPHEN C. ROWAN,
Vice-Admiral U. S. Navy, Chm'n.

County Superintendent.
We understand that there is some uncertainty as to the proper time for holding the election of county superintendent of public instruction. The Code, section 2,548, orders the election on the first Monday in June. The school law, amended 1883, section 13, orders the election on the first Monday in August. It seems that the Code being the universal law should govern and the elections be held on the first Monday in June. This view is sustained by section 3,876 of the Code. The question has been raised and has come up to the office of State superintendent. On consultation with the attorney general he gives the above as his opinion.—News and Observer.

The Confederate Monument.
The ladies of the New Berne Memorial Association earnestly desire to complete the monument already begun to the memory of our honored Confederate soldiers. They will need for this purpose $450 and they feel assured that it will only be necessary to let this fact be known, to meet with a generous and ready response from every citizen of Craven county whose heart beats in sympathy with theirs in their work. Any contribution, however small, will be thankfully received and properly used. A box will be placed at the store of Mr. Alex. STATE NEWS.
Cleaned from our Exchanges.

Wilmington Review: A gentleman in this city informs us that a hen, known to be over 14 years old, died recently near Hamlet. She was the property of Amanda Jacobs, colored.—Dr. Shepard, of Scott's Hill, was in the city to-day and he says that he sees and converses with numerous Onslow people and that the cry is "give us a railroad to Wilmington."

Raleigh News and Observer: Mr. Harris informs us that the wood work on the ice factory has commenced and will be pushed rapidly to completion. Mr. Geo. Barber, a master mechanic from New York, has arrived and has now ten carpenters at work on the building. The large engine, pumps and condenser will be put-up in about two weeks. An era of cheap ice in the city will soon be upon us.

Asheville Advance: The Presbyterians will shortly commence the erection of a new church building. If completed according to plans and specifications, it will be creditable to that worthy congregation and to our growing city.—Felix Grimes, colored, is mail contractor between this point and Vanceville, and is an old decrepit man of seventy-five years, yet he rides the route, thirty-seven miles, twice every week on horseback.

Statesville American: Some very foolish Republicans in North Carolina are doing all they know how to fill the Democratic arsenal with munitions of war.—Less cotton will be planted in this section this season than has been for years, the shortage in cotton will be made up in an increased acreage in tobacco. This is well.—We thought about the luscious soft crab all of Monday, for don't you know that on the full moon in May they are fatter and more toothsome than at any other time in the year. [None in this market yet.—ED. JOURNAL.]
