J. W. WEBB, Observer.

The steamer Kinston sailed yesterday for Kinston with a good freight.

Maj. W. L. Palmer keeps things cool on Middle street with his elegant new fountain.

Mr. O. Marks has broken ground for the addition to his store. It will be of brick, two stories.

Our colored citizens have chartered the steamer Elm City for an excursion to Washington, June 17th.

Shoes took quite a fall at Howard & Jones' yesterday. The handsome young clerk will tell about it if called upon.

Judge Avery is a man of firmness, a very essential quality for a judge, who tackles a large criminal docket, to possess. His Honor appears to be in good health and prepared to do a big week's work.

The Presbyterian Sunday School picnic had a nice time yesterday notwithstanding the light rain. The party returned to the city on the steamer Trent after 4 o'clock and then, taking on a few persons, ran down the river and gave the children a pleasant ride, returning about 6 o'clock, all declaring they had enjoyed the day finely and without an occurrence to mar their pleasures.

Large Fish.
Messrs. Watson & Daniels received from Cape Lookout yesterday a sun fish—Pompano—which weighed thirty-six pounds, the largest ever seen in this market. When it is remembered that the ordinary size of this fish weighs about five pounds, we will be excused for calling this a very large one. It is said to be a very fine fish. This one was shipped north on the Shenandoah.

Frail.
The sloop Eliza Ellen, of Hatteras, arrived yesterday with a cargo of bananas, being a part of the cargo of ninety thousand bunches picked up from the wreck of the steamer Glassott, of Aberdeen, Scotland, from Port Antonio, Jamaica, for Philadelphia, which stranded on the south side of Hatteras Inlet a few nights ago. Mr. John Dunn captured the cargo, which can be seen at his store.

Wilson Normal School.
The following teachers have been appointed to hold the Wilson State Normal School, which begins June 12th:
Sylvester Hassel, A. M., Superintendent.
Henry Houck, A. M., Principal, and Lecturer on School Organization, Discipline, and Methods of Instruction.
Henry E. Shepard, LL. D., Lecturer on History, English Language and Literature.
James H. Rayhill, Teacher of Reading and Elocution.
W. J. Scroggins, A. M., Teacher of Arithmetic, Grammar, and Geography.
F. P. Claxton, A. M., Teacher of Algebra, History, and Elementary Science.
J. C. Meares, Teacher of Vocal Music.
Mrs. J. A. McDonald, Teacher of Model Class.
Miss Jane E. Ward, Teacher of Calligraphy.
James W. Hays, Secretary, and Teacher of Penmanship and Drawing.

Personal.
Miss Harriet Shew and Miss Belle Colton left last evening on the Shenandoah for Syracuse, N. Y. Miss Belle Colton grieves to leave the many dear friends she has made during her sojourn in New Berne that have made her visit so pleasant, and says good bye with many regrets.

R. A. Russell, Esq., of Cobton, is attending court. He is the nominee of the National Greenback party of Craven county for the Senate, but we have not seen his letter of acceptance yet.

C. B. Thomas, jr., Esq., of Beaufort, is attending court.

Mr. Lewis Coleman and Judge Caruth, of Boston, are in the city attending court.

Mr. D. M. Stanton, of La Grange, is in the city. He says the wheat crop is looking well. He has the machinery on hand to cut it.

Mr. Allison, an attorney from New Jersey, is in the city.

Rev. N. M. Jurney called to see us yesterday. He is firm in his belief that Sir Walter Raleigh's colony landed in 1584 on Wokohan—Ocracoke—in Carteret county, instead of on Roanoke Island.

Mr. Adolph Cohn, who represents the firm of Hyland & Lee of Richmond, Virginia, doctors in organic and placental diseases and relieving the sufferings of the afflicted.

Who is He?

We received a circular from the Dismal Swamp Lottery Co. at Norfolk, a few days ago directed to "Thos. Journal, Esq." The gentleman can get the same by applying at this office. It may contain something of much interest to him.

Superior Court.

Court convened on Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Judge Avery presiding. Robert Hancock, jr., was appointed foreman of the grand jury. His Honor's charge was explicit and brief enough.

Seven Springs Items.

Mr. J. W. Moody is very sick with typhoid fever.

The recent showers have wonderfully improved the appearance of crops.

The citizens of this place have determined to paint the church and improve the grounds; a praiseworthy determination.

The little two year old daughter of Calvin Smith and wife, of Trent township, Lenoir county, died on Thursday last. Our sympathies are with the bereaved ones in their affliction.

The representative of Mr. Tyre G. Gibson, the wholesale government mail contractor, was in town on Saturday and subtle the route from this place to La Grange to John A. McGee of this town.

Dr. Wm. C. Whitford, who has been recuperating his strength for some weeks at his father's house after the arduous duties in completing his studies during the past winter, has resumed the practice of his profession and has located at the house of Mr. N. B. Outlaw, in Duplin county.

Considerable improvement is noticed about the Springs. The grounds have been cleared off, rustic seats built, and the springs themselves have been walled in, etc. A brilliant season is anticipated by the two hotels, and guests are already being booked for the season. This will soon be the Saratoga of the South.

A gentleman from Kinston arrived late on Saturday night with a peculiar cry of distress. He roused up an old gentleman in the place who said he noticed a very peculiar plaintiveness in his utterances and imagined the very sounds of despair were dogging his foot-steps. When he went forth to his relief he found a man wearing a hat that resembled about two sections of a hornet's nest. It was found that he had lost a sulky wheel and had been dragging himself along the lonely highway for many hours. The singing candidate from Lenoir desecrated the Sabbath day by mending his vehicle and "Richard was himself again." His Kinston friends think his hat came from Rayner's.

DEED.

May 23d, 1884, on C. M. Pollok's plantation, near Pollockville, John M. Eubanks, a native of Onslow county. He left a wife, nine children and 17 grandchildren to mourn his loss. Age, 35 years 10 months and 5 days. An

There was a fine rain here last Sunday night.

The crops are doing remarkably well. Fruit of all kinds promises to be abundant in this section.

It is said that an elder and Sunday school superintendent in the region of Moseley creek, Craven county, gives to his Sunday school all the eggs laid by his hens on Sunday.

It is said John Wesley's patriotism is of such an unselfish nature that it is willing to immolate itself upon the altar of a Republican nomination for the legislature from Lenoir county.

Samuel H. Rountree, tax-lister for Kinston township, will be at the court house in Kinston, June 9th, 10th and 11th, 1884, to list the polls and property subject to taxation in that township.

Lewis Grady, Esq., the candidate of the Republican pharisees of Lenoir county for sheriff, says "he is still on top." So was the cat that his little dog Paul chased up a tree a few nights ago.

The contest among the candidates for Sheriff is waxing very warm. It is generally conceded, unless Sheriff Davis is re-nominated, the "dark horse of La Grange" will walk away with the cake.

Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Cauley, in Woodington township Lenoir county, on the 13th inst., by C. A. Dudley, J. P., Miss Eliza Cauley and Mr. James R. Croom.

Solomon said, "spare the rod and spoil the child." Philosopher Mewborn, of Kinston, has evolved a better philosophy, "spare the child and spoil the rod. We agree with the latter-day philosopher.

Next week our college boys and girls begin to tap their universal wisdom and knowledge and pour it out upon the world. It does not hurt the world nor the collegians either, but makes commencement exercises interesting.

T. Chris. Wooten, the eminent young barrister of Snow Hill, called on us last week to say that he is now anxious to sell "below cost" the elegant spring-mattresses purchased here not long since, he having in that purchase, "counted the chickens before they were hatched." He is no more concerned about fees than females.

Masonic burial service will be had over the remains of the late James Wilkins at the residence of his family in Woodington township, Lenoir county, Sunday, June 1st, 1884. Rev. A. J. Hires, Baptist minister at Kinston, will preach the funeral at the same place and time. All Masons in good standing are invited to be present.

An impudent man of Kinston said to the wife of his bosom, "Well, my dear, shall I call for you, say four o'clock this afternoon?" Call for me! Why, what for?" inquired his wife in a tone of surprise. "To go to Einstein's after a hat."

"After a hat! Why hubby, didn't we get a new hat for me only yesterday. What on earth are you talking about?" "Oh, I forgot, surely! Why yes, so we did. I see it now very plainly. It is only every other day you want a new hat." By stepping out hastily and holding the door shut, he managed to escape merited punishment.

Catharine Lake Items.

Mr. Bryant Cox will have his dwelling completed in a few weeks.

Mr. E. L. Cox has returned home from Warsaw, where he has spent the last five months in improving his education.

The young men and ladies are beginning to spend the Sunday evenings at the spring. Picnics will be next in order.

I hear some complaint among the farmers about their cotton dying. I think if they would stir it more it would not die so fast.

Our little town seems to be quite dull now, and the merchants are all at rest, nothing to do and as happy as an alligator in the sunshine.

There is some talk of a wedding coming off near Richlands in a few days, and if many more comes off, soon the young men around here will have to seek other quarters to find them a companion.

We hear a great deal of talk of railroads running through Onslow county, but they seem to be very slow in approaching us; perhaps they are trying to slip up on us, and no doubt they will, for Onslow has been asleep ever since the flood in commercial pursuits. If it should ever be the case that a railroad would run to Catharine Lake, the Alum Spring would be the finest place for summer resort in the State.

Jones County Items.

Mr. John W. Eubanks, a well-known citizen of the Pine Grove settlement, Jones county, died during last week of pulmonary consumption.

Field peas are in demand at Trenton at a very high price. The farmers last season could not get their peas picked as the laborers preferred picking cotton.

We are having another steamer on the Trent now. The steamer Snow Hill is soliciting freight from the farmers and merchants, and I learn that she is getting her full share, having made two trips to Trenton during the last week.

I learn that a drunken colored man, named John Williams, visited the house of Huldah Barber, colored, near Trenton, while her children were at Trenton reading, and commenced beating her. Her cries brought to her assistance Molly Heritage, whom he also knocked down. Finally her sons and other help arrived and captured him and handed him over to the authorities, who sent him to jail. He will have a hearing to-day.

Monday, the 2d day of June, will be one of the big days in Trenton. The commissioners of the county will meet the board of magistrates and confer with them on some very important matters relating to the welfare and interest of the whole county, and we truly hope that each and every one of them, if they possibly can, will attend and aid each other in the discharge of the various and important duties incumbent upon them. Also, every good Democrat will recollect that our county convention of the Democratic party will convene on the same day, and that each and every good Democrat in the county who can conveniently do so will arrange his business in such a manner as to meet us in Trenton on that day, and let us have a grand Democratic reunion—such an one as we have not had in the county in many years.

CHINQUAPIN DOTS.

We are to have a new school house. Corn is looking well, but had stand on account of bud worms.

Mr. S. H. Phillips is running his saw mill with a shingle machine attached.

A mail route from Kinston to Trenton is very much needed in this neighborhood as it is from ten to twelve miles to any postoffice.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Beaver Creek Township, held on the 24th inst., the following delegates were appointed to attend the Democratic Convention to be held at Trenton on the first Monday in June: For Chiquapin precinct, Dr. F. A. Whitaker, L. H. Haskins, and J. A. Kinsey. Alternates, A. F. Haskins, J. W. Robertson, and W. A. Jones. For Beaver Creek, W. B. Isler and J. S. Beeton.

L. H. Haskins, Esq., was unanimously recommended for county commissioner.

Pollockville Items.

Miss Lillie Ward has returned to her home, in Onslow. We hope she may enliven our town with her presence again ere long.

The Rev. Mr. Cashwell held a series of meetings at his church in town last week. On Sunday, May 18, he preached an elegant sermon from the following text: "Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other."

The Democratic Executive Committee of Pollockville township have called a convention for their township on Saturday, May 31, to appoint delegates to the county convention, which is to be held at Trenton, June 2nd. It is important that all Democrats should be present.

The town ordinance prohibiting hogs etc. from running at large on the streets seem to give some trouble to a few of our citizens. Query: Why should the many be molested by fleas and other vexations for the benefit of the few hog owners? Our town commissioners should do their duty regardless of persons, and our citizens should abide by the laws that are made for the good of the town, without grumbling and say, one and all, "let the good work go on."

Democrats, Attention.

You will please assemble in your respective Townships on Saturday the 7th day of June and elect your Township Executive Committee-men, and Delegates to the County Convention to be held on Saturday, the 14th day of June, at the court house at 12 m.

At Democrats of the 8th Township will meet at the court house on Saturday the 7th day of June, at 12 m., and elect their Executive Committee-men and Delegates to the County Convention.

Democrats of the city of New Berne will meet in their respective wards on the night of the 7th day of June and elect Delegates to the County Convention.

What makes even a good smoking tobacco bite your tongue? The presence of nitrates. Analysis by Dr. A. Voelcker, F.R.S., Consulting Chemist Royal Agricultural Society, England, shows only a trace of nitrates in Blackwell's Durham Long Cut. The soil of the Golden Belt, North Carolina, in which this tobacco is grown, don't supply nitrates to the leaf. That is the secret of its delicious mildness. Nothing so pure and luxurious for smoking. Don't forget the brand.
