The Craven county idea—nominate by acclamation—is spreading.

Eureka Lodge, I. O. O. F., hold regular meeting to-morrow night.

Our townsman, W. B. Boyd, had cucumbers for dinner yesterday.

The Republican name just now is Blaine. And Logan is the slogan.

The steamer Goldsboro arrived yesterday morning from Baltimore with a cargo of general freights.

Some very fine peaches in market yesterday. They were from Mr. Wm. Dunn's farm, and were selling at John Dunn's store at forty cents per dozen.

Robert W. Chadwick, senior editor of the Beaufort Telephone, died in Wilmington on Friday, aged 58 years. His remains passed down to Beaufort last night.

Lodge's ice wagon will not be put on the streets to-day. His ice depot on Craven street, below Express office, will be open from 6 till 9 a. m.; 12 till 2 p. m., and from 5 till 7 p. m.

The City Council has re-established the fire district. We hope this ordinance will not interfere with the building of the fine brick store on South Front street by Capt. John A. Richardson.

The schooner Zeb Vance is on Howard's ship railway for repairs, while the genuine Zeb is at Washington repairing the wheels of the Democratic party and putting it in order to carry the government for the next four years.

The excursion to Harlowe on the 12th by the steamer Kinston promises to be an enjoyable affair; a pleasant trip to an interesting section, and withal the "disputed territory" and opening of the great thoroughfare to the sea. Everybody should go. 50 miles for 50 cents.

Brick.
Capt. K. R. Jones received a boat load of brick from his brick yard, at the mouth of Otter creek, on Saturday. They are pronounced by good brick masons to be the best in the market. A sample can be seen at Capt. Jones' store.

Laying the Corner Stone.
A. W. Wood, Worshipful Master of St. John's Lodge, No. 3, has received a dispensation from Grand Master Bingham to call the Grand Lodge of A. F. and A. M. together in special session for the purpose of laying the corner stone of the graded school building, which will probably be done while the Wilmington and Goldsboro fire companies are on a visit to this city.

Personal.
Rev. Dr. Burkhead left for Trinity College yesterday morning, where he is to deliver the Theological Address this week.

Dr. J. P. Bryan, of Kinston, was in the city on Friday and Saturday attending a meeting of the finance committee of the A. & N. C. Railroad Company.

Jos. E. Robinson, Esq., the sprightly local of the Goldsboro Messenger is in the city.

A New Bernian at Chapel Hill.
Mr. James Thomas, son of our townsman, ex-Judge Thomas, arrived from Chapel Hill on Friday evening, and we are pleased to learn brought off the Declaimer's gold medal, and the scholarship gold medal of the Sophomore class. Young Thomas was prepared for college by Prof. Geo. W. Neal, now of the New Berne Graded School, which is evidence that the foundation for a thorough education had been well laid.

We notice also, another one of Mr. Neal's former pupils, Wm. Leak, of Rockingham, has won the Declaimer's medal at Bingham's school.

At a meeting of the citizens of the 8th township, held at the court house Saturday June 7th, 1884, for the purpose of electing a township executive committee, W. M. Watson, Esq., was called to the chair and A. W. Wood appointed secretary.

A motion was made and carried that the committee be elected by acclamation and the following were elected:

At: W. Wood, Clem Manly, Thomas Daniels, W. P. Richardson and E. S. Stone.

The following delegates to the county convention from the 8th township, outside the city, were appointed:

J. T. Richardson, Enoch Wadsworth, John French, W. P. Richardson, Sam'l Lewis, R. S. Street and N. Thistle.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

A. W. Wood, Secretary.

Bishop H. P. Northrop.
This eminent divine arrived in this city yesterday afternoon and will preach in St. Paul's Catholic Church this morning. He will also administer the sacrament of confirmation during the services held at 7 o'clock this evening.

The many friends of Bishop Northrop will gladly welcome him among us again, and will be pleased at the opportunity to hear him in his eloquent and logical way expound the truths of the Christian religion.

Can't Say.
In the Charlotte Home Democrat we notice that after copying our notice of an "assault upon an attorney," tried at the late term of our Superior Court before Judge Avery, this suggestion:

"But courts do not always properly protect witnesses from insult. Then what?"

We have never known an instance of failure on the part of the court to do its duty in this respect, and therefore cannot say "Then what," but would surely not advise an assault of any kind as the remedy.

Delegates Elected.
At the primary meetings held last night the following delegates were elected to represent their wards in the county convention to be held next Saturday:

First Ward—A. W. Edwards, S. R. Street, jr., O. H. Guion, H. W. Wahab and John C. Green. Alternates, Dr. G. L. Shackelford, Wm. Ellis, Dr. G. K. Bagby and Dr. J. D. Clark—all dentists but one and prepared to set the teeth of both parties in order for eating crow.

Second Ward—Clem Manly, Esq., W. F. Rountree, R. D. Hancock and Dr. Geo. Slover.

Third Ward—E. H. Meadows, Washington Bryan and A. W. Wood. Alternates, M. DeW. Stevenson, P. Holland, jr., and Thos. Daniels.

Fourth Ward—H. B. Lane, W. S. Phillips and F. M. Simmons. Alternates, Geo. H. Roberts, A. L. Bynum and John B. Lane.

Church Services To-day.

St. Paul's R. C. Church—Services at 11 a. m. High Mass celebrated by the Pastor, Rev. J. J. Reilly. Bishop Northrop will preach. Services at 7.30 p. m., being Vespers at which time the rite of confirmation will be performed by the Bishop. The public are invited.

Christ Church—V. W. Shields, Rector. Trinity Sunday. Services at 11 a. m.—Holy Communion—and at 6 p. m. Sunday School at 5 p. m. The public are always invited to attend the services of this church.

Political.
The Hahn and Stimson factions still live and move and had their being before a magistrate's court yesterday.

A Stimson orator orated at an up-town meeting and was reported to a Hahn man as having said hard things about the Hahn adherent, whereupon the Hahn man went for the Stimson man with no gloves, but a wholesome pair of fists upon which to put gloves—and put a jay bird over or near the eye of the said orator.

This gave rise to an arrest and the officer making it being a deputy of Sheriff Hahn, gave the impression to the arrestee that he was about to be gobbled up as completely as the delegates to the late convention was said to have been, and for some cause had the officer arrested for an assault and tried before the main issue was reached. The officer was convicted and then the belligerents proceeded to another justice and had a hearing resulting in a fine of five dollars and cost on the assailant, and he left in the custody of the officer until the amount was paid, which induced council to remark "still in the hands of the Hahn faction."

Justice Brinson looked into the merits of the first case and Justice Hancock the second. Hon. C. C. Clark appeared for the plaintiff and Geo. H. White for defendant.

How the Nomination was Received.
It is an undisputed fact that the results of the Chicago nominating convention were disappointing to the Republicans of this city. Arthur was their choice and his nomination expected, but in case of a failure in this it was thought a dark horse would be led in and take the prize. But few if any thought that Blaine would be the man, hence the nomination has created no enthusiasm whatever. It was not until the news was flashed along the wires that a motion to make the nomination of Mr.

Blaine by acclamation had been introduced by a Sherman delegate that the Arthur men began to see the hand writing on the wall. They then saw that a break was coming and that it leaned towards Blaine and not towards the President. We might say that so far from having created enthusiasm it had produced a decided dissatisfaction, but the Republicans are always shrewd enough to keep discontent well in the back ground and endeavor to smooth it over by the day of election.

The Chicago convention has done nothing to strengthen the hands of the nominees of the Raleigh convention, sadly as they needed help.

Kinston Items.

Honeysuckle time, rose time, pond-lily time and commencement time were in full blast in Kinston last week. The town was crowded with delighted visitors.

There is in Kinston "a horney-handed" daughter of toil, who insists on wearing breeches or nothing. Our vigilant and energetic mayor prefers the breeches to the alternative.

The fine dwelling house of Elias F. Albritton, on Spington creek, in Kinston township, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday night. The fire caught from the kitchen stove pipe.

William Sutton, sr., a patriot and soldier of the war of 1812, died of bilious fever in Kinston last Thursday night in his 89th year. When the light of the sun fades away at nightfall we behold the fulfillment of nature's laws. When eternity beckons to one whose labors are ended here, and who walks wearily under the burden of years, we see him sink down to his rest with resignation to the decrees as they are written, obedient to the voice which comes from the tomb.

To the dead he sayeth, arise!
To the living, follow me!
And that voice still soundeth on
From the centuries that are gone
To the centuries that shall be.

The Collegiate Department of Kinston College brought out and executed the following programme last Wednesday evening with great applause and eclat: The readings and declamations of all produced a pleasant effect on the large audience and reflected great credit on pupils and teachers. "The Eagle's Rock," by Miss Lucy Askew, was the star piece of the evening. "In the Swineherd of Gadara," we listened to the "silver-tongued" young orator, James H. Pridden, with exquisite pleasure. "The Fourth of July Oration," by Richard F. Churchill, took the comical as well as spread-eagle turn of our American patriotism and was capitally rendered.

Thursday, June 5th, 11 o'clock a. m., Prof. W. L. Potat, of Wake Forest College, delivered the annual address. He pointed out the three great elements in our civilization, literature, science and religion, the best results being produced only when these elements harmonized and worked together for good. It was a finished oration, full of facts and thought and delivered with all the graces of oratory.

Five young ladies, of the graduating class received diplomas, viz.: Miss Eusebius Dunn, Miss Carrie Harding, Miss Hennie Patrick, Miss Mattie H. Rountree and Miss Mattie W. Rountree, the latter taking the valedictory.

The report of the trustees, with the report of the principal of the college, showed a flourishing condition of the Institute. The stockholders of the college and its friends, through Jno. F. Wooten, Esq., presented to the Principal, Dr. R. H. Lewis, a magnificent silver pitcher and cup in token of their estimation of his efforts and services in building up their college.

Thursday night, the annual concert, in which were illustrated the beauties of Kinston College, pealed out its sweet notes of song and music.

The following programme was produced, all the performers acting well their respective parts. The audience seemed to take most to "The Haunted Stream," a vocal solo by Miss Virginia O. Pollock, a native of this town, but now a resident of Warrington, Florida. Her wonderful command of voice and her unstrained power to produce the sweet and beautiful in song and music enabled her to fix herself as the favorite of the occasion.

Pollockville Items.

Pollockville Lodge No. 175, A. F. & A. M., on Wednesday regularly installed the following persons as their respective officers for the ensuing year: Frank Foy, W. M.; J. B. Parker, S. W.; F. O. E. Babcock was drowned the other day off the coast of Florida. He had been a regular army officer, and during the war attained the rank of Brigadier General. After that he was a member of General Grant's military family and when Grant went into the White House, Babcock followed him there. While occupying these personal relations with President Grant he became involved in the whisky ring, and he will live longer in history in connection with the "sybil" dispatches than because of his gallant services during the war. In 1875 the grand jury at St. Louis indicted him as a conspirator to steal money from the public treasury and for complicity with plundering the government as a member of the whisky ring, but he escaped.

Since then Gen. Babcock sank from public notice, and his death alone brings out the fact that despite his being connected with one of the greatest frauds on the government that ever was perpetrated, he was pensioned upon the public, and the people made to contribute to his ease and comfort for the balance of his days. He was "light house inspector down in flowery Florida" with a good salary and nothing to do.—News and Observer.

ICE!

ICE! ICE!

ICE!

The schooner "Lizzie V. Hall" having arrived with a large cargo of ice, the undersigned would call special attention to the price which he has adopted to charge for ice. He proposes to sell tickets in any quantity desired at the uniform rate of

Seventy-Five Cents Per Hundred Lbs.

A purchaser of a five pound ticket will be charged no more than the purchaser of a one thousand pound ticket,

TON CUSTOMERS EXCEPTED.

In settling upon the above mentioned price, he has considered the ice question in a practical sense, by fixing such a rate that the consumer cannot but be satisfied, and that will also afford the dealer a profit on his sales.

He could, with a loss to himself, temporarily sell at lower figures than the above, but for being satisfied that an intelligent public will consider

Only tickets will be taken in payment for ice, which are now on sale at Office.
