The Fish Convention.

The convention advertised by Dr. Bryan assembled in the Opera House last Tuesday. Instead of it being indi-vidually the Doctor's convention, it turned out to be the people's conventon, J. B. Banks, Isaac Brock and Quit-man Hay.

The following bills were audited and Speeches were made by Dr. McDonald, Hon. J. B. Respass, A. C. Latham, Esq., Messrs. Poole, Caho and Simmons. Dr. McDonald opened the discussion on Dr. Bryan's side, and held the representative and senators responsible for the passage of what he called the "infamous bill." The Doctor's speech was strong The Doctor's speech was strong, logical and masterly. The honorable gentlemen rendered up an account of their stewardship by saying that they were influenced by petitions. Hon. J. B. Respass was called upon to give his views on dutch nets. His speech was a very able one, and showed remarkable familiarity with the fish question. The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the Representatives from Beaufort county to the next Legislature be requested to urge the repeal of the present fish law in so far as it discriminates against Beaufort county. either as to the method or manner of
